

FROM ABOUT THE COUNTY

Interesting Paragraphs From Many Localities.

PERSONAL AND SPECIAL CHAT

The News Collected by the "Centre Democrat's" Alert Corps of Correspondents—Timely Topics Discussed—Breezy Communications—News, Fun and Fancy—Is Your Community Represented—If Not, Why Not

FROM SPRING MILLS.

A Breezy Letter From the Heart of Penns Valley.

Mr. Edward Jamison left for Altoona, where he expects to get employment.

Mr. Cronister, candidate for sheriff, spent a couple days here looking up his many friends.

Miss Ethel Young, from Belleville, is visiting Miss Ida Coudo.

Mr. Allison, from Northumberland, has been visiting his father and mother.

The trout season opened on the fifteenth. Quite a number were out. Who was the champion? Let us hear from you. There was none so liberal as the editor of this paper, who promised a mess last week. Mr. Kurtz, you had better catch them first, or are you always as good as your word.

Rev. Ralph W. Illingsworth was here distributing the history of "A Passing Glance at Penns Valley."

W. B. Crape has closed out the necktie factory and is paying his whole attention to making a thorough canvass for sheriff.

John Shook is getting things ready to push his new house along. That will be another improvement for the hill.

T. M. Gramley has the foundation dug to put up a new porch in front of his house. It will add greatly to his property.

John Hagan says he has now more work promised than he can get through with. He is one of the old fashioned democrats, and under the cry of hard democratic times he always had more work than he could do.

Squire J. A. Grenoble is dealing out justice right and left to his fellow men. He understands his business, and is the right man in the right place.

Miss May Smith, from Pine Grove Mills, is here visiting her father.

Quite a number of students have arrived to attend Prof. Wolf's school.

D. H. Ruhl, the obliging landowner of the Spring Mills hotel, reports candidates plenty, but most of them democrats.

It was remarked, the other day on the street: What do Smith Bros. do with all their furniture? They are out almost day and night with their delivery wagon.

C. P. Long, Titus Gramley were elected delegates to go to Bellefonte on the republican side, to instruct for Mayor McKinley.

Rev. Davis preached his first sermon, in the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Fans preached a very able sermon to a crowded house last Sunday evening.

Papa Evans has been on the sick list, for several weeks.

Mr. Geo. Weaver is around making friendly calls, looking up the interests of the people as assessor.

It has been decided by our chairman that the old delegates that we elected a year ago will have to serve this year.

BOV.

—Call and get a sample of Fables World Beaters. A man's suit at $9.80 and match 'em if you can, for the price.

PENN HALL NOTES.

April showers have become chilled, enroute.

A. G. Barrell purchased a new horse.

Prof. W. P. Hosterman is engaged in teaching a term select school at Rebersburg.

Supervisor Bossman repaired some bridges in our section last week.

Francis Zerby has taken the position as sawyer on A. G. Barrell's mill.

SEVICERS: Rev. C. J. Dubs, of the United Evangelical church, will preach in the Green Grove church on Sunday at 10 o'clock. The Sunday school will also be reorganized at the same time. As Escherism does not receive very favorable comments here, the Escherites are holding their worship in dwelling houses.

Miss Alverta Rossman, one of Penns Cave's accomplished young ladies, was visiting friends here last Monday.

John Noll, of Bellefonte, candidate for sheriff, was through here shaking hands with his many friends.

A number of our young people are now attending the spring term of school at Spring Mills, which opened on Monday. They are under the instruction of Dr. D. M. Wolf, who is one of Centre county's best teachers and merits a large number of pupils.

It is rumored that an orchestra will be started here in the near future. Why not have such an organization?

—Call and get a sample of Fables World Beaters. A man's suit at $9.80 and match 'em if you can, for the price.

HUBLERSBURG ITEMS.

Nearly everybody is busy making garden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Robb were the guests of Julian Brown, Saturday and Sunday. Miss Mary Bergstesser went to Spring Mills, on Monday, to attend school.

Messrs Cronister and Bowersox were around shaking hands with their democratic friends, the latter part of last week.

The farmers are busy plowing and getting ready for their Spring seeding.

T. L. Kessinger's squirrel family had an increase a few weeks ago. He has five old ones and four young ones now.

Since our last correspondence, Mr. McClain, of Clintondale, moved into the Clevelstein house, and a Mrs. Love moved into Jacob Dunkle's house.

Mr. Vonada lost a valuable horse last week.

Rev. Koonitz, the newly appointed United Evangelical minister, preached his first sermon, on last Sunday night a week, to a large audience.

It is reported, that there is some attraction for one of our young men at Clintondale. How is it Ed?

Harvey Vonada had a paralytic stroke last week, but is better again.

NEW BAKERY:—Two ladies in our town thought they would try the bakery business. They make a specialty of cakes, which they guarantee to be full weight. Well, Mat, says Frank got away with the cake she baked, but Jose does not know what to do with hers.

Perry Wilson has improved his residence by putting up a new yard fence.

George Hoy, our enterprising merchant, shipped several car loads of hay last week.

Miss Sue Danley commenced a ten week's term of Summer school, on Monday.

NITTANY NOTES.

Farmers are busily engaged in plowing, while the feminine are busy commanding hirelings how the gardens are to be arranged.

Mrs. Jacob Lose, of Snyderstown, died April 11, burial services were held in the same place on Tuesday at 9 a. m. Pneumonia was the cause of death.

David Wily, of Lamar, died on Saturday at 3 o'clock, of paralysis, and was buried on Monday; services at the house. The remains were taken to Cedarhill cemetery.

Pierce Emerick, of Snyderstown, is seriously ill of typhoid fever with but little hopes of recovery. Pierce has been an invalid since the holidays. We sympathize with him, as he has been one of the most quiet and upright young men in our community.

Eliza McKibben, of Porter township, is confined to her bed by cancers; the disease has covered one eye and leading across the nose towards the other, thus affecting the nasal passage and breathing is difficult. The above named is 84 years of age and well known in this vicinity.

Officers were elected in the Snyderstown Sunday school last Sabbath. J. H. Beck was re-elected superintendent. He has filled this position for more than eighteen years—indicates the esteem the above is held in, in our vicinity.

Robert Tate and wife visited their sons, John and Charles, at Mill Hall last week.

Miss Belle Shaffer and Helen Beck visited Mill Hall and Saloca over Sunday.

Neilson Robb and wife have been spending a few days in our town. Captain Shaffer is also visiting his brother, B. F. Shaffer.

Candidates are numerous in our township.

The grain crop does not promise a fair yield by its present appearance.

AARONSBURG ITEMS

Mr. Sam Brooks, of Pleasant Gap and niece were the welcome guests of T. T. Hull on North street.

Miss Ella Stover and Anna Hoover were visiting friends in Bellefonte, over Sunday.

The Misses Cordelia Acker and Mable Weaver, E. R. Wolfe, Frank Rupp and F. Wert have started to go to Millheim school they expect to come home every evening.

Miss Mollie Gettig has just returned home from a few weeks' visit with her sister Mrs. Meyer at Penn Hall.

Rev. Stapleton, presiding elder of the United Evangelical church, preached a very interesting sermon on Sunday afternoon.

Joel Smull, of Nittany, Sundayed with his mother, Mrs. Jessie Werts.

Mrs. G. Gephart was to Hartleton to attend her niece funeral.

We noticed Wm. Guisewite's ice cream parlor was thronged with people on Saturday evening.

Mrs. E. Deshler, who has been on the sick list for the past few weeks, we are glad to say, is slowly recovering.

Noah Cronmiller of Bellefonte is paying his many friends a visit.

Stewart Weber, of Rebersburg, has started a summer school. Hope he will succeed in getting a large school.

C. W. Hyle has gone to Millintown to make a bake oven for C. E. Stover the baker.

C. Weaver and wife of Bellefonte, are paying their parents a visit.

Philadelphia Branch. TEMPLE COURT. Philadelphia Branch.

SPRING GREETINGS:

The season of 1896 opens with the promise of improvement in all lines of business, as it is believed that the darkest hours of the financial depression have passed. Having confidence in a more prosperous future, the Philadelphia Branch has launched forth upon an enlarged and improved scale. We made our debut on Saturday, April 4th, and now have the finest Clothing Emporium in Central Pennsylvania.

Our New Store.

The Philadelphia Branch is now located in the two handsome store rooms in Temple Court, on Allegheny street, Bellefonte. Here we made our spring opening on Saturday, April 4th, and when our curtains were raised from the front windows the public stopped in bewildering praise. From all sides came compliments for the splendid display of Clothing and Gents Furnishing Goods.

No business man can be insensible to such complimentary utterances of his friends and the public, and for that reason we felt gratified to know that the efforts of this store were appreciated. Those who came in were more than pleased with our handsome quarters, the elegant arrangement, the complete stock, and the fine quality and style of goods purchased for this opening. Here there is a department for everything and each line is complete.

It is a pleasure to meet our customers in our new quarters where we are so conveniently located and can wait upon their trade more satisfactorily than formerly.

Our New Stock.

Six months ago a sacrifice sale was inaugurated in our old room and goods were sold at any price, and almost the entire stock was cleared away.

For our Spring Opening an entirely new stock was purchased. It was carefully selected in the eastern markets, and contains all the latest, noblest and taking patterns in cloth for Spring and Summer wear. Never in the history of the clothing trade could clothes be purchased as low as at present. Woolen fabrics are almost one-half their former prices. Then having bought a large quantity, special discounts made the cost less than ever. This is why we want you to come in and see the Gents Furnishing Goods.

We now have the finest line of Gents Furnishing Goods in Central Pennsylvania. The latest and popular styles in collars, cuffs, neckwear in endless variety—we have 'em—if you don't believe it call and see for yourself.

The latest Spring block in Hats, just in. Almost forgot to mention our fine line of shoes. Anything from a neat patent leather to a heavy working shoe.

Our Stock is Complete. Our Styles Will Please

LATEST STYLES, LOW PRICES.

SAMUEL LEWIN, Manager. PHILADELPHIA BRANCH.

Philadelphia Branch. TEMPLE COURT. Philadelphia Branch.

SPRING STYLES.

Table with columns: Warrantee Names, Acres, Per. Cent., Warrantee Names, Acres, Per. Cent., Warrantee Names, Acres, Per. Cent., Warrantee Names, Acres, Per. Cent. Includes names like Ferguson Thomas, Groe and McKeon, and various acreage and percentage values.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ACT OF JUNE 6, 1857, INDEBTED WILL BE ADDED TO THE AMOUNT OF ALL TAXES ASSESSED AGAINST UNPAID LANDS ABOVE ADVERTISED. JOHN Q. MILES, COUNTY TREASURER.