John J. Orndorf, whom we predict will some day be one of our commissioner's, is passing through a siege of grip. He has secured Calvin Haines, as help on the farm this summer.

Frank Guiswite still retains the bullet Ettlinger fired into him. Frank don't feel complimented in the possession of such a remembrance. He is walking around at present.

Mr. T. A. Auman, the teacher of Woodward school, will conduct a term of select school in this place, beginning April 27, and continuing nine or ten weeks. Terms very reasonable. Mr. Auman has been very successful as teacher in this place, and asks the patronage of the entire community.

STATE COLLEGE NOTES.

Mr. Boyd G. Musser introduced Fred Kurtz, candidate for treasurer, to the few voters about town to whom Mr. Kurtz's wide acquaintance did not reach.

We also had the pleasure of meeting Mr. R. Gilliland, Snow Shoe's candidate for sheriff, who considers his prospects very bright indeed.

Mr. Jno. Noll is another candidate for sheriff, who seems to have many friends hereabouts.

Mr. E. S. Bartholomew's new house and furniture store, is rapidly nearing completion.

The Bellefonte Central railroad station is to have a water tower, for the convenience of their motive power.

Mr. Clark Herman has completed his new house and moved in.

Mr. R. M. Foster, just home from the city with a big line of new goods, celebrated his return by buying out his brother's interest in the firm and will run it sole and only.

A big improvement about the Foster corner will be the new walk, from the pike down to Dr. Gienn's. This will complete a fine walk clear up this beautiful street, with the exception of a small but very prominent beak, which your correspondent has here suggested should be built by public subscription.

The shade trees along Highland ave., have all been neatly trimmed and the street otherwise improved, so that this avenue will soon be the prettiest in the place.

They have a new kind of salts for sale at a certain drug store in town. Ask for it about it. Z. X. X.

MILESBERG MENTION.

Joseph Shirk and family, who left Milesburg about six years ago for the state of Washington, came back this week and expect to make their home here again.

Miss Stella Stonerode has accepted a position as trimmer, in a millinery store, at Corning, N. Y.

The gross receipts from the Epworth League social, last Friday evening, were $17.41.

At the Christian Endeavor "Hat" so-called, Robert Holmes was awarded the prize for the best trimmed hat, and Mr. Seibert received the "booby" prize.

Rev. Geo. R. King has returned from conference and will remain at this appointment another year at least.

Last Sunday morning the Baptist minister held a service on the subject of baptism. A large number of members of other churches were present. He had different members of his congregation read selections from the Bible to prove that immersion was the proper form of baptism.

Mrs. Emanuel Schroyer and her daughter attended conference at Williamsport last week, and while there some thing relieved Mrs. Schroyer of her pocketbook, which contained their return tickets and money.

Two young boys, about the age of fourteen, were quarreling on the bridge last Saturday evening and it attracted such a crowd that it was almost impossible for ladies to pass. We think the men of the town should discourage such things instead of encouraging them by their presence.

The Presbyterian congregation are having service in their church every night this week, preparatory for communion next Sunday.

William Dyke was married very quietly last week and thought no one knew it, but some one gave it away and the band gave him a good serenade. His bride was Miss Carrie Atwood, of Bellefonte.

The carpenters are now building James Heverly's new house, on the same lot where the other burned down.

DIED:—Mr. Elijah Kellerman died Tuesday evening, at his home in Milesburg. He seemed as well as usual on Friday evening and attended the Epworth League social, and on Saturday he began to complain of his heart, and medical aid was immediately summoned. He began to get better and was thought to be out of danger on Monday but on Tuesday he had three strokes of paralysis and died about 6 o'clock p. m. He leaves a wife and two small children. The deceased was about 50 years old, and was a faithful member of the Methodist church. He was in the late war and belongs to G. A. R. Post No. 261 of this place.

Information Wanted.

The following was given us by Chief of Police H. H. Montgomery, for publication. It was received by him last Saturday:

Laysburg, Pa., March 21, 1896.
CHIEF OF POLICE:
Sir—Am informed that an unknown man was found dead on Tussey mountain some days ago. He was buried at Saxton Pa. Some persons think it was a man who repaired sewing machines, and who registered here as Geo. A. Keeling, Bellefonte Pa. Is there such a party from your city? If more information would be needed can probably get all the particulars.

Yours &c

H. B. AARON.

RESOLUTIONS BY PUPILS.

The following was written and read by the pupils on the last day of school:

We, the pupils of the Upper Wallace Run school tender our sincere thanks to our teacher, Mr. I. A. Zeigler, for his faithful labors among us during the past six months. He has proved himself an energetic and enthusiastic instructor, and served himself a Wellington at Waterloo. He labored faithfully with us for the advancement of the school, and his efforts have been appreciated by the parents and pupils. We believe if angels ever visited our earth and were hovering unseen around the gatherings of mortals to survey their actions, and contemplate their destiny as affected by human instrumentality, it seems there could be no spectacle so calculated to awaken our interest, as when we, from this rural district, gathered together day after day, and always found our teacher in his place, loaded with new thoughts and ideas. We were sometimes touched with the emotions of joy and gratitude in the manner in which he imparted the knowledge to us. We believe when he assumed the responsibility to be our director and exemplar, in the formation of our human character at this important period, that he came with the determination of doing a good work, in which we believe he has succeeded in accomplishing. Therefore,

Resolved, That we, as pupils of this school, extend a cordial invitation to Mr. Zeigler to return at the next school season and again guide and direct us through another school term. Be it further

Resolved, That we, as pupils, wish him abundant success in his studies, while his attendance at school this summer, and may he be richly compensated by him who doeth all things well.

Presbytery to Meet in Tyrone.
The Presbytery, of Huntingdon, will meet April 14 at 1.39 p. m. in Tyrone. The Synod of Pennsylvania arranged to hold its October meeting in 1896 in Bellefonte after the Presbytery had adjourned to meet there in April, and not wishing to have the Presbytery and Synod both within six months, Bellefonte arranged that Tyrone would take the Presbytery.

R. H. Woodward Company, Baltimore, Md., announce a new publication, "Story of Turkey and Armenia." This book will be beautifully illustrated with 100 half tone engravings, and will contain a number of articles by men of international reputation. A full account of the recent massacres will also be given. The publishers offer $200.00 to anyone who will sell 200 copies in 3 months.

THREE NEW YORK LANDMARKS.

Trinity, St. Paul's and Grace Church Defy the Advance of Business Interests.

Three landmarks on Broadway occupy sites so valuable that their retention confounds every calculation of real estate speculators. They are the only three churches on Broadway below Forty-second street, and each has come to be part of the popular distinction of that thoroughfare. They are Trinity, St. Paul's and Grace. All three have high claims to architectural eminence, and all three are of one denomination—the Protestant Episcopal.

The site of Trinity church, on Broadway at the head of Wall street, is appraised officially at $4,000,000; that of St. Paul's church, at Broadway and Fulton street, at $1,750,000, and that of Grace church, Broadway opposite Eleventh street, at $350,000. The frontage of Trinity church, including the churchyard, is 400 feet, of St. Paul's church 167 feet and of Grace church 150 feet. The gross valuation of these three churches is $6,100,000, and as the usual rate of assessment on real estate is about 60 per cent the actual market value of these three Broadway plots is in excess of $10,000,000. In European cities it is no strange thing for public thoroughfares to be dotted with venerable edifices erected for ecclesiastical, military or governmental purposes, but in New York, where there is no material partnership between church and state, and where, perhaps, more utilitarian views prevail than abroad, the steady enhancement of real estate values has been such that few religious corporations have been strong enough or felt themselves strong enough to withstand the temptation to sell. On the present site of Tiffany's, for instance, Broadway and Fifteenth street, formerly a church stood. There was a chapel opposite the site of the old New York hotel. But with the advance of business interests the congregations reluctantly moved away. These three landmarks named have stood their ground, and it seems probable that they will continue to do so.

St. Paul's church is the oldest religious edifice in this city. It was built in 1764, and it was the church which George Washington and his associates attended immediately following the inauguration ceremonies in 1789. Trinity church is the third of that name on the present site, and was erected in 1846. Grace church was erected in 1845, one year before Trinity, and the site, at the head of Broadway where it turns an angle at Tenth street, was carefully chosen. All three buildings enjoy the advantage of being kept in excellent repair, and are improved from time to time by the liberal contributions of benefactors. This is especially true of Trinity and Grace church, which may almost be said to improve year by year. It is a peculiarity of these three landmarks of New York that those who attend them come, in nearly every case, from sections of the city far up town, so that they are, if such an expression may be used, the three churches to be reached by carriage. Very few persons who attend either Trinity or St. Paul's reside in their vicinity, and the number of such parishioners decreases each year. Grace church retains its high rank architecturally, notwithstanding the number of new church buildings in New York, and it has the additional distinction of being popular for fashionable weddings.—New York Sun.

SURPRISED THE OLD MAN.

Richard Thought He Owed the Bank $1, but It Owed Him $343.25.

Richard Roe deposited $705 in the Bowers Savings bank between 1835 and 1849. Between 1835 and 1855 $753.89 was withdrawn. When the last draft was made the depositor's book appeared to be overdrawn $1. There were due Roe at that time, however, dividends amounting to $100.01, which had not been entered in his passbook, and the bank really owed him a balance of $99.01.

The balance went on accumulating dividends until 1875, when it became a dormant account and ceased to draw interest. The amount then due Roe was $343.25. Efforts were made without success to find him. He had become very poor, was too old and feeble to go to work again, and was given a home by his sons at Rutherford, N. J. Roe always intended to repay the $1 he thought he owed, but never did so. President Townsend of the Bowers Savings bank, in looking over the books the other day, came across Roe's account. A new search was instituted, and Roe was found at Rutherford. He was told to call at the bank with his old account books. Shortly afterward he did so, accompanied by his granddaughter, 17 years old.

"I suppose it's about the dollar I owe your bank that you want to see me," said the old man, addressing Mr. Townsend. He was astonished when told the facts.

"Guess these bank people know what's right," he said to his granddaughter. "I never was much on 'rithmetic."

He pocketed the $343.25, shook hands with the bank officials and returned home.—New York World.

Cutting Remarks.

Mrs. Bugsby—You can't deceive me, John! I'm sharp, you know—sharp as a knife!

Mr. Bugsby—Yes, Maria, you resemble a knife—a table knife—you never shut up.—New York Ledger.

"Fiasco" means a bottle or flask. When the Italian glassblowers detected flaws in the vase they were blowing they made an ordinary bottle of the failure, and hence the name.

Baluchistan was thus called because the Belooches were the dominant tribe in its river valleys and plains.

Candles were first used symbolically on the altars of churches in the fourth century.

Calithumpian Serenades.
It is not generally known that an act was passed by the last legislature which forbids calithumpian serenades. As this practice is followed in this city, and as many participate in the serenades without knowing that they are violating the law by so doing, we herewith publish the act:

"That from and after the passage of this act if any person or persons shall wilfully make or cause to be made any loud, boisterous and unseemly noise or disturbance to the annoyance of the peaceable residents near by, or shall thereby cause the assemblage of persons upon or near to any public highway, road, street, lane, park, alley, square or common within this commonwealth, whereby the public peace is broken or disturbed or the traveling public annoyed, he, she or they shall be guilty of the offence of disorderly conduct and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, alderman, mayor or burgess shall be sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding $10, and in default of the payment thereof shall be committed to and imprisoned in the county jail of the proper county for a period not exceeding 30 days."

Wanted His Money Back.

The maddest man in the state resides in a neighboring city. One evening last week he attended a social given at a private residence and during the evening the ladies inaugurated a hugging bee the proceeds to go to the church. Prices were graded according to the person hugged. For instance, for hugging a young, inexperienced girl, you had to give up ten cents; married women brought fifteen cents, and widows a quarter. Old maids came two in a bunch for three cents. Well, our friend was blind-folded and giving up fifteen cents said he would take a married woman. After he had hugged fifteen cents worth, the bandage was removed from his eyes and lo! and behold, he had been hugging his own wife. Then he wanted his fifteen cents back.
