Coburn.

The pop of the firecracker is all over. The mosquito and our merchant are happy.

Coburn will have a new school house. Henry Kling has loaded 40 cars with bark this summer.

The lawn mower is a good thing, push it along, William.

Luther Guiswite's creamery is doing a bustling business. Received an order on Thursday for 2,150 pounds of butter.

Mr. Thomas Brumgard, of Wolfs Store, shipped a car of baled hay to Altoona last week.

John Hoffer and William Harter went to Williamsport on their bicycles; on Wednesday took in the centennial.

Mrs. J. A. Bowersox departed on Wednesday morning for Williamsport, where she is spending several days as the guest of her daughter.

T. B. Everett, of Trout Run, Pa., was seen on our street last week. Come again, Tommy, and stay longer.

Mrs. William Meyer is visiting friends at Williamsport and Lock Haven.

Benton McKee and wife, of Tylersville, spent Sunday with friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. I. Kinney, son and daughter, from Newton, Kans., are visiting at their former home, Rebersburg. They left sixteen years ago and this is the first visit since they left.

Marcus Haines, an old and respected citizen of Haines township, for some 50 years of his life, died Sunday, June 30, and was buried at Woodward July 3rd.

Zion News.

Farmers are about through cutting and housing their grain and hay crop. The hay is a short crop in general, but grain is fairly good; corn is looking very well at the present time.

Rev. Diehl is again filling his regular appointments, after a few weeks vacation.

Rev. Dr. Bowman, of Lancaster, preached for the Reformed congregation last Sunday afternoon. He is an able speaker and has gained many friends at Zion.

Rev. Pines will preach in the Evangelical church next Sunday morning.

The Union Sunday school is progressing very well; the membership is increasing slowly.

Mr. J. Stine, A. Brumgard and J. M. Garbrick have had their houses newly painted, which makes quite an improvement on our little village.

Miss Mazie Biddle, of Cowen, Union county, has again returned to her home after a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives in and about Zion. Miss Biddle gained many friends during her stay at Zion.

Spring Mills.

C. P. Long, our enterprising merchant, took a week's trip through the western part of this state and part of Ohio. He was very much taken with the new town Lew Reigns; he may make that his future home.

M. L. Smith and Judge Leitzel, of Johnstown, were the guests of Smith Bros. last week. They spent one day at the Red Mill dam fishing. Their catch was 120 cat fish and 10 eels. Not so bad for Johnstown sports.

John Heckman has his new house about completed on Water street. John, I think till Fall, you will have a better half to help complete the new home.

Robert Smith has remodeled the old Duncan property which adds greatly to its appearance. Bob can always find something to do.

Howard Rossman, the obliging clerk in C. P. Long's store, is the right man in the right place, the people know it.

Adam Shesley is moving to Woodward. A little girl came to his house—he said he will take her along.

The P. O. S. of A., from Coburn, had a picnic last Saturday evening in Ripka's Grove. It was not largely attended.

The hay in this section is a plentiful crop. Down the country, about Aaronsburg, it is an over crop.

Man Shook says his strawberry patch yielded him about thirty bushel of berries, or the net sum of $66. Farmers, take note of this for 1/4 acre of ground.

Adam Nees said it is a girl. Mrs. Nees is on the sick list; Dr. Geo. Lee is attending her.

Wm. Alison, one of the firm of Alison Bros., is converting the old brick school house into a dwelling house. He knows what to do with old buildings. That will make a fine home.

Squire Grenoble, you will see him at his post, ready to deal out justice to his fellow man.

Peter Leitzel made a trip to Lock Haven to visit friends.

Smith Bros. report the furniture trade good. They are hustlers from way-back, but their furniture is always to the front.

Frail Snyder says horse trading is no good unless he can swap four times a day. Give him a call.

William Blower, from Gorton Height, is home to spend a few days with his family.

Chas. A. Dillet, who has been working for Mowery & Wagner, in Poe Valley, had the misfortune to have his leg broken last Saturday by a rolling log.

Mrs. Sarah Zeigler has been on the sick list for the past week.

C. W. Meyer, of Penn Hall, was in town to show his new wheel; they say it is a dandy.

T. M. Giamley bought the old Peter Wilson property.

Prof. J. Frank Rearick made a trip on his bicycle to Williamsport and took in the centennial on the 4th. He reports a royal good time.

Mrs. J. K. Bitner and Mrs. Philip Meyer were in town to visit their sick mother, Mrs. Eliza Pettefolf, who has been ill for some time.

Mrs. W. B. Krape went to spend a few weeks with her son at Jersey Shore. She will also visit friends at Williamsport and Lock Haven.

Miss Blanch Moyer and Maud From returned from a visit to Snyder county.

The whortleberry crop is an unusually large one in Poe mountain.

The festival at Synagogue church last Saturday evening was largely attended but the conduct of the young men was shameful. Take warning. Have respect, at least, for the ladies, if none for yourselves.

August 11th is set for Childrens Day at the Cross church, in Georges valley.

Boy.

Snow Shoe.

When Commissioners, Goodhart, Adams and Strohm, held the appeal here, the meeting was quite interesting.

There was an impromptu firework display on the school house hill, on Friday evening.

The O. U. A. M. No. 274 of this place, attended the annual convention of this district at Clearfield, on the 4th. They had a beautiful banner for the grand parade.

A number of Burnside township's substantial citizens were in attendance at the appeal on Thursday.

There is talk among the young men of organizing a band. We hope they will be successful.

The O. U. A. M. will move to the Grauer Hall before July 1st.

The P. O. S. of A. is being re-organized again. The members disbanded about six months ago.

Mrs. Samuel Haddock, who was seriously injured in a wreck on the Beech Creek R. R. at the Viaduct two months ago, is not improving. Her injuries are of a serious nature.

The teachers for our schools during next term have not been elected yet. The elections are held generally in July or August.

A number of our young people enjoyed the 4th at Hecla Park.

Mrs. Dr. Miller, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Stewart of Pine Glenn.

Frank Messer, a young man highly respected in our community, is seriously ill at his home. He has many friends who are very attentive and hope for his safe recovery.

Mr. T. B. Buddinger and wife spent the fourth in Williamsport. While there Mr. Buddinger made a bargain in a lot of old Bellefonte centennial badges.

Quite a number of our boys returned home from Potter county, where they had been working.

Miss Lizzie Haddock, formerly of Snow Shoe, now of Philipsburg, is visiting her parents of this place.

Chas. Eidel seems to have some attraction over about Wm. Halls. How about it Doc?

Miss Bessie Reeser returned home Sunday after two week's visit among her friends in Bellefonte.

Mr. Robt. Haddock, formerly of this place, has gone to Mahaffey, where he will engage in the barber business.

M. D. Kelly wore quite a broad smile last Friday—it was a girl.

It is rough, Polly, when the boys take your girl, but cheer up and do not frown so much.

M. J. Kelly, assistant post master, spent Sunday in Karthaus.

Miss Lizzie Batterby is visiting Miss Kate Reeser, of Mahaffey.

Mr. Joseph Thompson, one of our oldest citizens, is lying very ill at this writing.

Mr. M. F. O'Connor, of this place, spent the fourth in Houtzdale.

Mr. C. H. Watson and Miss Annie Healy attended the centennial in Williamsport.

Linden Hall.

Farmers are about all done harvesting. Arthur Kimpfort, Prothonotary's clerk, was home over Sunday.

Mrs. Bush, of Bellefonte, stayed with Mr. and Mrs. D. Hess, over Sunday.

Henry Zeigler, who has been on the sick list, is slowly recovering.

Harry Dunkleberger, of Pleasant Gap, was seen about town on Saturday evening.

Roy Swab, of Eric, Pa., who has been visiting friends in the neighborhood, returned home on Saturday.

The K. L. C. E. convention, which was held in the Evangelical church on Saturday evening, was largely attended. Childrens' Day exercises will be held in the Rock Hill Evangelical church, on Sunday evening, July 14th.

Bucknell University.

The best school is the cheapest. Nearly one million dollars was invested in Bucknell University. John Howard Harris President; College with four courses of study; Academy for boys, Ladies Institute and school of music; For catalogue address W. C. Gretzinger, registrar Lewisburg, Pa. Aug. 1.
