

CLEVELAND AND CUBA.

Report That He Is Investigating Through Secret Agents.

SPANIARDS ARE NOT ALARMED.

Premier Del Castillo Announces in Madrid That from Official and Private Advice He Is Satisfied the President Will Take No Action on the Resolutions.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The house yesterday adopted the conference report on the Cuban resolutions by a vote of 244 to 27, and passed the river and harbor bill under suspension of the rules, after a lively debate of forty minutes, by a vote of 216 to 40.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—I is reported on apparently good authority that President Cleveland has taken steps to inform himself as to the exact condition of affairs in Cuba, and has sent secret agents to the island to ascertain whether the claims of the insurgents as to their establishment of a government and their military progress are true.

ITEMS OF STATE NEWS.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., April 6.—Cephas Batchelor, aged 93 years, the oldest resident of this city, was suffocated during a fire which destroyed the house of his son-in-law, John Hawk.

LEBANON, Pa., April 4.—Thomas Eck, aged 19, placed a revolver which he thought to be empty to his forehead here last night, saying: "Here she goes, boys." The weapon went off, killing him instantly.

READING, Pa., April 7.—The 3-year-old child of Mrs. Ida Hockendorf was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the house of the mother at Meekville, this county. The family was absent at the time, and the origin of the fire is unknown.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 6.—Harry Thompson, the man who was shot by Bertha McConnell, continues to improve, no unfavorable developments having manifested themselves. Advice from Coatesville are to the effect that Miss McConnell is also growing better, and is on a fair road to recovery.

ALTOONA, Pa., April 7.—Mayor H. C. Barr was sworn in at noon yesterday, and announced his appointments. Coroner Foust is the new chief of police, and there has been a clean sweep of Democratic police and other appointive offices. Subject council organized by electing John Currie president, and common council elected John A. Canan president.

SHERIDAN STATION, Pa., April 6.—Two boys, Stuart Jackson and August Menke, were walking upon the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at Corks Run tunnel. They stepped aside to permit a freight train to pass. The Washington-Pennsylvania express shot out of the tunnel, and striking Jackson killed him instantly. Menke escaped by lying down beside the rails. Their homes are at Columbus, O., and they were looking for work.

SOMERSET, Pa., April 6.—Norman Shaffer, a coal miner, aged 22, and his wife, aged 18, were attempting to dry some rock powder before the kitchen fire. Mrs. Shaffer undertook to pour some powder from the bucket into the fire. The stream ignited the moment it came in contact with the live coals and threw the burning powder all over the woman and her husband. The clothing of both took fire, and both were seriously if not fatally burned. The house was totally destroyed.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 6.—A 14-year-old son of Marcus P. Mosser, with several companions, were playing with an improvised cannon which they had cast of tin and zinc. Young Mosser applied the match to the fuse, when in some way a quantity of loose powder in his pockets became ignited, and in an instant the boy was a mass of flames from head to foot. His companions had presence of mind enough to tear off his clothing, but he was so severely burned that his recovery is doubtful.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., April 8.—Patrick Credigan and Charles Larkin were instantly killed on the Pennsylvania railroad at Downingtown. They were walking side by side on the track, when they were struck by a fast freight train, and when picked up life was extinct. The men belonged to the wreck crew of the district, and were returning from work on a car which had jumped the track. Credigan was a single man, but Larkin leaves a wife and family. Both lived in Downingtown.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., April 6.—Jerome Lloyd and Arthur J. Lloyd, two youthful dime novel victims, were given a hearing before Magistrate Rupert on a charge of attempting to wreck a train on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, four miles south of this place. The defendants made a full confession, and were sent to the Chester county prison to await the charge at quarter session.

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—Thomas Wharton, Sunday editor of the Philadelphia Times, fell or jumped from a fourth story window of the house in which he lived early in the morning, and was instantly killed. It is generally believed that he was suffering from vertigo. He was 38 years old. He was a frequent contributor to magazines. He wrote several novels, the best known of which are "A Latter Day Saint" and "Hannibal of New York." He was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, and the honorary degree of A. M. had been conferred upon him.

READING, Pa., April 7.—Coroner Gleesmer yesterday afternoon heard the testimony of Frank Lash, at whose house Miss Ida Ellen Moore, 29 years old, died on Friday night. It had been alleged that the woman died under suspicious circumstances. Lash stated that she had been indisposed when he went to work in the morning, and when he returned at night she was lying on the floor. It is necessary to hold a post mortem examination, and says there was no reason for the suspicion of foul play. The young woman was in a delicate condition.

PITTSBURG, April 7.—Francesca Russo, aged 35 years, arrived in Pittsburgh from Naples on Saturday evening last. He was met at Union station by his brothers-in-law, Giacomo Crucio, aged 45 years, and Felice Crucio, aged 26 years. After spending a social evening together they applied for lodging at an Italian boarding house, No. 67 Webster avenue, kept by Frank Torchia. The trio retired about midnight. This was the last seen of them until yesterday, when their dead bodies were found in the room they occupied, all in one bed. Death had resulted from asphyxiation they having evidently blown out the gas.

HARRISBURG, April 6.—The annual report of Banking Commissioner Gilkeson for the year 1895 shows that notwithstanding the financial difficulties during the year he did not have to appoint a single receiver for any of the strictly financial institutions of the state. The commissioner calls attention to the enormous amount, $374,241,784.83, which is held by trust companies in the state as trust funds. For the first time in the history of this Commonwealth this information has been collected. Colonel Gilkeson says additional legislation is needed to protect the interests of the people who have trust funds in the hands of corporations.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 7.—Michael Hoko, a Slav, was murdered by John Gildreit, a jealous rival, last night. Hoko and Gildreit were in love with the same girl, but she favored Hoko. Gildreit, who had on several occasions threatened his rival, lay in wait for him with a number of companions last night, and attacked him with a knife. Hoko broke away from his assailants and sought refuge in the saloon of Harry Biddleman. Gildreit and his companions attacked the place, breaking the windows and doors. They then pounced upon Hoko and beat him to death. The body of Hoko's friends were also badly injured. The saloon was completely wrecked. Five of the attacking party were lodged in jail.

EX-PRESIDENT'S BRIDE.

General and Mrs. Harrison Now at Their Indianapolis Home.

A QUIET MARRIAGE CEREMONY.

Russell Harrison and Mrs. McKee, the Ex-President's Children, Purposely Absent Themselves from the Wedding—The Couple Will Arrive at Their Home Tonight.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Ex-President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Mary Scott Lord Dimmick were married last evening at 5:45 o'clock, at St. Thomas' church, Fifth avenue and Fifty-third street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Wesley Brown, rector of St. Thomas', and was very simple. General Benjamin F. Tracy, former secretary of the navy, was General Harrison's best man. Mrs. Dimmick had no bridesmaids, but was escorted up the aisle by her brother-in-law, Lieutenant John F. Parker. The ceremony was witnessed by only thirty-six guests.

Mr. Daniel M. Ramsdell, ex-marshal of the District of Columbia, and E. F. Tibbetts, private secretary to Mr. Harrison, acted as ushers. Both the sanctuary and chancel of St. Thomas' were beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and lilacs. There were no decorations in the body of the church. For a half hour before the ceremony Mr. George W. Warren, the organist, rendered selections from the great masters. At the entrance of the bride the Lohengrin's wedding march was played, and during the ceremony an intermezzo of Mascagni. The bridal party left the edifice to the sweet strains of the Tannhauser wedding march.

Neither Russell Harrison nor Mrs. McKee, the general's son and daughter, were present. It is generally understood that they are displeased at their father's match, and absolutely declined to attend the wedding. General Harrison's gift to the bride, a magnificent chain of pearls, was looped on the corsage. The bride carried a pearl covered prayer book which contained the blank marriage certificate, that was filled out after the ceremony.

There was a large crowd around the church, which kept gathering after the bridal party had entered the edifice. Captain Steinkamp and seventy-five men kept the avenue clear for carriages. There was no block or unusual crush at any time. Immediately after the bridal party left the church the crowd dispersed. At 7 o'clock General Harrison and his bride left the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot, in Gramercy Park, and entered a closed carriage. In a second carriage were Lieutenant and Mrs. Parker and General Tracy, and in the third carriage Mrs. Harrison's maid, Daniel M. Ramsdell and E. F. Tibbetts had left for the Pennsylvania depot immediately on leaving the church to prepare for the arrival of the bridal party. At 7:30 o'clock the party arrived at Desbrosses street, and were driven immediately on board the ferryboat, which pulled out soon after the depot. On the arrival of the party at the hotel they were conducted to President Thomson's private car, which had been placed at General Harrison's disposal.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 8.—General Harrison and his bride arrived here at 11:15 last night, accompanied by Secretary Tibbetts, Colonel Ramsdell and Mrs. Harrison's maid. There was a big crowd at the station who were anxious to get a glimpse of the bridal party. Secretary Tibbetts said to a reporter that it was the intention of the ex-president to lead a very quiet life in Indianapolis, and to give his entire attention to his law practice.

KANSAS WOMEN VOTERS. KANSAS CITY, Kan., April 8.—The municipal election in this city progressed very quietly. An interesting feature of the battle was the part taken by the women. There were 2,100 women registered, and nearly 2,000 of them voted. Many women walked to the polls, some with their husbands and others without escort, while the equal suffragists had carriages running to all parts of the city to take the women to the polls. In the Third ward there were 504 white women and 305 negro women registered.

LITTLE ESTHER CLEVELAND HAS THE MEASLES. WASHINGTON, April 8.—Yesterday was the regular cabinet day, but to the surprise of members of the cabinet they were notified that the usual meeting of Tuesday would be omitted. No explanation was then given. Later in the day it was ascertained that Little Esther Cleveland, aged 2½ years, had a well developed case of measles. Mrs. Cleveland had at once had all of the children, with nurse and governess, removed to Woodley, the summer residence of the president. The case is not considered serious.

COLLEGE OARSMEN WRECKED, ONE DROWNED. MADISON, Wis., April 8.—While at practice a mile out on Lake Mendota a small struck two shells manned by oarsmen of the University of Wisconsin's crew. One man was drowned and two others are in a critical condition from their plunge in the icy water. The drowned student was John Day, of Janesville, Wis., only son of Mr. Jennette Day. The others are Lester Street, Dixon, Ill., and Curran C. McCoville, of Lacrosse, Wis. The others were rescued uninjured.

MRS. CURTIS ELECTED MAYOR. CIMARRON, Kan., April 8.—The women were victorious in the election here. Mrs. C. A. Curtis being elected mayor by a small majority over Dr. Lawrence. The election board is composed wholly of women, who were out in full force. Mrs. Curtis is over 60 years of age. She is a woman of good business ability, and is quite wealthy.

CHEERING PROSPECTS FOR PEACHES. BRIDGEVILLE, Del., April 8.—The prospects for a large crop of peaches in this city are excellent. The trees are loaded with buds, and the cold weather has kept them back so that they are not yet in blossom. Possible frosts during the present month are all that may prevent a large yield.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CURED.

The importance of knowing just what to do when one is afflicted with kidney disease or troubles of urinary nature, is best answered by the following letter which was recently published in the Poughkeepsie, N. Y., News-press:

MILLETON, Dutchess Co., N. Y. "Dr. David Kennedy, Dear Sir:—For more than eighteen months I was so badly afflicted with kidney trouble I could scarcely walk a quarter of a mile without almost fainting. I did not gain any until I began to use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. After using the first bottle I noticed a decided improvement which continued, and I know that

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY saved my life, for I was in a miserable condition up to the time I began to take it. My friends thought I would never be better.

My sister also has been very sick with bladder trouble for over a year, so bad that quantities of blood would come from her. She suffered at times most frightful pain, and nothing seemed to help her until she began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. She is now using her third bottle, and is like a different person.
