

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT.

Boalsburg.
Mr. Mervin Kuhn and Miss Sadie Stover, both of Boalsburg, will be united in holy bonds of matrimony on Thursday evening, in the Reformed church, in Boalsburg. A general invitation is extended to all who wish to come. Mervin thinks of spending the honeymoon at home and save the dime and the dollar will take care of themselves. Right Mervin; your lead is level.

Rev. Black, of Boalsburg, Rev. Gerhart, of Bellefonte, and Dr. Bowman, of Lancaster, took a day off and repaired by conveyance and foot to the Bear Meadows fishing and reported a good catch of the speckled beauties.

Mrs. Laura Bricker and two sons are at present visiting at Unionville, her former home.

Rev. Mr. Davies, of Centre Hall, will preach a sermon on Sunday evening in the Presbyterian chapel, in Boalsburg. Come and hear him.

The boys in town are about organizing a bicycle club. Quite a number of bicycles in town.

Rev. W. W. Hess shouldered his fishing tackle and repaired along the creek and on returning home reported the catch very small.

Luther Leisher is exercising with the lawn mower. Good exercise, Luther, push it along.

Mr. Gregg, agent for the American Book Company, was visiting our school board a few days ago. A jovial fellow, call again.

T. F. Riley, ex-Associate Judge, had his house repaired and newly painted, which makes quite an improvement on our village.

Linden Hall.
Andrew Gettig is housed up with a sore throat.

Harry Pontius, of Bellefonte, stayed overnight while canvassing through here for fruit trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee returned home after an absence of several days.

Mrs. P. M. Weber, of Huntingdon, Pa., is visiting friends in the neighborhood.

Jacob Lee, student at the R.R. station, has returned to his labors after several week's harvesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Burchfield, of Altoona, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClelland.

George W. Lonebarger is sawing shingles for A.G. Noll on Ross & Meyer's mill.

James Cori, of Pleasant Gap, has been helping his father, Robt. Cori, through haymaking and harvesting.

J. H. Ross, one of our merchants, spent several days on his farm at Centre Hill in making improvements, such as building fences, gates, etc.

A most successful childrens day service was held in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening. The programme was an exceedingly pretty one. The church was filled to its utmost and the decorations were fine. When all was over everybody returned quietly to their homes thinking that it was well to have been there.

Milesburg Items.
Mr. David Rhuc died at his home in Boggs township, Wednesday morning, July 10, between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock. Services were held in the United Brethren church, at Wallace Run, and interment was made at the Advent cemetery, at Marsh Creek, Friday, July 12. Age, 74 years.

Mr. Simon P. Neyhart, our mail carrier, is kept busy right along between mail hours at his former trade in the tailoring business. We can heartily recommend him as one of the best.

The farmers of this section are about through with harvesting and from all reports there appears to be an average crop all around.

The fight between the Hastings men and anti-Hastings men appears to be growing warmer here every day, and I firmly believe that Quay will have the best end of the string.

The M. E. church, of this place, held a festival last Friday and Saturday nights. It was a grand success.

The Presbyterian church, of this place, will hold a festival next Friday and Saturday evenings, 19 and 20. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

The borough dads are still crowding the street improvements in the city, and we expect, in the near future, to have electric light and all the modern improvements.

Our jovial friend, Jas. A. Green, has returned home from a business trip and we are glad to see his smiling face on our streets once more.

Spring Mills Items.
Mrs. Frank Rearick is taking a two week's trip to Sunbury and other eastern towns.

Mrs. William Kessler, is in Bellewood looking up friends and relatives. William, it is not a safe plan to reach for a man's neck. It often creates disturbances. Down went McGinty!

Landlord Ruhl says business has been picking up the last few days.

Miss Ida Condo, one of our smiling young ladies, spent a few days at State College, where she was the guest of Jonas Condo.

C. P. Long has his hands full now looking after his store and his brick yard. He employs six men. If we had more such men the idle would all get employment. They who have the money, know how to keep it.

James Condo, from Penn Hall, went to Bellefonte on a business trip and spent the night with his brother, Sheriff Condo.

Mr. Musser, our obliging ticket agent, took a drive. He was headed for Millheim and Aaronsburg.

J. O. McCormick is our champion trout fisher in this section. He was out almost every day; his catch was from 20 to 40. Can any one beat this?

Rev. Illingworth can now step in with the anglers, but the season is over. Adam Heckman says he feels like a man since the little girl arrived.

Billy says it wasn't Corbett, nor was it Sullivan; but was knocked out on the first round.

Wm. Auman, of Johnstown, is here to visit his grand-father and friends. He says every thing is humming under the Wilson tariff.

John, the next time you go for a good dinner, get up in the morning or you will miss it again. Boy.

Nittany Valley Notes.
Harvest has been gathered and the crop is very good.

Wm. Reynolds says its a boy this time. Dr. McCormick's are again blessed with a girl baby.

A SAD DEATH.—Mrs. Harry Stover, daughter of Mr. Daniel Dorman, died June 29 from difficulties connected with confinement. Interment at Hubbersburg July 1st. Revs. Smith, of Hubbersburg, and Hoshour, of Bellefonte, conducted the services. The sermon preached by Mr. Hoshour was highly appreciated by the relatives and many friends of the deceased. Mary was a member of the Lutheran church, at Snyderstown. A loving daughter and a devoted wife. Age, near 20 years.

The Odd Fellows are highly honored in getting Hon. John A. Bright, of Topeka, Kansas, to lecture at their picnic, at Hecla Park, next Saturday, July 20. Rev. Bright is a polished speaker and always does everything in the right way and at the right time. He is now in the valley visiting his many friends where he used to preach. Don't fail to hear him talk next Saturday on the subject assigned him, "Odd Fellowship, What is it, Why I Belong to it and Why don't you." The lodge has made all arrangements to serve meals on the ground. Look at the schedule for that day in the locals.

Beware of Political "Last Cards."
The following act, which was approved on the 26th of June last, interests politicians and aspirants for office.

"That whoever writes, prints, posts or distributes, or causes to be written, printed, posted or distributed, a circular or poster cartoon or other written or printed paper, which is designed or tends to injure or defeat any candidate for nomination or election to public office by reflecting upon his personal character or political actions, unless the same shall be published in a newspaper avowedly responsible therefore, or unless there appears upon such circular, poster or paper, in a conspicuous place, either the names of the Chairman and Secretary, or at least the names of two officers of the political or other organization issuing the same, or the name of some duly registered elector, with description of his election district, as responsible therefore, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment in jail not to exceed six months, or both, and if the statements are untrue, the person so offending shall also be deemed guilty of libel, and may be prosecuted in the civil or criminal courts."

Fishing for Snipes.
This is the way they fish for snipes at Bellewood. A young man who is in the habit of street corner blowing is selected to stand in the middle of the river and hold an open bag while several of his buddies go up the stream and chase the birds into the bag. The fellows on the shore move along slowly keeping up a racket so as to scare the snipes down stream and into the bag where a torch is burning. As the chasers move away the sound of their voices grows fainter till it finally is not heard at all, then they pull for home leaving the bag holder standing in the water.

Bicycles will be Cheaper.
An exchange says the time is not far distant when the bicycle that now costs $100 can be bought for $50 or $60. A report has been in circulation for some time to the effect that a syndicate is being formed for the purpose of putting on the market on or before April 1, 1896, 400,000 bicycles, which are to be made at $18 each and sold as low as $30. This bicycle is to be as good, for all ordinary purposes, as the $100 wheel of to-day, and it is supposed it will lead in the cutting of prices.

Don't Take Him Up.
If a fellow comes around and wants to bet you $5 that if you can tell him the last four figures of the number of a bank note he will tell you the letter of the note, don't take him up. You offer to bet him the same way and if you succeed in getting him to bet divide the figures of the note by 5. If they don't divide even and one remains the letter is A; if two remains the letter is C, and if they divide even the letter is D. If you know how to divide you will win.
