FIEDLER ITEMS.

Sunday School Picnic—Bad Boys—Large Potato—Coxey disappointed.

Most of our farmers have raised their potatoes and are getting ready for seeding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fishburn, of Bellefonte, were the guests of their son, Harry, over Sunday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC—The St. Paul Sunday school will hold a basket celebration September 14th, in Mrs. Winkleblech's woods, in the afternoon.

All the scholars will have a treat of ice cream and cakes. Everybody is cordially invited to come and have a good time.

Why not have a festival in the evening?

Miss Susan Haines, of State College, is at present visiting her parents, J. A. Haines.

Miss Katie Keen, of Millheim, spent a few days in our town last week at J. M. Weaver's.

Chas. Zimmerman made a business trip to Kreamersville on Monday.

BAD BOYS—The young peoples meeting at St. Paul was well attended on last Sunday evening, but the girls all wish the boys would keep the burdock outside next time.

Rev. Lohr, of Millheim, and A. Stapleton, F. E. of Lewisburg, were the guests of J. M. Weaver on Saturday.

JOKE ON COXEY—Coxey says he didn't enjoy his trip to Rebersburg last Sunday. He would rather be on his wheel with the rest of the boys, than hang on the fence.

On Monday morning R. E. Stover made his first trip for cream. He is gathering for Luther Geiswhite, of Coburn, Pa.

BIG POTATO—Thomas Smith is the champion potato grower in this section. He has a potato weighing two pounds and measuring 28 inches in circumference.

MADISONBURG ITEMS.

Dangerous Business—Death of Mrs. Hoy—A Warning—Wedding.

Hog killing time is over. All Senator Quay has to do now is to get rid of the ham.

The public schools of Miles township, opened on Monday, for a seven months term.

WEDDING—The invitations for the wedding of Mr. Oliver Corman, of Farmers Mills, and Miss Tillie Keller, of this place, are out. The wedding will take place in the front yard of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Corman, of Farmers Mills, on Sept. 9, at 5 o'clock in the evening.

HE IS HAPPY—C. T. Grimm looks very happy since his sale of Western cows, at Vicksburg, Union Co., Pa. But isn't the sale that makes him so happy, O no! It is because a young lad from Tyrone is visiting in our town.

DEATH OF MRS. HOY—Mrs. Peggy Hoy, of this place, died on Tuesday Aug. 27, of cancer in the stomach. Interment took place in the Reformed cemetery, on Friday morning. She was about 75 years of age and a member of the Lutheran church. Mrs. Hoy was a daughter of Adam Shafer, and was married twice, first to Mr. Smeltzer and second to John Hoy. With Mr. Smeltzer she had five children, two of whom Mrs. Samuel Hoover of Nittany, and Mrs. John Fisher as well as her two husbands, have preceded her to their reward. The surviving members of the family are, John in Indiana, Mrs. Andrew Guiser and Mrs. B. F. Miller of this place. Mrs. Guiser who watched by the bedside of her mother during her illness, almost continuously, caught cold soon after her mother's death, which settled on her lungs and on the day of her mother's funeral she took her bed. She has since had several severe hemorrhages, and at present is in a very critical condition.

DANGEROUS BUSINESS—Last Tuesday evening a party of four, from this place, all bold young men, went to the Millheim Gap with their nets to catch a mess of fish. After fishing up the creek and being scared several times they started down the pike to make another haul. They had not gone very far when a party of hunters from Millheim to scare the party jumped in the pike in front of them one raising an ax and another a gun and told them to halt, that they were officers of the law and had come to arrest them. Three of the fishing party throwing away their nets and lanterns started away on a dead run. The fourth a little bolder than the rest would not run. The hunters after gathering up the nets and fish started for home. But the remaining fisherman stepped out and commanded them to drop the nets, which the hunters very wisely did. The hunting party would better keep quiet or they might get arrested for stopping peaceful citizens on the public highway, and raising deadly weapons against them which is a very grave crime.

GOING TO MILLHEIM—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stover, who recently returned from their wedding trip to Atlantic City and other eastern places, will in the near future move to Millheim, where Mr. Stover is a partner in the hardware firm of Hosterman and Stover. The newly wedded couple have the best wishes of the writer.

A WARNING—The members of the Reformed church recently built a speaker's stand in Dietrich's Grove, where the picnics of this place are held. It is the wish of Mr. Dietrich and the community in general that no one molest, disgrace or demolish the present stand, as was the case with previous ones. If any one does disgrace the present stand he will be dealt with according to law.

COBURN HAPPENINGS.

A Few Local Squibs—Cider—Corn—Potatoes—Services, etc.

We had a very refreshing rain here on Saturday.

Dr. Braucht, of Spring Mills, called on some of his friends over Sunday.

W. H. Meyer came home Friday evening from Williams Grove.

Nearly everybody in this section will attend the Lutheran festival Saturday afternoon and evening, September 7th.

Prof. A. J. Harter and wife, of Altoona, are visiting their former home for a few weeks.

Ed. Campbell and Samuel Wilson arrived home from West Virginia Friday evening.

FRESH CIDER—Mr. Vonada's cider mill begun operations last week. Soon we will have fresh apple butter upon our tables.

CORN CROP—The corn crop in this section is safe for a large one, and if no frost sets in, the ears will be well ripened.

PEACHES—We are informed that T. F. Meyer will have a car load of peaches by Wednesday for Coburn, Centre Hall, Linden Hall and Lemont.

POTATOES—Ed. Robinson will ship three car loads of potatoes to Scranton this week.

Mrs. E. Bartholomew returned home Monday evening from Harrisburg and Williams Grove.

Rev. Brown will have harvest home service at Coburn, September 15th.

A number of our citizens took the Monday morning train for Bellefonte, to attend court this week.

AN ATTRACTION—Wesley Easterman makes quite a few trips down Water street. What is the attraction, Wesley?

SPRING MILLS.

A Large corn crop predicted—Doings of prominent citizens.

The farmers can go ahead with their seeding.

LARGE CORN CROP—The corn crop, from all reports will be one of the largest we ever had through this valley.

Some are complaining already that the price will come down. If it does you will have more than you had last year, to the number of bushels.

Michael Shiver, the insurance agent, went to Johnstown, on a business trip.

Dr. Allison, from Northumberland, paid a flying visit to his parents and many friends, last week.

Geo. Rhinefelter and family, from Yeagerstown, Mifflin Co., are visiting Papa Anman.

SERIOUSLY ILL—Mrs. Louis Rossman has been seriously ill for the past week; hope we may hear of her recovery.

VETERAN PICNIC—There will be a good many attend the Veteran picnic, at Hunter's Park.

Parties attending the Democratic convention at Williamsport, from this point will be charged one fare for the round trip.

GOING TO JOHNSTOWN—Jno. Huss intends to move to Johnstown, in a couple of weeks. He says there is lots of work—it is the place for a poor man.

The way Billy talks, Quay and Hastings must have been very close to each other the day of the state convention.

Emanuel Brown who had his ankle sprained is about able to report for work.

Mrs. Lucinda Runkle is sick in Altoona, where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. McClellan.

Quite a number of our people attended the corner stone laying at Centre Hall, last Sunday.

C. E. Royer and wife spent a few days in Nittany Valley among friends.

Victor says it is not Soleleather, it is Whiteleather. Boy.

Gatesburg Pickings.

The picnic at Baileyville park, on 31st, was a complete failure, owing to the heavy rains that occurred on Saturday.

The corn crop will be very good.

J. R. Rider and wife were away last week attending the Williams Grove picnic.

Mrs. John Reynolds, of State College, was a pleasant caller to friends and acquaintances last Saturday at Baileyville. He came on his wheel.

Miss Maria Elder, of near Pine Grove, is visiting her brother David and wife, at Fairbrook. She will leave next week for the state of Ohio, where she expects to make her future home.

Rudolph Kreider, of Gatesburg, is home again after his long visit and is welcomed by all.

The Miss Rudies, of Virginia, are visiting their grand father, Samuel Brestler, near Gatesburg.

Many of the farmers are making the second crop of hay and report it better than the first.

Mr. Emanuel Sunday, of Fairbrook, is getting the paint brush applied to his house as he thinks it looks somewhat tarnished.

The girls of Gatesburg are some what vexed at certain young men of this place, because when they was a partner to take an evening drive they go across to the next valley. Girls, do not worry; wait till next leap year.

Lives of girls all remind us, They cannot make themselves sublime, And departing leave behind them Footprints that are 7 by 9.

PINNIS.

Milesburg News.

SOCIABLE—The sociable held here last Saturday evening by Miss Edith Elise's Sunday school class was a success. The young people had a delightful time.

AT EAGLEVILLE—The band furnished some excellent music for the Odd Fellows' picnic and festival, at Eagleville, last Saturday. From all accounts they enjoyed themselves quite well.

Miss Annie Simlar, after a short visit to see her sister in this place, returned home Monday of last week. She reports of having a nice time.

Miss Daisy Snyder, of Lock Haven, is a guest of Mrs. E. H. Carr, in this place.

Mrs. Erba Moore, of Erie, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Neill, near this place.

Mrs. Francis Brown, of Patton, made a short visit to see her relatives and friends, in this place, last week.

Mr. Jos. Rogers, of Osceola Mills, spent a day in our burg last week.

Miss Sarah Rauscher, of Blossburg, after spending a short visit to Miss Stella Stonerode, returned home on Tuesday.

The borough dads are getting ready to put in concrete crossings in the boro. They are now surveying for it at this writing.

Mr. John Confer has moved from his former place of business to the lower rooms of the I. O. O. F. new building.

PENN HALL.

A Dandy Mosquito Story—Bad Roads and Personal Menou.

CORRECT—No family should be without the DEMOCRAT.

Rev. D. A. Souder and mother, from Irvin, Pa., and Miss Ellen Fisher, of Augusta, Ill., were guests at J. B. Fishers last week.

Miss Katie Garrecht, from Altoona, after circulating among friends here a few weeks, returned to her home last week.

Mrs. J. J. Hann, from Des Moines, Iowa, is visiting her brother, G. P. Ream.

Geo. W. Sheesly made a business trip to Bellefonte last Monday.

AT CENTRE HALL—Quite a number from this place went to Centre Hall last Sunday in attendance at the corner stone laying of the Reformed church, at that place.

BAD ROADS—The roads throughout this precinct are in a bad condition. Why not have better roads?

ABLE MINISTER—Rev. Stapleton, from Lewisburg, delivered an able sermon to a crowded house, in the Green Grove United Evangelical church, on Monday evening.

John Baney, from Hublersburg, was among the visitors in our vicinity last Sunday.

MOSQUITO STORY—J. D. Mesmer, who had been working in a lumber job at Tussey mountain, returned home to stay. He was surprised to find what a fine variety of mosquitoes the people at Tussey mountain raise. At six weeks old they are as big as bottle flies, and when they reach maturity they are nearly as large as a chicken. They tormented Mr. Mesmer terribly; at night he had to sleep with his stockings on his hands and a handkerchief over his face in order to keep them from carrying off portions of his anatomy.

Wolfs Store.

RAINY DAY—Last Saturday was a rainy day and many were greatly disappointed, in not getting to the picnic, near Rebersburg.

A GOOD DAY'S WORK—C. M. Gramley takes the lead in thrashing. Last week one day he thrashed for Newton Brumgart 588 bushels of wheat and 700 bushels of oats. This record is hard to beat but it was actually done.

Mr. Levi Strayer spent a few days at Lock Haven last week.

LOST—E. T. Weaver lost a valuable, dark-checked, square-cut coat between Wolfs Store and Rebersburg. The finder will please return it to him for which he will be greatly obliged.

Mr. C. D. Weaver's steam saw mill will be in running order in about one week.

Miss Edith Glantz, from Madisonburg, spent last week visiting in our midst.

A Mr. Waite, from Bellefonte, was through here last Friday delivering books.

Mr. Harry Hoy, from Millheim, was through this end of the valley last week selling peaches and watermelons. He disposed of quite a lot.

Mr. J. R. Wolf was to Union county last week one day on business.

J. K. Hosterman and wife were to Tylersville last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mr. John Wolfe.

H. H. Morris left this place last Thursday to attend college at Sellingsgrove. Success to him.

Our public schools opened last Monday. Mr. Geo. M. Musser takes charge of the school in this village.

Mr. J. T. Corman is on the sick list at this writing. PIT PAT.

POTTERS MILLS.

Interesting Items Noted by our New Correspondent.

SAW MILL—E. M. Huyett, the lumber king, operating on the Thompson tract, will wind up the job in about two months. He thinks he will move his mill next spring to the J. D. Decker tract.

Squire H. R. Smith is slowly improving. We hope by the skillful treatment of Dr. Alexander and the good nursing of his sons and daughters that he may recover his former health.

GOOD HOTEL—J. S. Reish, proprietor of the Eutaw House, is one of the most obliging landlords in the valley. He knows what belongs to the traveling public. His table is always filled with the very best. He is the right man in the right place.

LARGE CABBAGE—Mr. Dr. Alexander boasts of the largest cabbage head in that section, 11 3/4 pounds. If any one can beat that let us hear.

Miss Lota Wilkinson left for Latrobe, where she expects to go to school.

HAND INJURED—Wm. Workinger is nursing a sore hand. While at work on the saw mill of E. M. Hewett, where he was employed running a saw edging boards, he got his hand against the saw and it was badly used up. Dr. Alexander amputated the index finger, but saved all the rest.

ANOTHER DEMOCRAT—Big boy came to Emanuel Smith's house; his weight is 12 1/2 pounds. Mr. Smith is so proud of him that he hardly looks at common people. One more democrat.

Mrs. Cal. Henney and her two sons, Charley and Willie, of Latrobe, were here to visit her mother, Mrs. Annie Hartman, and her sister Mrs. John Wilkison, and many other friends.

CHICKEN THIEVES—Mr. John Slack complains about thieves visiting his hen roost so often that out of a flock of 36 chickens he has but a few left. Mr. Slack, if you use a shot gun it will be a sure cure.

Lot Condo says he got an over dose of pills and fish; don't care for any more, this season.

Awaiting a Decision.

The telephone question has not yet been decided, and the petitioners who ordered their phones removed or given $1 per month reduction are awaiting the action of the company. All of the petitioners paid the company for the last two weeks of August at the $3 rate, and so far none of the checks have been returned to them. The patrons think they will win this time. They either win or the phones go out. They are fully determined on this point.—Centre Reporter.
