Will Move.

At present Joseph Fox and a set of carpenters are busily engaged building counters and shelves in the large double store room of Temple Court. They will try and have the room completed by about the 15th of March when the Philadelphia Branch clothing store, on Allegheny street, will leave its old quarters and occupy the same. This will be a splendid location with ample room to display their stock. Their line of goods will be enlarged and it will be their aim to have the best and cheapest clothing house in Central Pennsylvania. The public will hear from them in due time.

Frightened Hindoos.

On Monday night the Hindoo Fakeers, who appeared in the opera house, stopped at the Garman house. When the alarm of fire was given these individuals went tearing through the halls, screaming at the top of their voice. They were in their night clothes and would not take time to dress. They rushed over to the court house and there, with the thermometer near the zero point, they began arranging their toilet as best they could. It was fun for the boys to see them go through their apparently half-crazy antics.

New Shoe Store.

It is announced that Mr. V. J. Bauer, of this place, is arranging to open a shoe store in the corner room in Temple Court, on Allegheny street. Mr. Bauer for a number of years was engaged in the mercantile business at Bellefonte, and recently has been connected with Brockerhoff Bros. in the feed and wholesale grocery trade. Mr. Bauer is a practical business man and no doubt will succeed in such a line.

Fire at Milesburg.

James Heverley's two-story frame dwelling house, valued at $1,000, Milesburg, caught fire from a defective flue last Thursday, the 20th at noon, and was totally destroyed in less than an hour. Nearly all of the household goods were saved and the building was fully insured. The new hook and ladder company was on the scene early and did telling work in the protection of adjoining property.

STRUCK A WAGON.

A Driver's Narrow Escape at Howard Station.

Thursday morning of last week the passenger train for Tyrone, with Engineer Smith on the locomotive, struck a wagon on the road close to the Howard station. N. Sullenberger was driving a two horse wagon across the track, and as the wagon was heavily loaded with stone, the gait of the team was slow. The train was slowing up preparatory to stopping at the station when the locomotive struck the wagon in the middle, demolishing it and sending the stone in all directions. When the wagon was struck the horses in their efforts to get away from the track jerked Mr. Sullenberger forward, which motion prevented his being injured by the engine. Fortunately the driver and the horses escaped injury. Two ribs of the pilot of the engine were broken.

A Vicious Assault.

On Tuesday quite an affray occurred in Morris' lime stone quarry along Buffalo Run. Among the workmen was Foster Young, of Coleville. He was at work with a pick taking out rock. In digging or striking with the tool some of the spawls from rock fell below him where some Hungarians were at work. They did not like this and soon became angry. Hot words passed between them and finally three of the foreigners assailed Mr. Young. In the combat one of the Hungarians raised a pick and struck at Mr. Young's head. He tried to avoid the blow but it struck him on the back of the shoulder and the point of the pick pierced the calf of his leg, causing an ugly wound several inches long. At this point his assailants were driven off. In his disabled condition he had to be placed on a stretcher and carried to his home at Coleville.

A warrant was issued for the three Hungarians but they managed to get away on an early train, and have not since been apprehended.

Almost Frozen.

Rev. Father McGovern, who has been temporarily in charge of the Catholic congregation at Frenchville, was transferred to the Clearfield mission. He started to drive to Clearfield Friday, a distance of twenty miles. When at a lonely part of the road, his horse ran away and he was thrown from the buggy, breaking his leg. For over four hours the priest lay in the road, unable to help himself. When found, his broken leg was frozen and he was unconscious. During all this time the mercury hugged the zero mark and a very high wind was blowing. Rev. McGovern is now lying at a farm house, and the physicians fear amputation of the leg may be necessary to save his life.

Announcement.

I am with great sorrow compelled to make this public announcement, that by the advice of the best oculist in this country it becomes necessary for me, owing to increasing difficulty with my eye sight, to give up the teaching of music entirely. After carefully reviewing the situation, I have decided to devote all my time to the sale of musical instruments of any description, particularly Pianos and Organs, of the best make procurable. Any one wishing to purchase an instrument will save money by calling on me at room 28, Crider block, and learning particulars.

3-12x MISS S. OHNMACHT.

Suicided in Clearfield County.

John Wilson was admitted to the Clearfield County home last Saturday, after quarreling with his wife, who resides at Chester Hill. Yesterday Wilson committed suicide in one of the closets, he having cut his throat with a penknife. He was about 50 years old. The county home authorities inquired of Wilson's wife where the man should be buried. She heartlessly replied that she did not care whether the body was buried or not.

Happily Wedded.

A happy couple were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, in the Baptist church, at Martha, Feb. 14th—the young couple being J. C. Shaffer, of Zion, and Miss Lottie Williams, of Martha. The wedding march was played by Howard Miles, when Mr. J. F. McCoy, groomsmen, and Miss Mattie Williams, bridesmaid, marched up the centre aisle to the altar, followed by the bride and groom. After these came the groom's sister, Miss Fannie Shaffer, and the bride's brother, Gustav Williams. Being formed in the usual manner before the altar, Rev. G. W. Downing, of Altoona, stepped before them and performed the ceremony in a very desirable manner. The audience was then led in prayer by the pastor after which the congratulations were extended. After all had congratulated the couple they repaired to the home of the bride, where they were all served with refreshments. Many fine and valuable presents were received. The bridal pair, accompanied by the groomsmen and bridesmaid and the groom's sister, left the guests amidst the partaking of the feast, for Zion, the home of the groom. They boarded the train amid showers of rice, which revealed the secret to the travelers. The young couple reached their destination in safety, and on Saturday evening a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shaefer in honor of them, 25 or 30 guests being present. They were then served with a dainty supper, after which they were all entertaining one another when suddenly they were startled by the report of several guns, followed by the caelestian music best selected music. They played for a while, when the bridal pair presented themselves. The boys were then treated and they went home rejoicing.

We extend our best wishes to the young couple, may they ever prosper and walk the straight path-way of life. X

Hindoo Fakeers.

The Hindoo Fakeers attracted a small audience at the opera house on Monday evening. There is something novel and attractive about the appearance of these Hindoo magicians. In their business they are a failure when compared with men like Kellar or Powell. Their actions before an audience are simply silly and childish. Their feats are very ordinary and some ridiculous. The audience found more amusement in their simplicity than in their skill. The Hindoo may be success among his people, but here he is a failure.

All Must go to School.

The attorney general has decided that the compulsory education law will go into effect with opening of the school term next fall. This spring the assessors will get a list of all the children of school age, and the boards will then see that the act is properly enforced. The employment of attendance of officers rests with the boards, and will doubtless be found necessary in Philadelphia.

No Corns Here

There is no good reason why there should be such things as corns. There is a reason, however, but it isn't a good one. The reason is that people buy and wear ill-fitting footwear that makes corns faster than chiropodist can cut them off. All this is caused by not beginning right. If you will bring the children to me, and take the Shoes I recommend, and keep on bringing the children year after year, those boys and girls will never have to spend a cent for corn medicine.
