For the heaviest porker killed-I year's subscription; 2nd weight-6 months' subscription

For the largest average for four or more—1 year's subscription; and best average—6 months' subscription.

The owner to send in the weights. The award will be made in the first issue of January, 1896. This competition will be limited to Centre county.

An Exciting Game.

On Saturday afternoon our people had an opportunity of witnessing a game of foot ball, on glass works meadow, between State College preps, and the Bellefonte Academy boys. A large number of people were on the ground to witness the contest

The first half was briskly fought and showed that the teams were evenly matched. At the close the score stood 4 to 4.

After a brief rest the fun began anew in which the visitors displayed more durability and skill in playing. The game closed with State College victorious by a score of 10 to 8.

David Bollinger.

The Altoona Tribune of Monday, says: Altoona has suffered the loss of an aged and highly respected citizen in the death of David Bollinger, which occurred at his home, 1812 Eighth avenue, at 3 o'clock Monday morning. Neuralgia pains seized him on Sunday noon and -Mr. C. M. Bower, of Bellefonte, and for eight hours his suffering was intense

Will Appeal.

When our scholarship contest was in- Legal Intelligence Gathered from Variou augurated our two efficient judges, Messrs. Wm. G. Runkle, Esq., and Robt. F. Hunter, very cheerfully consented to act in the capacity, as they are most obliging young men. Last week, when the box was unlocked they looked at the pile of coupons in consternation. They began counting and were kept busy for several hours. When done it was found that almost 800 ballots had been cast during the week. Mr. Runkle says the next man who gets him in another scrape like this will be disabled. Hunter takes his satisfaction in cussing the editor. The job is good until January 1st, 1896, and every week promises to be more arduous. They now are thinking of following the example of other election boards, appealing for double pay. Send in your coupons.

Will Start Again. Centre Hall's most important industry will resume operations again after a discontinuance of manufacturing for several months, and the shops will be started as soon as possible.

Mr. E. M. Huyett has retired from the firm of Huyett & Rerick, and Mr. W. G. Rerick will carry on the business himself. He will manufacture the complanter, and other farm implements, and work will be given several men.

The shops will be started next week, and as soon as possible every department will be in full operation .- Reporter.

Ancient Order United Workmen.

Colonel W. W. Richia, Dr. George Eadie and J. C. McCloskey, representing West Branch lodge, A. O. U. W., arrived n Bellefonte Saturday evening and payed Mrs. Schulte, widow of the late Joseph Schulte, the sum of $2,000, that being the amount of the beneficiary certificate which the deceased held in that order. During the time that Mr. Schulte was a nember, he paid about two hundred dollars in assessments.

Will Move.

Next Thursday, November 14th, Extreasurer James J. Gramley expects to move from Bellefonte to his farm, near Hublersburg now occupied by his son Ammon, who will move to a farm in Clinton county. We are sorry to lose our democratic friend, who always had a jolly word for everybody. May prosperity attend him.

Boy Hunter Kills a Bear.

Saturday afternoon last, David Confer. a boy of 13 years of age, was out in the woods near Cato, on the Beech Creek railroad, accompanied by his grandfather. The lad had a gun but the grandfather had none. While journeying through the woods in search of small game they s a hig black bear which the

A Good Communication.

In this issue of the paper will be found an unusually interesting communication from our regular correspondent at Pleasant Gap, who, for some weeks past, has been sending in similar letters. It is an example of the amount of interesting news that can be compiled by an alert correspondent. The CENTRE DEMOCRAT has an able corps of correspondents in every section of Centre county who carefully note all the importaut events.

A Fine Property.

Having purchased the J. B. Crawford milling property at Nittany, Pa., at sher-iff sale, I will offer the same in whole or part at private sale. The property em-braces 109 acres, on which there is crect ed a bank barn. 2 good houses, a water power-27 foot head, and the stone walls of mill are still standing. Suicide in Nippenose Valley.

David Daugherty, of near Collumsville, Thursday hanged himself in his barn, where he was found by his son in law, Willard Smith. He was a well-to-do farmer about 70 years old. He was deranged in mind, his constant fear being that his family, to which he was devotedly attached, would come to want.

The Wheat Crop.

The dry season has interfered considerably with the wheat crop. Farmers who sowed early were more fortunate than some who waited until later. The fields are rather bare and, unless there is a spell of wet weather before winter sets in, wheat will likely be a short crop next season.

Dont Wait.

Our correspondents should remember that it is necessary for their communications to reach this office as early in the carly on Monday. It requires some time to correct them and have the mat ter in proper shape for press.
