WOODWARD TOPICS.

An interesting letter from our new correspondent at that place.

A large deer was seen in Newton Hess' field Saturday. John Brumgart says "the Buck Fever" is a hard sickness.

LUMBER OPERATION.—Hanes & Hosterman lumber company are about beginning operations on the tract purchased from S. M. Motz, east of Woodward.

Farmers, in general, have finished seeding.

GOOD YIELD.—J. L. Kreamer raised 80 bushels potatoes on 1-4 acre, and then they he did not get all.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hess, from Pine Grove Mills, were guests at Adam Weaver's a few days last week.

Benj. Rigard, of Millinburg, was a pleasant visitor at the home of Mrs. J. C. Motz.

Musser & Smith, contractors, have the school house, at Weaver's intersection, ready for the seats.

Jacob Musser has been secured by Luther Guiswite to collect for his creamery, at Coburn. Success to all connected with the cow to the butter.

The whiskey inspector was a rather inquisitive caller, last Tuesday. He found our people correct.

DEATH OF A CHILD.—H. M. Goodman and wife are mourning the death of their youngest daughter, Maud, an interesting child aged 2 years 8 months. In their affliction she has the sympathy of the community. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday, Rev. Shotes officiating.

John J. Orndorf has a field of over 1,200 bushels of potatoes.

NE W BELL.—The United Evangelical church is, at this place, have one of the sweetest toned bells in this part of the county. Weighs over 750 pounds.

The Woodward base ball club is in a flourishing condition. Success to you, boys.

J. L. Kreamer and W. R. Motz will be representatives of our city at the soliders encampment in Louisville, Ky.

J. P. Rearick was a welcome caller at the hospital home of N. W. Eby.

Mrs. Catharine Orndorf is visiting her son-in-law, Isaiah Boob, near Hartleton.

Mr. Vanhorn, of Juniata county, spent Sunday at the home of Dr. Ard.

Jacob Stover, west of Woodward, is busy digging a well. He is 35 feet down already and don't have any water yet. He says he will dig 10 feet more before he will give up.

LARGE POTATO.—Thomas H. Motz took a potato into the post office that weighed three pounds. Thomas thinks he is the champion potato farmer.

UP AT SNOW SHOE.

Some of the News by an Alert Correspondent.

Prof. Meyers' band, of Bellefonte, was out on last Friday night to give some of our citizens the idea of having a good band. It would not be a bad idea if some of them would turn out and give the boys some encouragement.

AFTER BURGLARS.—One night last week one of our uptown neighbors was aroused from his slumber, thinking he heard some chicken thieves around his coop. After going out and examining around he found he was only dreaming. He thought he would take spite out hanging himself on the clothes line and the next morning he had a sore neck. How about it, Rob?

The show that was here last week had a fresh air audience. The people all stayed outside for fear of the elephant.

Samuel and Arthur Budinger, of this place, have gone to Williamsport where they intend entering Dickenson Seminary.

Mr. Harry Kelly spent Sunday in Williamsport with his mother.

Miss Minnie Reeser took a short trip to Bellefonte last week.

R. J. Haynes started for the city on Monday night where he expects to purchase his fall and winter stock.

A. M. Reeser spent Sunday in Bellefonte. How is she, Andie?

J. C. Meyer, ex-district attorney, of Centre county, was a visitor at this place on Monday. He says he does not care much for the cologne Wm. Haynes represented.

Wilbur Holt won a bunch of bananas at the band festival on Saturday. On Sunday evening he took them to church and left some boys to watch them, but when he got back the boys had left—and the bananas left too—and so were his girls.

AN ATTRACTION.—Anyone wishing to see Wm. Burns, Thos. Hayes, Philip Zindel and Herb Walker, call around at the rear of R. J. Haynes' store. This is their place of business. What is the attraction, boys?

T. B. Budinger was in Bellefonte on Monday where he sold a car load of sugar.

The blacksmith up street must love to see a cactus. He was up three nights last week to see a 7 year flower.

A JOLLY PARTY.—The Bellefonte boys certainly enjoyed themselves on Friday night. The girls seemed to have the fever when they were here. We are afraid some of their wives will be out here looking the matter up.

BROKE UP.—Doc Yarnell seems all broke up on a couple of our girls; it is time to make a brace, or you will be left in the cold.

Fraucis Speer will hardly mention anything about W. R. Haynes' cologne in the columns of the Gazette this week.

GORTON HEIGHTS.

Everything Booming—Two Accidents—A Remarkable Bird.

Work seems to be booming in this place.

Miss Annie Bock, of this place, is teaching in Philadelphia this winter, she commenced Sept. 2.

ONE SCHOOL.—The schools of this place are moving along nicely under the control of J. I. Packer, of Romola, Pa.

BLAST.—The coke ovens here are in full blast at present, hope they will continue.

Mr. M. P. Bock attended court last week at Bellefonte, arriving home Saturday eve at 6:33 giving full particulars of the court.

Wonder what attraction Mr. W. B. L. has at Philipsburg, as he takes a visit up about once week. Come again.

Miss Laura Bock has returned to the Central State Normal school to finish her course there. We wish her the best of success.

TWO ACCIDENTS.—Mr. Norton was hurt pretty badly last week at Bucher's camp, near here. A workman also got severely injured while riding on the engine, it was backing into the engine house and he was looking the other way as it caught him in the breast and squeezed him between the house and cab using him up pretty badly. He is likely to recover again. They called for a doctor at once from Snow Shoe.

Squirrel season is here, but fail to hear of any of the innocent creatures killed in this vicinity, as they are very scarce.

Miss Sadie Council, of Beech Creek, returned home after spending a few months with her sister and brother at Bucher's camp.

HOMESICK.—Mr. Willis Bullock, of Beech Creek, is blacksmithing for O. Bucher Jr., near here. He has been very homesick, as he never stayed away from home over night, but a few nights since he was married. Willis go home and it will cure it.

MARRIED.—Mr. Ignac Millikac and Miss Clarica Eurotsky were married Sept. 9, at Wayward Place, Centre Co., Both formerly from Hungary.

Mr. J. A. Bock filled Mr. F. A. Richards place at Peale, as operator, while he attended court last week. Mr. Bock is an accomplished young man.

A VALUABLE BIRD.—Mr. L. T. Fye describes a wonderful bird which inhabits this place. It was imported from the old country here. It will perch upon a sheep's back and pick the lice off and destroy them. Also he advises people to use them for the purpose of destroying bed bugs. There were several hawk loads from Snow Shoe here to see it. It certainly is a great sight to see. Come all to see it, you will not see any better in this country. L. T. F.

Howard Happenings.

Mr. and Mrs. James Heverly have returned home from their wedding trip.

Walter L. Cooke made a flying trip to Jacksonville on Thursday evening.

Wm. Mayes attended the wedding of P. S. Ishler and Ella Mayes, at Boalsburg on last Thursday.

Under the skillful management of W. P. Mitchell, the Howard boys played another very interesting game of ball with the Mt. Eagle team. The score was 20 to 5 in favor of Howard.

Claud Moore, son of postmaster H. A. Moore, is learning the jewelry business with his uncle, Thomas Moore, of Bellefonte.

Miss Sallie Lucas and brother Clyde, are visiting at their brother Will Lucas', of Brockwayville.

Dr. McEntire arrived home one evening last week after visiting Philadelphia and Atlantic City. The doctor reports having had a fine time.

C. C. Cook is at present laid up with a carbunkle on his arm.

W. N. Neff, formerly of this place, but now of Hughesville, is visiting his father, W. H. Neff.

Quite a number of people from here attended the soldiers reunion at Hunters Park.

Miss Anna Lucas left on last Tuesday to visit friends at Williamsport and Milton.

Mrs. J. L. DeHaas, Nellie Wilson and their aunt, left on Tuesday for Milton fair.

PENN HALL MATTERS.

Tramped on a Skunk—The Coming Wedding—Personal Notices.

The potato yield is far beyond expectation.

Mr. Peter Zeigler, a former resident of Gregg township, but now of Decatur, Indiana, is at present circulating among friends in this place.

THAT WEDDING.—There is a wedding contemplated that will likely take place in the near future. The caelestium band is almost as eager for the event as the couple is, in order to secure the valuable prize generally awarded them after each and every wedding.

Mr. Charles Gramley, of Rebersburg, was the guest of Floyd Bowersox and wife, over Sunday.

We are seriously anxious to know what attraction some of our dudes have down at the railroad bridge? Come, John.

IMPROVING.—We are glad to state that Mrs. Lewis Rossman, who had been on the sicklist for the last few weeks, is improving.

A GOOD JOKE.—A young dude from Brushvalley, whose best girl lives in these bounds, met with quite a mishap on Saturday evening, while on his way to call upon his sweetie; he was walking along never dreaming of trouble, when he suddenly trod upon one of those sweet perfumed little animals, better known as skunks. We did not need his word to tell us that he had been there.

Charles Eisman, of Lock Haven, is at present circulating among friends in our vicinity.

Mr. Joseph Hoy and wife, of State College, were guests at J. C. Condo's on Monday.

ON A TRIP.—Maj. J. B. Fisher and wife started for Philadelphia and other eastern cities on Monday morning, on a pleasure trip. The miller's association has a meeting in Philadelphia of which Mr. Fisher is a member and will be in attendance.

The Magic Touch

Hood's Sarsaparilla. You smile at the idea. But if you are a sufferer from Dyspepsia. And indigestion, try a bottle, and be sure you have taken half a dozen doses, you will involuntarily think, and no doubt exclaim, "That Just Hits It!"

"That soothing effect is a magic touch!" Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates a natural, healthy desire for food, gives refreshing sleep, and in short, raises the health tone of the entire system. Remember

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion

BUILDERS' SUPPLIES.

STONE for building purposes, furnished at our quarry or delivered in Bellefonte and vicinity, as well as loaded on the cars at Bellefonte, Centre and Penna. Railroads, as customers may require.

FLAG STONES, manufactured from the very best quality of Blue Stone, the strongest and most durable stones for the purpose of the various sized thickness, ranging from one inch to six inches in thickness or more, to meet the wants of customers for sidewalks, pavements and other walks, as well as window sills, lintels, door sills, steps and curb stones, dressed in order, will be furnished at short notice for low prices, the quality of stone considered. After a thorough examination of the Flag, Faving and other dressed stones, which we propose to add to our already extensive line of Builders' Supplies, we can assure our patrons, that they are the best quality of stone for the purpose, ever offered for sale in this community.

BRICK for building, brick for paving sidewalks and streets, as well as fire brick of every description, will be furnished on short notice. We carry a limited stock on hand at our Yard Warehouses.

SAND of the very best quality for building purposes. We make a specialty of Mt. Eagle sand for building purposes, on the principle that the best is the cheapest. We also furnish Mine Bank Sand, washed, for building purposes.

LIME for building purposes, of our own make.

CALCINED PLASTER and hair for plaster's use.

PATENT WALL PLASTER. We are agents for the use of the Patent Wall Plaster, which has been proven by actual experience to be the best quality of plaster offered for sale in this community. After mixing it with water, it is ready for use.

ALUMINITE CEMENT PLASTER. This is a natural product which comes from the far west, and has the advantage of requiring two parts of sand to one of cement; it is easily mixed and makes an excellent wall plaster for less money than the average patent wall plaster cost.

HYDRAULIC CEMENTS. We sell the Cumberland and Potomac, one of the very best standard cements produced in this country; also the Hoffman Brand of the Rosendale Cements, which has the highest reputation for good quality. We also keep a small stock of English Portland Cement for special use, which comes to us highly recommended as of the best quality. With these facts in our favor, we invite the patronage of those in want, with the full confidence that we furnish the best articles for the least money. A share of public patronage is solicited.

McCalmont & Co., BELLEFONTE, PA.
