JURORS FOR NOVEMBER COURT

Drawn on Monday by the Jury Commissioners.

COMS. JOHN DECKER OBJECTS

To the Selection of a Democratic Clerk—Grand and Traverse Jurors—Is Your Name on The List?

The following is the list of jurors drawn for November term of court, commencing on Monday, November 25th, 1895. The jury was drawn on Monday by commissioners Joseph J. Hoy and John D. Decker and Sheriff John P. Condo.

There is one redeeming feature about our friend Decker and that is when he thinks he is right he will take a stand and stick to it until convinced otherwise. Mr. Decker asserts that the sheriff should have notified the clerk. Mr. Condo claims it is not his business, and here they had the contention. The following is the list:

TWO PROMINENT CITIZENS.

Constans Curtin died on Monday 2 a. m., at his residence at Roland, Pa., this county. His illness was due to a disorder of the stomach. He was in failing health and about two weeks ago returned from a trip to Bedford Springs much improved. Upon his return he grew worse and after about a week's illness he died.

Mr. Curtin was born in Bellefonte on March 8, 1817, and was the second son of Roland Curtin, Sr., by his second wife, the latter being a daughter of United States Senator Andrew Gregg, and was the last surviving brother of Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, dec'd. His entire life was spent in the vicinity of the old Eagle Forge, the first iron plant in this part of the state, and during his active business life he was well known among iron makers. Besides owning a number of valuable farms in this county he was a stock-holder in the Milton iron and nail company, the Williamsport iron and nail company, the Centre county bank, of this place, and was interested in the Curtin estate. He was a thirty-second degree Mason and Constans Commandery, Knights Templar, of Bellefonte, will perpetuate his name. Being a bachelor the state will get five per cent. of his $150,000 estate. He was interred in the family lot in Bellefonte Union cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

Death of Henry Brown.

Henry Brown died at his home in Hublersburg, Walker twp., Centre Co., on Saturday evening Sept. 28, 1895, in the 74th year of his age.

The subject of this notice, was born in Haines township, Centre Co., on June 26, 1822, and was the son of John Brown, who came to Haines township from York county, Pa., and was one of the early settlers of that region. With the exception of a period covering about three years, when he lived at what is now called Loganton, Clinton county, the entire life of the deceased was spent in Haines and Walker townships, this county.

Early in 1857 he came to Hublersburg and engaged in the mercantile business at which he continued until the time of his death covering a period of more than thirty eight (38) years. During these years he accumulated considerable property and frequently invested with other persons, money, in coal and lumber operations.

In early manhood he united with the Lutheran church, of which he continued a member until after his removal to Hublersburg, where, because there was no Lutheran church in the town, he united with the Reformed church of which he continued a faithful and devoted member to the time of his death.

Mr. Brown was twice married, first to Catharine Stamm, a daughter of David Stamm, also one of the early settlers of Haines township, on July 1st, 1852. This woman died April 16, 1886. The second wife, who survives him, was Miss Julia Rockey, a daughter of Jacob Rockey, of Walker township. Mr. Brown also leaves to survive him three children all of the first marriage viz John Brown of Loganton, Clinton Co. Pa; David Brown, of Herron, Jackson Co. Minnesota; Mary E. Womadorf, of Green twp., Clinton county. One child of this union Sarah J. died in infancy.

Mr. Brown was one of the substantial, leading citizens of the community in which he lived, careful, honest, methodical in business, liberal in his contributions to the church and county. Sober, upright and devout, he led such a life that can be worthily and profitably imitated, and which gives full assurance that he now enjoys the bliss which belong to those who faithfully serve the Lord their God.

A Pleasant Affair.

A very social company was given in honor of Miss Alma Maurer, of Mackeyville, Clinton county, on Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Zellers, on Allegheny street. Among the guests that were present were Miss Celea Armor, Mrs. E. Garman, Miss Sarah Benner and Miss Annastasia Armor. The most pleasant part of the gathering was the fact that every one present were ladies who knew each other when they were young girls.—News.

Second Crop Strawberries.

Michael Stover, of South Phillipsburg, is the owner of some strawberry plants that have started in to furnish him with a second crop this season. When the first crop ripened Mr. Stover picked over two quarts from the plants, and if the frost doesn't destroy them within the next few days he will gather half as many more.

Died in Chicago.

John S. Glenn, son of John Glenn, deceased, of Milesburg, and cousin of our fellow townsman, Chas. Glenn, died at home in Chicago, Sept. 25, 1895. The deceased learned his trade, that of machinist, with Duncan & Hale, in this place some years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss a son and daughter.

A Pair.

A little Miss was added to the family circle of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Love, last week. The Judge now has a pair and is exceedingly proud of them.

A BATCH OF BREEZY LETTERS

Gathered by a Corps of Alert Correspondents.

FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

What is Going on Outside of Bellefonte—Happenings in other Communities—Favorable Crop Reports—Other Interesting Items.

PINE GROVE MILLS,

All the Important Events Gathered by a Careful Correspondent.

HICKORY NUTS PLENTY:—Hickory nuts are very plenty along the mountain and are being gathered by the bushels since the frosts have caused them to fall.

MONEY FOUND:—A pocket book containing money was found on the White Hall road, near where Harry Yarnell lives. The owner of same can have it returned by calling at J. B. Krebs & Bro's. store and prove property.

THROAT AFFLICTION:—Capt. Christ Dale, of Pleasant Gap was visiting his sister and other relatives in town last week. Mr. Dale has been suffering with a disease of the throat for some time and has just returned from Philadelphia where he was being treated with very little benefit resulting.

Mrs. Kerseer a niece of Mrs. Catharine Krebs from Milton was a guest of the Krebs' about here for several days.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS:—Our schools opened on Monday with a good attendance. G. W. Ward at the head of the grammar school, while Miss Rebecca Bollinger presides over the little folks. The school house and grounds have undergone repairs and there is no reason why we should not have a successful term.

HORSE KILLED:—J. P. Myers was so unfortunate as to have one of his most valuable horses fall over an embankment and run a stick almost through itself, from the result of which it soon after died.

GOT HOME:—Mr. H. R. Smith, who has been ill at his son's home at Potter's Mills for some time, as the result of a paralytic stroke, was brought home last week and we are glad to say that he seemed to bear the long time very well and is getting on as well as can be expected.

GOT A SQUIRREL:—One day last week John Saucerman, our most noted hunter succeeded after much trouble, in capturing and caging alive a valuable gray squirrel and now has it on exhibition at his home, John is becoming a great hunter, and we would not be surprised to see him some of these days start for the Rocky mountains in quest of wild animals for Barnum & Bailey's great circus.

ALMOST LOST:—Miss Maude Hepburn has left for Tyrone, where she expects to stay during the winter, and as a result George R. wanders about like one who is lost.

AFTER DEER:—Tuesday, was the first day in which deer may be legally killed, and a crowd is being organized for a hunt. In our next letter we hope to be able to tell how we feasted on tender and juicy venison steaks.

MADISONBURG ITEMS.

A Newsy Letter—New Store—The Sick—Visitors—Peculiar Antics.

The people are commencing to hush corn. It is a little early.

NEW STORE:—Smith Bros., from Williamsport, who took possession of Roush & Limbert's store last week, are getting new goods daily, and there is every prospect that we will have just the kind of a store that we have been in need of for some time. Success to you gentlemen.

VISITORS:—Some of the visitors in this section were: Mrs. Samuel Hazel and daughters, at John Roush's; Nathaniel Yearick at U. S. Shafers; and Mr. Cery Shaffer, of Zion, at— Minnie shall I say where?

THE SICK LIST:—At this writing we find the following people on the sick list, but we are glad to say they all have hopes of recovering again. viz: John Shaffer, complication of diseases; John Wesner, heart trouble; Mrs. Benj. Limbert, two ribs fractured; Mrs. L. C. Stover injuries received from a fall; Israel Spayde, some strange malady which more or less affects the whole family; and Mrs. Israel Vonada.

Benjamin Smeltzer, of Dakota, Ill., a former resident of this place, came last week to see his many friends in this community once more. Mr. Smeltzer, and a number of his Illinois friends, had a special Pullman car and took an excursion through the southern states, visiting the Louisville Soldiers Encampment and the Atlantic Exposition on the trip. Mr. Smeltzer hasn't been well since his arrival, but it is expected that Pennsylvania air will soon restore his health again.

GOING WEST:—On Friday Harry Hockman, of this place, and Al. Hockman, of Hublersburg, will start for Stevenson Co. Ill.

Mrs. Geo Kidder, of Pittsburg, is at present visiting her parents, Joseph Bierley's. It is rumored that Mr. Kidder will soon move to this place.

GOING TO ILLINOIS:—Mr. Thos. Shaffer, of this place, will soon move to Dakota, Ill., to keep house for Benj. Smeltzer whose wife died recently. Mr. Shaffer will sell his stock and furniture, privately to the highest bidder.

PECULIAR ANTICS:—Some time ago some one tore up Mr. Joseph Spangler's house, twice, from garret to cellar. It was generally supposed that it was a robber or some one that had a grudge at Mr. Spangler. One morning last week, some one carried the baby on the garret and hid it. Surely no robber would do that. It is generally supposed that the mischief maker is a young girl that Mr. Spangler's took to raise. Why the girl would tear up the house or hide the baby is not known.

FREE SCHOLARSHIP.

To Lock Haven State Normal for the Winter Term.

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT will give away a free scholarship to the Lock Haven State Normal, for the Winter Term which commences January 6th, 1896, and continues 12 weeks. Fire Alarm.

On Saturday evening there was a bit of excitement occasioned by the alarm of fire. Mrs. C. M. Garman accidentally let a lamp fall on the floor of their parlor, in the annex to the hotel. The lamp exploded and caused a brisk fire for a short time. The carpet, rugs, window curtains and the woodwork were burned before everything was extinguished. The fire companies turned out promptly but their services were not needed.
