

A BATCH OF BREEZY LETTERS

Gathered by a Corps of Alert Correspondents.

FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

What is Going on Outside of Bellefonte—Happenings in other Communities—Favorable Crop Reports—Other Interesting Items.

PLEASANT GAP.

All the Important Happenings—Social, Religious and Otherwise.

Orie Barnes came home to stay for the winter.

S. C. Bathgate will offer his home, in this town, at public sale Nov. 15.

CONTRACT AWARDED—Harry Hile and William Harrison, of this place, received the contract for plastering the Reformed church, at Centre Hall. They commenced work Monday morning.

Our farmers are about through with their fall work and are prepared to take it easy.

A FAKIR—A cigar fakir was one of the attractions on our streets the other evening. Some of the boys are still waiting on the prize that they were to receive with their cigars.

Laura Boalick made sale of her household goods Saturday.

Young men, be careful where you sit.

RECOVERED—Mr. Rhine, whose illness was noted in last week's paper, recovered sufficiently to resume his journey Wednesday morning.

TO ELK CO.—A hunting party, composed of gentlemen of this place and vicinity, left on Tuesday morning for Elk county, where they will spend a couple weeks in hunting.

Jonathan Bilger, and his son William, is at present visiting friends in Doylestown. Mr. Bilger, Sr., is one of our most aged citizens, being 85 years old.

A MISFORTUNE—One of the so called popular school teachers met with the misfortune of arousing the indignation of the old gentleman, by standing too long at the gate, the other Thursday evening.

Geo. Hile is again stopping with us; he came up from Harrisburg on Saturday evening.

Very few came home for election and the stay-at-home vote was large. The election passed off very quietly.

Mr. Twitmyer is again able to work some in the shop.

BOYS FOR SPORT—A great many of our boys spend a good part of their time hunting. They generally report game scarce, but after one young man shooting seven times at a rabbit, and missing each time, would leave room for doubt.

MOVING ABOUT—There seems to be considerable moving around at this place for this season of the year. We will also lose some of our citizens by the changes. Mr. Gettig will transfer his family to Bellefonte in a few days and David Keller will move into the house vacated by Mr. Gettig. Harry Hile has just got settled down, while Geo. Harter will, in the near future, claim Millheim as his place of residence.

A very interesting meeting, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor, was held in the Lutheran church, Sunday evening.

Mattie Miller came down from Lemont Saturday evening, where she had been stopping for a few weeks.

Everyone that calls to see them exclaims at once: they are immense, the finest ever seen and various other like expressions on beholding the large and truly beautifying pair of computing scales at the store of W. H. Noll & Bro.

Mrs. Mary Gheret, of Bellefonte, is at present circulating among her friends at the Gap.

AN EXECUTION—A Sunday execution took place here and the victim was a cat. It is reported that all the legal proceedings was gone through with, and after a fair trial the cat was taken to the woods and strung up. It is said that a couple of women were much interested in the case.

CHURCH DISCIPLINE—It is doubtful if one would go back to the time of Roger Williams, if there could be found as queer a code of church laws as exists in one of the churches in this town. The idea of not allowing men to sit on the ladies' side of the church when every available seat elsewhere is occupied is one of their cranky and uncalled for rules.

Miss Clara Gentzel was the guest of Miss Emma Tressler for a couple days last week.

On Sunday we were without preaching in either of our churches.

The attendance at our public schools are larger than they have been for some years back.

Mr. Brooks is now sporting a new horse; he says it is one of those 240 horses. Nit.

Prof. A. J. Swartz will organize a singing class here for the coming winter, assisted by Prof. Meyers, of Boalsburg. Some of our people have been butchering the last few days.

FINE PORKERS—Mr. Mulfinger seems to have the largest porkers in this part of the county and could, no doubt, give the best of them a hustle for the prize offered by this paper.

One of our school teachers would do well to teach his pupils not to drop mail matter in the office without first addressing it.

The much needed rain came in small quantity on Saturday night.

REBERSBURG.

DIED—Mrs. Warren Bierly died on Saturday morning, after having suffered several weeks from the effects of burning.

AN ENGINE—Owing to the scarcity of water W. A. Cormau has been compelled to attach an engine to run his mill.

SMALL VOTE—The election was not well attended, there having been only 144 votes polled out of 184. Why not vote, regardless of party? Every man should have backbone enough to show his colors.

J. W. Zeigler left for Virginia, where he expects to spend several weeks with his parents.

H. R. Krieder, of Franklin & Marshall College, was home to cast his first vote. He is a democrat and looks very well.

Wm. Lambert was unable to teach last Monday owing to a severe cold.

Harvey Bard still has half a field of corn to husk. Hurry up, Harvey, Christmas is coming on.

Cornelius Stover has erected a fine wagon shed. He evidently goes in for improvements.

Last Sunday, while Messrs. Forest Ocker and J. N. Moyer were out driving, their horse took fright and ran into a fence. Fortunately no harm was done, more than a broken shaft. Mind your business next time, boys.

Jacob Heller, our enterprising blacksmith, built an addition to his shop for the purpose of painting wagons.

Mr. H. W. Kramer and Mr. Strohmeyer, from Centre Hall, erected a tombstone on the grave of the former's parents, on Thursday.

PAINTING—Reuben Smith is improving his home, in town, by giving it a coat of paint.

Several of our sportsmen have succeeded in bringing down quite a number of pheasants.

Messrs. J. W. Harter and W. W. Heckman attended Samuel Hartscock's sale, on Thursday.

C. C. Loose expects to move his sawmill from Logan Mills to Rebersburg, in the near future.

GOOD PORKERS—Jacob Heller opened the butchering season, on Thursday, by killing two hogs weighing 687 pounds.

SPRING MILLS RIPPLES.

What is Transpiring in and about that busy Town.

JAW-BONE BROKEN—J. B. Showers, from Brush mountain, living on the old Feidler farm, took his horse to Joe and Samuel Karters to have it shod. When they were through with the work and left the horse's foot down it kicked Mr. Showers in the face, breaking his jawbone in two places and inflicting a bad wound in his face. Dr. VanValzah dressed the wound. Sometime ago Mr. Feidler was killed on those premises by the kick of a horse.

GOT BACK—The election is past, it being an unusually quiet one here; not much interest shown. Old Centre got back into line.

Rabbits are very plenty in this section. The boys meet with good success. Ben. Keuley is the crack shot on pheasants, he just knows where to go for them.

BEAR PLENTY—The Farmers Mills hunting party spent the week on what is called the big flat, looking for the fleet-footed deer, with no success. They found signs of bear.

Billy Allison wants to know what the Centre Hall Reporter did with its roosters. The only reason I can give you are we are holding them back for next year.

Wm. Heckman moved, last Monday, to a half-mile east of Madisonburg, on the farm that was occupied by Thos. J. Shaffer. Billy is a practical farmer and hard worker. The people in that vicinity will find him a good neighbor.

Jonas Condo, of State College, spent Sunday with his many friends. He thinks there is no place like State College.

Dr. Braucht seems to be quite busy attending his patients. He reports no serious illness.

John Shook took a business trip to State College.

Papa Allison went to Northumberland to visit his son, Dr. Allison.

Frail Snyder has been away for a couple of days, looking up business in eastern towns. Boy.

COBURN HAPPENINGS.

Fancy Prices for Cattle—Hunting Parties Kill a Deer.

Next in order is butchering.

John Stonebraker was home over Sunday.

NO DEER—The Coburn hunting party was over to Poe Valley Monday. They had a good time but got no deer. When our party cannot find deer, its a sure sign they are scarce.

FANCY PRICES—Chas. Wolf and Luther Guisette received their car load of western cows, on Friday, and did expose the same to public sale on Saturday afternoon. The bidding was good, there were 15 knocked off to buyers. On the other hand some of the cows brought fancy prices. The average prices, $38.50.

BETTER—Chester Kerstetter, of this place, who has been ill for the past week is getting better.

KILLED A DEER—Robert Fryers, of this place, shot a deer on Saturday. The boys are doing better this fall than the old hunters.

Mrs. R. F. Vonada and daughter, were visiting friends at Rebersburg over Sunday.

PROMINENT MAN—John H. Musser, of Aaronsburg, died Sunday evening from an attack of cancer, of which he had been suffering for some time. Mr. Musser was an exemplary citizen, a kind husband, and a loving father. He creditably filled various offices. Was a member of the Aaronsburg Lutheran church and Sunday school. He will be greatly missed in the church and in the community in general. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss. His remains will be interred at Aaronsburg on Thursday forenoon.

Ed. Robinson arrived home Saturday evening, from a two weeks trip to some of our eastern cities. Ed is a good salesman.

P. H. Stover is improving the Coburn House.

BOALSBURG EVENTS.

Hand Severely Injured—Modoc Hunting Party—In Ohio.

ELECTION DAY—Our town has been unusually quiet for the past few weeks, but when election day came it seemed to put new life into the town. Everything went off very pleasantly, with the usual majority for the democrats.

Mr. J. P. Meyers, of Franklin Marshall College, came home to vote. He looks well and reports having a good time and is getting along well.

Miss Sue Jack, formerly of this place, was visiting friends in and about town.

HAND INJURED—Mr. Mervin Kuhn, who has been working at Elwood, for some time past, came home last week with a very sore hand. He had it cut by the falling of some kind of machinery on it, and cut the tendon off leading to the middle finger.

INTERESTING SERVICE—The Reformed congregation held communion Sunday morning, and in the evening held a praise service. It consisted of anthems, duets, solos and selections from the hymnal. The singing was conducted by Prof. P. H. Meyer. Rev. Black, pastor of the church, made a short address.

The service was enjoyed by all present.

WENT TO OHIO—Rev. G. W. Fisher, pastor of the Lutheran church here, went to Akron, Ohio, to take part in the dedication of a mission church, of which his son William is pastor.

MODOC OUT—An organization of hunters, known as the Modocs, left this town on Tuesday night for their annual outing to their old camping ground, Stone Creek. As yet they have not been successful in bringing down any of the much coveted venison.

Mrs. Dr. Fisher, son and daughter, are at present visiting friends in Philadelphia.

GATESBURG RIPPLES.

The farmers are all through with the corn, and many are thinking of butchering.

QUITE ILL—Mrs. Chas. Miller, of Rock Spring, is very ill at present—the disease is inflammation of the intestines. The attending physician is Dr. L. M. Houser, of Pa., Fairfax. We hope she may recover.

BIG PORKER—Jacob Krider, of near this place, killed the boss porker last week. It weighed 590 pounds dressed meat. If any one in the county can beat that we would like to hear from them.

Mr. D. Elder, of Fairbrook, made a business trip to Tyrone last week.

CONTRACT—Mr. Geo. Bollinger, of Aaronsburg, Pa., has the contract to ditch the meadows for the Gates heirs, at Fairbrook.

A. M. Brown, the lumberman, is able to be around again to attend to his business affairs.

GOING TO CALIFORNIA—Mr. J. G. Rider, of this place, will soon leave for the state of California where he expects to spend the winter for his health. We wish him a safe journey.

Calvin Calderwood and Thomas Harpster, were pleasant callers at Jacob Harpster's last Sunday eve.

Mr. D. Elder and wife, were pleasant callers at Jacob Harpster's last Sunday. Come again, we enjoy your company.

An Important Office.

To properly fill its office and functions, it is important that the blood be pure. When it is in such a condition, the body is almost certain to be healthy. A complaint at this time is catarrh in some of its various forms. Droppings of corruption passing into the lungs bring on consumption. The only way to cure this disease is to purify the blood. The most obstinate cases of catarrh yield to the medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla as if by magic, simply because it reaches the seat of the disease, and by purifying and vitalizing the blood, removes the cause. Not only does Hood's Sarsaparilla do this but it gives renewed vigor to the whole system, making it possible for good health to reign supreme.

LEMONT RIPPLES.

A Jolly Poem on the Lemont Boys—Other News.

SLOW FARMERS—Some of the slow farmers will have cold fingers if they don't soon get done husking corn.

Our town seems very quiet, since the election is over.

7 CENTS PER POUND—James Chamberlin, of Altoona, was through our section buying up turkeys. He was offering 7 cents per pound.

SINGING CLASS—The singing class, at Houserville, under Prof. Meyer, is a success. Philip knows how to handle music.

GETTING A FLAG—The schools, here in town, are getting a flag. It will be raised between the two school houses and will make the place look much better.

CHESTNUT SOCIABLE—The chestnut sociable, which was held at Mr. Bathgates last Thursday evening, was a success. There were about 125 people present and about six dollars raised.

RAG BABY—There is a bad report afloat in Boalsburg about some of our Lemont boys. It seems that some of them were over there and were amusing themselves with a rag doll baby and one stuck it in his pocket and brought it home with him. Boys, be careful or there will be a nuckster less in Lemont.

Mr. Wesley Tate and sister were visiting in Georges valley, last Sunday.

THE LEMONT BOYS.

Ther's Charley, Jim and little Yank, With the devil sticking in them; And Bob, and John and funny Frank, Who are not far behind them.

Ther's Gov, John and Shorty Dave, Who have their girls to mind them; And Andrew G, who, like a knave, Walks on his ear behind them.

Ther's Huckster Bob and Charley T, Who make the jolly two, you know, And Billy D. and Wadie E, Along a lonely road they go.

Ther's Wesley T., who goes to see The Dr.'s patient often; And Johnnie S. and W. B., Who gets left so often.

Ther's Buffalo Bill and Red Nose Mike, Who are afraid of Towser; And Buckley W., who lives by the pike, Is very fond of Houser.

I've tried to name all, you see, And perchance I missed a fellow, You just send him around to me, And I will paint him yellow.

GORTON HEIGHTS.

A Terrible Wreck—Conductor Kessel Killed—Others Injured.

A boy—Mr. Jacob Bechdel was greeted by a big boy coming to his place, to board, last Friday. He wears a different countenance since that time.

A WRECK—Last Thursday morning a big wreck occurred on the bridge, a short distance above Hayes Run telegraph office of B. C. R. R. Engine No. 62, cast bound freight, and engine No. 53, west bound freight, met on the bridge, delapidating fifty cars and both cars and both engines, killing conductor Kessel and injuring one engineer pretty badly, but will recover. The conductor lingered until evening when he died. It is considered the worst wreck this road has ever had. The one fireman escaped death by jumping from the engine into the water, which was about 15 or 18 feet of a jump. The fault seems to fall on the operator.

Mrs. M. P. Beck is mending slowly her back set of the grip. She has the correspondent's sympathy for recovery.

Miss Annie Beck spent Sunday with her parents in this place.

Attention, Comrades.

Why Pay Profit

When you can get goods at wholesale prices? Were we continuing in business of course we would have to sell at a profit, but as we are leaving town we will sell out our entire stock at and below cost. Such opportunities do not occur every year, and if you miss this one you will be sorry when it is too late. Hundreds of persons from all over the county are taking advantage of our

CLOSING - OUT - PRICES

The only disadvantage in postponing your buying is that many of the best goods will be sold by the time you get around. So get on your "Sunday-go-to-meetin'" clothes, hitch your fastest horse or take the first train to Bellefonte.

STOP SHORT

At our store, secure some of our many bargains, and you will return home happier than when you came.
