FURTHER SPANISH VICTORIES,

As Reported from Havana After Ravision by the "Military Editors"-Spanish Students Again Insult Our Flag and American Students Retaliate.

NEW YORK, March 11.-Fidel Pierra, in charge of the Cuban news bureau in this city gives out the following statement from a letter dated Santiago de Cuba, Feb. 28: "Although General Weyler says that nobody will be punished in any way unless he is convicted of some crime, assassination proceeds on a larger scale. In order that you may judge to what extent it is carried on I will give you a few instances.

On the morning of the 14th inst., in the ward of Maravilla, in the the town of Guantanamo, the following persons were found murdered: Celestion Parran, colored planter, aged 50 years; Luciano Faure, colored planter, 40; Policarpo Baro, colored planter, 40; Elias Duran, colored laborer, 35; Manuel Munez, colored planter, 70; Miguel Perez, colored laborer, 58; Felix Casado, white planter, 40; Rufino Luque, white planter, 38; Blas Jimenez, white planter, 40; Jose Comex, white planter, 21; Ramon Maleta, colored laborer, 45; Tomas Specht, colored laborer, 20; Rafael Carbonell, colored laborer, 50

"The first of these individuals had left this city the previous day for Guantanamo, with his stepdaughter. He was the owner of a small coffee estate. Another of the murdered men had arrived with six horses loaded with 100 pounds of coffee, and was accompanied by a lady and a child of 1 year. The coffee was sold by the men of the guerilla force of Guyo Romero and the proceeds distributed among them.
"In Hongolosenso, district of Cobre, on a coffee plantation, a Spanish guerilla cut to pieces a lawyer from Seville, also the colored man, Juan Despigne, and several others whose names I have not yet ascertained. They were all peaceable people, engaged in their agricultural occupation.

In the Maniel a Spaniard, an old farmer named Cortez, and another by the name of Viente, 50 years old, whose only crime was to have a relative with the Cu bans, were manacled with five others, and they were all shot at different places in the district of Cobre.

"In the district of Dongo the lieutenant of the guerillas, Tegada, and the negro Carvajal robbed and murdered Victorian Dominuez, 40 years of age, a Spaniard and owner of a small shop. The lieutenant in his report says that he had an encounter with the enemy, killed one of them, and suffered no losses. Near by the sugar estate Sabanilla and an old colored man of about 65 years were found dead, and Paladero, a Spaniard of about 60 years, was also found dead, murdered. The guerillas of Guanantamo had passed by those places. In Pakna Senor Cabuna was killed in the bushes, and when his wife, Sofia Cabuna, went to see what they had done with him she was also killed."

The Spanish troops captured the insurgent camp and One guerilla was killed and one officer and nine soldiers were wounded. The insurgents left nineteen killed and ratired with their wounded. The troops also captured two prisoners, upon whom important correspondence was found.

THE SECEDING ARMY.

The Inception of Ballington Booth's New Religious Movement.

TOBEAN AMERICAN ORGANIZATION

Fully Five Thousand Veterans of the Old Army Join the Cheering Citizens in Enthusiastic Greetings to the Leader of the New Body.

NEW YORK, March 9.-The inaugural step made by Ballington Booth, the deposed commander of the Salvation Army in America, in a rival organization on lines similar to the one from whose com mand he has been relieved, met with suc-cess last night. Cooper Union was the scene where the first gun was fired, the echo of which thrilled the hearts of 5,000 loyal soldiers, who, since the commence ment of the international strife which has sundered Ballington Booth's allegiance to his father, General Booth, of London, have remained loyal to the deposed commander and his wife, Maud Booth. Every seat in the big auditorium was occupied. The aisles were crowded and the streets outside were thronged. The women wore the regular Salvation Army emblem, but the poke hat was absent. The men, too, had their badges, but wore no red jackets.

Shortly after 7 o'clock, and before the vast audience had time to be seated, Captain Schneider, of the Bowery corps, sprang on a chair on the platform and waved an American flag with a painting of George Washington. The audience cheered lustily as they sprang to their feet, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. Or der had scarcely been restored when Major Peter Glen, who was among the first of the officers to tender his resignation after Eva C. Booth had taken command, appeared on the platform waving an American flag, and placed a life size crayon painting of George Washington on an easel in front of the speaker's table. This was the signal for renewed outbursts of When Ballington Booth and his wife arrived from their Montclair home the audience lost control of itself Their presence on the platform was the signal for an outburst of enthusiasm such as had before never been witnessed in Cooper Union.

There was some music and considerable singing, and the customary religious invocations, after which Ballington Booth rose and said: "Mrs. Booth and myself have not come here tonight to allude to the recent sad trouble. It is quite true we have after mature deliberation decided to inaugurate a new movement. Could we have avoided it, it would most assuredly have been done on our part, but we recognize that the great American people believed that we had done work for nine years by which they were gratified, and would not listen to the protest that we would retire into private life.

Recognizing as we did the largest field in the world and still further recognizing that there was room in America for a hundred Salvation armies, we have resolved to the best of our ability to win over the middle classes of the artisan community of this country. We wish no strife with the Salvation Army.

Whatever be the mission we undertake It will bear the right stamp, and will be directed in the right direction."

NEW YORK, March 10.—Ballington Booth terday in their new religious movement What name to give the new organization is still puzzling its leader. He wants a name distinctly American and national in char acter. The banner is a flag of white silk. with a blue cross emblazoned in the center. In the upper left hand corner is a field of stars like those in the American flag. Mr. and Mrs. Booth are planning a tour of the leading cities of the country to publicly present their plans of religious work and to organize branches.

A Strangler in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.-The disrepu table women who infest Morton street and St. Mary's street in this city are in a state of terror on account of the murder of two of their class within a month. Both women were strangled to death in their rooms, and in both cases the murderers have escaped. The last victim of the mysterious strangler was found dead yesterday. Two nen who admit that they visited her shortly before her body was discovered have been arrested, but they deny all knowledge of the crime. Neither man is of the criminal class, and the police are inclined to believe their stories. The mur ders here are similar in detail to those among the same class of women in Denver, and it is thought by some that the Denver strangler has come to San Fran-

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., March 9 .- An ineffectual effort was made to secure the re lease from jail of Minnie Swanger, a 13 year-old child of Altoona. The crime of which the girl is accused is the murder of her uncle, William McGregor, and the attempted murder of her grandmother and two other relatives, by mixing poison with the coffee. The reasons advanced why the girl's release should be ordered were that she is weak-minded, and that the legal presumption is that a child under 14 years of age is not responsible for criminal acts. Judge Bell decided that the prisoner must

A Conditional Gift Declined.

The Episcopal diocese of Milwankee has refused a gift of $20,000. Bishop Nicholson has formally notified Francis Keene that it is impossible for the Episcopal diocese to accept the offer of the Keene homestead for Bospital purposes. The action of the bishop was on the advice of the diocesan hospital committee. Though the committee has not given up hope of ultimately securing a hospital for the Episcopal church in Milwaukee, the prospects at present are anything but bright. It would not accept the gift because of the condition that the hospital should always be known as the Keene hospital. - Chicago Tribune.

Said the Surgeon, but Dr. David Kenedy's Favorite Remedy was taken and the Knife Avoided.

The Union and Advertiser of Rochester, N. Y., recently published the following interesting account of how William W. Adams of 127 South avenue, that city was saved from a painful operation by the use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Mr. Adams said: "Three years ago was taken with kidney disease very badly; at times I was completely prostrated; in fact, was so bad that the day was set for the doctors to perform an operation upon me. But I decided I would not submit. I had been put in hot water baths, and, in fact, nearly every means was tried to help me. Upon the day set for the operation I commenced the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and from that moment be gan to gain, and it was not long before I was entirely cured and have had no return of the trouble since. My weight has increased and I never was so well as

I am now. I have recomended DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S

In speaking to Mrs. Adams, she said About a year ago I was in a very feeble state of health, being completely run down. I had doctored considerably, but without permanent relief. One day one of my neighbors advised me to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which I did. My trouble was dyspepsia, and for a long while I was unable to be about at all; but after taking a few doses I was completely cured, and now en good health."
