

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Large Field of Clover Seed—Moved his Mill—Personal Mention.
Fred, youngest child of W. H. Roush, has been quite sick for several days, but at present writing is considerably improved.
George Heberling and family, left last Friday for Grange Park, where they expect to stay during the entire week, camping out and seeing the sights.
Moved his Mill—Ed. Bubb has moved his shingle mill, which has been a familiar sight just above the dam for some time, to Huntington county, on Shaffer's creek, where he has the contract to saw about 300,000 shingles.
Killed last winter—Squirrels seem to be scarcer in this locality than for a number of years, which fact is difficult to account for as nuts never were more plentiful. Some are of the opinion the severe cold last winter was the cause of the present scarcity.
Potatoes in this locality are an immense yield. Sales are very slow at 20 cents and 25 cents per bushel.

The Misses Glenn, of Baileyville, were seen on our streets one day last week.
Came home—J. B. Ard and family returned home last week from a week's outing at a place in Huntingdon county known as Whipple's Dam, along Laurel Run, one of the best hunting and fishing grounds in Central Pennsylvania, and one much frequented by sportsmen from Altoona and Harrisburg.
Clover seed—Some of our wide-awake farmers are taking advantage of the present dry weather to hull their clover seed in the field, thereby saving a great amount of labor. The yield this year is excellent. N. E. Hess, on the "Branch," hulling 55 bushels of clean seed.
Typhoid fever—Misses Mabel Smith and Mary Kogan are both ill with typhoid fever, whether dangerous or not, we cannot say.

James Aikens, of Milroy, is a guest of his brother, the Rev. C. F. Aikens, on Main street.
Miss Mary Miller, of McLeveys Fort, spent Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Mrs. Anna Krebs and family.
Messrs. J. J. Fisher and Isaiah Beck, two of Halfmoon twp's prosperous farmers, were in town one day last week getting some repair work done at W. J. Myer's carriage works.
Henry Myers, a carriage manufacturer of Alexandria, Pa., was in town last week on business. Stay longer the next time, Henry.

First Frost—On Sunday early risers were given unmistakable evidence of the approach of winter by seeing vegetation covered with a coating of frost, the first of the season.
Romola Rumblings
We were slumbering for about one week but awoke full of bright aspirations and new ideas.
Mr. George Deitz moved to Wallace Run on the 3rd inst.
Hon. John A. Daley and wife attended the Veterans' Reunion, at Hunter's Park.
H. D. Martin, of Jacksonville, had an enjoyable time in our town week before last. Davie was the guest of H. P. Robb. They together with several more young folks, spent Tuesday evening at H. S. DeLong's and had a jolly good time. Martin is now a Freshman at F. & M. College, at Lancaster. We wish him success.

Miss Maggie Landenslayer, of Cedar Springs, spent a week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Fox, of this place. Miss Landenslayer is one of Clinton county's best teachers and an estimable young lady.
Mr. H. S. DeLong spent last Sunday at home.
Messrs. Thos. Miller, Snyder Ferringer, Wm. Thiel, Orvis Miller and Joseph Mann are at home from the lumber woods on a short vacation.
C. V. DeLong, and Carrie, made a business trip to Port Matilda and Unionville on the 7th inst.
Messrs. G. H. Mann and Rufus Johnson, of Beech Creek, made us a call last week.
I. A. and C. P. Packer spent last Sunday in Beech Creek.
L. O. Packer made a flying trip to Lock Haven, last week.
Our schools do not begin until Oct. 14. We would say Oct. 7th is late enough.
Jack Frost did not forget us last Saturday night.
H. P. Robb spent last Sunday in Eagleville.
The festival at Summit Hill was well attended by our young folks, who report having had a good time.

MILESBURG ITEMS.
What is Transpiring in the Town—Briefly Mentioned.
A Success—The social, held here last Saturday evening, by the M. E. church, was a success and everybody had a delightful time.
New Crossing—The concrete crossings are nearly all finished for the present.
There are quite a number of our citizens attending the grangers picnic at Centre Hall.
Returned Home—Mr. A. A. Kohlbecker, who attended the G. A. R. encampment, at Louisville, last week returned home on Tuesday and reports having a grand time.
Mr. Lester Jones, who for some time has been working in Bellefonte, has returned home to start in school.
Where There—Among those who attended the Democratic State Convention last Wednesday, at Williamsport were: A. Newman, A. McCollum, C. H. Leyman, Geo. Noll, Irvin Harvey, Homer Carr, J. M. Green, Roland Irvin and John Martin.
Going to Curtin—From all reports quite a number of our young people will attend the festival at Curtin's next Saturday evening, the 21st, providing it is good weather.
We congratulate Mr. Cunningham on the concrete crossings. He did some excellent work in our burg last week.

HOWARD PERSONALS.

Henry Smith arrived home on last Saturday, after spending quite a number of weeks in the woods.
John Weber, Will Mayes, John Holter, Oscar Lucas and W. E. Confer, took in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, in Williamsport, last week. All report having had a fine time.
Welch Bros. had very poor weather for their show while here, making the attendance a great deal smaller than it would have been.
H. Parker, of McKeesport, was visiting George Thomas last week.
Rev. King and family, of Milesburg, are visiting friends at this place.
J. G. Shutt and family, expect to move to Keau in a very short time.
A. M. Butler and father, visited friends in Lock Haven, on Last Sunday.
Miss Mattie Lucas is visiting at her brother, Joseph Lucas, in Baltimore.
Katie Confer is visiting at her Grandmother's, Mrs. William Williams, of Salona.
Mrs. Sharp, sister of Mrs. George Thomas, visited him on last Saturday.
B. Weber and H. A. Moore, attended the Democratic convention in Williamsport, on last Wednesday.

FIEDLER NOTES.

The farmers of this place are all done with their seeding, and are busy cutting corn.
The St. Paul Sunday school picnic was well attended last Saturday.
Mr. James Winkelblech and family are at present visiting in Juniata county.
At the Fair—Those who were in attendance at the Milton fair were: H. G. Stover and family; Luther Weaver and F. H. Stover. The latter two went on their wheels and report a grand time.
Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, from Pine Grove, were the guests of J. M. Weaver's last week.
Mrs. J. P. Condo, son and daughter from Moccasin, Ill., visited friends in this vicinity last week. On Sunday they left this place and are in attendance at granger picnic at Centre Hall.
Mr. Wm. Musser who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is slowly improving. Hope we may soon see him out again.

BUILDERS' SUPPLIES.

STONE for building purposes, furnished at our quarry or delivered in Bellefonte and vicinity, as well as loaded on the cars of the Bellefonte, Centre and Harrisburg Railroads, as customers may require.

FLAG STONES, manufactured from the very best quality Blue sand, the strongest and most durable stones for the purpose of the various sizes and thickness, ranging from one inch to six inches in thickness or more, to meet the wants of customers for street crossings, pavements and other walks, as well as window sills, lintels, door sills, steps and curb stones, dressed to order will be furnished at short notice for low prices. The quality of stone considered. After a thorough examination of the flag, paving and other dressed stones, which we propose to add to our already extensive line of Builders' Supplies, we can assure our patrons, that they are the best quality of stone for the purpose, ever offered for sale in this community.

BRICK for building, brick for paving sidewalks and streets, as well as fire brick of every description, will be furnished on short notice. We carry a limited stock on hand at our Yard Warehouses.

SAND of the very best quality for building purposes. We make a specialty of Mt. Eagle sand for building purposes, on the principle that the best is the cheapest. We also furnish Mine Bank Sand, washed, for building purposes.

LIME for building purposes, of our own make.

CALCINED PLASTER and hair for plasterers use.

PATENT WALL PLASTER. We are agents for the best quality Patent Wall Plaster, which has proven by actual experience to be the best wall plaster now offered for sale in this community. After mixing it with water, it is ready for use.

ALUMINITE CEMENT PLASTER. This is a natural product which comes from the far west, and has the advantage of requiring two parts of sand to one of cement; it is easily mixed and makes an excellent wall plaster for less money than the average patent wall plaster cost.

HYDRAULIC CEMENTS. We sell the Cumberland and Potomac, one of the very best standard cements produced in this country; also the Hoffman Brand of the Roseville Cements, which has the highest reputation for good quality. We also keep a stock of English Portland Cement for special use, which comes to us highly recommended as of the best quality. We invite the patronage of those in want, with the full confidence of the best money. A share of public patronage is solicited.
