BARATIERI'S DOWNFALL

Recall of the Italian Commander in Abyssinia.

HE IS TO BE COURT MARTIALED.

Succeeded by General Badissera-The Defeat of the Italian Forces Has Caused the Wildest Excitement and Bitterest Comment Throughout Italy.

ROME, March 4 .- It is impossible to exegerate the consternation which the news of the Italian defeat in Abyssinia has caused in all circles in this city. The newspapers do not even seek to minimize the disaster in the slightest degree. Every bour marks the appearance of fresh editions, giving additional details of the news, and more particularly of the manner which it has been received and the epinions of the editorial writers upon the disaster and the campaign.

All this serves to increase the public exeitement, which is constantly growing. The whole of the garrison of the city is confined within the barracks for fear of disorder. Even the semi-official newspapers dwell without disguise upon the erious feature of the situation. Owing to the general clamor the war and court martial General Baratieri. General Badissera succeeds him, and assumed command of the Italian troops in Abyssinia today.

The latest news reports are to the effect that General Arimondi, who commanded one of the Italian columns in the disastrous engagement, is also missing, and that General Ellena, who commanded the reserve, was slightly wounded.

Small disturbances, mainly by students, are reported to have occurred in the provinces yesterday. A demonstration was also attempted in Rome last night, but was quickly supressed.

King Humbert had a long interview with the president of the senate last night. According to The Italie, King Humbert insists that Premier Crispi shall present himself in the chamber, and shall ask for a vote by which the government may be guided in its future decisions. The cabinet will meet again this afternoon, and it is not believed that it will resign.

The Marquis Di Rudini presided at a meeting of the opposition leaders last night. The opinion prevailed that every demand made by the government for the relief of Abyssinia should be granted, but not to the present government. The meeting then adjourned, it is reported, in order to address a protest to King Humbert in the event of the cabinet not resigning. The opposition party bitterly attack the government as being responsible for the military reverse sustained by the Italians. Among the countless rumors which are flying about in the excited state of the public mind it was stated that the government will postpone the meeting of parliament which had been fixed for March 5. It is reported that General Baratieri attacked the Shoans because he had heard that the Shoan chiefs, with a portion of the troops, would be attending the coronation of the Negus at Axun. He hoped thus to surprise and disperse them.

The semi official journals assert that General Baratieri's loss was over sixty guns. They accuse General Baratieri of incapacity and want of foresight, and they demand the adoption of measures worthy | $3,000.

The Capitale, in demanding the recall of General Baratieri, says that General Brancovina was shot for much less. The government bas decided to mobilize the reserves of the class of 1872, numbering Owing to the sad news of the Italian reverse the pope has ordered that a Te Deum be sung in St. Peter's. The celebration of the anniversary of his coronation has been

Mrs. Stanford Wins the Suit.

WASHINGTON, March 3 .- Mr. Justice Harlan, in the supreme court of the United States, announced the decision of the court in the case of the United States vs. Jane L Stanford, executrix of the late Senator Stanford, in favor of the executrix. This was a suit brought in the United States courts in California to recover something over $15,000,000, Stanford's proportion as a stockholder of the Central Pacific Railroad company of the alleged liability of the corporation to the United States for bonds advanced to it by the government.

FLOOD DAMAGE EAST.

Havoc of the Rising Waters in New Hampshire and Maine.

PROPERTY LOSS REACHES MILLIONS

At Brunswick, Me., Three Workman Were Drowned While Trying to Stem the Tide of Destruction-Railroad Traffic Seriously Impeded and Mill Work Suspended

DOVER, N. H., March 8 .- More than $200,000 damage has been done by the flood in this city. Three bridges have been washed away in this city and a large section of the big Bracewell block has been completely wrecked. The Merrimac river is rising at the rate of three inches an hour. The Nashua river is eightinches above any stage it has reached at Nashua in the last twelve years, and Jackson's mill, which employ 1,000 hands, and the electric light works have been obliged to Three bridges at Somersworth, N. H., have been carried away, and traffic on the Northern division of the Boston and Maine railway is suspended in consequence. Many other bridges on the Piscataqua have also been destroyed. At Bow Junction, two miles south of Concord, N. H., 1,000 feet of the roadbed of the Concord and Montreal railway has caved in, and it must be several days before the damage can be repaired.

Reports from North Weare and New Boston indicate that several bridges in that section have been wrecked, and it will be several days before railroad traffic can be resumed. All the mills at Manchester, N. H., are idle. The tracks of the Boston and Maine between Manchester and Lowell are under several feet of water in places. It will require two days at least to repair the tracks to Concord. The Merrimae river is over its bank at Lowell, Mass., and all the mills are idle.

The Mousam river at Kennebunk, Me., is higher than it has been at any time in the last eighteen years, and work in factories there has been suspended in consequence.

THE FLOODS IN MAINE.

Three Lives Lost and Millions Worth of Property Destroyed.

PORTLAND, Me., March 3.-The flood on the Presumpscot river has subsided considerably, but rain is still falling. Only one bridge out of six in the cities of West Brook and Cumberland mills remains over the Presumpscot. Along the entire river not more than three bridges are standing. The damage to mill property in Westbrook alone will amount to over $1, 000,000. The new mill of the S. W. War ren paper manufactory is gone, and portions of the Westbrook Manufacturing mpany, W. K. Dana's and other mills are damaged.

The highest run of tides known here for fifty years visited Bath yesterday, overflowing streets and flooding basements. All work was abandoned in the shipyards. The water in the Androscoggin river at Brunswick is the highest in years, and much mill property is in imminent danger. While trying to save property yesterday Charles Wagg, general overseer of the French employes, whose names are unknown, also perished.

Three bridges in Brunswick and Tohams and several houses have been carried | go upon the payment of a heavy fine. away. The new iron bridge connecting Hollis and West Buxton has gone down the river, and a big jam of logs between Bar Mills and West Buxton is holding back three miles of anchored ice. If this dam breaks the factories of the Maine Furniture company and several stores are

A Dam Bursts in Connecticut.

HARTFORD, March 2.-The great rain storm which was in progress all day Saturday. Saturday night and yesterday caused the greatest damage to property throughout the state known in twenty years. Many serious accidents, washouts and wrecks are reported. The Connecticut river is swollen until it has reached a point three times greater than its normal proportions. The big iron bridge at Middletown was in great danger all the afternoon, and a portion of the false work was swept away, but the main structure is still intact. The bursting of the old copper mine dam in the town of Bristol yesterday caused the greatest flood ever known in that section, and it is estimated the damage will reach over $100,000 from this alone, The highway bridges on nearly all roads crossing the Pequaback were swept away. Ten in all have gone out and others are badly damaged. New York State Floods Subsiding. ALBANY, March 2.-Freezing weather has checked the rising of the streams hereabouts, and there has been a material subsidence of the flood. A strip of thickly populated business and residence portion of the city two miles long and a quarter to a half mile wide was submerged yesterday from one to twelve feet.

Seven Thousand Made Idle by Flood. MANCHESTER, N. H., March 3 .- The high water in the Merrimac carried away three private bridges and the steam pipes of the Amoskeag mills yesterday, necessitating shutting down the mills. The shut down throws 7,200 hands out of employment, and may last several weeks.

Sudden Death of a New Jersey Judge, TRENTON, March 4. - Judge Clifford Stanley Sims, of the New Jersey court of errors, died here yesterday of paralysis. He was stricken while waiting for a train at the Pennsylvania railroad depot, from which he was taken to a hotel. There he died a few hours later. The body of Judge Sime was embalmed last evening and sent to his home at Mount Holly.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., March 2.-Nine remonstrances, containing in all 1,000 signatures, have been filed in the office of the clerks of courts against the granting of a liquor license at Berwyn, in Easttown township, to James F. Kromer. At the present time there is not a licensed house in the place, and the remonstrants claim that none is necessary. WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 2. - Mary

Lombroski, of Hazleton, has brought suit

by her attorney against Joseph Zmujdin for $10,000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff says that the defendant on Jan. 23, 1895, promised to marry her, but he married another girl and jilted her, for which she wants JONESTOWN, Pa., March 4.—Burglars broke into the residence of Mrs. John Wagner, near this place. Her adopted son, aged 12 years, heard them moving about in the house, and obtaining a revolver opened fire upon the intruders. He emptied every chamber of the revolver and wounded one of the burglars, but they escaped. Blood marks were traced for some distance from the house.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Feb. 29.-John Yuhos died here last night from lockjaw, the result of a blow on the head with a piece of wood, inflicted by John Begani a few nights ago. Begani is at large. He struck Yuhos because the latter offered Mrs. Begani a glass of beer. The woman has surrendered herself to the police. The parties are Hungarians, and Yuhos leaves a wife and family in that country.

PITTSBURG, March 3.-In the equity suit of ex-President Burns, of the National Window Glassworkers' association, Judge White granted a preliminary injunction against President-elect Winter and members of the association restraining them from exercising the functions of the office of president or using the funds of the association. Burns was also restrained from interfering in any way with the business of the order.

YORK, Pa., March 3 .- An interesting case affecting every constable in the boroughs and townships in the state came up in the courts here yesterday. S. D. Kollen, of Shrewsbury, objected to the qualifying of his successor, on the ground that under the law of 1889 he was entitled to a three year term, and that the law of 1895 had no power to curtail it. If the courts sustain this view the constables were elected two years too soon.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 2 .- William Evans, a driver boy at the No. 11 colliery of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company, was arrested on Saturday charged with tearing out a mule's tongue. The mule balked, and the boy attached a chain Cabot cotton mill, was drowned. Two to the animal's tongue and hitching another mule to the other end of the chain tore the member out. Out of sympathy for the boy's parents he was permitted to LANCASTER, Pa., March 2. - The exbanker of Columbia, E. K. Smith, will be sentenced next Saturday. He was convicted of embezzlement, and justice has been extremely slow paced in his case, as four years have elapsed since his bank failed for $130,000. Smith received deposits up to the day of the failure. There are still thirty indictments pending against Smith, which will be called for trial should the supreme court upset the lower court's SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 2 .- A cowardly attempt at assassination was made here. While Mrs. John Manjora and her three children were seated in the kitchen of their bome a bullet was fired through the window, shattering the sash, hitting the kitchen stove and falling on the floor. The bullet just grazed Mrs. Manjora's head, and she fainted from fright. After firing the shot the would be assassin fled. Several people saw him run, but cannot give a description of him.

ASHLAND, Pa., March 2 .- The coroner's jury has held the Centralia Colliery com pany responsible for the deaths of Michael Robeck and Anthony Zocuski, who were killed by a boiler explosion at the colliery last Monday. The exact cause of the ex plosion was not made clear, but the jury expressed the belief that if the boilers had been examined according to law the explosion might not have occurred. For failing to comply with the law in this respect the colliery company was censured for negligence.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 29.-Robert Knittle. alias John Miller, 20 years old, and 19-yearold Mary Miller, who are wanted by the police in Allentown, where they are said to be members of a gang of burglars, were arraigned before Magistrate Jermon. Knittle was charged with larceny and the wo man with having received stolen goods. He was held in $2,000 ball and the woman in $1,200 for a further hearing, awaiting the arrival of police from Allentown. Mr. and Mrs. Tobberts, two other members of the gang, escaped the detectives, but their capture is assured.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 4.-A case of smallpox and one of an undetermined character have created excitement in Priceburg, a mining village of about 2,00. inhabitants, four miles north of here. Th public schools have been closed and the case reported to the state health officer. The man ill with the disease is Joseph Filarski, a Polander, 25 years of age, and married. The house is in a thickly populated settlement of Polanders. The suspected case is that of a Polander who worked with Filarski. Business is practically at a standstill.

MIFFLINTOWN, Pa., March 3 .- Charles Ramsey, a farmer near East Waterford. Juniata county, beat his wife's brains out Sunday night with a club and an iron bar They had been reading a socialistic book called "Millenial Dawn," and become demented over it, but were not considere dangerous. They were alone at the time. Mrs. Ramsey was found in the kitchen lying on her face with her head beaten to a jelly. Ramsey was found in the eow stable, where he had hidden, with only an undershirt on and a horse blanket around him. He was bound and brought here to jail, where he is very violent. The house showed signs of a terrible struggle. Ram-sey's face and neck were scratched, one eye discolored and the hands torn and bit-ten. Ramsey ages a sacrifice had to be aften. Ramsey says a sacrifice had to be ef-fered up, and "the devil sacrificed Effic."
