PLEASANT GAP.

Another Newsy Letter From our Alert Correspondent.

While nothing of unusual magnitude has transpired since the last issue of this paper, there are several events worth recording.

FAREWELL SERMON:—Rev. J. C. Young preached his farewell sermon here Sunday, preparatory to his leaving for conference. Mr. Young has been in charge here for three years, and it is quite probable that he will not be returned.

R. B. Harrison, of Boalsburg, rusticated in our midst last week.

MOVING:—Harvey Keller, who has been a successful farmer here for a number of years, will soon move to the farm vacated by Isaac Stover, near Zion.

A FAVORITE:—M. F. Riddle is a favorite, as clerk at a great many public sales. Matt is accomplished in the business.

Thos. Williams has accepted a position with Mr. Zettle, and has gone thither.

PROSPERING:—Among the industries in town, that seem to prosper, is the steam mill, operated by Geo. Steward. The advantage of buying flour and feed at home are too obvious to need comment.

Mr. Steward has proven himself to be a good miller, and a handy man to have around.

POOR CROP:—Many farmers predict that the wheat crop in this section, will be a failure. Many of the wheat fields look in destitute circumstances.

ENTERTAINMENT:—The Peru school will close Wednesday, March 18, with an entertainment, by the school.

Jim Kerstetter, the other week, started work on what he said would terminate in a large and commodious opera house. Of course everyone felt grateful toward Jim for his magnanimity; but he states since the talk of war, he is a little precarious as to whether we may have the opera house promised, as he thinks it would be a good idea to have a fort in town. He is waiting for further developments.

John Griffith has sold his milk route, purchased about six months ago from G. W. Harter, to Hannah Kline, of near this place.

HORSE DIED:—On Friday evening one of McCulley's horses died here. The driver accompanied by Grit's correspondent was coming from Woodward to Bellefonte. They were delayed here until another horse was procured from Bellefonte.

BROOKS INCUBATOR:—It is said that "Dicky" Brooks was around early on Sunday morning with an incubator, trying to gain entrance to the store. The report may be fictitious, however he talked of constructing one Saturday evening. Rather early for spring chickens.

A PENSION:—We are pleased to announce that Henry Twitmyer has been successful in securing a pension.

FOUND WORK:—Many of our men, formerly employed at Nigh bank, have found work at the other banks, until the resumption of Nigh.

Our boys, who participate in farming during the summer months, are rapidly thinning out, and have gone to their respective places.

Boyd Noll, of Zion, Sundayed with his mother in town.

John Tate has taken up headquarters in part of Mrs. Stine's house, on N. Broad st.

MOVING:—Mr. Eph. Keller has had for the last couple months past, a number of men employed in clearing off his timber land: converting it into boards, ties, paper wood, etc. Mr. Keller will make public sale on the farm he now occupies near here, March 18, and soon afterwards will move into the house recently purchased in town; while his son Mart will look after the interest of the farm.

NEW HOUSE:—The work on the new toll-gate house is a'nt consummated; and will be ready for occupancy April 1st. Mr. C. C. Taylor will occupy it.

The other evening a certain young man was charmed, completely dazzled by a sweet voice of a woman. So completely dazzled was he by the voice saying "your excusable," he could scarcely speak. He resolved to catch on, and imagined the lady was all broke up on him. He started after her, "rather muddly" he exclaimed, a nice evening, very cold" etc., when to his amazement and disgust, he found he was conversing with another man's wife. He at once turned and started across the fields home, so that he might not pass the man's house. He is very precantious as to who he speaks with now; and since then has been wearing a white hat to avoid suspicion.

Rev. Gearhart, of Clearfield, has favored the church going people with some splendid discourses during the past week or more, assisting Rev. Young in his revival work. Mr. Gearhart is a fluent speaker, and a perfect gentleman in every respect.

NEW PARSONAGE:—The parsonage, in this place, has been commenced by a number of the citizens coming together to dig out the foundation.

Mr. Geo. Heaton is the proudest man in our town, he says it is another blacksmith.

Mrs. Mary Marks, wife of William Mark, of Munson, aged 21 yrs. 7mo. and 4da, died at her parental home, at Wallace Run, March 5, at 6 p. m. Her husband and two children survive. Her mother is living but her father is not. One sister survives: Emma I. Curtin. Blessed are they who die in the fear of the Lord, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

AARONSBURG ITEMS.

The first leap year party was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Rupp, on last Friday evening. The refreshments that were served were elegant; but what became of Charley?

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Geary, of Coburn, were the welcome guests of Frederick Lambert over Sunday.

A. C. Mingle and family, of Bellefonte, are paying the former's aged mother a few days visit. His many friends are always glad to have him come to this, his former home.

Mrs. Sallie Frank is lying very low at the residence of Samuel Beaver's. She is some eighty years old.

Mrs. T. H. Kreamer has been quite sick for the past week, but we are glad to say she is some better at this writing.

J. Coburn Rogers, of Bellefonte, Sunday open with his Uncle's J. P. Coburn.

Quite a good many people drove through town on Sunday on their way to Woodward, to view what is left of the Etlinger homestead.

The sale of Mrs. Susan Rupp, on Saturday, was largely attended.

LAST SERMON:—Rev. Illingsworth, of the M. E. church, preached his last sermon in this charge on Sunday afternoon. As we learn he does not expect to be sent back here again. We wish him abundant success in his next charge, wherever that may be.

LEAVING:—This will be the last week that J. E. Lenker & Co. will have their store open for the public. We feel sorry to have that store room empty, as we will only then have one dry goods store in our town.

NEWS FROM HOWARD.

Jacob Pletcher, of Howard township, died on last Friday, of old age. He was buried the following Sunday, at Schencks cemetery.

An Easter entertainment will be given on Easter Sunday eve, in the Christian church, consisting of recitations, solos, etc. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Rev. J. R. Forest preached the funeral sermon of Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, of Beech Creek, on last Thursday.

Mr. Ephram Dietz has been laid up for the past week with gripe.

TO OIL CITY:—Mr. H. W. Pletcher made a business trip to Oil City last week. Howard thinks the place is a dandy, but as to filling the position, he did not like it so well.

SUMMER SCHOOL:—There is some talk of starting a select summer school in this place, for the benefit of those wishing to teach. Also Miss Lizzie Holter expects to teach a primary school. Any persons having any children to send to summer school, will do well by inquiring of Miss Holter.

Mr. William Shaffer, of Flemington, made a business trip to this place, on last Saturday.

Mr. T. S. DeLong, of Romola, passed through here on last Friday, en route for his home. Mr. DeLong is one of Centre county's first class school teachers.

CORRECT:—On Monday, March 9th, the boro auditors made their yearly settlement with over-seer-of-poor and the treasurer of the council. Finding everything in first class order.

HUBLERSBURG ITEMS.

TO DAKOTA:—Mr. Jack Truckenmiller's family expect to follow him to Dakota, the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Cornelia Hall did not have any school last week, having been called home by the death of her father.

Mrs. Henry Brown had been on the sick list the last few weeks, but is able to be around again.

Mrs. Fred Vocum also was on the sick list last week but is out again.

Rev. Manly, of Howard, will preach in the Presbyterian church, in this place, next Sunday evening, March 15.

There will not be any sales in this vicinity this spring and parties wishing free grub will have to go away from home for it.

WALLACE RUN RIPPINGS.

A LITTLE EARLY:—The birds of spring, after their long absence, have again put in their appearance to cheer the hearts with their sweet songs.

NEW CHANDELIER:—The people of this community have purchased two handsome chandeliers for the U. B. church. They light the room very brilliantly and prove satisfactory in every respect.
