DENOUNCING DUNRAVEN

The Disappointed English Yachtsman and His Serious Charges.

MR. ISELIN'S VIGOROU3 LANGUAGE

He Declares That If the Latest Statement Attributed to Dunraven Is True His Lordship Is "a Liar and a Blackguard." May be Expelled from the New York Yacht Club.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 .- Lord Dunraven's published statement in the London Field is causing great indignation among yachtsmen here. In that statement Lord Dunraven contends that the Defender's victory was due to the fact that she did not sail in the races on her measured load water line. This, of course, means nothing if it does not show that Lord Dunraven was dishonestly defeated in the races, and that he was cheated out of his victory.

In corroboration of this accusation Lord Dunraven cites the fact that no one lived on board the Defender or on her tender, the tug Hattie Palmer, but that much material was frequently transferred from the yacht to the tender or from the latter to the yacht. Defender went to the Erie basin to be measured, Lord Dunraven adds, and then it was apparent to every one on the City of Bridgeport, the Valkyrie's tender, that she floated much higher than previously.

The Hattie Palmer was beside the Defender all that night, her crew was at work from dark until 1 o'clock in the morning, and when Lord Dunraven put Mr. Hen-he says he was perfectly certain that she was four inches deeper than she was when she was measured.

The plain inference is that Lord Dunraven, believes that during the night enough material was taken from the Defender to lighten her, and thus make her load water line as it was on the previous measurements.

Lord Dunraven's charges were received with amazement and Indignation by all the gentlemen whose names are identified with yachting, and everywhere surprise was expressed that Lord Dunraven could have felt impelled to charge with such low conduct gentlemen who could not be susof stooping to such dishonorable nodore James D. Smith, chairman America's cup committee, said: "To nd that charge of Lord Dunraven's most outrageous that I have ever eard. That it is false every member of ne club and every yachtsman in America knows. I cannot conceive how he can have made such allegations. They are shameful. To impute dishonesty to the Defender syndicate seems to me to be the culmination of Dunraven's chagrin at not being able to win the cup.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12 .- There is much talk among members of the New York Yacht club of expelling Lord Dunraven from the club, of which he is an honorary member, for his course in imputing knowledge of fraud to Messrs. Iselin and Smith in the matter of the official measurement of the yacht Defender prior to the recent race for the America's cup. A large number have expressed themselves in favor of charges being preferred against Lord Dunraven, if he does not immediately resign. It is understood that a meeting of the America's cup committee will be held in a few days to consider the case of Lord Dunraven's charges.

They Secure $20,000 from an Express Eafe at Colorado Springs.

ONLY TWO MEN IN THE ROBBERY.

They Are Believed to be A. J. Gray and J. C. Stuart, Who Escaped from Prison Recently, Where They Were Held for mother's death a fortnight ago. Another Express Robbery.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 18 .- The express office at the Santa Fe depot in this city was robbed of $20,000 late Monday night. The money was part of a consignment of $50,000 sent from Denver to Cripple Creek, the remainder of which was in the safe, but was not found.

The stolen money was in currency of small denominations, and was received too late to be delivered to the bank. The package containing the money was placed in the depot safe, and both doors locked. There was nothing to indicate its value. Evidently the thieves knew of its existence. When train No. 6 came in there were other packages aboard with currency to the amount of $35,000 consigned to the with the other.

After the train departed Express Agent George Krout attended to some outside duties, and then entered the office. As he did so two men confronted him, with re- death. volvers pointed at his head, and commanded him to throw up his hands. Krout, badly frightened, obeyed. Then one of the robbers, stepping close to the agent, sald: "Not a word from you. We want you to open that safe, and be quick about it. Hurry up."

Krout denied that there was any money in the safe. The revolver was pressed close to him, and he was told to open the safe or suffer the consequences. With trembling hands he slowly turned the combination. When the door swung open Krout explained that there was only one package, and reaching in he picked up an envelope containing $20,000, which he handed to the short man. He then closed the heavy door. The robbers, seeming satisfied that the agent told the truth, stepped away from the safe. Krout's action in handing out the $20,000 package and closing the doors of the safe saved the company $35,000.

The robbers then ordered Krout to undress himself and get into bed. After he Ardmore public school closed for one had done so one of the robbers took pains to see that the quilts and comforters were drawn tightly over Krout's head and tucked down. Then Krout heard one of them say: "Now open the door and see if there is any one about."

Krout heard the door slide back and bump, and then one of the robbers said: "Wait now, we have missed something Let us take a good look over the place and

When Krout plucked up courage to jump out of bed and get outside there was no one in sight. An alarm was given and armed posses scoured the vicinity, but no trace of the robbers was found. Finally two bloodhounds were put on the trail, and they are leading the pursuit.

Carlisle for the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 .- The Post today says that Secretary Carlisle may be appointed to the supreme court bench to suc ceed the late Justice Jackson. The Post says that some time ago the president had practically fixed upon Judge Rufus Peckham, of the New York court of appeals, for the place. It continues: "All these plans are said to have been changed by recent elections. Had Kentucky elected a Democratic legislature it was expected that Mr. Carlisle would step from the cabinet into the senate. This anticipation cannot now be realized. The political revolution in Kentucky has also materially affected Mr. Carlisle's chances for the presidential nomination. Should Mr. Carlisle leave the treasury his place will undoubtedly be filled by a New York man, and Charles S. Fairchild is said to have been practically determined upon for the position.'
