H. G. Stover, of this place, will move on the Harshberger farm a short distance west of Millheim, in the spring.

C. E. Bressler, of Bunker Hill, of late has had considerable business at Aaronsburg. He goes on an average about two times a week. Rumor has it that he intends moving to the toll-gate and will engage in the confectionery business.

The scholars of the St. Paul school had a very spirited debate on Friday afternoon. The subject discussed was "Resolved that Washington should have more praise for freeing America, than Lincoln for freeing the slaves." The question was unanimously decided in favor of the affirmative. After the debate, the members of the school gave choice recitations, commemorative of the birth of him who was "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Allen Wetzel, one day last week, while shooting mark accidentally shot one of his neighbor's dogs, which was a valuable animal. Moral—Always look before you shoot.

Misses Katie Wise and Mazie Bower, of Aaronsburg, were visiting friends at this place last Friday and took in the debate.

The Swamptown correspondent of the "Keystone Gazette" was misinformed last week concerning the house adjoining the blacksmith shop, as Harry says the house is still for rent. He must first entrap the bird before he engages the cage.

Miss Mary Hess expects to go to Lock Haven in the near future and will remain an indefinite time.

Public sales will be next in order. The register in the post office is filling up quite rapidly with bills.

J. M. Weaver, our hustling postmaster, had a very funny experience the other morning while changing the mail going West. He went about it in his even tenor of way and as soon as he opened the pouch out jumped a very lively mouse. How the intruder got in Mr. Weaver, was unable to say but he alleges that it was a reality and that he was not laboring under any hallucination or mental disturbance. The mouse was a privileged character and traveled as First Class Matter.

FAIRBROOK PICK-UPS.

Mr. Calvin Huss, of Spring Mills, is visiting in this section. Mr. Huss is a noted violinist.

Mr. Daniel Koch was at home, over Sunday; he says things are booming at Gatsburg.

MILESBURG NOTES.

As Gathered by One of Our Accomplished Scribes—An Interesting Letter.

GOOD WORK.—Last Thursday the residence of Mr. James Heverly burned to the ground. The fire was not discovered until it was too late to save the building, but the alarm was quickly given and in a few minutes the Hook and Ladder company was on the scene and by their prompt acting succeeded in saving several other dwelling houses which were very close. This company is certainly a credit to our town. They have only lately organized and been called out twice, and in both instances, they displayed an unusual amount of skill and bravery.

A SUCCESS.—The Christian Endeavor Social, held at the home of Miss Bessie Stroup, last Friday evening, was a success both financially and socially. During the evening we were presented to Martha and George Washington, Mrs. and John Adams, Mrs. and Mr. John Quincy Adams, Gen. Lafayette, Alexander Hamilton, Aaron Burr and many persons who figured prominently in "Ye Olden Times." Every character was well acted and afforded considerable amusement. The Bellefonte C. E. Society was represented by Taylor and Irvin.

CAMP FIRE.—Quite a large number were present at the G. A. R. Camp fire Saturday night and were very pleasantly entertained. The music was excellent, it was rendered by the Bierly Bros. and the Glee Club. Miss Stella Smith and Miss Mary Fisher sang a duet and Miss Jane Stonerode and Miss Lucy McColl whistled a duet. There were also many recitations and addresses most of which were tributes to Washinton.

PROMINENT CITIZENS.—We were sorry to hear of the death of Adam Witherly who was formerly a resident of this place, but was living at Wallace Run at the time of his death, which occurred Tuesday morning of last week. He was buried in the Advent cemetery about 3 miles north of Milesburg. He had many friends in this community who sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

Mr. Alois Kohlbecker, proprietor of the Central hotel, is rejoicing over the fact that another son came to his home on Friday evening. We understand this is the sixteenth child, but there are only ten children living.

LOCAL INSTITUTE.—Next Friday and Saturday the Teacher's Local Institute will be held in this place. Rev. Gilbert of Tyrone will lecture on Friday evening, and Saturday will be more generally devoted to discussion of different topics incident to school work.

A great many people of our town have been attending the meetings held in Bellefonte by Rev. Leonard Weaver. Among the number was L. T. Eddy, our excellent chorister and we understand his music was greatly appreciated.

Mr. Harry Meyer, of Bellwood, spent last Sunday with his parents in Central city.

Mr. William Adams is able to be around again he has had an attack of grippe.

Miss Mildred Borst, of Tyrone, was the guest of Miss Bessie Stroup last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. R. F. Vonada, of this place, is reported on the sick list with a sore throat.

DIED.—W. H. Culberson, of Poe Mills, died last week of diabetes. His age was about fifty years of age. Interment took place on Monday at Siglerville, Mifflin county.

William Mench, a resident of Millheim, died on Saturday evening. Interment took place on Tuesday forenoon at Millheim.

Mrs. Thomas Moyer was visiting friends at Linden Hall last week.

FIRST LOAD.—Robert Hosterman, of Haines township, had the honor of unloading the first load of wheat in Luther Geiswhite's new grain house last week.

Mrs. Luther Rote, of Spring Mills, was visiting her brother, William Sheasley, on Sunday.

Miss Emma Bird left for Shamokin the other day.

MEETING.—The protracted meeting of the United Evangelical church, at this place, is now going on under the efficient direction of our pastor, Rev. Lohr, are exceedingly well attended and give promise of much spiritual good.

William Walter and wife, of Woodward, was visiting Henry Klings' on Sunday.

Mrs. Maggie Garthoff, of this place, left for Rebersburg Monday evening to visit her sick mother.

Mrs. Samuel Ulrich and daughter was visiting friends in Bellefonte last week.

Jacob Heller and A. Gramley, of Rebersburg, made a business call on Monday. How is the fish story.

LEMONT SITTINGS.

The warm spell was appreciated by every person—they were tired of the cold breezes.

Some of the men haven't got over the election yet. You hear about it every now and then. The republicans are mad because the democrats put in four of their men.

Jacob Herman was busy filling his ice house on Saturday. The ice was of a good quality.

There was an excitement in town on last Friday evening. The flue of Isaac Armstrong's house caught on fire and the roof had to be kept wet as the house would have burned.

A horse belonging to Rev. Hepler died last week with spasmodic colic.

A grand sociable was held at the home of Samuel Glenn for the benefit of the C. E. Society. The leading feature of the evening was a five minute talk on eleven different subjects. Each member had a list of subjects and selected different persons for to talk with, by writing their names opposite the subject. Miss Ethel Dale was the author of the entertainment. We must thank Ethel for her trouble in writing out these lists of subjects. And also the Glenn family for their kindness shown during the evening. There was a rich supply of refreshments of which each one enjoyed. A collection was taken up which amounted to nearly five dollars.

The C. E. Society, of Shiloh, are holding a sociable this Thursday evening, at Mr. Lytle's, below Shiloh. Everybody is invited to attend.

Miss Anna Johnson, of Coleville, was visiting here the latter part of last week. She made quite a number of acquaintances while here. Also Miss Nannie Lytle, of State College, was a pleasant visitor in our small town.

Misses May Bible and Maggie Tresser, of Houserville, were over to call on May Getz Saturday evening.

Two of Shiloh's young sports were down to attend the opera on Monday night. They didn't reach home till the wee hours of the night. Now look here, you two sports, you want to get home a little earlier after this, or we will report you, then you will get the "G. B."

HOWARD EVENTS.

Successful Revival—Singing Convention—Handle Factory Running.

Mr. Nathan Kunes and wife, of Blanchard, are stopping with Mr. O. J. Alson.

Mr. Percie Daughenbach expects to move to Altoona, in the near future.

Our friend, Dad Walizer, is again at home, and is enjoying himself with the boys.

The V. P. S. C. E. Social will be held this Friday evening, February 28, at the residence of Mr. J. Z. Long.

Revival meetings have got to be very numerous in our little town. At present the Methodist and Evangelical people both have a meeting in progress.

Our friend, Thomas Mann, arrived home one day last week and expects to remain here until bark peeling opens up, when he then expects to leave for English Centre, where he has taken over 2000 cords of bark to peel.

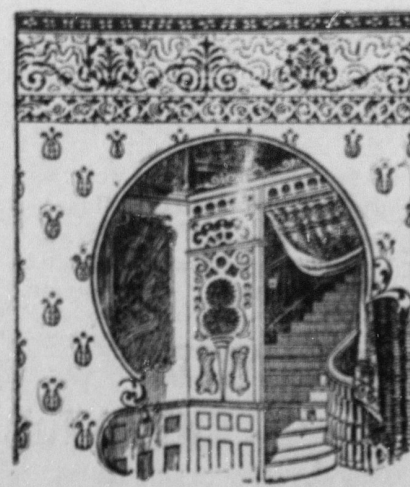

Messrs B. Poulson & Co.'s handle factory has been running full time of late.

Mr. James T. Heverly expects to move about the first of April into the house now occupied by Charles Candy.

The P. O. S. of A. held quite an interesting meeting in the Evangelical church on last Friday evening. The Reverend Sechrist delivered quite an able address to the boys. A great many of the order, from a distance, were in attendance.

The singing convention, held here last week and the week previous by Prof. Gresh, of Milton, closed on Saturday evening with a grand concert.

I have carefully analyzed the sample of your ice which you brought to this laboratory Jan. 30, for this purpose, and find that it is very pure and free from sewerage or other contamination. The analysis shows the ice to be, in my opinion, better than the average quality of river or lake ice.

Yours very truly, G. G. FOND
