HOWARD PICKINGS.

What is Transpiring in the Busy Borough Along the Bald Eagle.

Our jovial friend Mr. W. P. Woodward, who has been located at Pittsburg for the last year, departed for said place on last Thursday morning after spending a few days with parents and friends.

A SUCCESS.—The Y. P. S. C. E. held at Mr. J. V. Long's on last Friday eve, Feb. 28, was quite a success, some 80 persons being in attendance. Among the number were a few gentlemen from Bellefonte: Mr. Bayard, Mr. Heverly and Mr. Longacre.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Quite a number of our young folks were in attendance at Miss Minnie Thomas' birthday party, which was given on last Saturday eve. Over fifty guests were present. She received quite a number of presents. The refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake and different kind of caramels. After enjoying themselves in different kind of plays, everybody departed for their homes, wishing Minnie might live to enjoy many such pleasant birthdays.

FOR COGAN STATION.—Rev. D. E. E. Manley departed on Saturday last for Cogan station, where he expects to devote half of his time the following year. Mr. Frank Daughenbaugh, who has been working at Berwick the past winter, arrived home on Saturday last.

FOR TREASURER.—Mr. Fisher, of Unionville, was circulating among friends here one day the past week, looking up his chances for county treasurer. Mr. Oscar Lucas has been sick for the past few days, but under the skillful care of Dr. Smith, is improving.

MOVED.—Mr. Jackson Kline, who located here with a store, moved his family in to the Patrick Martin house, one day last week, where he is now very nicely situated.

HOME AGAIN.—Mrs. Mary Cook, her daughter Alice, and her niece Miss Mary Mitchell, all arrived home from Philadelphia on last Friday evening, where they had been visiting at Mr. John Cook's a son of Mrs. Cook. They report having had a very nice visit.

We are having quite a sucker flood in the Bald Eagle creek at present. From reports we learn that quite a number of fish have been caught the last flood.

LEMONT GIVE-AWAYS.

TO BELLEFONTE.—There were six of our L. O. O. F. members down to Centre Lodge, Bellefonte, Thursday evening, to hear P. G. M. Boyer, from Sunbury, and to see the third degree conferred on John Kline. They report having had a good time.

Constable James Ray was in Bellefonte on Monday, on business. Mr. Elmer Williams was away on a visit last week. He was out through Philipsburg and Clearfield. Suppose he was out seeing his best girl.

THAT UNCLE.—Lloyd was a lucky fellow. He went over to Boalsburg to see a pretty little girl; she, of course, had to invite him in, as he had walked from Lemont and was very tired. They were in the parlor when in came Uncle Henry with a light and invited Mr. Lloyd to go to bed; but he had to go home that night. Well, the next time you go over, be sure that uncle is in bed, Lloyd.

GOT LEFT.—A certain young lady celebrated her sixteenth birthday anniversary Wednesday evening. She invited another young lady in and two young gentlemen; but instead of there being only two, there were two other young men went in to have a joke on the other boys, but they were "l-e-f-t." Wade was bound to amuse himself, so he played with a doll that was in the room. They were glad that he could amuse himself some way.

Mr. John Williams spent Friday evening over at Boalsburg. He attended the festival that evening, and on Saturday afternoon he and Andrew Gregg, Jr., went to Bellefonte to spend the Sunday. Monday morning they could scarcely keep their eyes open. Wonder why?

E. C. Housman has taken the position as sawyer on Wm. Allison's mill.

FEVERISH.—There are some symptoms of fever, for county offices, developing in our neighboring town. But it is hard to tell which ticket some of the candidates propose to run on; they seem to be entirely in the hands of their friends and prepared to drop wherever the indications are that votes will be the thickest.

Mr. Leonard Rager, of Lock Haven, was the guest at Adam Ertle's, on Monday.

WOLFS STORE GATHERINGS.

Nothing of importance has occurred in our vicinity during the last few weeks, which accounts for our silence.

Last week we had real spring weather, even the birds of spring were here.

QUITE SICK.—Mr. Levi Strayer, who some few weeks ago had gone to Lock Haven to attend the funeral of his brother, and had there taken sick, was last week brought home by his son A. E. Strayer. At this writing he is on a fair way for recovering, this being the wish of all his friends.
