The New Racket

NO. 9 AND 11, CRIDER Ex., BELLEFONTE, PA.

We make the broad claim that "The New Racket" is the best as well as the largest store in Bellefonte-that there is no room so airy and well lighted in the town; that there is no store that pretends to show the variety of goods; that there is none that employs as large a force of well trained, attentive and obliging clerks; that there is none that sell standard, thoroughly, reliable goods at as uniformily low prices; that there is no store in the place that Bellefonte people are as proud of showing to the "strangers within her gates" as "The New Racket;" that there is none that has as large a number of intelligent, well pleased and constant patrons, that only buy elsewhere when we cannot supply their wants; that the store is in line with the best stores in the county; that it is up to date and plays second fiddle to none. We write our own "ads;" are not a "limited" concern; make our own prices and are abundantly able and know how to take care of our customers.

On the Famous Railroad Bridge at Tyrone-Another Narrow Escape From Death-Discovered in Time.

Monday morning in the grinding dethat department, met with a serious accident while endeavoring to place a belt on a pulley, which was in rapid motion, his foot was in some manner caught by a set screw in the line shaft propelling the machinery and was almost entirely torn off. The injured man was carried into the paint room by the employes, after which an ambulance was hastily constructed and the gentleman was carried to his home. The gentleman's injuries are very severe and upon arrival of Dr. Shoemaker, of Lock Haven, and Dr. Conser, of Salona, was decided by the physicians that amputation was necessary, and the foot was therefore taken off. The gentleman's life was saved by his own presence of mind inasmuch that when finding himself caught he immediately grasped a plank, which was securely fastened above his head. By so doing Mr. Bartholomew prevented himself from being pulled under the shaft and being torn to pieces. His shoe was torn the body. The affair caused general ance on the property destroyed. consternation among the employes, most of whom quit work.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., June 19 .- Joseph Koch left home yesterday morning for Aineville and was found drowned in the evening in the Lehigh river. The body stood upright in the water when found near the wharf of the Allentown Rolling mills. It was a case of suicide. Koch's eyesight had been failing him rapidly, and he became discouraged over the poor prospects of supporting himself. He was well advanced in years and left a family.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., June 17 .- A rather sharp move has been made by Trustee Duss, of the Economy society, whose case a grand success. Many sister lodges is now in the courts. During the session are arranging to picnic with them. A it transpired that Duss had sold the interest of the society in the Little Saw Mill Run railroad to a coal company for $109,-000, and had paid a mortgage against the society amounting to $90,000 with the proceeds. This disposed of some of the most valuable assets for which the defendants are fighting.

HAZLETON, Pa., June 15 .- A stormy meeting of the directors of the State League of Baseball clubs was held here last night. Manager Witman, of the Reading team, was the disturbing ele ment. Efforts were made to disband the league, but outside influence had weight, and it will hold together. The following six clubs will continue to play: Lancas ter, Pottsviile. Reading, Carbondale, Allentown and Hazleton. A new schedule has been prepared.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 18.-Yesterday a heavily loaded coal car broke loose from its fastening at the Franklin mine and dashed down the mountain. When it reached the main track of the Central Railroad of New Jersey it had gained a speed of a mile a minute. A passenger train from Scranton was expected soon. and word was sent shead to clear the course. track. The operator at the Jersey Central office ordered a switching engine to be run out on the main track. The runaway car was met and halted, but the engine was smashed into old fron.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., June 17 .- A distressing accident occurred here when Mrs. Nelson A. Byers, wife of a lumberman, and her 4-year-old grandson were run down and killed by a trelley car. The grandson's name is Nelson B. Allen, and his home is in Buffalo, N. Y. The little fellow was crossing the track in front of a trolley car, when his grandmother ran to save him. She stumbled and fell as she reached him, and both were crushed beneath the car. Since the electric cars began to run here four persons have been WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 17 .- Anthony Gimites, aged 30 years, has been arrested for the murder of Andrew Yocksta. Yocksta kept a boarding house, where Gimites lived, and, it is said, the latter had tried to persuade Mrs. Annie Yocksta, the wife of Andrew, to elope with him. The men worked in adjoining chambers in the Blackman mine, and last Friday Gimites appeared at the foot of a shaft and cried out that Yocksta had been killed by a fall of coal. The body was found and was to have been buried yesterday, but suspicion had been aroused, and an examination revealed three bullet wounds.
