

A BATTLE IN ALABAMA.

Separate Conflict Between White and Negro Miners.

SEVERAL KILLED IN THE FIGHT.

Of the Dead One Is a Deputy Sheriff, While Another Deputy Was Mortally Wounded. The White Miners Were Aiding Officers to Arrest a Negro Murderer.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 31.—The mining town of Brookside, fifteen miles west of here, is in a state of panic over a race riot which occurred yesterday, resulting in the death of a deputy sheriff and a number of negroes, and the fatal wounding of another deputy. The fight, which lasted for over two hours, was between an organized band of white miners, headed by Deputy Sheriff A. T. Wood and Joel Baxter, who were trying to arrest Jim Biggers, a negro, and a crowd of late-termer friends. Over 150 shots were fired. Mine Boss Silverhouse, of the Sloss Iron and Steel company, discharged Biggers for a violation of the mine rules. Biggers remained about the place making threats. He refused to leave the company's premises, and a warrant was sworn out for his arrest for trespassing, and Deputy Sheriff Wood and Special Deputy Joel Baxter went to arrest him. As they approached Biggers fired upon them with a Winchester rifle. A bullet passed through Wood's head and another through his heart, killing him instantly. Baxter was mortally wounded, but was able to get back to the camp and give the alarm.

The whole force of miners at once organized and went to arrest Biggers. The latter, in the meantime, had called in a number of his negro friends, and when the two parties met a pitched battle resulted, the negroes finally fleeing to the woods. It is now said that a half a dozen or more were shot down, several of whom were killed outright and the others badly wounded.

Deputy Woods, who was killed, was ex-sheriff of Talladega county. It is believed that the arrival of the force of officers from this city will restore quiet, and that no further demonstration will be made by the negroes.

Trouble between the white and black miners employed at the Sloss company's mines at Brookside has been brewing for some time. There has always been ill feeling between the two races, and it needed but the first shot to bring on a fight.

The town of Brookside is in a state of great excitement, every man in town being armed.

THE NEW BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

Conservatives and Liberal Unionists Have a Majority of 152.

LONDON, July 31.—With the exception of the polling in Orkney and Shetland, which was formerly represented by Sir L. Lyell, a Liberal, and the result of which will not be known until the end of the week, the new parliament is now complete. The division of parties is as follows: Conservatives, 341; Liberal Unionists, 70; government total, 411. Liberals, 174; McCarthyites, 70; Parnellites, 13; Labor, 3; total opposition, 357. Government majority, 152. Conservative majority over all, 152.

Thus, the Conservatives and Liberal Unionists, with a net gain of 90 seats, will have a majority of 152, the largest in the memory of the present generation. The Conservatives are made independent even of a coalition of all the other parties, including the Liberal Unionists.

The aggregate vote in the contested elections in Great Britain was as follows: Conservatives and Liberal Unionists, 1,735,435; Liberal, 1,028,247; Labor, 50,599; total, 3,044,989. But as 114 of the Unionist candidates for parliament were returned unopposed, no reliable estimate can be formed of the electoral strength of the parties.

The Liberal and Radical press are daily engaged in trying to explain the defeat, but to little purpose. The broad fact of the situation is that the Conservatives are not likely to be displaced for five or six years, unless dissensions should arise in the cabinet between the sections led respectively by Mr. Balfour, Conservative, and Mr. Chamberlain, Liberal Unionist.

Striking Tailors Winning.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The contractors are coming forward in such numbers to accede to the demands of the striking tailors that it appears probable that the strike will soon be ended. More than sixty contractors have signed the new agreement, which displaces the piece work system and in its place creates a weekly scale of wages. These are the leading contractors of the city, and they employ from fifteen to fifty workmen each. As a result 2,000 tailors resumed work at their benches this morning. The settlement committee will continue to hold daily sessions until all the contractors are accommodated who desire to be.

His Third Matrimonial Venture.

LONDON, July 31.—The Duke of Argyll was married to Miss Ina McNeill, formerly a lady of the bed chamber to the queen and a cousin of Sir John McNeill, who married the Duke of Argyll's sister. The ceremony took place at the Palace of Hipon, and was performed by the bishop of Hipon, who is a cousin of the bride. The wedding was quiet, owing to the recent death of Lord Colin-Campbell, fifth son of the Duke of Argyll. This is the duke's third matrimonial venture. He is 72 years old.

To Succeed Minister Dunn.

MILWAUKEE, July 31.—It is reported here that Edward C. Wall, ex-chairman of the Democratic central committee of Wisconsin, will be appointed minister to Japan to succeed Minister Dunn. It is said that both Senators Vilas and Mitchell are willing to endorse him, and that his friends are working in his behalf.

Mora Indemnity Ratified.

MADRID, July 31.—The cabinet council has accepted the amount which America demands as payment for the Mora indemnity. The chamber voted confidence in the cabinet almost unanimously.

Morocco Pays Indemnity.

TANGIER, July 31.—The German consul at this port has been paid the sum of $70,000 as indemnity upon the part of Morocco for the murder of a German trader named Hockstoth.

Japan Demands Additional Indemnity.

SHANGHAI, July 31.—Japan demands $7,500,000 sterling additional indemnity as compensation for the retrocession to China of the Liao Tung peninsula.

ITEMS OF STATE NEWS.

PITTSBURG, July 30.—Operator T. D. Steln, who was accused of defrauding his miners by using false weights, was given a preliminary hearing yesterday and held for court.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—The wage committee of the flint glass workers met with the manufacturers yesterday and settled the scale for the plate mold bottles. It is the same as last year except for a few changes in classification.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., July 29.—Burton F. Wood, agent for the Singer Sewing Machine company, was arrested here at a late hour Saturday night and locked up on the charge of embezzling $1,300 from the company. He has a family here.

HAZLETON, Pa., July 30.—The Lehigh Valley Coal company contracted with Crawford & Dugan for the excavation of 300,000 cubic yards of earth over the coal vein at No. 3 colliery. Four hundred men will be employed for two years.

HARRISBURG, July 29.—John B. Brown, aged 18, accidentally shot and killed William Beverly, colored, aged 13, while playing with a revolver. Brown was locked up, but a coroner's jury pronounced the shooting accidental and he was released.

READING, Pa., July 31.—The Reading Iron company yesterday increased the wages of its puddlers to $3 a ton, an advance of twenty-five cents. This is the highest amount paid heretofore. The 275 employees of the company's rolling mill also received a 10 per cent. advance.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 30.—John Eisenberger, a puddler at the Penn rolling mill, was horribly burned yesterday by a flash of fire from a puddle furnace, caused by wet turnings being thrown into the furnace. He was burned on the face, arms, and body, his condition being serious.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—President James L. Miles, of select council, was yesterday appointed real estate deputy in the sheriff's office by Sheriff Clement, the appointment to take effect on Aug. 1. Mr. Miles succeeds Frank Willing Leach, who resigned the position, which is worth $6,000 a year, to look after Senator Quay's campaign.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—Bishop Phelan has been appealed to by several priests in this diocese to stop the manufacture of beer at the St. Vincent monastery, Latrobe. The monastery derives a large revenue from the brewery. Some years ago the brewery was closed on a similar action, but a short time ago it was allowed to reopen by special dispensation.

READING, Pa., July 29.—Charles Williams, aged 36, and Philip Wedner, 36, had a street fight here yesterday during which Williams cut Wedner in the abdomen so badly that his intestines protruded. He will probably die. Williams claims the cutting was done in self defense, but this is denied by eye witnesses. The fight was the result of an old grudge.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—Peter Frederick Rothermel, the well-known painter of "The Battle of Gettysburg," now in the state library in Harrisburg, died yesterday, aged 78 years. Mr. Rothermel's fame was not confined to his native country, but extended throughout Europe, he having received commissions from various members of the royal families.

NEWPORT, Pa., July 25.—John Matthews, a one armed veteran, last night shot and severely wounded Elias Campbell. Several shots were fired, but only one took effect. Last week Campbell caused Matthews' arrest for wife beating, and the shooting was in revenge for the prosecution. Matthews was arrested and sent to New Bloomfield jail to await the result of Campbell's injuries.

PITTSBURG, July 30.—A most important conference of the leading officials of the United Mine Workers began yesterday for the purpose of considering the proposed strike for an advance. The miners are prepared to settle the question of wages amicably, and say if a strike is declared it will affect the four great mining states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. The leaders here hope for a settlement.

PITTSBURG, July 30.—Rev. E. R. Donohoo, pastor of the Eighth Presbyterian church of this city, and who has been identified with Chinese mission work for years, in an interview says that he believes the efforts to convert Chinese from Paganism is futile. He says that although the Chinamen go to Sunday school and seem to take an interest in the Christian religion, and even profess Christianity, yet they cling to their heathen ideas and ceremonies.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., July 27.—A vigilante search is being made for Frank Gibbs, who is wanted for participating in a brutal crime at Hockessin early this week. The victim of the crime is Ella Staunton, a 15-year-old white girl, who belongs to a highly respected family of Hockessin. The girl was inveigled into a lonely place by Bessie Tillman, a colored woman, when two colored men rushed out and assaulted her. They were assisted by the woman. The woman and George Whitman are now in jail.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—It has been generally supposed that Richard Vaux, ex-congressman, ex-mayor and distinguished jurist, who died last March, left no will, but such a document has been found. After making a number of minor bequests it leaves the residue of the estate, which is valued at about $50,000, to the widow, Mary Wain Vaux, for life, and at her death to be divided among the children. The document concludes with these words: "I direct that no inventory be made of my estate. It is nobody's business but those who are interested in it."

SHAMOKIN, Pa., July 29.—Being unable to longer keep the wolf from his door, Peter W. Miller, an aged and disabled veteran of the late rebellion, made the journey to Washington on foot, and after having shown Pension Commissioner Loehren the scars from wounds received in battle succeeded in having his paltry pension of $6 per month restored. The tramp was a hard one for the poor old soldier, but officials of the pension bureau, realizing that he had been done a great injustice, fed him while at the nation's capital and furnished him with transportation back to Shamokin.

HARRISBURG, July 25.—The new superior court met in this city for the first time yesterday and perfected its organization. Benjamin H. Bentley, of Williamsport, will serve as prothonotary for the Second district, and Samuel H. Stephens, of Scranton, will fill that position in the Third district. In Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Harrisburg the prothonotaries of the supreme court are, ex-officio, prothonotaries of the superior court. No motions were presented for the consideration of the new court, which adjourned without date. Under the rules it will meet in Philadelphia in November and December, Scranton in January, Pittsburg in April and May, Williamsport in February and Harrisburg in March.

Death of Charles Smith, Sr.

Another very sudden death was that of Mr. Charles Smith, Sr., of this place, which occurred on Saturday night about eleven o'clock. Mr. Smith had been down town in the evening and was suddenly taken ill. He was able to go home where he arrived about 8.30 o'clock. A physician was at once summoned but all his efforts were of no avail and the aged gentleman breathed his last at the time above stated. His death was the result of a very acute attack of asthma.

deceased was aged about 82 years and made his home with his son, Charles Smith on Bishop street. The funeral took place Tuesday at 10.30 o'clock in the forenoon.

Left Altoona.

Ex-deputy Sheriff Geo. Crawford, who was engaged in the billiard and pool business, at Altoona during the past two years, left there recently. His enterprise at that place did not prove profitable.

Dorman, and two minors, Mary Winkelman and Benjamin Winkelman, all of Nittany, Pa.; Ward E. Wise and Rhoda M. Wise, minors, Laurels, Pa.

Take notice that in pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Centre county a writ of partition has been issued from said court to the sheriff of said county, returnable on Monday, the 29th day of August, 1906, and that an inquest will be held for the purpose of making inquisition of the real estate of said deceased on Friday, the 23rd day of August, at 9.30 a. m., at the late residence of the deceased, at which time and place you can be present if you see proper.

Parpart No. 1. Bounded on the north by lands of Jacob Nidlich; on the east by lands of Samuel Motz; on the south by lands of Isaac M. Orndorf and Henry Rinehart, and on the west by lands of Michael S. Feitel and Michael F. Hess, containing sixty-two (62) acres, more or less.

Parpart No. 2. Being a tract of timber land situated on Long Creek Hollow, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Bounded on the north by lands of Elizabeth Winkelman et al.; on the east by lands of Samuel M. Motz; on the south by lands of Henry Snyder, and on the west by lands of Thomas W. Hosterman et al., containing 62 acres, more or less. Whereof partition yet remains to be made to and among the heirs of said deceased.

JNO. P. CONDO, Sheriff. Bellefonte, July 31. 8-13t

BUILDERS' SUPPLIES.

STONE for building purposes, furnished at our quarries on selected sites at Bellefonte and vicinity, as well as loaded on the cars of the Bellefonte Central and Pennsylvania Railroads, as customers may require.

FLAG STONES, manufactured from the very best quality of Blue Stone, suitable for the most durable building stones for the purpose of the various sizes and thickness, ranging from one inch to six inches in thickness or more, to meet the wants of customers for street crossings, pavements and other uses. We also carry a limited stock on hand at our Yard Warehouses.

SAND of the very best quality for building purposes. We make a specialty of Mt. Eagle sand for building purposes, on the principle that the best is the cheapest. We also furnish Mine Bank Sand, washed, for building purposes.

LIME for building purposes, of our own make.

CALCINED PLASTER and hair for plasterers' use.

PATENT WALL PLASTERS. We are agents for the best quality of Patent Wall Plaster, which has proven by actual experience to be the best wall plaster now offered for sale in this community. After mixing it with water, it is ready for use.

ALUMINITE CEMENT PLASTER. This is a natural product which comes from the far west, and has the advantage of requiring two parts of sand to one of cement; it is easily mixed and makes an excellent wall plaster for less money than the average patent wall plasters cost. The advantages of the use of these plasters is that they can be put on the wall immediately after mixing—the old mortar of lime and sand, after mixing, requires from four to six weeks in the mortar bed "to season" before using; if put on sooner, it does not make a good job; hence the advantage of the patent wall plasters for immediate use.

HYDRAULIC CEMENTS. We sell the Cumberland and Potomac, one of the very best standard cements produced in this country; also the Hoffman Brand of the Rosendale Cements, which has the highest reputation for good quality. We also keep a small stock of English Portland Cement for special use, which comes to us highly recommended as of the best quality. With these facts in our favor, we invite the patronage of those in the least with the full confidence that we furnish the best articles for the least money. A share of public patronage is solicited.

McCallmont & Co., BELLEFONTE, PA.

Gone to Patton.

Major Wolf, of Phillipsburg, has leased the Palmer house at Patton and left to take charge of it. The Mayor was the republican candidate for sheriff of Centre county several years ago. Hope he will be more successful in this departure than in the political field.
