

THE MONROE DOCTRINE

It May Again Lead Us Into International Complications.

GERMAN VENEZUELAN INTERESTS.

They May be Used as a Subterfuge for Acquiring an Island Off the Coast, and This Would Call for Interference by Uncle Sam.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—There is reason to believe that the United States government will have occasion at no distant day to give another interpretation of the Monroe doctrine as applicable to the acquisition of an island off the coast of Venezuela to be used by Germany for a naval station. The attention of officials recently has been directed to the interests of Germany in that locality, and there is apprehension that the subject may assume quite as formidable an aspect as that of British aggression on Venezuelan soil.

An enormous amount of German capital has been invested in Venezuela of late under peculiar circumstances. The government wanted a railroad through a rich and productive valley, and a German syndicate stood ready to build the road on condition that Venezuela would guarantee 7 per cent. on the capital invested. The guarantee was given and the road completed and put into operation about eight months ago.

It was supposed that about $4,000,000 would amply cover the cost of the road, but the actual outlay reached about $8,000,000. By the terms of the guarantee Venezuela now becomes responsible to the German syndicate for a 7 per cent. return on this $8,000,000. The road has not been in operation long enough to determine what it will earn, but its most sanguine promoters do not hope that it will pay 7 per cent. on the outlay. Whatever it earns will be applied on the investment, and Venezuela then will have to give sufficient to bring the earnings up to 7 per cent.

It is said to be this and similar German interests that are inclining the German government to regard with favor the acquisition of an island off the Venezuelan coast to be used as a naval station, and as a sort of base of operations for Germany on the American continent. The guarantee of Venezuela to the German syndicate is of a private character, the German government having no interest in the matter, but it is looked upon as affording a convenient means by which the government in giving protection to its citizens could also carry out its desires for the acquisition of a naval station.

The circumstances are such as to lead to the belief that the United States will be called upon again to define to what extent the acquisition of territory by foreign powers on South American soil, is compatible with the Monroe doctrine.

Great Britain already possesses an island at the mouth of the Orinoco, on which a powerful naval station has been established. There are two other islands near by, owned by Venezuela, either of which would be well adapted to Germany's needs. There is another large island further up the coast, but it constitutes a province of Venezuela, and its people have such intense loyalty to Venezuela that they have been named "new Spartans." They undoubtedly would resist any separation, even if Venezuela assented to it.

At the moment that this German phase of the Venezuelan question is making its appearance in the British branch of the subject is presenting a more favorable aspect. Official intelligence has recently reached here that Sir Vincent Barrington, representing the most extensive British interests in Venezuela, has most strongly urged upon the British government the importance of an amicable settlement with Venezuela as a means of protecting British investments in that country. Since the withdrawal of the British minister at Venezuela as a result of the boundary trouble Sir Vincent Barrington has stood as the representative of Britain in that country.

Legal Defeat for Labor Unions.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 19.—In the supreme court Justice Sherwood filed an opinion, declaring unconstitutional the law forbidding the discharge by corporations of employes who refuse to sever their connection with labor organizations. This law was enacted two years ago, and provides penalties ranging from a fine of $50 to $1,000 and six months' imprisonment. The court held that this law is in violation of the constitution, and the law would not intervene, while a union man could not be discharged if his discharge was based upon his connection with a union.

Says Women Did the Killing.

DANVILLE, Va., June 19.—Solomon Parable, the negro who brutally murdered Mrs. Pollard, was caught late yesterday afternoon near Five Forks, Va. Marable says he and a woman watched while two women did the killing and robbery. They then divided the money. Six negro women suspected of complicity in the Pollard murder have also been arrested. Two admitted knowing something about the crime, but refused to talk more than to admit that a man was concerned in it. The sheriff is called for a force to prevent the prisoners from being lynched.

Burned in Their Bed.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The children of Herman Eldon were burned yesterday. Five of them, Isaac, 8 years old; Isabella, 11 Jacob, 6 years old, is not expected to recover. The children were asleep and they went out to do some marketing, leaving her 9-year-old son Abraham in the care of the children. In some manner a boy set fire to the bedclothes. He then fled out of the house, and before assistance arrived his two little brothers were fatally burned.

Mowed by a Cyclone.

ARTSFORD, Kan., June 18.—About 5 o'clock last evening a cyclone struck this place, coming from the southwest, and sweeping everything in its path, which cleaned out and about a hundred feet width. Several persons were injured badly that they are not expected to live. But twelve houses were destroyed, as well as many barns and outhouses. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

Russell Sage Defeated.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The fourth trial of the suit of William R. Laddlaw against Russell Sage for $50,000 ended yesterday, and the jury brought in a verdict in the plaintiff's favor for $40,000. The suit was damages alleged to have been caused by Laddlaw on account of Sage's firing him as a shield against Dynamite cross-bomb.

TAYLOR'S SURRENDER.

South Dakota's Defaulting Treasurer Agains in Pierre.

PIERRE, S. D., June 19.—Defaulting W. W. Taylor reached here yesterday. He expected that a special term of the circuit court would be in session and that he would at once be sentenced, but Judge Gaffey's absence prevented. The judge will probably call a special session on Saturday, however, for the purpose. Taylor makes a statement in regard to his flight, in which he says:

"I did not see a detective during the entire time, and none saw me. They claim they did not prosecute a vigorous search, and while I traveled slowly they were most dilatory. They did not trace me at all beyond Jamaica, but, I understand, are still in the Barbadoes following a false clue which I laid for them. I did not go to South America and the reports of detectives about my wanderings after leaving Jamaica are mere moonshine, as well as much of what they told earlier.

"All reports about pleadings of my family and my friends are untrue. No one asked me to surrender. The state had no idea where I was, and could not have caught me in years. In fact, I understand they had practically given up the search; but I knew that my absence was causing my family and friends very great sorrow, and I did not want to give up my name and my home for all time. I therefore decided upon the step I have taken.

"I know I have committed a crime in the eyes of the law, and am ready to take the penalty. My conscience is clear of any taint of wrong, but I could not do fraud bondsmen, who are my friends. I have come here voluntarily, have turned over to the state enough property to wipe out the deficit, and am now ready to take the sentence which my acts have warranted."

A GOVERNOR IN DANGER.

Georgia's Chief Magistrate May Die from an Attack of Appendicitis.

ATLANTA, June 18.—Apprehensions of a fatal outcome of an attack of appendicitis which Governor Atkinson was seized on Sunday, though removed for a time yesterday, were renewed last night, and grave fears are now entertained that death may ensue. The governor rested in comparative comfort in the afternoon, but at night his condition became rapidly worse. A lawyer was summoned and the governor made his will. An operation was performed on the patient.

W. Y. ATKINSON.

The Colima's Captain Responsible.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—An evening paper says: When the government's investigations shall have been held there will be no lack of testimony to show the culpability of the Pacific Mail company in the Colima wreck. Besides the testimony given before the hull and boiler inspectors A. D. McClelland has received a letter from his brother, who has a coast ranch in Mexico, near the scene of the wreck. Ten of the wrecked passengers are being cared for by him, and their story of the wreck corroborates all that has been said against the management of the ship. McClelland writes that from the story told by the survivors at his place the wreck was all due to Captain Taylor.

The President at His Summer Home.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., June 19.—Mr. C. E. Benedict's yacht Onedia, with the president on board, reached here yesterday. Those who accompanied the president were Private Secretary Thurber, Dr. Bryant and Mr. Benedict. A stop was made near Marion Harbor, where Mr. Thurber was put ashore to join his family, who had already arrived here. Then the Onedia proceeded to her favorite anchorage grounds off Monument Neck.
