A Lot of Interesting Items Carefully Gathered.

The pleasant weather Sunday morning brought many out to communion services in the Lutherau church. Rev. Lesher preached an able sermon.

AN EXPERT :--- Harry Hensel has proven to be an expert at cleaning organs.

John Griffith has put his new milk wagon on the road ; it is a dandy.

Too DRY :- Many farmers had to abandon husking corn on account of the fodder being too dry to handle. The recent rain will no doubt help it somewhat.

IN BUSINESS :- L. H. Gettig took possession of Sechler & Cos., meat market Wednesday. He will not move his family to Bellefonte before spring.

On last Friday afternoon an interesting literary program was carried out in connection with the school work at each of the three schools here.

CONFERENCE : - On next Saturday quarterly conference convenes here, there will be preparetory services Saturday evening and communion on Sunday morning.

GOOD VOTE :- The leaders of both parties anticipate polling a good vote hear Tuesday; as a general thing this precinct turns out well at any election.

The farmers say there will be no ploughing done this fall unless it rains scon.

Gor Hurr:-As Frank W. Bailey was on his way home from school, his horse became unmanageable and, in the scramble, Frank was thrown into the fence corner. Other than a good shaking up his injuries are not serious as he is able to be about again on a leg and a half, perhaps he was trying to manage his horse with one hand.

> Dr. Howard Livingstone, of Altoona, was a pleasant caller in our town this week.

REPRIMANDED: --- The protracted meeting, in progress for some time, in the M. E. church, is well attended, and quite an interest is being taken. It is a great pity that some of our young men, who want to be called gentlemen misbehave to such an extent that they must be reprimanded by the minister, as was the case a few nights ago.

WEDDING FEAST :- The marriage of Mr. J. B. Heberling and Miss Arvilla Bloom, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday. Oct. 24th. Rev. C, T. Aikens officiating. After an elaborate dinner the bride and groom took the train for McKean Co., where they visited relatives and friends, and on Tuesday, 29 inst., were welcomed again to one of the finest dinners that hands could prepare at the home of the groom's parents. The CENTRE DEMOCRAT begs leave to congratulate Benton on the To-day, Thursday, Mr. Abraham choice he has made and wish them all the happiness this world can afford.

AFTER MILLERS :- Mr. J. D. Wagner, our jolly miller, a few days ago received notice to pay the sum of $100 to the patentee of the middlings process that is now in use in nearly every mill in the United States. It seems that a patent was obtained for separating the middlings from the bran about 1878, and in a very short time, nearly every mill in the U. S. took advantage of the process, thus infringing unknowingly on the rights of the patentee and by the decision of the United States Supreme Court, every mill using the process shall pay the sum of $100 to the patentee.
