HOME NEWS PARAGRAPHED.

Interesting Events and Happenings from About the county—Doings of our People Briefly Told.

—Bellefonte had a first class fracas on Saturday night.

—Most news for the least money—THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT.

—The Methodist revival continues to attract much interest throughout the community.

—Mr. Jacob Harpster, of Gatesburg, one of our regular readers paid us a visit on Saturday.

—J. S. Waite & Co., have erected new shops on Water street, alongside their former place of business.

—C. H. Murray, Esq., made a hasty trip to Lewisburg on Saturday to attend to some important legal matters.

—The postage stamps now in use are printed on paper made at the Lock Haven paper mills.

—The greatest assortment of Overcoats ever shown in Centre county, at Faubles. Low prices our only salesman. It will pay you to see us.

—There are some encouraging rumors afloat in regard to a business revival for Bellefonte in the near future.

—Katz & Co., are advertising something special in the line of overcoats this week. See their advertisement.

—Hon. Benjamin Rich, associate judge, is still lying very seriously ill at his home, Unionville, Pa. His recovery is considered very doubtful.

—Jenkins & Lingle, machinists, have built a gas engine upon a new pattern. The engine was given a trial at the gas works this week, and worked very satisfactorily.

—Miss Jennie Fauble arrived home from Harrisburg for a brief vacation, until Gov. Pastings returns from his trip to the Atlanta exposition.

—The Undine ball, on Thanksgiving eve, will positively be a select affair. Only those who present an invitation will be admitted.

—A missionary social will be held in the Presbyterian chapel on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

—Last month over one hundred new names were added to our subscription list. Our circulation now, is about 2,500 and nearly all of them in Centre county.

—Ex-treasurer Gramley is moving to his farm, near Hubbersburg to-day, quite a number of democrats, and others, are assisting in the fitting.

—The foot ball game on Saturday, Nov. 16, between the Academy and Williamsport High School elevens will be one of the most exciting games ever played in Bellefonte.

—On Monday evening Chas. P. Hewes, Esq., left for Erie, Pa., where he will spend several days in closing up affairs of a large estate in which he was retained as counsel.

—Miss Margaret McMahon and Miss Ella McGowan are contesting for a gold watch, to be presented by the Undine Fire Company, of this place, to the one raising the most money for that company.

—On the evening of November 27th, Thanksgiving eve, the members of the Undine Fire company, of Bellefonte, will hold a ball in the Bush Arcade. A splendid orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

—The Logan Fire Company will chance off a fine gold watch, January 1st, for the benefit of the company. Tickets will be sold at 1 cent apiece. They are on sale now and can be secured from any of the members of the company.

—The State College foot ball team played on Saturday, at Philadelphia, with the U. of Pa., the strongest eleven of the season. The score was 35 to 4 and the boys came home highly pleased with having scored.

—The first deer of the season was brought to town last week by a party of hunters from Turbotville and Philadelphia. Rol. Keller, of this place, went with them to Snow Shoe, where they were joined by John Uzzie. They succeeded in bringing down a fine doe that dressed over 100 pounds.

—Helen, the little two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whiteman, of Piedmont, W. Va., formerly of this place, died Saturday and was brought to Phillipsburg on Saturday night for interment, the funeral taking place this afternoon. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Whiteman sympathize with them in the loss of their little child in whom their affections were so deeply centered.—Phillipsburg Journal.

—For the past few days the gas company have been searching for a leak in the vicinity of the diamond, under the paved portion of the street. Wherever they sink a rod gas will come up and burn strong. For the past few days they have been burning gas at these test openings, and the supply does not seem to diminish. For a long time this waste existed, and that is where some of the profits of the business have been going.

WHEN THE CONTEST CLOSES.

The Scholarship Contest will be Concluded January 4th.

The scholarship contest is attracting considerable attention and, in order to answer many inquiries, the following statement is in order: On Thursday, December 26, the regular Christmas issue will be omitted. The last coupon will be published in the issue of Thursday, January 2nd. After Saturday, 12 M., January 4th, no more coupons will be received, and the judges will make the final count at once and announce that afternoon the names of the person receiving the highest number of votes.

On January 6th, Monday following, the Winter term will open at the Lock Haven Normal and the winners can enter at once.

The Big Potato Crop.

It will be a comfort to many to learn that the potato crop of the country will exceed that of any previous year. Nearly 300,000,000 bushels are the estimated aggregate. The grounds for general congratulations are that of all our vegetables the potato holds first place for healthfulness and general utility, and moreover because it has so many lovers, for save those obese individuals who are advised to leave it alone because of its fat producing qualities there are comparatively few who do not enjoy the tubers when dished up in some one or the other of the many toothsome forms which have been devised by culinary skill. The harvest being so enormous, prices will accordingly rule at low figures.

Death of John H. Musser.

Mr. John H. Musser, a retired citizen of Aaronsburg, died suddenly at his home, at that place, on Sunday last. Mr. Musser had been in poor health for some time due to a cancerous affection on his arm. His death was very sudden and unexpected. He was sitting in the parlor conversing with Dr. Musser when he suddenly expired.

Mr. Musser was about 68 years of age. Mrs. Wm. T. Meyer, of Bellefonte, is a daughter. Two sons, Kline and Andrew, survive him.

Recommended Sunbury.

Friday several prominent Odd Fellows went to Sunbury and viewed eleven farms near that borough for purpose of seeing if there were any available sites for erection of the proposed home, which is now being agitated by the Central Pennsylvania Odd Fellow's association. The association recently recommended that Sunbury or vicinity should be selected as the place, in case the home is erected. The committee having the matter in charge will hold a meeting at Sunbury November 16 at 8 o'clock, or not the home shall be built.

Six Children Dead.

We last week announced the death of Annie, the oldest daughter of Daniel Ziegler, of Millheim. This, we are informed, is the sixth of his children that have died, the five that went before being in their younger years. The seventh is the only surviving child of the family. A sad affliction, but a consolation that they are in a better world. We deeply sympathize with our friend Daniel and Mrs. Ziegler in these many bereavements.—Centre Hall Reporter.

In the Greenwoods.

On Tuesday a party of hunters left for the Greenwoods, in the Allegheny mountains, about twelve miles from Karthaus, Pa. They will be gone for two weeks. In the crowd were Benj. Gentzel, Wm. Rossman, T. H. Harter of the Gazette, David Moyer, Bert Bilger and Sigmond Schindler. We can scent venison already.

Another Printer Gone.

On Tuesday evening H. M. Bartley, compositor of the Gazette office, was married to Miss Mabel, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Gramley, of this place. They departed on the evening train for Williamsport and other points. We extend the heartiest congratulations.

Herb said he had to ask Mr. Gramley three times for the daughters hand, and then he was not sure of winning. It was the last one, and he did not like to part with her.

Superior Sweetness.

You can talk about being as sweet as a peach, as pretty as a picture, as fine as silk and such like, but when you can find choice candies for 25 cents a pound, as delicious as those sold by Achenbach, you have struck a bargain sure. The finest 60 cent mixtures being sold for 25 cents.

Largely Attended.

The funeral of W. H. Snyder, of Snow Shoe Intersection, was largely attended on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Wright, of Milesburg, officiated. Mr. Snyder, some years previous, was engaged in the hotel business, after which he engaged in farming. He was a good citizen and prospered.

Got a Pension.

John Martz, of Centre Hall, a veteran of the last war, was granted a pension last week by the department of $6 per month and received $705 back pay.

—See us before buying your overcoats—our prices will be an agreeable surprise to you.

STRUCK GAS AT LAST.

The Salt Lick Gas Well Reported a Success—Will take Further Action.

For some time a company has been operating in the vicinity of Karthaus, sinking wells to see if they could not find either gas or oil in that vicinity. The first well was abandoned and a second put down a short distance from the first.

John Q. Miles, one of the stockholders of the company, informed the writer on Wednesday that they had struck gas that was throwing water from the well to a height of twenty feet and that operation had to be suspended. On Friday the board of Directors will meet at Lock Haven, to take further action.

PRIZE PORKERS.

The butchering season is on hand and from all sections of the county reports will come of large porkers having been killed. The CENTRE DEMOCRAT is anxious to gather information in this line and will offer a series of prizes as follows:

For the heaviest porker killed—1 year's subscription; 2nd weight—6 months' subscription.

For the largest average for four or more—1 year's subscription; 2nd best average—6 months' subscription.

The owner to send in the weights. The award will be made in the first issue of January, 1896. This competition will be limited to Centre county.

Quail Scarce.

The sportsmen of all the principal cities of this state have decided not to shoot any quail in the state this fall, owing to the scarcity of the birds, and believing that what there are should be left undisturbed as seed for another season. If all true sportsmen in Pennsylvania would follow this example it would not be long until birds would be plenty again.

Conductor Killed.

The name of the conductor who was killed in the collision on the Beech Creek road near Snow Shoe on Thursday afternoon, was James Kissel instead of Kiffel, as reported. He was born and raised in Pine Creek township, Lycoming county, and with his wife and three children resided in Jersey Shore. He was 46 years of age, and was one of several brothers who met death by being killed.

Communion Service.

On Sunday morning, Nov. 17th, at 10:30 o'clock, the Holy Communion will be administered in the Reformed church, Bellefonte, Pa. On Saturday at 2.30 p. m., preparatory services will be held. Parents who have children to be baptized will bring them to church on Saturday afternoon.

Three Years Apiece.

On Monday November 4th. Edward Hannahan and James O'Neil, the two men who were convicted of robbing the post office and store at Roland, Pa., last June, were sentenced to three years apiece in the penitentiary. The trial occurred at Pittsburg.

Mail Carriers Appointed.

From the list of eligibles to appointment as mail carriers for the Tyrone postoffice, the selections were made by Postmaster Conrad, and the appointees are John F. Hoover, Clem. S. Hiltner, George A. Wilson and Harry C. Albright.

—Mrs. Wm. Zeller is seriously ill at their home, this place.

—Miss Brew's dancing school was largely attended last Friday evening.

—A wholesale grocery store will be among the new enterprises in our town.

—Ex-judge Riley, of Boalsburg, was in town on Tuesday. He is looking well again.

—Mr. John Brown, merchant, of Loganton, Pa., and S. Peck, of Nittany, paid us a short visit on Monday.

—Charles E. Taylor, of Milesburg, and Miss Emma C. Gares, of Bellefonte, will be married this evening.

—We want a correspondent from every section of Centre county. Send in the news; we are anxious to print any local happenings.

—Over eight hundred coupons were voted last week in the scholarship contest. After a coupon is over thirty days old it will not be counted by the judges.

—Miss Alice Francis Bruce, a niece of Editor Tuten, and who visited here during the past summer, died at her home, Mount Vernon, N. H., on Tuesday, from an attack of consumption.

—Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, after a month's vacation to Atlantic City, Cape May and Baltimore, for the benefit of his health, has returned very much recuperated and will resume his work at the Academy.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Reeder and Col. J. L. Spangler and wife, left on Monday to join Gov. Hastings' commission, at Harrisburg, for the Atlanta Exposition. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

—On Sunday afternoon an oil stove exploded for Mr. John Sourbeck, in the parlor. The oil caused quite a fire for a short time but was finally extinguished without doing much damage. Johnny was singed a bit.

—C. P. Long, Spring Mills' successful and busy merchant, stepped into our sanctum last week to order the Centre Democrat. Some think Mr. Long would not object going to the legislature. He is a republican, and there is where we differ.

Played Well.

On Saturday afternoon another interesting game of foot ball was played on the glassworks meadow between the Bellefonte Academy and the Phillipsburg High School. The game started at 3 p. m. and very close matched from the start. Both sides played well, but the ball was forced into the visitors territory most of the time. During the first half neither side made a point.

In the second half the Bellefonte team made a spurt and succeeded in scoring 10 points while the visitors were shut out. The line-up of the teams were as follows:

sometimes have their origin in tight, ill-fitting shoes. A celebrated London professor is authority for this statement. He says it is out of the question for a person to be pleasant and agreeable when the feet are uncomfortable.

We have shoes that are made specially for tender feet. They come in all the different sizes. The price is a little higher than we ask for the next best shoes, but it is worth paying.

The cost ranges from $3 to $5.
