THE FINAL DEMANDS

Of European Governments on the Sultan of Turkey.

AN ULTIMATUM WILL COME NEXT.

The Demands but Slightly Modified from Those of May Last-Details of the Recent Massacre of Armenians at Akhissar. The Discontent in Crete.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 16 .--- M. Cambon, the French ambassador; M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador, and Sir Phillip Currie, the British ambassador, on Monday presented to Said Pasha, the minister of foreign affairs, the final demands of the Powers for Amenian reforms. If this is not accepted an ultimatum will be presented. No further modifications will be permitted.

The scheme drops the demand for a Christian high commissioner, but otherwise it is almost identical with the proposals of last May. It is believed, however, that Russia hesitates to force an acceptance, because she fears ultimate Armenian autonomy.

News received from Trebizonde is to the effect that a Russian postal steamer is lying there with 2,000 Christian refugees on board. Two other vessels, also full of refugees, are there awaiting the arrival of Russian ships to transport them to Batoum.

Reliable news has been received here that fifty Armenians were killed and a number wounded at Akhissar, in the villayet of Aiden, on the Anatolian railway, by a Moslem mob. The slaughter occurred on Oct. 9, which was market day, when many Armenians had gathered from adjacent villages.

Early in the morning a Turkish rough, finding that the Armenians were not armed, picked a quarrel and shot one of them. There was then raised on all sides the cry: "Why hesitate to massacre the infidels?" A mob of Turks, armed with revolvers and knives, then locted the market and massacred the helpless Armenians. Their bodies were thrown into the wells. It is stated that the mudir was responsible for the attack.

No women or children were injured, probably on account of the arrival of Kaimaikan from the village of Gieve, these miles distant, who made valiant efforts at the risk of his own life to safe the Christians. Otherwise the slaughter would have been complete.

The panic is reviving in Constantinople, on account of the continued isolated attacks, and the Armenians are again flocking into the churches. The police disregard the safe conduct cards given to the Armenians by the foreign embassies, and they insult and maltreat the holders of them

The Constantinople correspondent of the London Standard blames the Armenian revolutionary committees for forcing the Armenians to close their shops and to maintain the appearance of a panic when the Armenians themselves are ready to resume business.

"I visited the prison," the correspondent says, "and questioned the prisoners,] and found that there were no serious complaints against the police. The inspecting commission sent a list of fifty-six rounded by the flames and both perished.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 .- There is still no official confirmation here of the reported assassination of the queen of Korna, and although there may be politic motives for a concealment for a time of such a tragedy, officials here think it possibly the queen may be alive, as the dispatches are FIVE KILLED AND MANY INJURED somewhat doubtful on this point.

affairs existed in Korea in 1832, an i that then the report was circulated that she was dead. At that time this same Tai-Wen-Kun, the father of the king, who is said to have led the last attempt upon the queen's life, attacked the palace with a large band of adherents and captured the persons of the king and queen. The queen was condemned to be poisoned, but by the sublime devotion of one of her handmaidens she escaped. The maid took the poison and the queen was secretely carried off by her friends and hidden in the mountains, while the report was sent out that she had been killed. The Chinese government, which maintained its suzerainty over Korea almost entirely through the active support and sympathy of the queen, took active steps to redress her wrongs, and, sending a large force of troops to Korea, reinstated her and her husband on the throne and carried old Tai-Wen-Kun off into exile in China, from which he was subsequently released.

NINE WERE DROWNED

By the Capsizing of the Staamer Freddie M .- Arrival of Survivors.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 16 .- The steamer City of Dallas, just arrived from Belize, brought several surviving passengers of the lost steamer Freddie M., and full particulars of the accident.

The Freddio M., which was an American vessel, and the mail steamer for the northern district of British Honduras capsized last Toursday in Chetumal, or Esperite, Santo bay, near the coast of Yucatan, and about twelve miles from Corosal. She had forty-seven passengers and a crew of eleven aboard when a heavy squall struck her and capsized her in about eighteen feet of water.

Part of the boat became detached by the accident, forming rafts, on which the surviving passengers found safety. The passengers and crew spent the night and all next day on these rafts, undergoing great suffering, and were rescued the next night, some of them in a thoroughly exhausted condition. It was then found that Mr. G. Benneige of New Orleans, W. R. McDonald, H. Hudson, I. McCoy and Mrs. M. Rabelo of Belize, Mrs. Wordsworth of Orangewalk and her son and daughter. and one of the crow named Toby had been drowned. The survivors were well cared for at Corosal.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 14 .- Four people were fatally burned near here while fighting prairie fires. Edward St. German, aged 12, was engaged with an elder brother in an endeavor to save several hay stacks, when their clothing caught fire. Edward was burned to a crisp and the elder brother so badly burned that he cannot recover. At another point some Canadian Pacific railroad employes were endeavoring to drive back the flames from the railroad property. Edward Lukyn, a section man, Street Car at Pittsburg.

It is recalled that a similar state of | of a Party of Six Who Attempted to Cross the Patapsco River, in Maryland, Four Were Drowned by the Upsetting of Their Boat.

> PITTSBURG, Oct. 14 .- By an accident last night on the Carnegie branch of the West End Traction road three people were killed and twelve or fourteen people badly injured. The killed are: George Roth-man, furniture dealer at Carnegie; Jacob Heisel, glass dealer at Carnegie; Mrs. Elizabeth Bishop, Pittsburg; Professor Alexander Phillips, Pittsburg; Miss Emma Laughlin, Pittsburg. Three more deaths are probable. Michael Foley and wife were taken to the hospital in a critical confition, and little Jimmy Foley is considered seriously hurt. Eleven others received injuries more or less serious.

The accident happened to car No. 56 on the long hill coming into the west end on its way to Pittsburg. Just as the car started down the heavy grade the brake broke, and it was soon beyond the control of the motorman. The speed became terrific, and when a sharp curve near the foot of the hill was reached the car made a wonderful leap, landing trucks uppermost in McCarthy's run, six or eight feet below the track grade.

The accident occurred at a lonely spot, and it was quite a while before assistance reached the sufferers, who were wedged tightly in the wreck, which was most complete

When the conductor saw that the car was beyond control he laid down on the floor and advised the others to follow his example. The killed were found wedged under the roof of the car, which had been smashed in upon them. The escape of any of those on the car was miraculous.

DROWNED IN PATAPSCO RIVER. Four of a Party of Six Meet a Watery Grave.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14 .- Four men were drowned vesterday afternoon by the capsizing of a pleasure boat in the middle branch of the Patapsco river. They were: Harry Stiner, ferryman; Fred Valkman, bartender; Walliam A. Reynolds, baker, and James Huston, occupation unknown.

All the men were residents of this city, and, together with two companions, attempted to cross the river from Ferry Bar to Meter's Pavillion, in Anne Arundel county. A strong east wind made the water very rough, and when about half way across the boat began to fill. The men became frightened, and in a moment t' 3 frail craft went over, leaving the pleasure seekers struggling in the water. A number of rowboats went to the rescue, but be fore they reached the capsized boat the men named had gone down for the last time. Their companions were rescued with difficulty, and taken to their homes. None of the bodies have been recovered.
