EDITORIAL.

H. J. JACKSON, Secretary.

N. B. SPANGLER,

POLITICIANS in Centre are on the move now-a little earlier than usual.

THE indications are that Hon. John G. Carlisle will be the democratic nominee for president. He is sound on the money question; he is sound on tariff reform; he is a sound democrat.

THE Republican National Convention at St. Louis will be comprised of 909 delegates, and of this number only 176. or less than twenty per cent., have been

In the next republican national con vention there will be thirty-six delegates at public sale by Quay. He has no idea of securing the nomination but wants to be in shape to deliver goods when the proper time comes.

THERE are now no less than seventeen republican candidates in Centre county who want the party nomination for sheriff. Next November there will be about sixteen of them giving thanks that they did not get it. These hopeful ones will be of different opinion later.

IT is not all harmony in Pennsylvania for Quay, for the Presidency. Prominent republicans in the western part of the state are securing endorsements for Mc. Kinley, and will make it warm for the Senator.

THERE is quite a bit of fuss among the republicans just now who are after the sheriff's office. Ex-Sheriff Cook is among the ones prominently mentioned but he is being harassed by new candidates springing up in every section known as a Cook stronghold. This seems to be done for the purpose of defeating Bob in the interest of certain favored ones. Our friend Cook has our deepest sympathy in this hour of political tribulation.

The Crops Still on Hand.

An advance report prepared for the American Agriculturist, states that the quantity of wheat remaining in farmers' hands March 1 is 19,000,000 bushels. About 134,514,000 bushels of the wheat crop of 1895 is still on farms. Of corn on the farm there are 1,061,000,000 bushels, and oats 414,043,000 bushels.

The record breaking corn crop has moved slowly, and farm consumption, owing to the mild weather, has been less than expected. Iowa is credited with 165,000,000, bushels followed by Illinois with 130,000,000, Ohio has 41,000,000, Pennsylvania 16,000,000 and New York 6,500,000 bushels. Farm stocks of oars are largest in Iowa, which has 101,000,-000. Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin and New York follows in the order named.

Reduced Fare to Philipsburg.

The Central R. R. of Penna. has reduced the mileage ticket rate from Bellefonte to Philipsburg to $1.52. A corresponding reduction has been made in fares to Ciearfield and intermediate points. These mileage tickets are not restricted to use of holders but will be accepted for passage of members of his or her family, or if issued to a firm for any member or members thereof. 3-19 31.

May Leave Bellefonte.

T. Tobin, of Bellefonte, was a visitor in stuck on the family for some reason our town last week. He is negotiating which may not appear. for the purchase of Dr. L. C. Petersou's residence and practice, and may become a resident of our town in the near future.

A Serious Subject.

Led on by the comic papers and the humorous paragrapher for the daily press, our people have been inclined to take a light and facetious view of the American tramp. In point of fact, he is personally sodden, impudent and intolerable; while, taken in the aggregate, he presents a really serious problem. Prof. McCook, who has made a thorough study of the matter, says that there are about 46,000 tramps now in this country, and that the number is constantly increasing. To support this horde of vagabonds costs the country something like $8,000,000 a year Indirectly they probably cause the loss of a still larger amount. Worse than this, they form a peripatetic school of vice and idleness. The real tramp is easily to be distinguished from the unemployed man. He is not cast down or despondent. He does not want to rise in the world; he has found his rea! level in the gutter. He desires only to eat, to drink-to be drunk, perhaps, would be the more accurate phraseand to be let alone. When he fails to satisfy his wants, he becomes a dangerous criminal. In Indiana last spring tramps took actual possession of an entire village and drove its inhabitants to the woods. It is time to look at this subject seriously. The tramp is a public enemy.

In the list of successful bidders for the new bonds which appeared in the newspapers the other morning is the name of an errand-boy in a New Yor': banking house, who is allotted $150. 000. He is a very smart young chap, says the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record, and only 13 years old. Hearing the continual talk about the bond-letting among the customers of his employer's office he concluded that he would take a little whirl himself, so he sat down and wrote a bid for $150,000 worth at a price that turns out to be the merest trifle above the bid of the Morgan syndicate. When he saw his name on the list of successful hidders he was badly frightened and told his employer of his predicament. The latter patted the boy on the head, called him Jay Gould and agreed to furnish the money to pay for them ou joint account and divide the profits. The young chap will clear about $6,-

A BUNAWAY couple were married on a railway train pear Shelbyville, Ind., a few days ago. The girl's parents opposed the match and watched her closely to prevent her giving them the slip and getting married. The young man learned that the squire was to travel by a certain train one day recently, and arranged with the girl to meet him at the station. He went to Columbus and got the license, met the girl at the station as the train came in, and the pair boarded it and were married by the squire before the train had gone many miles and before any stop was made where they could be intercepted by telegram from the girl's parents.

A FEW days ago a thief returned his plunder to several of his victims in Bridgeport, Conn., with a note to each explaining that he repented on account of having heard the song, "Have Courage, My Boy, to Say No." This suggests a new way of ridding towns and cities of burglars and highwaymen.

MEDICINE and matrimony are foes. So it has been declared by three wellknown women physicians. One asserted that success in medicine demanded the best in a woman's life and is incompatible with wifehood and motherhood. Another said that women rarely feel called upon to enter both vocations.

According to Sir Benjamin Richardson, the normal period of human life is about 110 years, and seven out of ten average people, if they took proper care of themselves, ought to attain that age. It is quite evident, from the statistics on mortality, that most people don't take proper care of themselves. ONE Vermont trapper, hailing from, Houghtonville, has trapped during this season 1,600 skunks, 175 foxes, 70 minks 200 muskrats and 100 coons. The record seems pretty high, but it is vouched for by a local paper, and Vermont has delightful effect. a great reputation for game and trap-

Infection in Doctors' Beards.

This important subject has been brought to the front by Dr. F. A. Colby, of Berlin, N. H., in a letter to the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal. Dr. The Legislature Fails to Select Colby admits that he wears a beard, and almost implies that he admires it. But he very candidly discusses the dangers and the propriety of continuing the practice. He cites a number of cases, says the Medical Record, in which doctors, by reason of wearing beards, have carried the infection of diphtheria home, or have infected themselves, and he speaks also of the additional danger of carrying the scarlatinal infection when the physician wears a beard. The responsibility of the surgeon in this matter is particularly insisted upon. Some time ago the Medical Record discussed this subject, as it thought, in a calm and dispassionate way, advising, not necessar ily a total abolition of the beard, but restricting it to modest and sanitary limits. At that time; however, the obfrom correspondents who had for years worn long and breezy whiskers, that it

One of the laziest men Iowa has yet produced died recently in Fort Madison penitentiary as a result of his attempt to escape labor. A convict named Al. that the militia was not placed under the port died at the prison about ten o'clock | control of any civil officer; members were the other morning under peculiar circumstances. He was a lazy fellow, to keep from working, but the injury soon healed, and he had to resume work again. Of late he had worked but little, always being done before 200n, but he concluded he would not work at all, and to keep from it he in flicted an injury upon himself which had a result more fatal to him than he probably anticipated. Recently to escape work he poured a quantity of very trong lye on his arm, and the result was a sore as big as a man's hand, but the lye was so strong that it ate its way into the flesh and destroyed the blood vessels. The result was lockjaw, from which he died.

A GIRL who spent last summer up among the White mountains was puzzled by the mysterious and extremely respectful air of the natives in speaking of a certain farmer's daughter. The | wise and denounced the report. rustic young woman herself wore an air of depression and silent endurance, for which, as she had more advantages than most of her companions, it was hard to account. At length the visitor returned to inquire into the matter. "Why, haven't you heard she had a nerly?" The only meaning "nerly" suffered from a similar disease. She learned, however, that a "nerly" meant measure as heroines.

An unusually odd fad is the one possessed by a Portamouth man who is married to a well-known actress. He is a collector of tattooes, and the exhibits are on his own body. He is a connoisseur on tattooes, and can tell all about the tribes that wear them and their history. Only a short time ago he learned of a tribe in South America which had a peculiar tattoo and he started post-haste for the country and did not return until he bore one of the tattooes on his person. There is one tattoo which he might not fancy on his person-the kind that the policeman beats with his club.

CREMATION of the dead is growing in favor in Philadelphia. The number of bodies cremated each year since the cremation society was formed in 1889 has steadily increased. In 1889 there were 28 cremations and last year there were 86. The society recently started a scheme to popularize the movement and issued three per cent. bonds, which entitle the holder to one incineration per bond, with a receptacle and space for storage of the ashes. There are 260 members and 300 stockholders.

A TREASURED relic is the grammer studied by Abraham Lincoln when he clerked in Denton Offutt's store in New Salem, Ill., in 1830, now in North Dakota, in the possession of the widow of Robert Rutledge, of Casselton. In the inside of the front cover is a receipt for $30, given with an order on James Rutledge by Offut in Lincoln's handwriting and over his signature.

A NOVEL feature was introduced at a harvest festival service held in a New Haven church the other day. The Senate Committee's Report Denouncing His Use of the Military as "Wholly Without Warrant of Law" Adopted by a Strict Party Vote.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 18.-The legislature adjourned last night after a sixty days' session. A Singular Spanish Blunder.

HAVANA, March 16.-A deplorable mistake has resulted in the killing of a number of Spanish soldiers by their fellow Spaniards. The battalion of San Quintin was approaching the town of Cano, seven miles from Havana, to save the buildings of a burning plantation. The town shortly before that had been attacked by the in surgents, and the garrison, without hailing the San Quintin battalion, and taking them for the insurgents returned for a second attack, opened upon them with a volley. The fire was returned, the battalion also believing they were attacked by insurgents. Before the blunder was discovered the San Quintin battalion had lost twelve killed and thirty-two wounded.

Cherokee Bill Hanged.

FORT SMITH, Ark., March 18.-Crawford Goldsby, alias Cherokee Bill, was hanged yesterday afternoon in the United States jail yard. He was cool and apparently cheerful when he ascended the scaffold. Cherokee Bill was but 20 years old. His father was a white skinned negro and his mother a half breed Indian. Many murders and robberies were charged against him. The particular crime for which he was hanged was the murder of Ernest Melton, a white man, without the slightest cause. Recently he killed a prison guard in attempting to escape.

Suffocated in a Boarding House Fire.

EAST ORANGE, N. J., March 18 .- A fire curred yesterday in a house occupied by Miss I. M. Smith as a boarding house. The fire resulted from the explosion of naphtha, by which Miss Smith was badly burned. Miss Harriet Winans, a boarder. was overcome by the smoke. She was found by the firemen dead. Miss Winans was 52 years old, and the daughter of the late David R. Winans, an extensive property owner of East Orange. Miss Smith, though seriously, was not fatally burned. Several others had narrow escapes.

Cardinal Satolli's Successor, NEW YORK, March 18 .- The Advertiser this morning says: Cardinal Satolli, one of the greatest of the princes of the Romish church, and papal delegate to this country, will say farewell to America forever and sail for Rome early in May. Forty Killed by an Explosion LONDON, March 17 .- The British steamer Matadi, which sailed from Sierra Leone on Feb. 5, has been totally destroyed at Boma by an explosion of gunpowder. Boma (or Bomana) is on the Congo river, ust about forty miles from its mouth. Twenty-two of the Matadi's crew, two assengers and sixteen native laborers were killed. Sixteen of the crew esc without serious injuries. The Matadi had on board ten tons of gunpowder.

CARLISLE FOR PRESIDENT.

His Candidacy for the Democratic Nomination May Soon be Announced.

WASHINGTON, March 17 .- Secretary Carlisle is a candidate for the presidential nomination at Chicago, and a public announcement to that effect will soon be made by one of the secretary's close friends in the senate. This announcement, however, will not be made until President Cleveland has formally stated his purpose not to permit his name to be used in the convention in connection with a third term. It is learned on excellent authority that the president has fully decided upon this course and it is expected that he will make known his determination within a short time. Although Secretary Olney's name has en considered with favor by Democratic leaders, it is known that he does not desire the nomination. It is undoubtedly true that Mr. Carlisle's candidacy will have the support of Mr. Cleveland and the members of the cabinet. He will go before the convention as the representative of the "sound money" views of the administration. His friends, in conducting the canvass for Mr. Carlisle's nomination, will urge that it be made upon a sound money platform, and, if he be successful at Chicago, will then make this issue prominent in the campaign leading up to the November elec-

ITALY WILL CONTINUE THE WAR

An Active Campaign Will be Pushe Against the Abyssinians ROME, March 18.—The premier, Marquis Di Rudini, made a statement in regard to the battle of Adowa. He said that on March 8 General Baldissera was instructed to treat for peace on the best terms obtainable and, the premier assured the house, the present cabinet would continue the peace negotiations with prudence and This statement was received with applause from those in favor of a peace policy, and with cries of disgust and derision from the deputies favoring a vigorous colonial policy and a strong effort to retrieve the Adowa disaster. The premier waited, smiling at the disturbance, until the uproar had subsided, and then he remarked significantly: "But the government is now convinced that in lieu of a treaty of peace hurriedly made it would be far preferable to first establish a condition of things agreeing with Italy's interests. In the meanwhile hostilities must continue."

The announcement that the African campaign would be pushed was greeted with loud and continued cheering from the so called military party, and with cries of dissent from the peace party.

Later, when the premier asked for a credit of 140,000,000 lire to push the war, it was voted unanimously.

The Horsa's Officers Sentenced.

PHILADELPHIA, March 18 .- Judge Butler, in the United States district court, yesterday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of the officers of the steamer Horsa, who were convicted of beginning a military expedition for the carrying of men and arms to Cuba, and passed sentence upon the prisoners. The captain, J. H. S. Wiborg, was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and costs and to undergo an imprisonment of one year and four months in the Eastern penitentiary. The mates, Jens P. Petersen and Hans Johansen. were each sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs and to a year's imprisonment. The case will be taken to the supreme

WASHINGTON, March 18 .- The naval appropriation bill for the next fiscal year will contain the most liberal allowance for the increase of the navy carried by any bill since the war. Four battleships and fifteen torpedo boats was the decision of the committee on the question of new vessels. The Democrats fought hard to secure six battleships, but the Republicans stood well together and carried their point. The motion for six battleships was made by Mr. Cummings, of New York, and was lost by a vote of 6 to 7, but one Republican voting for it. The battleships are to cost not more than $3.750,000 each and the torpedo boats $800,000 to $850,000 each.

Thunder, Lightning and Snow.

NEW YORK. March 17.-The snow fall in New Jersey averaged more than a foot in depth, and trains were more or less delayed on all the roads. The highways throughout the country districts were impassable and travel in those sections was entirely suspended. A phenomenon occurred last night. While it was yet snowing there were a number of flashes of vivid lightning and heavy peals of thunder. The lightning appeared to be very red. On Staten Island the snowfall amounted to about ten inches, and many of the trolley lines had to suspend business.

Still Fighting the Marquette Statue. WASHINGTON, March 18.-The crusade against the Marquette statue in Statuary hall was given some prominence yes terday by petitions asking for its removal introduced in the house by Representative Linton and Jankins. Most remarkable of these was that drafted by a joint commit tee of the A. P. A. councils of Nebraska. They have examined, it is stated, several records of the so-called discoveries of Father Marquette, and on careful examination of the statements made believe them to be incredible and unworthy of belief.

Ex-Consul Waller in London. WASHINGTON, March 18. - Nothing is known at the state department of the de tention in prison in France of ex-Consul Waller as suggested by a Paris newspaper. The records of the department show that he was released Feb. 23, or at least Ambassador Eustis so advised Secretary Olney by cable, and it was presumed that he had started for the United States some time Friends of Mr. Waller here declare that he is now in London, and will sail for home early in April.
