REBERSBURG NEWS.

Very Heavy blasting—An interesting service—Reaping Peas and Oats.

THE OATS CROP: The farmers in this section are busily engaged in harvesting the oats crop, which is a heavy one.

The parched earth was again refreshed on Tuesday evening by a heavy rain.

BLASTING STUMPS: J. K. Moyer is still blasting stumps about one and one-half miles south west of town. The blasting is so heavy that it throws pieces of stumps weighing 40 and 50 pounds, one hundred and fifty yards.

RHEUMATISM: Jas. P. Frank is again unable to do any work, owing to rheumatism that overtook him while cradling oats; he is nevertheless able to be about, aided by a democratic cane.

AN EXPERIMENT: Cornelius Stover has housed his crop of peas; he expects fifteen or twenty bushels. These peas were sown among oats. Everybody is anxious to see how they thrive; if profitable, others may follow next year.

Chas. Diehl, who is working in the blacksmith shop for Jacob Heller, proves a very fine fellow and a good workman.

Miss Sadie Ehrhard is home from Lock Haven visiting parents and friends. She is looking well and as though dress making agreed with her.

Mrs. Krumrine, Mrs. C. L. Granley and daughter and Miss Ada Weber returned from Williamsport on Thursday, reporting a very pleasant time.

Among the visitors this week were Wither Wolf and family of Centre Hall; Mr. Mumma and wife and Miss Laura Hafer, of Bellefonte.

C. E. Long has equipped himself with a very fine Tallyho, for the purpose of running back to picnics and festivals.

INTERESTING SERVICE: The Lutherans of this town had a very pleasant and interesting service on Sunday evening, especially the piece rendered by the four little girls, the Misses Page, Brindle, Springer and Zeigler. Rev. Mumma addressed a very interesting talk on the progress of the young folks in church work; he also stated that he was pleased to find such a thriving and intelligent people in Brushvalley.

MADISONBURG ITEMS.

Coming Reformed Picnic—Roush & Limbert's Store Sold—The New band.

Appearances go to show that we will soon have a wedding.

TOO MANY FESTIVALS:—The festival on Saturday evening was not very largely attended. The receipts were only about $4. There are too many festivals.

REFORMED PICNIC:—Next Saturday the Reformed Sunday school will hold their picnic and festival. There will be a free dinner, and that in itself ought to attract a large crowd. There will be several addresses in the forenoon, and a sack race and other amusements in the afternoon.

STORE SOLD:—It is rumored that Roush & Limbert sold their store to a Mr. Smith, of Centre Hall. The inventory will be taken, and Mr. Smith will take possession on the first of September.

GOING TO THE SEASHORE: On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. John Roush, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Royer, of Rebersburg, will take advantage of the popular excursion offered by the P. R. R., for a week's sojourn in Atlantic City and other eastern places. We hope the sea breezes will do them good.

INDIFFERENT MEMBERS: About 18 months ago our young men organized a brass band. They spent considerable time and money, and can play fairly well. On Saturday evening when the leader called them only about three fourths responded, some of the best players staying away. It was very embarrassing to those that did play, and made a very bad impression before the public. One more such spectacle and they will have outlived their usefulness. Those who join a band ought to obey the leader.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Building and Loan Association Organized—The Musicians' Picnic Next.

MUSICIANS' PICNIC:—Last on the programme of important events is the musicians' picnic, held in Ard's grove, at this place, on August 14, under the management of Prof. J. A. Weaver. Extensive preparations were made for this event. Among the features was a parade of bands, Sunday Schools and secret societies. There was an abundance of good vocal music and a glass ball shooting match in the afternoon.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION:—Mr. Young, of Greensburg, has been circulating among our business men for some time past for the purpose of getting stockholders in a building and loan association, with headquarters in St. Louis. We understand he has been quite successful and has located a branch office here.

TYPHOID FEVER:—Miss Leah Dunlap was brought home sick and is now seriously ill with that dread disease, typhoid fever. She is under the efficient care of Dr. G. H. Woods and our hopes are that she may have a speedy recovery.

"Is it hot enough for you?" is about the only salutation one receives these days.

Farmers are busy getting their oats crop away and preparing the ground for the fall crops.

A shower on Sunday afternoon cooled the heated atmosphere considerably.

Mr. John Portney, the jovial plasterer from Boalsburg, showed his smiling countenance on our streets on Sunday.

Samuel Moore, of State College, was a visitor at his mother-in-law, Mrs. Danley, one day last week.

Mrs. O'Neil, of York county, is at present a guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Aikens.

ROSOLA RUMBLINGS.

Death of a Child—Picnic in Bechtel's Grove, Saturday, 17.

Mr. Jere Chapman is doing good work with his steamed thrasher.

Mr. John Mayes, the granite and marble dealer of Howard, made us a flying call last Friday, looking after the interest of his business. Mr. Mayes does extra work, and you won't miss it by giving him a call.

A SAD DEATH:—Estella Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace of Cameron, died Aug. 3, 1895, aged 6 yrs, 1 mo. and 9 days. Mrs. Wallace is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bowes, of this place. Estella was a child of kind disposition and much loved by all. Deceased was brought to this place for burial, Rev. M. S. Blair officiating. The family has the sympathy of the community.

HAPPILY MARRIED:—Mr. Wm. Heverly and Miss Mary B. Daley were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, in Howard, by Rev. Forest, of the M. E. church. We wish them much happiness in their newly married life.

Mr. John McCloskey is at home once more. Mr. McCloskey has been working at Slate Run, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker and family, Clair Peightol, of Philipsburg, are visiting at the home of Miss Emma Robb.

Hon. Jno. N. Daley, has gone to Phila. on a business trip.

Misses Laura Winslow and Mabel Williams, of Blanchard, are visiting at the home of Wm. Welch.

Mr. H. S. DeLong has returned to Renovo to work in the P. R. R. shops.

The festival last Saturday evening, held by the Reformed S. S. was well attended. They realized a clear gain of about $35.

S. S. PICNIC:—The Christian S. S. will hold their annual picnic in Bechtel's Grove, Saturday, Aug. 17. The Howard band will furnish music for the occasion. You will miss a good time by not coming.

ZION NEWS.

Jacob Struble, a Successful Electrician, home on a visit.

Farmers are busy harvesting their oats, which is a good crop in this section.

The Lutheran congregation will hold a festival on Saturday evening of this week. A good time is anticipated.

Daniel Grove is at present excavating for a cellar, and in the near future will erect a new dwelling that will be a credit to the community.

Miss Amelia Stine, who has for some weeks past been visiting her uncle, J. J. Stine, has again returned to her home at North Bend.

A SUCCESSFUL YOUNG MAN: Jacob B. Struble, son of Isaiah Struble, has been home on a vacation of two weeks. Mr. Struble has been located at Boston for over two years, putting in an electric signal and switch plant, it being the largest of its kind in the world. He has been very successful at this business. He now intends going west, but has not decided to what part.

Mrs. Alfred Robb, of Nittany, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cole.

Robert and Beech Schreffler, of Mill Hall, are visiting friends in an about Zion.

Mrs. David Wagner, of Houserville, Mrs. James Taylor of Millinburg, and Mrs. H. R. Pieder of Madisonburg, were visiting their sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wise, over last Saturday and Sunday.

Some young folks from this place, attended the camping held at Clintondale park over last Sunday, and had the pleasure of coming home in the rain on Sunday evening.

Wm. Showers and Harry Johnson, who have for several months past been working at Olean, N. Y., have again returned home.

DOINGS AT BOALSBURG.

Mr. Vanner Slowly Improving—The Festival A Success.

Rev. Black and family, have returned home from a few weeks visit to different parts of the state.

J. N. Dinges and C. D. Moore returned home from their trip to Cape May. They report a very good time, but suffered some with the heat while in the city.

VANNER IMPROVING:—Mr. Henry Vanner, who took poison more than two weeks ago, is slightly better, he has not eat or drank anything for two weeks, Dr. Reddin of this place, and Dr. Dale of Lemont, are doing all they can to restore him to health again.

Miss Lydia Cottle, of Brookville, Jefferson Co., is visiting at the home of her cousin, R. B. Harrison.

Miss Mary Gilbert, of Milton, is visiting at the home of her friend, Mrs. J. N. Dinges.

Rev. W. W. Hess and family, left for his new field of work at Baring Springs, Michigan, we hope he will be successful in his work.

A COMING EVENT:—The I. O. O. F. festival, announced in last weeks paper, is going to be a grand affair. They are putting forth every effort to give those attending a rare treat. Every one is invited to attend and we will insure them a good time.

The harvest home services of the Lutheran church, will be held next Sunday a week, in the morning.

UNION PICNIC:—This is the season for picnics. Why don't the three booming Sunday schools of this town, join together and have a picnic. It is just together that the children should always stay at home; take them away and let them have a good time.

T. O. C.

EVENTS AT GATESBURG.

A Large School Picnic—Prosperous Industry—Death of Daniel Bates.

HARVESTING:—The farmers are about through harvesting their oats in this section. It was a very hard job, as the late storms had tangled it very much.

Rev. C. T. Aikens, of Pine Grove Mills, preached the harvest home sermon in the Gatesburg Lutheran church on Sunday Aug. 11th, and gave a very fine discourse.

LARGE PICNIC:—The picnic held in the grove at this place was a success both socially and financially, and was enjoyed by all who attended it. The music was very fine, both vocal and instrumental. The Penna. Furnace band was there and gave some of their finest for the occasion. There were two addresses, one by Rev. C. T. Aikens of Pine Grove Mills, and the other by Prof. I. C. M.

Ehlenberger of Tyrone, instructor in the High school of that place. He gave a very able address touching different topics which pleased all.

Mr. Rudolph Kreider, of this place, is away the past few weeks visiting friends in different parts of the state.

Miss Lizzie Hastings, of this place, is visiting relatives at Rock Springs and Baileyville. She is much missed by some of the masculine gender.

LARGE INDUSTRY:—Dr. David Kustobander, V. S., of Penna. Furnace, manufacturer of Star Ointment, is doing a very large business in his line of trade. He has erected a large new building for the purpose, as the old one was becoming too small for his trade. He is re-fitting it with all the modern improvements and the best of machinery. We wish him success in the future, as he is very obliging to all who call on him.

DEATH OF DANIEL BATES:—Mr. Daniel Bates of near this place, who was ill for the past few weeks, passed away quietly on the 11th inst. The interment took place on the 13th, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the Gatesburg cemetery. Services were held at the same place in the Lutheran church by Rev. C. T. Aikens pastor. His sickness is thought to be old age, do not fully know his age but he is in the nineties.

A picnic will be held in the grove near Baileyville, by the Sunday school of that place, the latter part of August.

RETURNED HOME:—John R. Lemon, the great mining boss, who has been in the sunny South putting up plants, to develop the iron trade, has located in this town. He is going to live a gentleman, and quit the trouble and turmoil of this busy world. Stick to it John, you are right.

FINIS.

MT. EAGLE BOOMING.

The Handle Factory Busy—Deitz's New Patent Fence—Other Items.

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT is one of our leading papers, that comes to this office, and should it continue its liberality correspondents, will out-number all others.

The busy hum of home industry is heard every day from the handle factory, run by Wm. and Haupt Leathers.

James Reeder, one of our energetic men, left here for Olean, N. Y., where he is now employed and receives a lucrative salary.

W. K. Bony clenches our town by his musical talent upon the banjo. His favorite melodies are "Swanee River" and "Put a lock on de hen-coop door."

E. E. Heverly, our merchant, has been doing quite a nice business and deserves the patronage of this community, as we always find him an obliging person.

PATENT FENCE: Mt. Eagle claims the honor of having an inventor in one of its citizens. Mr. Frank Dietz has patented a wire fence which is receiving the approval of the farmers and also having many sales.

CLAY AND PAINT: R. C. Leathers has been engaged in selling roof paint the greater part of the season, and also shipped a car load of clay last week to the Bellefonte Furnace Co. This clay is found upon the property of Al. and Serge Pletcher, and is a clay of an excellent quality, being free from all pebbles and stones.

PROMISING CROP: The farmers have reason to rejoice for a bountiful harvest and the promising appearance for a large yield of corn and potatoes. The huckleberry season is over and many are looking for other employment.

We have sympathy with an esteemed citizen, W. Reynolds, who is aged and has been afflicted for several years, unable to walk; has a wheeled chair by which he moves around through the house. His hearing has also been affected for years.

Mart. Gates is hustling to store away his oats crop.

Penn Hall.

As the wind now blows over the oats stubbles, we may begin to look for fall weather.

HEAVY RAINS: We were visited by a very heavy rain on Sunday night which refreshed the corn crop very much.

Henry Meyer made a business trip to Bellefonte last Saturday.

Quite a number from this place attended the picnic at Madisonburg on Saturday evening. The selections from "Faust," rendered by Prof. Wise's orchestra, were highly appreciated.

Sheriff Condo, of Bellefonte, was seen on our streets last Thursday.

I. B. Showers and wife visited at Hubbersburg over Sunday.

The Aaronsburg No. 2 band passed through here last Saturday enroute to the P. O. S. of A. picnic at Centre Hall.

F. M. Ream went to Loganston on Monday to do some coach painting for J. Wise Cole.

J. W. Hazel and wife, of Madisonburg, circulated among friends in our vicinity last Thursday. Mrs. D. Smith, of Preburg, was the guest of F. M. Fisher and wife last Friday.

CREAM SEPARATORS: Chas. Krape, of Spring Mills, was through here last week introducing his milk separators.

John Wert, of Brushvalley, is going the rounds thrashing for some of our farmers.

John Mesmer added another shingle mill, which means more business.

A. P. Bunell spent Sunday at Tylersville.

Milesburg Notes.

The public schools, of this place, will open September 9th.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Catholic picnic at Hecla park last Wednesday and all appeared to enjoy themselves.

The minstrel show here last Thursday evening, by Deland company, was excellent.

The Odd Fellows of this place, will hold a festival next Friday and Saturday nights, 16th and 17th. Everybody invited to come.

Harris Hugg and family have moved back to our burg once more.

John McCaslin and family have moved to McKeesport, where they expect to make their future home.
