

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT.

LEMONT NOTES.

Mr. D. A. Grove purchased a new potato raiser.
Charles Thompson and David Dale, two of our town boys, started on Monday for Freehold, N. J., where they intend going to school. We wish them success.
Mr. George Thompson, who was studying dentistry with Dr. Ward, of Bellefonte, left for Philadelphia where he expects to enter a dental college.
Our friend, Samuel Lucas formerly of this place, but now located in Lock Haven, is visiting his parents here.
Mr. John Olewine and family, of Bellefonte, were visiting at his wife's home over Sunday.
Two of our boys went down to Shiloh last Saturday evening. Did you ever get left, boys?
An entertainment was held in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening by a blind man. On Friday evening a show and also a lecture will be here. The show is Dad Backers tent show, the lecture is a prohibition lecture, in the Evangelical church.
It is Doc. and Sam instead of Paddy and Sam, as formerly. That travels below the creamery.
Our friend Robert Evey bought out William Mokies, who had run the confectionary store on Main street. He laid in a good supply of candy, cigars and tobacco. Call around and see him; he will treat you right.
Mr. C. O. Peterson and Angelina Decker were united in marriage, in Bellefonte, by Rev. Gearhart. We wish them happiness through life.
The following persons are on the sick list: Mrs. Carrie Dale, of Shiloh; Mrs. John Bungardner, of Oak Hill; little May Grove, of Lemont and Calvin Grove.

STATE COLLEGE NEWS.

Important Changes in the Faculty—The Junior Class Submits.

Mr. John H. Leete has been appointed instructor in the dept. of mathematics.
Mr. Maurice J. Thompson, late instructor of mathematics, has entered the law school of Columbia College.
Prof. Edwin L. Sparks, late principal of the preparatory dept. has entered upon his duties as instructor of history, in the University of Chicago.
Carl D. Fehr has been appointed instructor in the dept. of Languages.
Miss Harriet A. McElwain has resigned the professorship of history, to assume the duties of Register of the College, and Secretary of the faculty.
Mr. Geo. D. Green has accepted a position as instructor in the dept. of Zoology.
Mrs. Anna A. McDonald is at present employed in the College library.
Messrs. Ralph F. Martin, Frank Rodgers and Dunham Barton, of the class of '95 are with us for a short time.

THE FRESHMEN.—The Sophs. have been busy the past few days taking some of the "hominess" out of the Freshmen, and although it is a large class to handle, yet they seem to have done it up to perfection.

JUNIORS SUBMIT.—The Juniors took the history examination that has been the bone of contention for so long, on Monday morning, then entered, and took up their delayed College work. We are very glad indeed that the class were able to see the wisdom of this line action, which we believe was the only honorable way they could re-enter College.

BOALSBURG EVENTS.

J. P. Meyers left last week for Lancaster, Pa., where he expects to take the second year in Franklin & Marshall college.

Edward Meyers, brother of J. P., is attending State College. He went over last week to begin his work, but did not stay, for the class have some trouble that has not been settled up yet from last year.

Alven Meyers starts for Lock Haven State Normal School this week.
Luther Lesher started to college last week, but did not stay on account of the trouble in his class.

NEW MINISTER.—Rev. Hepler, of Clarion county, who was called by the Presbyterian congregations of Lemont and Boalsburg, is coming this week, but the day before he starts he is to be married, so there will not be any contention between the young ladies who would try to captivate the young preacher. He will preach here next Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Kreamer returned home from quite a long visit to Union county. She reports a very pleasant time.

Quite a number of our good farmers fitted to the picnic on Saturday. They did not take boats along, but went well prepared with rubber boots.

The first frost, Saturday night, took us by surprise, and it changed the appearance of things very much in this section.

WOODWARD GLEANING.

SICK TEACHER.—Prof. Thos. Auman, from Rebersburg, Pa., who will have charge of our school, which opens to-day (Monday) moved with his family last Thursday—as introductory he was seized with an acute attack of indigestion.

VISITORS.—We notice as strangers within our gates on Sunday, John McEntire A. Weaver and Mrs. Ed. Mauch, from Millheim, and Warren Ettlinger from The Wild West.

J. C. F. Motz and Samuel Mowery were visiting friends in Millburg on Sunday.

NEW RIFLE.—C. C. Oradorf purchased a handsome Martin repeating rifle. We predict his deer record will be greatly improved. Charles you ought to have a peep sight.

PRES PLENTY.—B. F. Yearick and E. H. Musser brought home a wagon load of fox grapes from Union county. They say they want lots of pies this winter.

DEDICATION POSTPONED.—The new United Evangelical church at this place, which was to be dedicated the 6th of next month has been indefinitely postponed.

ONLY A MOUSE.—A mouse in church Sunday evening afforded as much amusement to the masculine part of the audience as it brought terror to the females assembled.

Abraham Treaster and Emanuel Vonada, from Coburn, took a pleasure trip to Snyder county on Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Dolan, from Bellefonte, is down in our town visiting her father James Dolan.

The United Evangelical Sunday school is very largely attended.

Thomas Hosterman arrived home on Monday. He says he was homesick to see his pa-pe and ma-me, Thomas how is it.

Lancan Burreis is a welcome caller at the home of C. W. Hosterman.

J. L. Kreamer and Prof. W. R. Motz arrived safe home from the G. A. R. reunion at Louisville, Ky. They say they had a gay time.

GORTON HEIGHTS.

An Accident—A Remarkable Animal—And Other News About Town as May Occur.

LEG FRACTURED.—Mr. Jacob Beigh-toi, while hauling lumber for Mr. M. P. Bock, was kicked on the leg, below the knee while starting his team. He stationed himself on the front end of his load with his legs hanging down in front. One horse not starting as quick as the other, Jacob thought he would start him with his foot. But the horse returned the compliment and nearly breaking his leg. It fractured the bone pretty badly. Jacob seems to have very bad luck.

Mr. W. B. Lansberry expects to take an extensive trip next week. Starting on Monday, going to Emporium, thence to Williamsport, back to Philipsburg then returns home to resume his duties as operator. Mr. George Metzger of Beech Creek, Pa., will fill his vacancy during his absence.

NEW HOUSE.—Mr. Jacob Shillenberger is erecting a new house for his own use during the coming winter and summer. He will be ready to occupy it in a few days.

VICIOUS ANIMAL.—There seems to be a very vicious animal inhabits this part of the country. It is known by its loud voice to be a "Scigh Ox."

Mr. and Mrs. P. Bock, of New Ringgold, Schuylkill county, Pa., are visiting their son M. P. Bock of this place.

LARGE FIELD.—Mr. E. Wes Fye can beat the country for raising potatoes. He has a patch which contains 1/4 of an acre, and produced 125 bushels. All are good sized potatoes.

Dr. H. P. Bock, of Philipsburg, made us a flying visit last Thursday.

Mr. James Kidwell and family will start on Monday evening, Sept. 16th, for West Virginia on a visit a few months. We wish them a pleasant time.

A DANGEROUS JUMP.—Mr. Wm. Heverly, of Romolo, while coming from Snow Shoe on a coal train undertook to get off while it was running at the rate of 30 miles per hour. He made the jump while the brakeman held the light for him to see, and in place of him lighting on his feet, lit on the opposite end and plowing up the cinders for a short distance with his nose, leaving his marks in the ground and also carrying a few on his face. Well, the next time you ride a train you had better walk.

Mr. Willis Bullock went home over Sunday to see his family.

Miss Annie Bock's smiling face was with her parents over Sunday.

GATESBURG NEWS.

The Post Office and Station Entered—At the Picnic—Local Items.

The farmers are busy cutting corn. It is a very good crop.

AT THE PICNIC.—Many of the people of this vicinity are attending the picnic at Centre Hall this week. We wish them a pleasant time.

The nimrods are busy from morning to night looking for squirrels, but report them very scarce.

ROBBERS.—Burglars broke into the railroad office at Penna. Furnace, last Thursday night and succeeded in getting but a few cents. Not satisfied, they went to try the post office, a short distance away. Here they fared a little better, getting a few pennies and a supply of Mr. Archey's tobacco. No clue to them can be found.

Miss Mary Bollinger, of Aaronsburg, is visiting her aunt, at Fairbrook.

Mr. Geo. Harpster, of Pine Grove, was through this section last week on a business trip. He looks very well and always drives a good team.

Mrs. Geo. Rider, of near Gatesburg, has been ill for the past few weeks. Her sickness is catarrh of the stomach. The attending physician is Dr. Thompson, of Stormstown. We hope she may soon recover.

THOSE MULES.—Rudolph Strayer, of Gatesburg, purchased a pair of mules a few weeks ago and started huckstering last week. When returning home, between Bellwood and Tyrone, the mules took flight at a wheelman and became uncontrollable. Mr. Strayer, seeing the danger, leaped from the wagon uninjured; the mules ran some distance and turned the wagon into a ditch, breaking it considerably. Mr. Strayer gathered the fragments together and got home somehow. He says he is almost through with mules.

SPRING MILLS.

Wm. Allison's Invention—Uncle Sam after Ambrosia—An early Frost.

J. F. Stover and family, of Dillsburg, are here visiting his mother, Mary A. Stover, and his many other friends.

ALLISON'S INVENTION.—William Allison has invented a machine to cut off corn, and it proves a success. It beats the old way of cutting corn.

POTATOES PLENTY.—C. P. Long is busy shipping potatoes. Some days he ships two car loads. He reports the market poor for them, and that he has three car loads on the rails now not sold.

The long, looked for time is here—Grange picnic. Many a boy has been watching the weeks and days go by, so that he may have an outing and a good time.

AFTER THEM.—The people who sold the drink called "Ambrosia" for a soft drink were taken up by Uncle Sam's deputy. It cost them $30, and some even more. They found out that it was no soft drink.

Jack frost gave us a call. Everything was white. It froze the corn and tomatoes, but the corn was ready for it.

Elmer Blair is the happy father of a baby girl. No wonder that he wears such a big, broad smile.

The democrats who attended the convention at Williamsport from here, also took in Buffalo Bill's wild west show. They report having a good time.

Papa Auman is on the sick list. He is in a critical condition.

J. Victor Royer left last Monday for Dickinson college. Vic, while here, was agent for several books, among them a very handy kitchen and receipt book. We hope all, who could, bought one so that they need not borrow of neighbors.

Miss Orpha Gramley left on Thursday for Carlisle, where she will attend college. We wish her success.

COBURN HAPPENINGS.

Heavy frosts Sunday morning.

Daniel Rote, of Aaronsburg, was seen in Coburn on Sunday.

SNEAK THIEVES.—The other night Levi Spiglemyer's lard was stolen out of his cellar and a lot of eggs from Luther Gulsewhite. It is time to look up such sneak thieves and give them the extent of the law.

David Dorman and wife, of Feidler, spent Sunday with J. Harbauch.

Prof. A. J. Harter and J. A. Harter returned home Wednesday morning from a trip to Maytown and York.

Miss Nora Kling left on Monday morning train for Centre Hall to attend picnic.

The Aaronsburg No. 1 band took the early train, Monday, for Centre Hall. They must have lots of good things, according to the load of baggage they had.

Adam Ulrich and wife, of Altoona, arrived in Coburn Saturday evening. Will spend about two weeks visiting friends.

John Stonebraker is at present laid up with a carbunkle.

Emanuel Musser and wife were welcome callers at the hospitable home of J. Stover on Sunday.

Mr. A. Wilson, of Lock Haven, is spending a few days with his brother.

LOGANTON DUDE.—A dude from Loganton, whose best girl lives in this place, met with quite a mishap on Saturday evening. The dude had too much of Eby's best. The party name better be more careful next time or some one will give you the extent of the law for cruelty to animals.

WOLFS STORE ITEMS.

Wolfs Store was well represented at the Union S. S. picnic, near Rebersburg, last Saturday.

Mr. Jonathan Sheats and wife spent last Sunday visiting at Booneville, Clinton county, Pa.

Mr. C. D. Weaver was to Bellefonte on business, last Friday.

Mr. E. R. Wolf has gone to Aaronsburg to teach a six months' term of school. We wish him success.

Cutting off corn is what the farmers are doing at present. The crop is a good one.

Persons desiring to have cider made on D. B. Weaver's press, will please remember that Tuesday of every week is their day for making.

D. H. Wolf is agent for a cake beater, a valuable article that gives perfect satisfaction and should be in every home.

Last Sunday Jack Frost made his appearance.

D. E. Weaver spent last Saturday and Sunday circulating among friends in Pennsylv. Pitt. PAT.

MADISONBURG ITEMS.

Sabbath Desecrations—Harrowing Wheat—A Child Severely Scalded.

The frost on Sunday morning was a severe one.

HARD CRUST.—Many of our farmers are harrowing their wheat fields. The violent thunder storm on the evening of the 6th inst., made such a hard crust on the fields that the wheat cannot come up.

MISSIONARIES NEEDED.—It seems that some people do not respect the Sabbath, or they would not break it at will. On Sunday, little after noon, the Queen City Show arrived at this place from Rebersburg, and immediately started to up its tent. The show would have had ample time on Monday to reach this place and set up its tent in time to show in the evening. Sometime ago a butcher from Centre Hall, came to this vicinity on Sunday and killed a beef. Indeed it seems we had need of missionaries in our midst.

The hand festival, on Saturday evening, proved to be a failure. It was entirely to cold to stand around in the woods.

SEVERELY SCALDED.—Sometime ago a little child of Arthur Racha's was playing around a washing machine, filled with scalding water, and pulled the pin out at the side of the tub. The water splashed over the child and severely scalded its one arm, side and leg. The child has been in a critical condition ever since and is not out of danger yet.

Rev. Wm. Bierly a preacher of the United Evangelical church, is at home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bierly.

PLEASANT GAP.

Our public schools open Sept. 30th. We will have new teachers.

Miss Elsie Griffith, of Centre Hall, has been visiting friends in our town.

HAND HURT.—Abraham Beard met with a painful accident while working at Nye Bank, having his hand badly cut with a pick.

Prof. J. F. Harrison, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his mother in this place.

Mrs. Wertz, of Renova, is at present visiting her brother J. C. Mullinger, our popular hotel man.

Since Harry Hile and James Cori have gone into the White-wash business, it makes them closely related. Future contracts may make them still closer related.

Prof. McKeen gave a novel musical entertainment here on Saturday evening. Mr. McKeen, who is blind, was ably assisted by his wife the exercises were held in the M. E. church.
