A GOOD INVESTMENT.

The Value of a Stone Crusher in Building Roads.

Mr. A. G. Archey, of Pine Grove Mills, was in attendance at court, on Monday. In conversation with him the subject of good roads and how to make them came up. As Mr. Archey is one of the supervisors of Ferguson township, he naturally takes much interest in that topic and is enthusiastic for using modern machinery.

In road building Mr. Archey has had some experience and has made some calculations, as to the relative cost of macadamized roads when built by hand, and by the use of stone crushers.

A piece of road in Ferguson township made of hand-broken stone cost, when completed, $4.00 per rod. Another piece of a similar road, built with the use of a stone crusher, rented from College township at $3.50 per day, cost them only 72 cents per rod. Many pronounced the latter the better constructed road. According to these results a stone crusher is economy in any township and will pay for itself in a short time.

Ferguson township has a road machine for ditching and grading, that is doing excellent work. The question of road making is one that should be given more careful attention by the farmers. Good roads properly constructed are of an immense benefit to any section, and in the end, are the least expensive.

The time will come when every township will have its own stone crusher and road machine.

Robbers at Madisonburg.

A bold thief entered the house of David Shaffer, of Madisonburg, one day last week, and stole a pocket book out of a trunk, up stairs, containing $9.65 in silver belonging to his daughter Sallie Shaffer; also $25.00 in bills out of his son's vest pocket in an adjoining room, and a good silver watch bought of G. M. Keller, Aug. 12, 1891, in Lock Haven.

Description of watch as follows: Rockford adjusted movement. Number of movement 322,267. Number of case 1,542,424.

I hereby notify all jewelers and pawnbrokers to look and watch for said watch. A reward of $10 will be paid by S. G. Shaffer.

A State College Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at State College Thursday noon the 21st in which Mr. Roger Bowman and Miss Lydia C. Musser were the contracting parties. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride in the presence of a number of friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Musser who live near State College. The groom is a Philadelphian and graduated a short time ago from State College.

Typhoid Fever Victim.

Another death was added to the list of fatalities from typhoid fever, at Coleville, on Saturday. Mrs. William Ammerman, who had been quite ill for some time, finally succumbed. Her age was but 24 years. The interment occurred on Monday afternoon.

The germs of this fatal malady continue in that district as several families are still afflicted.

Wise—Biddle.

To-day, Thursday, the marriage of Mr. Irvin Wise, of Zion, this county, to Miss Maize Biddle, of Union county, takes place. The groom is a prominent young man, industrious and handsome, and is in every way deserving of the excellent helpmate he selected. They will make their future home at Zion. We extend our most hearty congratulations.

Bully for Hughes.

David Hughes, a young Welsh citizen of Phillipsburg, received notice the other day that he had fallen heir to $30,000 through the death of a relative in Wales. He lives on Eighth street, and has been working at Colorado mines, but he won't do it any more. Not at present.

SHOT FOUR DEER.

A Successful Hunt in the Green Woods—The Best Record.

This year deer hunters have been coming back from the woods rather despondent and invariably report the fleet footed animals very scarce, in fact some not having seen any at all.

Last Saturday the Gentzel hunting party, from Spring township, returned after spending two weeks in the Green woods of Cameron and Clearfield counties. They brought with them, as trophies of the chase, three fine bucks and a doe, all large deer. This is the best record reported by any party party for the season. It is in order to remark that Editor Harter, of the Gazette, was with the party and killed one buck, while Wm. Rossman's unerring Winchester brought down three.

Hog Campaign.

The Centre Hall Reporter mentions the following heavy porkers:

"James Durst, from below town, on Monday killed a wutzy that dressed some over 400 pounds.

On Wednesday George Durst killed two of his grunthers having a combined dressed weight of 945 pounds. One weighed 477, the other 468."

The following weights were sent into this office:

John Jodon, of Nigh Bank, Spring twp., killed two hogs that dressed 400 and 436.

Hiram Lutz, one of the prosperous farmers at Zion, knows how to feed fat porkers. Last week he killed four that tipped the scales as follows: 331, 336, 332 and 398 or an average of 349.

Cancer in the Stomach.

Some time ago Daniel Gallagher, of this place took ill, supposed to be due to a strain received while at work at his trade of plumbing. Internal pains gave him such a great annoyance that he applied at the Altoona hospital for treatment. Afterwards he went to Philadelphia and an operation was performed for what was supposed would show a tumor in the stomach. It showed that he was afflicted with cancer of the stomach, of a dangerous form. He lingered several days and on Saturday died at that place. The remains were brought home and the interment occurred on Wednesday morning.

He was a son of James Gallagher, of this place, and about 27 years of age.

Shoats Stolen.

Last September, Austin Dale, who resides near Lemont, had two shoats stolen from him, which, at the time, weighed about 200 pounds each. He learned that two hogs answering the description of his were in Snow Shoe. Last Monday he drove to Snow Shoe and fully identified the hogs as his. The person in whose possession they were, told Mr. Dale whom he purchased them of, and that he paid $13 for them; the person selling them to him was one of Mr. Dale's neighbors. He gave Mr. Dale $20 for them and kept the hogs, as he had fattened them and was going to butcher them the next day.—Grit.

Mill Hall Brick Works.

The Mill Hall brick works is one of the local industries whose prospects are very cheering. The employees of the plant have been very busy this fall burning and shipping brick, and the trade is increasing every day. During the last six weeks over 350,000 brick have been shipped to different points, the cities and towns from which orders have been received being Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, Scranton, Altoona, Tyrone, Phillipsburg, Bellefonte, Renovo, and many other places. From present indications the prospects for an increased business next year are very promising.

A Study in Interiors.

The Phillipsburg Journal gives its readers the following startling information: "The residence and contents of William Stonebraker, in Tyrone, were destroyed by fire on Monday."

It is true that Mr. Stonebraker's residence and its contents were burned, but we can assure the journal that Mr. Stonebraker's contents are still in his midst.—Tyrone Herald.

Wanted.

H. M. Snelling, who came to Bellefonte about two weeks ago and pretended to be arranging for the opening of a wholesale grocery store, skipped out last Thursday leaving an unpaid board bill at the Brant House and succeeded in getting about $100 worth of butter from the Spring Mills creamery. He is a first-class fraud and worked his game well at this place.

Barnes will offer at public sale, at the toll-gate property, at Pleasant Gap, a complete outfit of household furniture, consisting all kinds of articles to be found in a well equipped household, everything is in first-class condition. Badly Beaten.

On Saturday the Bellefonte High school foot ball team were at Phillipsburg to play the High school boys of that place. Our dear boys got their eye teeth cut by an overwhelming score of 52 to 0. They have very little to say about the game.

Saw the Duke.

Col. Shortlidge was in New York City recently on business, and one evening took in the famous horse show, at Madison Square garden. In his mind, it was more of a society affair in which fine dresses, rare jewels, and handsome women, were the attraction. In all the great throng of wealth, aristocracy and beauty, the centre of attraction was the famous Duke of Marlborough, from England, who was fortunate in securing a five million dollar bride, in exchange for a name. The Col. describes the Duke as a modest-looking, genteel young fellow, without any assumed airs or self consciousness of his distinction. Mr. Shortlidge was delighted with the fine exhibits of horse flesh, and especially those entered in the hurdle races.

Change of Atmosphere.

On Saturday Al. Dale, Esq., packed his grip and took the train for Lemont, for a stay of a week or more out on the farm. For some time our legal friend has been struggling with a stubborn case of indigestion that robs one of every smile, good humor and often sleep. Believing that a change of surroundings, change of grub to plain country cooking, and a bit of rest would be beneficial, he shook the dust of Bellefonte from off his heels and departed. We expect to see him back rejuvenated, and his bread-basket thoroughly repaired.
