

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Seventy-four Members Arrested for Contempt Exonerated.

HARRISBURG, May 18.—Warrants were issued yesterday by Speaker Walton for the arrest of seventy-four members of the house of representatives. They are in contempt of the house for absenting themselves without leave. Their absence prevented the transaction of business yesterday, and forced an adjournment until next Monday evening. Sergeant-at-Arms Shoener went to Philadelphia to arrest the members from that city in contempt. His deputies started for other sections of the state with warrants for absent members.

After the passage on second reading of the bill taxing beer twenty-four cents a barrel Mr. Peltz moved to proceed to consideration of the bill to prevent and punish pool selling, and the yeas and nays were called by Mr. Fow. The vote stood 77 to 18, or eight less than a quorum. Sergeant-at-Arms Shoener was summoned to the bar by Speaker Walton and ordered to remove all strangers from the floor, lock the doors and permit no one to enter or leave the chamber. After the speaker's orders had been fulfilled the roll was again called. This time ninety-five members responded to their names.

Speaker Walton then directed the sergeant-at-arms and his deputies to go out and bring before the bar of the house all members found in the city. The officers soon appeared with Messrs. Patchen of Clearfield, Raymond of Erie, Tillman of Allegheny, Woodring of Northampton and West of Berks. All gave reasonable excuses and were excused. Seventy-four others had left the city without leave, and twenty-six had been excused.

HARRISBURG, May 20.—There is nothing left for the lawmakers to do but work if they expect to get away by June 6. The house calendar is crowded with bills, many of which will be dropped to save time and hasten the final adjournment. The senate continues to move along in that leisurely manner which has characterized its proceedings all through the session. The calendar is clear of senate bills and crowded with house measures on final passage. The latter number about 300, and will have to be disposed of before the representatives will agree to adjourn.

The apportionment bills out of the way, the house will turn its attention to the Smith school bill, which distributes the appropriation by scattering one-third according to the number of teachers actually employed for a full term and the balance on the basis of the number of taxables. Should there be a full house on Wednesday, when the order of business will be senate bills on third reading, the Quay county bill will be called up for final passage. The boomers of the new county have more than enough pledges to assure the passage of the bill. Their only trouble has been to get its friends here at one time.

HARRISBURG, May 21.—There was a larger attendance in the house last night than at any time since the first week of the session. The presence of so many members was the result of the arrest of seventy-four of them for contempt in absenting themselves from last Friday's session without leave. It had been announced that the members under arrest would be arraigned one by one before the bar to be purged of their contempt, and the spectators expected to witness a rare scene. They were disappointed by the adoption of a resolution offered by Mr. Elter, of Philadelphia, exonerating all the guilty ones.

The recalcitrant members were in an ugly mood, and when the rules committee submitted some changes in the order of business there was a fight that lasted an hour. The object of the committee was to lengthen the hours of work, but when it was adopted in amended form it shortens the session about four hours a week.

In the senate the judicial apportionment bill was amended by Mr. Brown, of Westmoreland, so as to authorize the governor to appoint an additional law judge for that county, and by Mr. Meredith, of Armstrong, so as to make a separate district of each of the counties of Butler and Lawrence. Mr. Vaughan, of Lackawanna, also secured an amendment increasing the number of judges from two to three. In this shape the bill passed second reading.

The bill to prohibit foreign building and loan associations from doing business in this state under penalty of a fine of $500 and imprisonment not exceeding two years was passed finally.

HARRISBURG, May 22.—The house defeated on final passage yesterday the congressional, senatorial and legislative apportionment bills by a vote of 78 to 89. As if to even up matters the senate killed the house judicial apportionment bill. The vote against each was so decisive as to preclude all possibility of their reconsideration. The action of the house is a great surprise after the practical unanimity with which it passed the three bills last week on second reading. By the defeat of these measures Allegheny loses a congressman, a senator and four representatives, to which it was entitled under a new apportionment, and Philadelphia loses a congressman.

After the defeat of these bills the house proceeded to the consideration of revenue bills on third reading. The Cochran bill, taxing brewers twenty-four cents a barrel of thirty-one gallons, was amended so as to relieve bottlers from paying a double tax and then laid aside for final passage. The Lawrence bill, taxing the actual value of bank stock four mills passed finally. The Grady bill to punish pool selling and transmitting bets, and the bill increasing the salary of the adjutant general from $2,500 to $4,000, also passed this stage.

Speaker Walton announced the appointment of Representatives Ritter, Fow, Marshall, Curtin and Ames to represent the house on the Cotton States exposition commission.

A resolution was reported from the committee on rules fixing final adjournment on June 6 at 12 o'clock noon. The house postponed action on the resolution.

The bill making a uniform policy of fire insurance was reconsidered and laid aside for future consideration. The bill providing for the conveyance and delivery of powder, oil and other explosives to miners in mines was reconsidered and defeated on final passage.

A communication was received from Governor Hastings at the house evening session conveying his approval of three bills, among one to establish a state live stock sanitary board.

In the senate resolutions were adopted recalling three bills from the governor, one of which directs the state to take possession of bridges dividing counties and to assume control of them.

House bills passed finally: To authorize cities and boroughs to establish a bureau of plumbing and house drainage, which originally only applied to cities of the second class; to provide for wide tires on country roads; to provide against the adulteration of food.
