Large Family Reunion-At Williamsport-Other News.

The birthday party at Wm. Krape's home was quite a surprise.

About seventy of our people attended the Veteran picuic at Hunter's Park. What other town of the same population showed more respect for the soldiers?

LARGE REUNION:-The Catherman family reunion, held at Laurelton, Union county, was represented by brothers, sisters, grand-children and greatgrand-children from different parts. The following persons from this county Jacob Catherman and sister Mrs. Jacob Bitner, (two of the family of seventeen children,) J. S. Moyer and family, J. K. Bitner and family, G. H. Long and family, R. U. Bitner and family and W. B. Bitner and family and W. B. Bitner and family. They had a grand time. This is a not-

Scott Decker, who has been in Illinois for the last three years, came home to see his many friends.

J. D. Long, Spring Mills' retired merchant, left last Saturday for Louisville, Ky., to attend the G. A. R. encampment. He is one of the many who en-dured hardships and lost one of his limbs. He is one of the deserving pen-

Ash Confer, since the arrival of a boy, Pa. is so proud that common people are nowhere.

AT WILLIAMSPORT:-Wm. Pealer, Howard Rossman, Wm. H. Smith and John Smith are among the number that went to Williamsport to attend the Democratic State Convention.

Mr. White said he would not like to take a contract to break stone for a living, it seems too much like work.

Smith Bros. are going east soon to buy their fall stock of furniture. Look out for bargains.

John Harper bought a cow sometime ago for $15 and sold it for $35. Mr. Harper always knows when he sees a SCARCE:- The squirrel season opened Sept. 2 without any reports from our hunters. By all accounts they are scarce.

Wm. Smith, the tanner, made a business trip through Clearfield and Jefferson counties buying up hides. Alexander McCoy is buying up cows to ship to the eastern market. REISH AHEAD:-Wm. Musser, from Millheim, the champion potato raiser, will loose the belt. Last week there was an item in the Reporter of Mr. Musser's large potato yield of 72 bushel on ¼ acre. Our landlord, J. S. Reish, knocks you out. He raised 114 bushels on less than % acre. Then there were four rows taken out for corn and beans. This was actual measurement in land and potatoes. Some weighed two pounds; all fine large ones. How is this that landlords get such big potato yields? hey must have a good fertilizer.

Dr. H. S. Alexander and family and centenial at Lewistown.

W. J. Thompson, Perry McKinley and Sadie Faust attended the Veteran picnic at Hunter's Park.

More STEALING:-Three dress patterns were stolen out of Thompson & Smith's store, also a bag of oats from Dr. Alexander. It is time to look up such sneak-thieves and give them the extent of the law.

Edward Allison has finished seeding. He said the ground never was in better condition.

Oscar Stover said, if you call him John Oscar, I will give him the first pair of QUITE TAKEN:—Quite a number from our section took in the reunion at Hunter's Park. Some of the boys were quite taken, we don't know if it was the pic nic or if it was the girls, but anyhow they didn't get home till Sunday.

Miss Cora Musser, one of Altoona's accomplished young ladies, was visiting at Mr. Jacob Bottorfs over Sunday. Our friends, Wade Evey and Arthur Kimport, both of Bellefonte, came up to the C. E. anniversary on Sunday even-

We are sorry to note the illness of Mrs. Sarah Etters. We wish her a speedy recovery.

The anniversary exercises on Sunday evening were a grand success, the church was nicely decorated and there was a full house. The following are the principal features of the programme of the evening: An address by R. M. Wasson; "History of the Society" by A. M. Wasson; "Echo from Boston Convention," by Miss Ella Glenn; recitation by Miriam Dreese; recitation by Ethel Dale; recitation by James Glenn; address by Prof. Gill; and a Consecration Service. exericises were interspersed with choice in Coburn. Howard Stover and wife spent Sunday with J. A. Bowersox.

The Lutheran festival Saturday evening was well attended. We were unable to learn the amount realized.

Miss L. Hauck, one of Sunbury's most popular young ladies, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. George Stover. Mrs. Baker left on Friday evening rain for Ohio. Mrs. W. H. Meyer has been on the sick list for the last week, but is now improving.

P. H. Stover was in the fruit business Saturday evening. Sold part of a car load of grapes in less than two hours. A. G. McLaughlin shipped three car loads of walnut logs to Baltimore last week. Mrs. Mary Vonada, of Woodward, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Hosterman.

BOALSBURG NEWS.

An Elaborate Wedding-Some Lonesome Boys-Other News.

ISHLER-MAYES WEDDING, -The wedding of P. S. Ishler and Ellie Mayes, on Thursday evening, was quite an elaborate affair. The bride and her two maids, Miss Della Ishler, sister of the groom and Jennie Condo, were very melydressed in white, the groom and John Womer, bore themselves with true dignity. After the ceremony, the bridal party and those who were fortunate to have special invitations repaired to the home of the bride where they fared sumptuously. The bride received many useful presents; we wish them a long and happy life.

LONESOME:-Miss Kit Wilson left this week for a place near Sandy Ridge, where she expects to begin her winter term of school soon. We sympathize with Luther, for we know he will be very lonesome.

Lonesome Too:—Miss Etta Felty, who has been making her home with Jacob Condo and attending school here, has gone back home again. Alvin don't feel quite so pleasant over it. It is quite a ways to the branch, and Adam lives there too.

Miss Maggie Miller, of near Rock Springs, is going to teach Shingletown school instead of Gertie Wieland, who gave up the school to teach one in Rush MUSIC:-Prof. P. H. Meyers is going to take charge of the music department, at the Grange Picnic.

IMPROVING:-Ex-Judge Riley has been on the sick list for two weeks past, but we are glad to see him around again.

Mr. Vanner, who has been very ill from the effects of a dose of poison, is getting along very well; he is able to be about the room some.

Holy Communion.

Sunday morning, Sept. 15th, at 10 o'clock, the holy communion will be celebrated in the Reformed church, at Zion. On the Saturday previous preparatory services will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.
