THE CAPTURE OF PERRY

The Noted Train Robber Again Behind the Bars.

HE TELLS OF HIS WANDERINGS.

The Fugitive Chuckles Over the Fact That He Was in New York City for Nearly Two Days, and Even Conversed with a Policeman.

WEEHAWKEN, N. J., April 17 .- After five days and a few hours of dearly bought liberty Oliver Curtis Perry, the daring train robber, who escaped with four others from the Matteawan Insane asylum last Wednesday night, was captured yesterday, and is now a prisoner in the Hudson county jail awaiting a requisition for his removal to the New York institution.

Perry was captured by Detective Edward Clifford, of the West Shore road, and Po-Heeman Bernard McAleese, of Weehawken. He was standing near a bonfire, with several other tramps, as the officers approached, and started to run, but was soon evertaken. When called by name he denied his identity, declaring that his name was John Martin. Soon after Chief Kelly arrived, however, he admitted that he was the much hunted fugitive.

He was taken before Justice Rier, who committed him to await requisition. A new minutes after he was sent away Keeper James Coyle, of the Matteawan asylum, arrived on a train from Newburgh, where No was on the hunt of Perry. Coyle is the Reeper who captured McGuire and O'Donnell last week.

A short time after he had confessed to Chief Kelly the reporters were admitted to see Perry. The latter was brought out of his cell, and sat on the sill of a heavily barred window while he told his story. He spoke very intelligently, and showed no signs of insanity. After detailing the manner of their escape from the asylum, as already published, Perry told of his wanderings. He said:

"I reached the ground first, and as we had made no agreement as to what direction we would take I started to run. It was then 10 o'clock, and one of the outside guards called me to halt, and of course I did not. Then he sicked the dog on me, but I knew too much for him, as I sicked the dog on another fellow who was running ahead of me. That night I tramped all through the Peekskill mountains alone, and I was guided by the east star.

"I reached New York on Saturday night t. It was about midnig

THE WAR IN CHINA ENDED.

Chinese Grant Sweeping Concessions to the Japanese Conquerors,

LONDON, April 16 .- A dispatch from Shanghai says that Li Hung Chang's sonin-law telegraphs that a peace convention was signed at Shimonoseki yesterday by the plenipotentiaries of China and Japan. Following are the terms of the convention.

First-The independence of Corea. Second-That Japan retains the places she has conquered. Third—That Japan shall also retain the territory east of the Liao river. Fourth-That the Island of Formosa be ceded permanently to Japan. Fifth-The payment of an indemnity of $100,000,000.

Sixth-An offensive and defensive al liance.

Yesterday's conference of the peace commissioners lasted five hours. All the plenipotentiaries attended the meeting except Viscount Mutsu. It is believed that yesterday's conference was the final one. It is stated that the Chinese plenipotentiaries are preparing to return to their homes.

Deputy Comptroller Mansur Dead.

WASHINGTON, April 17 .- Charles H. Mansur, of Missouri, deputy comptroller of the treasury, died yesterday after an illness of several weeks, during which his death has been daily expected. Mr. Mansur was born in Philadelphia sixty years ago, and removed to Missouri in 1866. There he was elected to various public offices, and served as a Democrat in the Fiftleth, Fifty-first and Fifty-second congresses from the Second Missourl district, being succeeded by U. S. Hall. Soon afterward President Cleveland appointed Mr. Mansur deputy comptroller.

Defeat for the A. P. A.

ROCKFORD, Ills., April 17 .- As a result of the hottest political battle ever fought in Rockford Edward W. Brown, a candidate of the business men and liberal element, was yesterday elected mayor over Amasa Hutchins, candidate of the A. P. A., by 55 majority out of 6,000 votes, the largest vote ever polled in the city. The large vote was a surprise to both sides and cut down Brown's expected majority. The A. P. A. was the distinct issue, and money was contributed by lodges all over the state to Hutchins' campaign fund.

Exit Minister Muruaga.

WASHINGTON, April 17.-Senor Muruaga, the Spanish minister, terminated his official connection with this government yesterday. He called at the state department and introduced to Secretary Gresham Senor Sagarlo, the first secretary of the legation, who he said would be in charge of the office pending the arrival of the new minister, Dupuy de Lome, who is now in Cuba, and is expected to arrive here some time during the coming month. It is expected that the retiring minister will soon leave for Madrid.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., April 17 .- Through a peculiar case of poisoning Clyde, a son of William Hampton, living near this place, may lose his leg. The boy some time ago put on a new pair of black stockings. At the time he had a scratch upon one of his legs. Through this the dye in the stocking poisoned the blood, and soon the evil effects were perceptible. Twice the leg has been operated upon, the poisoned flesh being cut away, but no improvement has been noticeable anumber of policemen, and, although this was risky work, you know a fellow has got to make a bluff sometimes. My feet troubled me very much, as they were all cut and bruised. I asked one policeman where Jerry McCauley's mission was, on Water street. The officer directed me, but it was a long way off, and I walked there.

"Oh, what a roast," said he, smiling, "for the New York police. I was there mearly two days, and they did not know it. When I got to the mission house I was given a nickel and a card to the Chambers Street hospital. At the hospital a doctor put some vaseline on my sore feet. When I left the hospital it was 11:30 on Sunday morning.'

Perry then told of his going to Jersey City on Monday morning, and of begging in that city. That night he walked all night, and in the morning was attracted by the tramps' camp fire, where he was captured.

Perry had no prison clothes on when captured. He refused to tell where he received a change of clothing.

Another Desperado Recaptured.

FRIENDSHIP, N. Y., April 17.-Gratton Wilson, one of the desperadoes who robbed and tortured the old Childs couple at Palmer's Mills, Pa., last March, and who, with the Maybee brothers, escaped from the Smithport jail last Saturday evening, was captured here yesterday. The Maybee brothers are supposed to be in the woods, and parties will try to effect their capture.

British Will Not Bombard Greytown.

LONDON, April 17 .- It is stated on good anthority that the question of a protest upon the part of the United States against the bombardment of Greytown and the fanding of British troops in Nicaragua has never been raised between Great Britain and the United States, so far as the British government is aware. In any case, it is wided, the British will not bombard Greytown in the event of Nicaragua refusing to comply with the demands of Great Britain. But steps will be taken to insure the payment of the indemnity demanded by the British government, and the necessary orders have been sent to commanders of British warships. Whether these orders include the landing of troops is not stated.

Manitoba Catholics Threatened.

WINNIPEG, April 17 .- Nothing since the beginning of the Catholic school struggle in this country has created a greater senmation than the announcement of the Catholic archbishop that those Catholics who henceforth lend their aid and influence to those who would abolish Catholie parochial schools will not deserve the name. Many prominent Catholics have, during the struggle of the church, expressed themselves in favor of a national school system, and among these people the above announcement has created the greatest consternation.

Death of Hon, Leverett Saltonstall.

BOSTON, April 17.-The Hon. Everett Saltonstall died at his home in Brookline, aged 80 years. He was a descendant of Sir Richard Saltonstall, who came over from England with Governor Winthrop and founded the colony of Massachusetts. He was for years one of Massachusetts' leading Democrats. In 1885 President Cleveland appointed him collector of the port of Boston.

divulging them, but it is learned on the very highest authority that they disprove the assertions recently that the president was a millionaire. His total income outside of his salary as president does not exceed $20,000 per annum, it is said. His total wealth is said by best authority to be only $250,000.
