FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

What is Going on Outside of Bellefonte-Happenings in other Communities-Favorable Crop Reports-Other Interesting Items.

PLEASANT GAP.

An Interesting Budget-All the Important News by Our Alert Correspondent.

A Success:-The singing class conducted here by Mr. Johnson is progress-

A Boy :- A little boy was added to the family circle of Mr. and Mrs. George Rossman of this place.

Grant Dunklebarger has been doing work among his Boalsburg friends for the past few weeks.

Master Harry Barnes, of Bellefonte, made a brief visit to the Gap last week.

PAY-DAY :- Saturday was teacher's pay-day and our teacher's were all smoking "Crusaders," on Saturday evening. Ladies excepted.

WELCOME :- On last Thursday rain was a welcome visitor here. The water wagon had been quite an attraction passing along our streets for the past few months.

Charley Harrison, of Bellefonte, spent a couple days at his home in town last Hosekeeping :- Curtin Taylor says he is going to try housekeeping over again, and on last Saturday moved to Mulfiinger's vacant house, where he will reside until he comes to some definite conclusion in regards to building.

BUILDING :- Calvin Waltz has workmen engaged in building an addition to his home, on Horntown Ave.

MEN WANTED :- The marriage market is not booming very heavily, at this place, at the present time; there is no

A COLLISION: - On last Saturday thile riding down the mountain on a heel. The wo gentleman came together referees decided in favor of him. and the result was a smash. Jacobs lew about a rod, and was picked up for lead but after a couple hours work was brought around all right.

STUCK :- Ervin Gettig expects to work with his brother Lew this winter; from ndications Ervin must be stuck on a ellefonte girl.

HIGHWAYMEN :-- Oa last Friday night, bout 7 o'clock, while returning from ellefonte, a widow lady by the name of mith from Tusseyville, was twice atacked on the mountain near here by two rangers, their intentions were no oubt to relieve her of any money or oubt had money, as she had taken a ad of produce to Bellefonte to dispose . Ottis Hile came along soon after the en had disappeared and the lady reited her story to him; the lady was very uch scared, as her only companion as a small boy.

Charley McClellan stopped in town hursday, owing to his inability to get ome on his bicycle on account of the in. Mr. McClellan at one time atnded our summer normals here.

GOOD JOKE :- A good joke has recentcome to light on Barney Bilger, at the ne of the fire. Barney on hearing the arm ran to his house to get a bucket, instead picked up the oil can and arted, on arriving at the fire he disvered his mistake, and thought he ould rectify it unnoticed. He went to ck up a bucket, but all excited made other mistake, and when last seen he as holding a jug.

no. Young's brother rusticated for a days in town last week.

Miss Lizzie Cottle is at present stopping with friends.

NEW INDUSTRIES :- It is remarkable the new industries that have spring up in our midst within the last few months. The next to attract our attention are the shingle mills now being erected by Messrs. Noll & Kuoffsinger, Mr. Noll's mills will be situated in the tract of timber near his home, while Mr. Knoffsinger will make the dust fly at the head of the Monongahela, in Greensvalley, near the axe handle factory, that in former years was operated by John Showers. Both gentlemen expect to have everything in readiness to begin operations in a few days. We hope others will follow as we have special inducements for such men to locate here: First is our pretty girls, which would induce young men to come here to seek employment; a desirable location, abundant water supply, in wet weather.

Kind Providence seems to favor us at the present time, as there is scarcely any sickness in the community at all. One year ago diphtheria was here.

Boyd Noll came up from Zion, Sunday, to see his friends at the Gap.

Affairs socially seem to be on a stand still at the Gap.

BROKEN UP :-- A certain young man, of this place, says he has every reason to believe one of our fair young ladies is all broken up on him, but yet this young man has to stand back when the young ladie's best fellow is around. Sammy, "a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." Keep silence until you have proven or been seen with the young lady,

Don't Do IT :- Don't borrow your neighbor's paper to read the Gap items, or to see who is ahead in the contest. Subscribe for it. Don't get mad if you are roasted once in a while in the columns of this paper; that shows lack of priciple. Don't get a swelled head if you are paid a compliment through these columns; for you are liable to catch it

Walter Garrity and Gottlieb Haag, of Bellefonte, stopped with us for a while

Wm. Bilger was engaged last week in moving a large boiler from Shingletown to Pond Bank. Mr. Bilger is an excellent man to have around when work of that

LAUVERTOWN AHEAD: - For some time past there has been considerable bad old gentlemen's sudden appearance, this town, and one of near Lauvertown, and on Saturday evening they met in the ring to decide which should be the champaion. The first round resulted in vening Leslie Jacobs, of Centre Hall, favor of our man, but in the second round he seemed to lose courage and met William Knoffsinger also riding a his famous right hand blows and the > QUITE ILL:-On Monday Mr. Rhine, of Howard, while going from his home to Centre Hall on business, was compelled to stop in this town owing to a severe attack of the cramp. Dr. Emerick was called in to see the man Monday p. m. At this writing there seems to be no change in his condition. He is being taken care of by our genial fiotel man, Mr. Mulfinger.
