—The first game of base ball for the season was played on Tuesday at State College.

—Fairy Tales and Who First Told Them" at the opera house, on next Friday evening.

—Your shoe bill is high—our long wearers for boys and youths will reduce it. Mingle's shoe store.

—The lady bicyclers are coming out in great numbers. The town will be full of them this season.

—Bellefonte was filled with republicans on Tuesday. From the decorations, one would imagine it was the fourth of July occasion.

—Rev. Gearhart's lecture in the opera house, on Friday evening upon "Fairy Tales and Who First Told Them," will be worth hearing.

—We know that our $2.25 ladies lace and button shoes are equal to any $3 shoe ever sold in Bellefonte—seeing is believing. Mingle's shoe store.

—Editor James C. McCloskey of the Lock Haven Express and Mr. Geo. C. Cornelious, of Warren, Pa., were pleasant callers on Tuesday.

—Our tax-collector H. S. Taylor, is after delinquents with a pointed stick. He intends to collect where parties can pay and don't.

—Dr. J. Jordan Deshler, of Glidden, Iowa, who came east to visit his mother at Aaronsburg, spent a few hours in Bellefonte on Monday.

—This is the time of the year when a man can dig bait for several hours and not kick, but when it comes to digging garden he won't be in it.

—Sheriff Condo has given the interior of the prison a good cleaning, up also a coat of whitewash. If he could improve the inmates in the same manner, it would be a good thing.

—On Saturday many of the leading attorneys of Bellefonte will leave for Philadelphia to attend the annual session of supreme court, for this district, which begins on Monday 20th.

—The Journal, published at Loganton and Mill Hill, was sold last week by D. Scott Curran to C. S. Whiteman. Mr. Curran edited and published the paper for a number of years.

—The old Landrigan house, at the intersection of Logan and Spring streets, is being torn down to make room for some new tenement houses which Joseph Bros. & Co., the new owners of the property, intend building there.

—The Garman House has been improved considerably by the laying of a number of fine new brussels carpets on the second floor. It is one of the best equipped hotels, for the rate to be found in the country.

—George, the 4 year old son of Alfred and Mary Bezer, of Roopsburg, died at 7 o'clock on Sunday morning after an illness of several weeks. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house.

—Robert Downing's appearance at the opera house on Tuesday evening, in the production of "The Gladiator" drew a small house. It was a fine effort and the best in the line of tragedy ever seen in Bellefonte. It deserved better patronage.

—WANTED to buy horses and mares, 40 head, from 4 to 7 years old. Must be in good order. Will be at Baum's livery stable, Bellefonte, on Saturday, April 18th. Persons desiring to sell, call on me early. HUGH QUIGLEY.

—Mr. J. I. Gillam, the wholesale grocery man, of Tyrone, was in Bellefonte on Monday on a business trip. He formerly conducted a shoe store in Bellefonte and still is of the opinion that we have one of the finest towns in the state. He is prospering in business.

—On Thursday afternoon of last week, little Jack Lyon, a three year old son of Wm. Lyon, the butcher, was run over by a team at the crossing on Allegheny street, leading to Baum's livery. The little lad was slightly injured and received but a few bruises. How he escaped is a wonder to all.

—Engine No. 1, on the Nittany Valley Railroad, and used mostly for shifting about the Valentine furnace, was brought from the Baldwin locomotive works, at Philadelphia, last week where it was overhauled, by Joseph Wise. Engine 3 is now being repaired at the company's shops at this place, by Mr. Wise, assisted by Wm. Allen. Mr. Wise is master mechanic for the Central Railroad of Pa., and the Valentine Iron Company, and is an expert in his line.

THE WHEAT CROP HURT.

The Mild Winter Followed by Frosts Did Considerable Damage.

Every indication now points to the fact that throughout central Pennsylvania the grain crops this year will be the smallest known in many years. Reports from all over this and adjoining counties confirm this belief. The reasons are that the continued drought of last fall kept the ground so dry that the grain did not get a good start until the cold weather of the winter set in, and being no snow to protect it and the severe freezing coming on, every field of wheat was killed. The clover and grass seeds sown last fall suffered the same fate, and under the most favorable condition from now until harvest this year's hay crop in this section cannot be more than half the yield of last year.

Many agriculturists are predicting large spring crops, such as corn and oats, but it is yet too early to speak of these with any show of judgement. From the present appearances of the budding of the fruit trees, there is every reason to believe that this year's fruit crop will be an enormous one, unless the same be hurt by late frosts.

To Elect Co. Superintendent.

On Tuesday, May 12th, the school directors of Centre county will meet in Bellefonte for the purpose of electing a county superintendent for the next three years. There are two aspirants for the office. Prof. C. L. Gramley of Rebersburg is anxious for a re-election and has the assurance of many directors. Prof. Ed Wolf of Centre Hall is after the same place and will have some strength.

Change of Firm.

The firm of Harper & Kreamer, Centre Hall, was dissolved on Monday morning, 5th, and the business is now conducted under the firm name of Kreamer & Son. Simon Harper, the retiring member of the firm, has not been in the best of health lately, and retired in hopes that he will fully recover. Samuel Kreamer is now associated with his father.—Reporter.

Wedding This Evening.

Miss Martha Boal and Mr. David A. Booser, of Centre Hall, will be united in marriage this Thursday evening 16th at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Boal, west of Centre Hall. The wedding will be largely attended.

New Bridge.

On Wednesday the county commissioners of Centre and Clearfield counties met at Tyrone, and awarded a contract for a new bridge, across the Moshannon, at Peale. It will be 120 feet long with a driveway of 16 feet. Contract was awarded to the Havana Bridge Co., of New York.

New Uniforms.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

To Wm. J. and Charles M. Dale, upon the estate of Henry Dale, late of College twp. Will proven.

To Samuel T. Gray, upon the estate of Mary Annfurst, late of Patton twp. Will proven.

A REPUBLICAN RUMPUS.

Third: We commend the republican administration of our state as being wise and economical and for the best interests of the people; giving as it has to the charities and benevolence which belong to the people their just and full share of the public money of this state.

Resolved, That the sentiment of the republicans of Centre county is largely in favor of that pure ann eminent statesman, true American, and able representative of protection to American industries, Governor William McKinley, of Ohio, for President of the United States; and that the delegates this day elected to the State Convention should support the election of delegates to the National Republican Convention who will support his nomination for President. John P. Harris, Andrew Gregg, A. P. Rishel, H. A. Osmond, G. E. Chandler, Committee.

No further business to transact the convention then adjourned.

There can be no doubt but that Col. Coburn, as chairman, did all that was possible to control the convention for Reeder. Phillipsburg's resolution was ordered to be throtted in committee room, while the Reeder resolutions were promptly placed before the body for consideration.

The Phillipsburg delegation were a gamey crowd; they went down with colors flying.

The result of the convention was fought over again in the afternoon at some of the hotels. A number were totally disabled.

MR. ARNOLD'S STATEMENT.

A Daily News representative called on Mr. Arnold immediately at the conclusion of the convention and in reply to the question as to whether he had anything to say as to the result, he said:

"I was in Bellefonte on March 30 and was then assured Centre county had no candidate for congress. A few days later I asked the chairman of the republican County Committee both by wire and by letter to print my name on the tickets. This was refused me by a telegram sent me which reached me late in the evening of April 8, when I was then at work securing Clarion county. Mr. Reeder it seems, had begun on the 6th to quietly send out his tickets, while my friends only discovered the trick the day before the primaries, when it was too late for my friends to get my tickets into all the districts. I am really surprised that I received 50 delegates and also a majority of the popular vote, when I considered the trickery and the work of the administration employees brought into Centre from Harrisburg. In addition all the combine and McKinley forces were 'worked' because I have been and am a friend of Senator Quay. I have only to add that the enemies of Quay and myself will find they have made a mistake. I was not in Centre during Mr. Reeder's canvass, only returning home from Clarion Co. in the evening of the day of Centre's primaries.

For the information of my friends I say that I will be the republican nominee for Congress in the 28th district."

Death of Cyrus Strickland.

On Monday morning, at exactly nine o'clock, Mr. Cyrus Strickland, one of Bellefonte's well known citizens died at his home on Bishop street. For years Mr. Strickland was in delicate health and often was confined to his house by illness but his death was unexpected. He arose Monday morning not apparently any worse, and his very sudden death was a great surprise to his family and many friends.

He was born in Union county on the 15th of March, 1828; came to Bellefonte about 1849, and was a resident of this place for forty-six years.

When the war broke out he was among the first who enrolled in Company H, under the command of Capt. John B. Mitchell, the 2nd Regiment of three months' men. Of this company he was 1st Corporal.

He was mustered into the service for three years as a member of company H, 56th Regiment P. V., on the 23rd of December, 1861. Of this company he was a Sergeant.

He remained with the company until the 23rd of August, 1862, when, on duty near Rappahannock Station, he was severely injured in the back. After being injured he was sent to the hospital, where he remained until some time in July, 1863, when he was discharged by reason of disability caused by the injury.

For years after his return from the army he was superintendent of the water works of Bellefonte.

Since 1886 he has not been able to do any manual labor by reason of the disability occasioned by the injury received in the army.

He was married to Nancy Haey, a daughter of Robt. Haey of Harris township. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Clara Gardner and Miss Jennie Strickland at home.

The funeral took place from his late home on Bishop street, on Wednesday afternoon, at three o'clock. Interment at the Union Cemetery.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening of last week Miss Elizabeth Shrom and George Ingram, of Loveville, were married at the bride's home at this place, on East Lamb street. Rev. Rue of the Methodist church officiated. An elaborate wedding supper was served.

Their future home will be at Loveville, Pa.

Hall and Chain.

The borough council at its last meeting enacted an ordinance against tramps which says: "All offenders of the peace, including tramps and vagrants, shall have a hearing before the burgess, and if unable to pay their fines to have them work them out in the streets and wear a ball and chain when working."

This is a good ordinance, but like many others will not be enforced. It would be a good solution of the tramp nuisance.

Death at Howard.

Demert McKinney, the nineteen year old son of David McKinney, of Howard, died on Monday of consumption. The young man's health had been declining for several years. For several years he attended a school in Western Pennsylvania but was compelled to leave owing to his poor health.

REAL ENJOYMENT

There's real enjoyment in wearing comfortable footwear. When a man gets home at night, off come his shoes. When he arrives at his place of business or labor, the chances are he fishes out an old pair of shoes that have convenient holes cut to ease his corns. That's the way with some men.

The men who find comfort in wearing the same pair of shoes from morning till night are the men who buy footwear of me. I can give anybody foot comfort who will buy the kind of shoes I advise. I can't guarantee this, however, to those who use their own judgment.
