SATOLLI'S ELEVATION.

Conferring the Berretta on the Eminent Catholic Prelate.

A VERY ELABORATE CEREMONIAL

Witnessed by the Vice President and Many Leading American Statesmen, by Distinguished Representatives of Foreign Governments and by Eminent Catholics from

BALTIMORE, Jan. 6 .- The second step in the elaborate ceremony of elevating Franeis Satolli, archbishop of Lepanto, and apostolic delegate to the United States, to the rank of cardinal, prince of the church, took place in the venerable cathedral here yesterday. The ceremony consisted of conferring the berretta, which is the cap worn by priests on ordinary occasions, and differing only in the case of cardinals in that fis red. The preceding steps have been the conferring of the zuchetto, or red skull cap, and the administering of the oath. The remaining step is the conferring of the red hat, which must be done in Rome by the pope himself, within six months from Nov. 30, the day pon which Satolli's appointment was made.

The old edifice in which the ceremony took place, and in which the first American bishop was ordained and the first American priest ordained, and which is presided over by the only American born member of the college of cardinals, was packed to the doors with an audience which numbered among its members many of the most prominent ecclesiastics, diplomats, legislators, educators and jour nalists in America, including Vice President Stevenson and numerous congress men, senators, judges and minor officials, while diplomats of high degree came to represent foreign governments. Marquis Escripanti, of the Noble Guard, was there as the bearer of the zuchetto and berretta, andMgr. Sbarretti as the direct representative of the pope.

The ceremonies were very elaborate, in einding a procession in which were all the leading church dignitaries in their princely robes of office, Catholic university students, monks and priests. The interior of the cathedral was beautifully decorated with plants, and here the services, which were witnessed by a vast audience, were solemnly impressive, and included addresses by Cardinals Gibbons and Satolli and Mgr. Sbarretti and a sermon by Archhishop Kain, of St. Louis. The ceremonies concluded with the apostolic benediction, onounced by Cardinal Gibbons by special dispensation from the pope.

Notorious Bank Swindler Caught.

CANADAIGUA, N. Y., Jan. 8 .- Sheriff Osborne, assisted by M. Salisbury, a detective from Denver, has succeeded in capturing one of the most notorious swindlers that ever operated in this country. The man was captured at Shortsville, about six miles east of this village. Just about a year ago the man, whose real name is said to be L. C. Douglass, started a bank at Peru, Ind. On July 5 last he took the funds and departed, after having destroyed the books and papers of the bank. Douglass went to Mexico and from there to New York city, thence to Washington and back again to New York state. On his return to New York state Douglass started a bank at Avoca, Steuben county. He then left Avoca after a more or less successful wenture there.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 6.-B. F. Shu gard, who left his bride of five days early in December and mysteriously disappeared, has returned to this city and caused more of a sensation than ever. He refuses to discuss the reason of his disappearance, saying that his wife, who knows the facts, can reveal them if she chooses. He denied that he intended going to Norristown to make amends to his wife for his treatment of LEWISBURG, Pa., Jan. 7.—Michael Fisher was found burned to death in the ruins of his house, which was consumed by fire Sunday night. He had entertained a number of friends during the evening, and the flames were discovered about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, when he was in bed. Fisher was an elderly man, and is said to have kept considerable money in the house. The affair is not free from sus-

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 8.—At the city Republican convention in Music Hall yesterday afternoon twenty-seven minority delegates bolted and went to another hall, where they nominated an independent ticket. The forty-nine remaining delegates nominated Colonel E. H. Ripple for mayor. He is commissary general on Governor Hastings' staff. Colonel Ripple was mayor from 1888 to 1890. The bolters nominated James Moir, a common councilman.

LEBANON, Pa., Jan. 6.-Upon warrants sworn out by Uriah B. Horst, of Schafferstown, before Alderman Robert L. Mille, nine well known young people of that vil-lage, five men and four women, were ar-rested on Saturday and held in $300 bail to answer a charge of disturbing a religious meeting on New Year's eve, in the United Brethren church, at Schafferstown, by laughing and talking loudly, and otherwise misbehaving themselves.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6 .- A fire which swept with terrific fury through the combined store, hall and tenement house at the southwest corner of Third and Gaskill streets on Saturday afternoon resulted in the death of two men, while four others were badly injured. The escape of at least twenty men and six small children, all of whom were pinned in by the flames, was little short of miraculous. The dead men are: Harris Levi, aged 45 years; Marks Feinburg, aged 30 years.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—George Weilan, 49 years old, employed at the glue works of Delancy & Co., on Bermuda street, fell into a vat of boiling glue yesterday, and death resulted. It was with the greatest difficulty that the corpse was removed from the sticky material, where it would soon have been boiled into small fragments. The body then was almost beyond recognition, and it required great care on the part of the men to prevent the corpse from being dismembered through handling. PITTSBURG, Jan. 7.—Chester W. McCor-kle, a young son of the manager of a mine at Dorseyville, is dead and Reuben Fisher, son of Rev. Mr. Fisher of the same place, is dying, the result of an explosion of giant powder. The boys had secured a can of the powder and were intending to make "powder mines." Fisher, in sport, threw some of the powder into the flame of a lamp carried by McCorkle, which caused him to jump aside suddenly. He dropped the lamp into the open can, causing a terrific explosion.

HAZLETON, Pa., Jan. 6 .- A shocking aceldent occurred on the railroad near the effective force of insurgents. A report from Lehigh Valley depot. William Reilly, aged Santa Clara says that the troops encoun-12 years, while stepping from a train fell tered the insurgent band led by Pancho beneath the wheels and had his leg cut off. When taken to the hospital he was placed in the same ward as a miner who was taken to the institution the day previous. The miner did not recognize the boy until he was about to be taken to the operating room, when he discovered that it was his son. The scene was a most affecting one. The boy died shortly after being admitted.

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 6. - The Central hotel, of this city, was totally destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. Many of the guests were taken out of upper windows by the firemen, and it is thought that all escaped safely, though many were obliged to flee in their night clothes. B. F. Housam, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Fire company, was killed by a falling wall, and several others were severely injured, one of them, William Wareham, also a fireman, very seriously. The flames spread to the three story building of George Streit and burned it to the ground. The McCartney building was also badly damaged. The loss will reach $150,000.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 4 .- John B. McClure, a tailor, and the father of a large family of children, is in jail on a charge of attempted murder. The victim, William Barnes, is a man 50 years old, whom McClure caught in his wife's company. On McClure's approach Barnes fled, but was followed by the injured husband to the alley in the rear of the house. McClure fired a shot from his revolver at the fleeing man, and then returned to his house. Barnes, though terribly wounded, walked a mile to the office of a physician, who declares that the wound may prove fatal. Barnes has always borne a good reputation, though Mrs. McClure has been in similar trouble before.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.-Special Policeman Edward Gallagher was put under $1,000 ball by Magistrate Eisenbrown for a further hearing next Monday on the charge of assault and battery upon Catharine Kelly, and for falsely arresting her and imprisoning her in the premises No. 506 Woodland terrace, where she was employed as a servant by Miss White. The cause of the trouble was a mislaid or missing watch. The policeman jumped at the conclusion that the girl had stolen it, and, acting without a warrant, compelled her to go to an upper room and disrobe in the presence of Miss White. His manner throughout was overbearing and insolent. and her experience has made her quite ill. Miss White sent for the policeman, but she objected to his harsh methods PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—The street railway strike precipitated by the incendiary actions of a few hot headed agitators, against the earnest protests of President Mahon and the other leaders, ended in a complete flasco after a few hours, in which no damage was done. There was no general tie up, as almost every line ran its cars as usual. This was because there were a large number of the motormen and conductors opposed to a renewal of the strike, and reported for duty at the reg-ular hour. Of those who remained out all but 182 responded to an order issued by the company that all who failed to return to work by 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon would be permanently discharged. Of the 152 malcontents, forty were employed on on one branch. About fifty others, not included in this number, resigned their

STILL NEARING HAVANA

Spain's Futile Effort to Suppress Cuban Insurgents.

AN IMPORTANT BATTLE REPORTED

Supposed to be in the Neighborhood of Guanajay, Forty-five Miles from Havana-Seven Thousand More Troops for the Defense of the Capital.

HAVANA, Jan. 8 .- The insurgent band commanded by Zayas was reported at dif-ferent times on Monday at Caimito, Hoyo Colorado and Punta Brava, showing that he followed pretty closely the line between the provinces of Pinar del Rio and Havana up to the extreme northeastern portion of Pinar del Rio. This brought him into the region into which large numbers of troops have been sent to guard the western approach to Havana.

Word has just been received that sounds of cannon and musketry have been heard in the neighborhood of Guanajay, an important town of 4,000 inhabitants in Pinar del Rio, forty-five miles southward of Havana. It is supposed that an engagement is taking place there between the forces of General Suarez Valdes and the insurgents, but the numbers engaged or the course which the fortune of the fight is taking is not known. The insurgents are burning and destroyipg up to within eight miles of Havana. The district around the village of Calabazar suffered yesterday. Calabazar is only two miles from Vento, where the apparatus is located upon which Havana depends for its water supply. In the Calabazar and Hoyo Colorado districts the cane has been burned in the fields of Maulin, Garro and Baracoa.

The fields of the Valdespino estate have been burned and the villages of Puerto la Guira and Marrero have been put to the torch, after being plundered, according to the report received here.

The influx of refugees from the whole of the territory surrounding Havana continues, and apparently it is not possible to obtain sufficient means of transportation to accommodate the fleeing families and their household goods. The country seems to be entirely abandoned to the insurgent army, and no movement apparently avails to check them.

The eastern portion of the island seems not to have been entirely stripped of an Carillo, and in the battle which ensued sustained a loss of fifty.

A train from Matanzas, which managed to get through, brought two generals and several thousand troops to reinforce the troops in Havana and strengthen Campos' new strategic line between this city and Batabano, broken by Gomez and Collazo on Sunday as they marched toward Pinar del Rio. By strengthening this line Campos now hopes to pen Gomez in the west.

Insurgent Victory and Defeat.

MADRID, Jan. 8 .- The Correspondencia states that the insurgents have attacked Hoyo Colorado, which is three leagues from Havana. The Spaniards were numbered and surrendered. General Campos, it is further stated, defeated the insurgents near Havana. The Correspondencia further states that after defeating the insurgents the Spanish gunboat Ardilla captured four vessels filled with insurgents trying to escape.

Canada's Cabinet Crisis.

OTTAWA Ont. Jan 8 -In the house of commons Hon. G. E. Foster, lately minister of finance, made a statement in reference to the causes which had actuated himself and six colleagues in resigning their positions as cabinet members. The sole reason given was that the seceding ministers had no confidence in Sir Mackenzie Bowell's leadership, and that the question of granting remedial legislation to re-establish separate schools in Manitoba had nothing to do with the resignations. This statement is not generally be-lieved here, as the retiring members are all Protestants and represent Protestant

Big Haul by a Clever Forger.

San Francisco, Jan. 7 .- A forger, who is thought to be a New York expert, has just looted the Nevada bank of $20,000 and fled with the coin, without leaving a clew by which the detectives can track him. He had for some time been doing a brokerage business in The Chronicle building under the name of A. A. Holmes, and de posited at the Nevada bank, where he be came well known. On Dec. 14 he prosented a check for $22,000 on the Crocker Woolworth bank, of this city. He took $20,000 in coin and left the balance on deposit. It now transpires that the check was originally for $12, having been "raised" to $22,000.

Five Injured in a Trolley Collision. St. Louis, Jan. 8 .- An electric car on the Lindell railway ran into a carriage yesterday and severely injured four of its five occupants. The carriage was turned over, and it and the horses and those in side were dragged more than half a block before the car could be stopped. The injured are: Mrs. Daniel Bergan, head badly cut and back severely bruised, may die; Miss Mollie Williams, badly cut; John Egan, leg broken; John Egan, Jr., a boy, shoulder dislocated and other serious injuries; John Williams, slightly hurt.

Diamond Robbers Indicted. New York, Jan. 8 .- The grand jury yesterday found indictments for burglary in the first degree against William King and Harry Wilson, the two men who were recently arrested with the diamonds of Mrs. Frances Barnes in their possession.

PHILADELPHIA'S INVESTIGATION. Testimony Showing Police Corruption and

Activity in Politics.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.—The testimony at yesterday's session of the senate investigating committee was of a decidedly sensational nature, and was directed against the police in Mayor Warwick's ward, the Fifteenth. A number of policemen and ex-policemen were examined, the latter having all been discharged since last August's delegate election, when the administration opposed Senator Quay's election as state chairman. The witnesses not only told of the active participation of the police of the ward in politics, but charged that Sergeants Green and McManus were partners during the latter part of 1892 in maintaining a house of ill fame on Green street. Ex-Policeman James W. Naylor gave this information, and said he was also a partner. He said the place broke up in about three months, and that he and the sergeants were compelled by the woman who conducted the place, Molly Blanchard by name, to pay her money under pain of arrest. The same witness charged Sergeant Richards with immoral conduct.

Charges were also made against House Sergeant William Francis, the lieutenant's son, of intoxication while on duty and bringing liquor into the station house The testimony against the lieutenant was In the main bearing on his activity in the recent election, when he is alleged to have made an active personal canvass for the administration and to have ordered the men under him to support the same powers. Many of those who did not were soon discharged for most trivial reasons.

It is being claimed by friends of the committee that attempts are being made to intimidate certain witnesses who are expected to testify. Yesterday Lawyer Pettit was in court and had the notorious Julia Crow's case postponed for one week. She is under indictment for keeping a dis orderly house, and will give sensation evidence before the committee in relation to the Second district. She claims she now being intimidated by the police. Law yer Pettit also endeavored to have ex-Pe liceman John Davis discharged from cus tody. Davis was arrested charged wit having sworn falsely before the commitee as to his being appointed without pas ing the civil service examination. Day was held in $1,500 bail for court, which was promptly furnished.
