SPRING MILLS EVENTS.

A Runaway That Caused Excitement—Other Important Events.

Last Saturday evening, while Messrs. Zerby and Wolf, were on their way to C. P. Long's store, it being very dark, they drove against Mr. Luse's buggy which frightened the horse and threw both out into the mud, dragging Mr. Zerby and bruising his head so that he had to let the lines fly. The horse then came across the iron bridge and passed Hal Hessig, breaking a few spokes out of one of the wheels, and in making the turn at the Grange hall, ran against a stump and broke loose from the cart. The horse ran through town meeting the Ripka boys and ran into their buggy breaking one wheel, axle and top, not injuring either one. From there it ran into Mr. Evans field where they caught him. All went off very lucky for all. Some dunce wanted to make it appear it was due to carelessness.

Mr. Isaac Strunk, one of our jovial democrats, is selling all kinds of new seed potatoes.

Mrs. Dr. Allison, from Northumberland, is here visiting her parents. Mrs. Allison has been on the sick list for several months.

Prof. Rerick and Austin Crape, left for Philadelphia where they have employment. Prof. will be head salesman in the Columbia bicycle store at that place.

The Ladies Mite Society held a chicken and waffle supper in the Grange Hall. It was a success in every respect. George Reber and wife, from Tusseyville, spent Saturday with Smith Bros. Mr. Reber will have sale in the spring to dispose of his entire stock. He will quit farming.

T. B. Jamison is going in the insurance business. He now represents six different companies.

Dr. Vanvalza and Wm. Allison, left on Saturday morning on the west-bound train, looking up some business.

A NARROW ESCAPE:—Mrs. C. P. Long, while making the night-watchman's bed in the store, the watchman having forgotten to remove his .38 calibre revolver from under his pillow, accidentally threw it on the floor. It fell on the hammer and discharged the load. It scorched her apron and blew powder in her face. The ball lodged in the side of the wall. Mr. Bob Breon tries to wear a smile, but when he must say it a girl, it all vanishes.

CLOSE SHAVE:—The caucus is over and constable Reuben Kline had a close shave. Keep within the bounds and do not boast. John Allbright the opponent is looking up the matter.

AARONSBURG NOTES.

The Musical Convention Was a Great Success Personal Mention.

IMPROVING:—D. H. Lenker, who has been on the sick list for the past month, we are glad to say is slowly improving. Mr. Irvin Musser, of Ohio, is visiting his many friends in town.

Rev. Brown, of the Reformed church, preached a special sermon to the young on Sunday evening. The church was crowded and all were well pleased with the excellent sermon he delivered.

Miss Rosa Mingle, of Bellefonte, is paying her annual visit, and is the guest of Mr. T. W. Kreamer's.

A SUCCESS:—The musical convention in this place, under the leadership of Prof. P. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, was a grand success. Miss May Myton, star soloist, the central attraction during the entire week. She was greeted with applause; all who heard her sing one evening were sure of coming back the next eve. Everyone was highly pleased with Bert Allen's solo, of Boalsburg. It was a rich treat. He seemed to be strictly in it while in our town, and so we might mention quite a good many who did some grand singing, but taking it as a whole the music was all rendered remarkably well.

CONVENTION BRIEFS.

The Citizens band treated the town in general on Thursday evening with some of their latest music.

The Ladies Aid Society and the band netted about $24 during convention, selling ice cream and cake.

Clymer Stover says he wishes the convention would have lasted another week. The ladies all enjoyed eating his candy, and the gentleman, we take it for granted, was quite willing to pay the bills.

Wm. Guisewite's ice cream parlor was the scene of amusement all week, and the cream was extra good.

Wanted to know by Wm. Korman, who tried to climb his porch roof. Alas, so near and yet so far.

James Bird was to Hartleton on Friday attending his brothers funeral.

PA. FURNACE ITEMS.

Sunday 27, was a busy day here. Some twenty-five men were at work tearing down the machinery at the Gatesburg mines or better known as the Wigton ore mines, at that place. Teams were hauling it on Jacob R. Riders farm. We think the Sabbath should be kept as a sacred day of worship, and not for work. These men were arrested and taken to Bellefonte. They got a fine of $4 apiece and costs.

W. H. Jones we see is sporting a new horse.

ENLARGING:—Wm. Bistline is visiting the Star Ointment Company for the purpose of putting in stills for improving the process of manufacturing. The demand makes it necessary to increase the place.

Mr. Miles Harpster is busy taking out railroad ties.

SICK:—Mr. George Bell is still on the sick list, and not much better as we stated last week. Hope he may soon recover.
