Bellefonte.

Positively Limited to December 24th. Never again will there be another Special Offer made on this great Standard Dictionary and Encyclopædia of the World's Knowledge. We fully intended to advance the price on October 21st, but thousands of people in all walks of life have requested an extension of time until Christman. After careful consideration, we have decided to continue our Special Offer until the above date. This is done simply and only as a means of advertising this wooderful storehouse of information. We do not expect to make money by this offer, as the very low price on extremely liberal terms little more than pays for paper, printing and binding: but the tremendous amount of talk created will help to advertise this most modern and up-to-date home reference library. No advertisement can do the work justice; it is its own most eloquent advocate. Recently adopted by the schools of St. Louis, Mo., and many other cities, in preference to all other dictionaries and encyclopædias. It is could to a college education.

FOR A CHRISTMAS CIFT NOTHING COULD BE BETTER.

Encyclopædic Dictionary

Dr. Rob't. Hunter, A.M., F.G.S., Profs. Huxley, Morris, Herrtage, Estoclet, Williams, etc.

Don't forget this special offer holds good only untif Christmas Eve. at which fime the price will be advanced to $42 to $70 per set, and abselutely no deviation from these prices will be made, it is not for sale in book stores, and can only be obtained from us ar The above is an exact reproduction of THE ENCYCLOPEDIC DICTIONARY representatives. Four massive volumes in a handsome case of polished wood. Weight about 40 lbs.

Over $750,000 Required to Produce This Magnificent Self-Educator.

It is a Complete Dictionary of the English language. Every word is exhaustively treated as to origin, history, development, etymology, pronunciation and various meanings.

It is a Thorough Encyclopædia of anatomy, botany, chemistry, zoology, geology, art, music, riculture, physics, pullosophy, mechanics, history, anythology, hiblical knowledge, etc.

It is a Superb Library Book, substantially bound, printed from new pates, in large, clear type, heavy white paper, and illustrated with thousands of new pictures made especially for this work.

It is better than all other dictionaries, because the latest edition of Worcester contains but 18,000 words and 2,125 pages; the latest Webster contains but 18,000 words and 2,011 pages; the Standard contains out a little over 20,000 words and 2,218 pages, and even The Century contains but 22,000 words, and solit be-

Encyclopædias of various kinds sell for 450 to $200. This great ENCYCLOP ÆDIC 1862 TIONARY, containing 5,357 pages, over 2,000 illustrations, bound in four handsome volumes, has see 250,000 words, 50,000 encyclopædic subjects, and is the accepted authority of the English language. Nine Opinions-Thousands More Equally Good.

The Encyclopedic Dictionaries ordered for use in the public schools are giving excellent satisfaction. After an exhaustive examination of all the leading dictionaries, yours was selected in preference to any other. As an unabridged dictionary, your work leaves nothing to be desired; and the profusion of encyclopedic matter, terse, yet comprehensive, covering thousands of important topics, saves many a long search through the more cumbersome encyclopedias.—Elmer E. Lacey, Chairman Course of Study Com., St. Louis Board of Education.
