Snake Story.

Snake stories are now going the rounds. Here's another one: Several days ago on the farm of R. C. Quiggle and son, near Pine station, a rattlesnake and a groundhog were found, the reptile having his fangs in the animal's side. The two had evidently had a combat with the result that the snake had overpowered the hog. The snake was killed by Jacob Smith, the farm hand, and a son of Mr. Quiggle. The groundhog was laid to one side, where it soon died. The snake was about four feet long and the Lock Haven Democrat.

Most of them were sent to the eastern part of the state. The gatherers got five cents per quart and made good wages while they worked. Men, women and children were busy every day during the berry season.

Big Show Coming.

Scribner & Smith's New United Enormous Shows will be at Bellefonte, Saturday, Aug. 10, bigger, greater and grander than ever before, fully twice its former size. They will have 300 men and women, 100 thoroughbred horses, 3 bands of music, 3 golden tableaux cars, 15 gilded cages, 3 open dens of wild beasts, 8 big tents: It is without doubt the best 25c, circus that you have had an opportunity to visit. One of the principal features of this big show is Bazal, the giant elephant, the largest of the beast creation.
