Call Up The American Fibre Chamois Co.

After seeing the advertisement of a store in this town, and a clipping of "Orienta" sold as genuine Fibre Chamois, they say: "No firm can afford to advertise a thing so violently untrue."

After being caught the first thing a boy would do, is to buy a few yards of the genuine stuff and boldly parade it before his outraged customers. This only "adds insult to injury."—nuf ced.

HERE'S A SNAP 4 U

1854 yards, assorted cotton goods came to us last Friday as a special bargain and so to you on the same terms. This is a remarkable thing (in the face of the marked advance in cottons.)

HERE'S ANOTHER.

200 pairs infants and childrens shoes, price 15 to 30 cents, usually sold at double. This is worthy of your attention.

If U buy goods in Bellefonte for your own interest U cannot afford to do so without looking through The New Racket.

FROM STORMSTOWN.

A Newsy Letter from Halfmoon Township—Interesting Turtle.

Farmers in this vicinity are busy with their corn. A better crop was never grown through this valley.

APPLE BUTTER:—Apple butter making is occupying the attention of a great many housewives at the present time about here and almost any day you can see loads of apples on their way to Maternus to be made into cider.

DRY SPELL:—If the present dry weather continues any great length of time, our little burg will experience a water famine. At present the only water is obtained from one well and a small spring and even these are very low. Water was never known to be so scarce here as at present.

SCHOOL OPENS:—On Monday, the 7th inst., our schools opened for the winter term with the following teachers in charge: N. F. Krebs, upper Stormstown; Miss Mary Bollinger, lower Stormstown; W. H. Roush, Centennial; M. E. Heberling, Centre Line, and Miss Carrie DeLong, Loveville. The Tan Hill school did not begin until the 14th on account of the directors not having come to a decision as to having a school there this winter. Miss Sally Barr was selected as teacher.

GOT HURT:—M. E. Heberling, teacher of the Centre Line school, was so unfortunate the other night, while at a chestnut boiling party, to get his leg badly hurt and at present writing is very lame, but is still able to continue his duties as teacher.

Mr. Cori and wife and two pretty and interesting little girls and Mrs. Askue, of Altoona, were guests at the hospitable home of Isaac Beck and wife at Centre Line, on Sunday.

QUITE ILL:—Mrs. Capt. Hunter is suffering much from a bad cold and indigestion as to require the services of Dr. Thompson. We hope she may have a speedy recovery.

AN OLD TURTLE:—A short time ago a turtle was found in the road between State College and Stormstown, and on examination the figures 1842 and the letters S. T. S. were found out on the under side of the shell. The creature is being kept as a curiosity by Capt. Hunter. If the person who cut these marks on the turtle is still living and sees this, we would be very glad to hear from him through these columns.

BEARS AND TURKEYS:—A large black bear was seen one evening last week by Horace Hunter in a corn field just below town. We suppose Mr. Bruin came off the ridge to get a little corn but he had better make his visits scarce as some of the nimrods are onto him and are anxious to give him a warm reception should his visits become frequent. Wild turkeys are reported plenty on the ridge.

INSTALLATION:—On Friday evening, the 11th inst., was a red letter day for Halfmoon Lodge No. 854, I. O. of O. F. It being the occasion of the installation of their officers for the ensuing term of six months. Mr. Cronister, D. D. G. M., of Port Matilda, assisted by P. G.'s W. H. Fry, of Pennsylvania Lodge, No. 276, and P. G.'s Gever, Biddle and Way of Halfmoon Lodge. The services were gone through with precision and dispatch. The officers installed were N. G.—J. W. Scott; V. G.—J. W. Baser; assistant secretary—George Tyler; treasurer—Robt. P. Gray. After the work was all gone through with a number of excellent addresses were made by members of the home lodge and visitors. Prominent among which we mention those delivered by Mr. Cronister, Geo. Grazer, Mr. Miles, Mr. Lever and W. H. Fry. And the last part of the program was not the least important, which was an excellent oyster supper given by

THE LOCK HAVEN STATE NORMAL.

The above is a correct portrait of the building and grounds of the State Normal, at Lock Haven. It is one of the completest and best equipped educational institutions of its kind in the state. There now are about 400 students in attendance, while the next term gives promise of even more. A card addressed to Dr. Jos. Eldon, principal, Lock Haven, Pa., will bring in return a beautifully illustrated catalogue. The Centre Democrat is offering a Free Scholarship to this institution for the winter term. See particulars in another column.

Halfmoon lodge to its members and all visitors present, in all numbering fifty-two persons. The way the oysters did disappear is a caution, but still the supply did not run short and no one left the room saying that he did not have all he could eat. It was in the small hours of the morning when the banqueters began to leave and all are unanimous in the verdict that it was an evening well spent.

NITTANY ITEMS.

APPLE THIEVES:—The apple crop is yielding abundantly. Sam Tweed has been shipping winter apples, some miscreants, knowing of the apples being piled in the orchard, conceived the idea of stealing them. Mr. Tweed's dog and gun hurried them, and their trail could easily be followed by the apples that were scattered in their rapid retreat. It would be an excellent remedy for this petty thieving, for the farmers to organize "a shot gun brigade."
