GEN. HASTINGS could not send any congratulations to Senator Quay over McKinley's victory in Centre county.

THE encouraging condition of our manufacturing industries and the increase of their exports, is what some of our republicans can't understand.

A communication in the Millheim Journal strongly urges the name of Hon. J. P. Gephart, our townsman, as a suitable candidate for congressional honors. Mr. Gephart is an old line democrat, who knows a few things about politics.

THE steel makers of the United States, by taking contracts to deliver steel rails to Chili, Japan and Canada, demonstrate that they are not much in need of the protection of $7.84 per ton. But the ment they seize for establishing a new

Why certain republicans in Bellefonte went to so much trouble at the republican primaries last Saturday, to pound Col. W. F. Reeder, is what we can't uncerstand. This is the only favor, we know of, that he ever asked of his fellow republicans in the many years that he has labored for the success of that party in Centre county.

WE reprint the New York Tribune's carefully prepard estimate of the present strength of the rival candidates for the republican nonination for the presidency: McKinley 250 | Quay 26 Reed...... 88 Cullom....... 12 Morton...... 66 Bradley...... 2 Allison. 37

THE protectionist organs continue to struggle against the tide. They can not explain why our wool exports have increased from 200,000 pounds per year to 4,000,000 pounds under the Wilson bill. Neither do they understand how we can ship coal to Germany, woolens to England and steel to Japan. They know there is something wrong and forget to investigate their own trade-destroying vagories to unearth that wrong.

Onio has followed the example of New York in abolishing the gallows and setting up the electrical chair for the death penalty of the law. It is the first state that has done so. On the whole, and with the experience of New York, it may be deemed a safe and sure method of dispatching murderes into eternity. Hanging in most cases is a new experience for the sheriff and his officers, but electrocution calls in science and special training, so that there need be no bung

THE hardest-worked ruler in the world receives least salary. That official is the president of these United States. To the taxpayers and to the presidents themselves the salary is ample. But for purposes of comparison it will be of interest to know how much it falls below that of other great rulers. The presitent's salary is $50.000 per year, Queen Victoria absorbs about $2,000,000 and still is not satisfied, the president of France receives $250,000, Italy impoverishes herself to pay King Humbert $2,-500,000 annualy, Emperor William draws $4,000,000 each year and the czar of Russia is paid $12,000,000 for each year's work. And not one of these rules over as great a people as does the president of the United States.

CONSUL GENERAL LEE.

Virginia's Ex-Governor Will Rep-

SUCCEEDING RAMON O. WILLIAMS.

The Latter Has Held the Position for Over Twenty Years Past, but Recently Placed His Resignation in the Hands of President Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, has been nominated to be consul general of the United States at Havana, Cuba, vice R. O. Williams, resigned.

The resignation of Ramon O. Williams from his office as consul general of the United States at Havana, which was made public through the nomination of General Fitzhugh Lee as his successor, caused no surprise here. For months past rumor has been busy with Mr. Williams' name, and it has repeatedly been stated during that time that he had resigned. The denials that were obtained from official sources were always so phrased as to carry only the statement that Mr. Williams was at the time of denial still in office, and the conviction obtained, based not only on these denials, but on certain expressions let fall by Mr. Williams during his visit to Washington last year, that his resignation has been at the disposal of the president for some time past.

President Cleveland has long been desirous of appointing General Fitzhugh Lee to a place in the diplomatic or consular service. Last year he appointed him internal revenue collector of the western district of Virginia, and his friends were a little surprised that he accepted the place, but it is now known that he did so at the urgent request of many of the leading citizens of the district.

General Lee is a lineal descendant of the celebrated "Light Horse Harry" Lee, of the revolution, and is a nephew of General Robert E. Lee. He was born at Clermont, Fairfax county, Va., Nov. 19, 1835, and was graduated at West Point in 1856. He was severely wounded in a fight with Indians, and in May, 1860, he was ordered to report at West Point as instructor of cavairy. At the beginning of the civil war, in 1861, he resigned his commission in the United States army and entered the Confederate service, quickly rising to the rank of major general.

After the war closed he retired to his home in Stafford county. In 1874 he made a speech at Bunker Hill, which attracted wide attention. In the winter and spring of 1882-3 he made a tour through the southern states in the interest of the Southern Historical society. In 1885, after a spirited campaign, he defeated John A. Wise, readjuster, for governor of Virginia. He was subsequently an aspirant for the United States senate to succeed Mr. Hunton, but was defeated in the Democratic legislative caucus by Thomas S. Martin by very close vote.

Ramon O. Williams, who has been our consul at Havana for over twenty years past, was in Washington some time ago to explain why General Campos desired his recall. Matters were arranged, and he returned to his post. He was born at Washington fifty years ago, and was taken to Cuba when a child, and resided there for several years. Later be returned to Washington and became a newspaper reporter, but not succeeding in journalism as he hoped he went back to the "Queen of the Antilles," became a merchant, and made money so rapidly that he Three years later he was appointed consul

The salary of the office is $6,000 a year, the largest sum paid any consul general in the service of the United States, and the fees swell the income to even more acceptable proportions.

The Transvaal Endangered.

CAPETOWN, April 15.-News has been received here that the natives are preparing to rise along the Transvaal border. A rising in northern Transvaal itself is also reported to be imminent. There is something of a panic manifest among the burghers, who have appealed for arms with which to protect themselves. The threatened spread of the disturbance along the Transvaal border makes the situation at Buluwayo and in Matabele much more serious. The authorities have felt that Buluwayo was reasonably safe if the food supply should hold out, but the danger has been that the Matabeles would stop the wagon roads through the Matoppo hills and to the south, and thus prevent supplies from getting through from Mafe-

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 15.-As a result of the riot between the Italians and Lithnanians at Shenandoah Monday night Joseph Shukofski, one of the injured men, died yesterday.
