The Bellefonte band will hold a grand festival, with fine open air concerts, next Friday and Saturday evenings at the stone school house grounds.

Fred Dunham, the Howard Hornet man, was in town on Tuesday. He called and informed us that the paper was flourishing and still retained its stinger.

Messrs. James Keilar and James Kerr, of the Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, P. of H., transacted business in town on Tuesday and found time to pay us a visit.

Orrie Atwood and Ed. McKibben have the contract for repairing the court house roof and covering it with a fire and water-proof paint. It needed this badly.

On Saturday the paper hangers and printers had a game of base ball on the glass works meadow. It was a remarkable game in which kicking was a special feature. The score resulted 13 to 12 in favor of the paper hangers.

Mr. Kitson, superintendent of the gas and steam heat plant at this place, resigned his position recently. He expects to engage in business in Philadelphia, but his family will remain for some time.

On Saturday night quite a rumpus was raised at Col. Spangler's residence. The young ladies imagined they heard a burglar and were not slow in arousing the community. It was a false alarm, as there was no indication of any night marauders having been about.

DEATH FROM A STING.

Remarkable Death of John Horner, of Greensvalley.

STUNG BY A YELLOW-JACKET.

Death Came Within a Half Hour—Stung in The Upper Lip—Strange Feeling, Unconscious, Then Death Soon Follows.

John Horner lived in Spring township in what is known as Greensvalley, about four miles south of Pleasant Gap, on Nittany mountain, where he occupied a pleasant farm amid the mountain fastness. Mr. Horner was a man of about 62 years of age, a farmer by occupation, raising large quantities of vegetables and berries.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Horner was at home. While out in the yard he picked up an apple and was in the act of taking a bite when he noticed what is commonly called a yellow-jacket on it. He brushed the bug off and it came back and implanted its poisonous stinger in Mr. Horner's upper lip.

This is a remarkable occurrence. Dr. Jacobs, the family physician, says he cannot account for the cause of the death. Some think that Mr. Horner's death was due to heart trouble and the sting simply caused sufficient pain and excitement to bring on the crisis.

The interment will take place at Centre Hall this Thursday. As stated, Mr. Horner was known as a hunter. In his time he probably killed more deer, bear, foxes and other game, than any man in the county.

Bit By a Snake.

While binding oats in a harvest field on his farm at Julian Furnace, Tuesday of last week, ex-county commissioner John C. Henderson was bitten on the hand by a viper. He was reaching down under the sheaf when he felt a prick which he thought was from a brier.

Superstitious Farmers. Last Friday Dr. Budge, state veterinarian, accompanied by Dr. H. G. Patterson, went to Birmingham, Huntingdon county, to examine cattle affected with Texas fever.

Plowing comes next in the farmer's line of business. H. P. Robb has finished his course at Prof. Thompson's Commercial College, of Williamsport. We wish him success in his new profession.

John Smith, of Renovo, Chas. Keller and family of Lock Haven, Messrs. J. H. Harpster of Port Matilda, and E. J. Williams, of Martha, attended our picnic last Saturday. Harpster and Williams were the guests of C. V. DeLong and H. P. Robb.

William Bitner and wife, and Miss Nellie Winslow, of Blanchard, were the guests of Wm. Welch over Sunday.

Oscar DeLong, who has been working for Col. Weaver, of Milesburg, for more than a year, is at home, expecting to stay for some time.

The members of the United Evangelical church, of Fairview appointment, will hold an ice cream festival near the residence of John P. and Austin Schenck on Saturday, August 31, 1895, afternoon and evening.

A Very Large Deer. Last week Benjamin Gentzel, of Spring township, secured from John Uzie, of Snow Shoe, a large five pronged buck, and placed the same in his deer park.

SUDDENLY KILLED.

James Thompson Falls Under A Freight Train.

On last Saturday another fatality occurred on the Lewisburg railroad, that resulted in the death of a young man in the prime of life, James Thompson, of Bellefonte, who was a brakeman on the regular freight.

The accident occurred about one mile below Coburn, and when the train was running at only fifteen miles an hour. When on the engine and within one mile of Coburn, he said he would go out and get ready to put the brakes on the cars when they were run in on the siding.

He started back over the tank and his fellow brakeman saw him attempt to jump from the tank of the first car. He then saw his head disappear between the tank and the car, and, watching, did not see him reappear. He then went back to see what was the matter and not seeing him anywhere, looked back and saw his body lying along the track.

He was tenderly gathered up by the trainmen and put on the train and then word was at once telegraphed to this place and the train was run through as quickly as possible. It is quite evident that when Thompson attempted to jump from the tank to the car he missed his footing and fell between the train.

Deceased was aged 24 years past and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, living down near the nail works. His funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock, from the Reformed church, and was largely attended by railroad men and others who contributed a number of beautiful designs, Rev. Gearhart performing the services. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

The Logan Picnic. A large crowd attended the Logan picnic, at Hunters Park, last Thursday. Among the principal events was the game of base ball between the colored teams of Philipsburg and Bellefonte.

In the bicycle races Geo. Williams surprised everybody by his pace. There were thirteen entries, all local riders, and the events were as follows:

One mile novice, won by Harry Weaver. Joe Katz second, Temp Cruise third. Half-mile open, won by George Williams. Lester Shaeffer second, Harry Yeager third. First prize, a sweater.

Three mile open, won by Shaeffer. Williams second, Yeager third. First prize, bicycle suit; second, bicycle saddle.

The company went to a large expense to furnish entertainment, etc., and the result is that they have cleared as much money as on some of their former efforts.

Remola Rumbings. Plowing comes next in the farmer's line of business. H. P. Robb has finished his course at Prof. Thompson's Commercial College, of Williamsport. We wish him success in his new profession.

John Smith, of Renovo, Chas. Keller and family of Lock Haven, Messrs. J. H. Harpster of Port Matilda, and E. J. Williams, of Martha, attended our picnic last Saturday. Harpster and Williams were the guests of C. V. DeLong and H. P. Robb.

A BATCH OF BREEZY LETTERS

Gathered by a Corps of Alert Correspondents.

FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

What is Going on Outside of Bellefonte—Happenings in other Communities—Favorable Crop Reports—Other Interesting Items.

MUSICIANS PICNIC—Rattling good Snake story—Accidents—and Death.

MUSICIANS PICNIC.—We wish to make a correction in regard to the "Musicians Picnic," to be held at Pine Grove Mills. Instead of the picnic having been held on the 14 inst., it is to be held on the 24 of this month. We do not know if this was a mistake of the printer or of the correspondent, but let that be as it is it was an unintentional one and we hope no ill will result from it as we wish to see a large crowd and a successful time on the 24th, of Aug.

GOOD WORK.—Al. Baum in town last week transacting business, and while here succeeded in trading horses and also secured a new carriage from W. J. Meyers, our successful carriage manufacturer. Myers has made a reputation for himself which is seen by the constant rush of work coming to his shops. Good work and honest dealing will always receive their reward.

MITCHELL STOVER, of Altoona, is at present shaking old acquaintances by the hand, after an absence of several days.

ARM FRACTURE.—The little son of Samuel Dunlap was unfortunate enough while playing, to fall from a joise and produce a severe fracture of his arm at the elbow. Dr. Woods set the break and the patient is getting along nicely for one so young.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.—Among the casualties we also note the accident which befell the little son of Wm. Eckley, of Main St., who was so unfortunate to fall and also broke his arm. This same child fell off the steps about a year ago and broke it other arm.

99 SNAKES IN A LUMP.—Snake stories seem to be going the rounds, so we will give one which is wonderful, but true. Some time ago Dr. R. M. Krebs of this place, and his brother Orin, killed a snake which looked as though it had swallowed a rat or toad as about six inches of it near the middle was so much thicker than the rest of its body. The Dr. states that he was curious to know what his snakeship had eaten so lately, so he stepped on the tail of the serpent and taking his other foot set it firmly on the snake, back of this thick place and moving it towards the snake's head made it disgorge itself of whatever it had eaten when to his astonishment out came a ball, about the size of a mass closed fist, composed entirely of small snakes about 5 or 6 inches long. The Dr. says he counted them and found there was 98 small snakes and with the old one makes 99 in all. This sounds pretty large but "Milt" is noted for his veracity and says he can prove his statement by his brother who was with him at the time. Who is next?

Rev. C. T. Alkenf, preached his harvest home sermon here on Sunday in the Lutheran church, to a large and attentive congregation.

Rev. Illingsworth of Spring Mills, stopped here over Sunday on his way home from Newton Hamilton camp meeting, he being the guest of his father-in-law Henry Snyder. On Sunday evening he preached in the Presbyterian church. Mr. Illingsworth used to preach here, and all were delighted to again listen to him.

DEATH OF ALBERT WILSON.—Died, at his late residence near Graysville, Huntingdon Co., Albert Wilson, of typhoid fever. Mr. Wilson had not been well for some time and when typhoid fever set in his strength was not sufficient to battle with it and death came to him on Saturday. The remains were under the care of undertaker J. B. Heberling. Interment took place at Hollidaysburg Pa., on Tuesday.

Don't forget the Musicians picnic next Saturday the 24th, of Aug.

SPRING MILLS EVENTS.

Large Oats and Potato Crops—Lots of Fish and Eels—Penns Cave Sold.

NOT AFTER SINNERS.—Rev. Illingsworth and Prof. J. F. Rarick went to Newton Hamilton camp meeting on their bicycles. The writer was informed that the gates will be closed on Sundays to keep out the sinners, none but the good people can have tickets to enter the ground. This seems rather tough on the sinner. I always thought they were the ones they were after.

Miss Minnie Coats, from Tyrone, is visiting at Jno. Shooks and intends staying till after the Grange picnic.

Centre Hall ball team was down to cross bats with our team; as usual, our boys got beat.

A BIG CATCH.—A glorious day for the fishermen. The Red mill dam was left off last Thursday to repair the flood gates. Mr. Harter sent out invitations to all his customers to come and help themselves. The catch was estimated at one thousand eels. Cat fish and suckers were carried away by the bushel. Every one there got all the fish they could carry home.

Through an error it was stated that the Christian Endeavor Society at C. P. Longs there were twenty in number, in place of seventy.

AFTER PINE STOCK.—Emanuel Shook is away on a trip to New York to look up some of the fine stock farms in that section. Mr. Shook is a lover of fine cattle. If he sees anything to suit him he will bring it along.

The junior base ball team had a festival last Saturday evening. On account of the rain the boys did not do so well.

Some of our farmers are ready for seeding, while others are still hustling with the oats crop, which is an unusual one.

POTATOES ARE CHEAP.—Potatoes are on the drop in price. New potatoes sold for 12 1/2 cents per bushel and were all fine large ones.

PENNS CAVE SOLD.—Long Bros. have sold Penns Cave to a party from Williamsport, who will take possession April, 1896.

Our post master was quite puzzled about the postal card directed to the "Huckleberry Merchant," whether he was to keep it or send it to C. P. Long. Wonder whether Howard gets backache handling berries.

Prof. Wilse Reitmeyer, son Paul and daughter Grace, of Lewisburg, are visiting at C. C. Bartiges.

Mrs. Annie Smith and Miss May Smith are visiting at Potter Mills.

The best man had his best girl out driving Sunday evening. He should have been at his post—to close the meeting.

Master John Rossman and brother Billy spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandpa, John Rossman, at Penns Cave.

Frank says she danced too much on Friday night, she could not attend the festival on Saturday evening. How is it Madge.

No more hollering in G. H. Long's office as he had his telephone taken out. He says he will not pay four dollars per month; that his money is as good as those who have it for $2.50 and $3 per month. Who will be the next to follow suit?

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE: GRAND SOCIAL EVENT.—On the evening of the 10th the Young Peoples Senior Christian Endeavor of Grace church, of this place, held a sociable in the spacious lawn adjoining the residence of Mr. C. P. Long. The entertainment consisted of recitations, music, etc.

The entire residence of Mr. Long was beautifully decorated with spruce and evergreen and illuminated with fairy and Japanese lanterns. The lawn was a brilliant and beautiful sight; innumerable lanterns and little fairy lamps were artistically arranged over the whole field, presenting a scene of beauty. The immense table, besides being so charmingly set, was amply furnished with all manner of eatables. After the supper short addresses were delivered. The young people enjoyed themselves in conversation, plays and games, in harmony with the character of the association. There were present 35 members and 53 visitors, a total of 88 who attended the sociable. No hand some or a more enjoyable entertainment was ever gotten up in Spring Mills. The association may feel proud and can congratulate themselves upon their grand success. Much of their success is due to the very able and efficient management of Mrs. C. P. Long, whose hospitality, untiring zeal and energy made assurance doubly sure that entire success would crown their efforts.

Howard Happenings. The Centre Hall band favored ex-sheriff Cooke with some of their fine selections on their way home from Eagleville on Saturday 10th, for which they received a five-dollar-William. Come again boys.

The Howard base ball team crossed bats on Saturday, 10th, with the best team Lock Haven could scare up, but the Howard boys were not to be scared so easy, so they went to work and played like professionals and at the ninth inning went ahead, the score being 11 to 10 in favor of Howard, with only one man out and one on base, when Lock Haven gave up the game.

We are sorry to lose our friend J. P. Fletcher. Jim has accepted a position with the P. R. R. Co.

Miss Sallie Lucas expects to go to Brockwayville on a visit in the near future to her brother Will.

Our jovial friend, Tom. Mann, is again at home, after finishing up quite a large bark job.

It is rumored that our assistant postmaster is soon to join in the bonds of matrimony.

Pitching quoits has got to be quite a game among our sports. Jake and Hunt are about the best.

The Y. P. S. C. E., of the Christian church at Howard, will hold a festival on the evening of Saturday August 24, on the church lawn. Ice cream, cake, etc., will be served. The Howard silver cornet band will furnish music for the occasion. Everybody is invited to attend.

Our genial friend, Mr. John Wagner, is again pap; its another barber.

Mr. D. L. Welch is doing quite an extensive business just now as will be seen by the number of horses waiting there at most any time you look.

WALKER ITEMS. Wedding Announcement.—Sheep being killed by a dog—Valuable horse died.

Mrs. Joel Kling has been on the sick list for the past week. We hope for a speedy recovery.

COMING WEDDING.—The wedding cards are out for Miss Resie Beck, of our town and James Heverly, the young druggist of Howard.

Boys, hereafter dont occupy so public a place to tell your snake, picnic and other stories.

SHEEP KILLED.—Sheep dogs have been playing havoc amongst the sheep in Marion township.

LOST A HORSE.—Potter Tate lost a valuable horse last week, as well as his flock of sheep.

The juvenile of Jacksonville, played the Juvenile base ball team of Howard last week, and were worsted. Boys, we wish you better luck the next time.
