

FROM ABOUT THE COUNTY

Interesting Paragraphs From Many Localities.

PERSONAL AND SPECIAL CHAT

The News Collected by the "Centre Democrat's" Alert Corps of Correspondents—Timely Topics Discussed—Breezy Communications—News, Fun and Fancy—Is Your Community Represented—If Not, Why Not?

OAK HALL.

Mr. W. L. Sellers and Mrs. Agnes Meyer, of Linden Hall, were visiting at the home of Wm. Sellers, last week.

Wm. Everhart, the assessor, of College township, was around last week.

Who said that Clem was at Bellefonte, Saturday?

BAD LUCK.—Mr. Charles Stamm has had bad luck lately. On Saturday Barney's mule died and Saturday night the cow did the same. Barney wants to know who has a mule to trade.

Too MANY.—Any person having a spring wagon for sale should correspond with Charlie C., of Linden Hall, or Luther K., of this place. They say four is too many for one buggy.

Mr. Calvin Weiland, Mr. Dinges and Mr. Moore, the bicyclers, of Boalsburg, were in town Monday. Also Joe Williams, of Shiloh.

Some of our farmers are done sowing oats, while others are not through plowing yet.

Mr. Charles Dale and Thomas Bell, of the Branch, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Henry Dale, last Sabbath.

Misses Anna, Jennie, Lizzie and Virginia Meyers, all of Boalsburg, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Ed. Sellers, last Monday. Call again ladies.

Boyd, of Lemont, is singing "I'll never go there any more." Why won't you Boyd. Don't you like to huckster.

Mr. Harry Miller and Calvin Coble, of Linden Hall, were seen on our streets, late Sunday night. What is the attraction, boys.

No BLOOMERS.—One of our young ladies showed us how to ride a bicycle, Saturday evening. She did not wear bloomers, either.

Miss Bolinger, of Aaronsburg, was visiting at the home of William Sellers, last week.

The huckster gave us a call on Sunday. Call again Robert.

Mr. Jacob Markle is on the sick list. He is under the care of Dr. Dale, at present.

Several parties were making use of their fish nets, lately.

AARONSBURG.

P. G. Yearick, of Philadelphia, is paying his parents his annual visit.

W. H. Philips is in the city buying his spring goods.

Harry Bell and Charles Lukenbach, of Bellefonte, were down on their wheels on Sunday.

Mrs. Swabb has received her spring millinery goods. Ladies, go and see them before buying elsewhere.

Wm. Bickle and wife, of Mill Hall, and Prof. Yearick's, of Madisonburg, Sunday at Henry Weaver's.

Wm. Houser, former clerk in J. E. Lenker's store, is going to farm Mrs. D. H. Lenker's land this summer.

The new M. E. minister preached here on Sunday afternoon. All who heard him are well pleased with his sermon.

Gardening and house cleaning seems to be all the rage in our burg.

Geo. M. Stover & Sons are putting up a stable and other outbuildings for Fred Lambert.

We can boast of having three ice cream parlors in our town, and they had all their cream sold on Saturday evening before ten o'clock.

E. G. Mingle was on a business trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Joseph Korman had 9 loads of ground hauled on his front yard. That will surely improve the looks of his property.

Miss Yearick, of Millinburg, is paying her brother a visit.

Rev. F. W. Brown took Danny Gutelius to orphans school one day last week.

MILESBERG MENTION.

ENTERTAINED.—The G. A. R. Post, No. 261, of this place, entertained quite a number of their comrades of Bellefonte Post, No. 95, last Saturday evening.

Their refreshments consisted of "hard-tack and beans." And many war scenes were recalled and many stories told while they were eating. Every one present seemed to enjoy themselves, and each vied with the other in trying to get off the best joke.

The band held a festival and cakewalk last Saturday evening in Groves Hall, and their receipts were over seven teen dollars.

Rev. Geo. R. King baptised about 30 persons in the Methodist church, on Sunday.

FESTIVAL.—Next Saturday evening the Christian Endeavor Society will hold a festival on the lawn, in front of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Ida Orris is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

RETURNED.—Dr. Church returned this week from Washington city where he has been visiting his father and mother,

SPRING MILLS.

GOOD BUSINESS.—C. A. Crape is doing a big business in selling cream separators. He handles the best—the Sharpless.

LARGE SCHOOLS.—Prof. Wolf opened his school with seventy scholars, and most are from a distance. That is twice the number the Professor expected.

FARMERS BUSY.—Business dropped all at once, on account of the farmers being busy sowing their oats and getting their corn ground ready.

RUN AWAY.—Jef. Heckman, while out plowing, left his team stand. The horses took advantage of not being tied and run off. Broke the plow and hurt one of the horses.

Charley Dillet left for Emporium, where he expects to work on a lumber job.

FISHING.—Penns Creek, below the dam, to Farmers Mills was lined with trout fishermen, on the first day of the season. Here is the catch as far as the writer has learned: Rev. Isenburg and Simon Harper 35; McCormick & Smith Bros. 76; Frank Ream 22; Major Huss 4; Cort Shafer 6, and a great many did not get any. They all report trout scarce in the stream.

NEW GOODS.—C. P. Long is in the eastern cities now, where he expects to purchase a larger stock of dry goods than ever for the spring trade. C. P. is a thorough business man and knows just how to display a fine lot of goods.

NEW BAND.—The new cornet band, that was started here, under the instruction of Prof. Brown, is making good headway. The boys will soon be ready to come out and furnish us with some good selections. Candidates had better steer clear of this place, or they will get a taste to the amount of five dollars.

Mr. Roper, the new arrival from Millin county, reports having all the work that he can do in the wagon maker shop, near the hotel. He is a first class workman.

J. D. Long is spending most of his time now up on his farm. J. D. is one of our industrious farmers, and never finds time to loaf.

HOME AGAIN.—Mrs. Rearick has returned home from a month's visit with her husband Prof. Rearick, in Philadelphia, where he is employed in the bicycle store. Mrs. had an enjoyable trip but said: "No city life for me."

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents at Pine Grove Mills. Boy.

COBURN NEWS.

Miss Blanche Bowersox is confined to the house with sickness.

DEATH.—Mrs. Gareth died on Saturday morning after a long and lingering illness. Funeral took place on Tuesday.

Mr. Hosterman and wife, of Fiedler, were visiting at the home of T. W. Hosterman, last Sunday.

The farmers are busy at work: Quite a number are plowing; others are thinking of starting soon to sow and plant potatoes.

Peter Kessler, of Rebersburg, was seen on our street last Saturday evening.

Our merchant, W. H. Meyer, returned home from Philadelphia, a few days ago.

R. F. Vonada and I. F. Gartboff, made a business trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Nora Kling is reported on the sick list.

Rev. Lohr preached a very able sermon, Sunday afternoon.

P. F. Vonada has been on the sick list for several weeks.

Phil Meyer is getting things ready to push his new house along. That will be another improvement to our town.

Mr. Howard Bowersox and A. Treasurer, of Woodward, spent Sunday at Coburn.

The trout season opened last week and quite a number were out. T. B. Motz, of this place, we claim is the champion.

STATE COLLEGE.

Among those who took advantage of the first day of the season to try their luck at fishing, were Robt. M. Foster, Dr. Christ, Rev. Guyer, H. Y. Sowers and W. L. Foster. Some large ones are reported to have been caught.

Rev. Hingsworth was about town, on Tuesday, distributing his new history of Pennsvalley, which contains some interesting matter pertaining to local history and business matters.

Thos. Kennedy laid out Wm. L. Foster's new building, which will be erected immediately and will be a great improvement to this corner so long vacant.

Miss Maud Guyer is visiting at Everett, Pa.

Mrs. John W. Stuart is visiting friends at Wilkesbarre.

Hamill Ho'mes commenced his new residence on Monday.

Insurance Agent Grant Hoover, of Bellefonte, was about town on Friday.

The P. S. C. Athletic Relay team to the Philadelphia meet, are: McKibben, C. M. Thompson, Price, Kaiser; subs, Pollock, Espenshade.

The foundation for the Jas. H. Holmes building has been commenced.

Robert M. Foster's new board walk is a dandy—long, and what more to the point—wide. Now, adjoining property owners will please fill up the breach on this side of the street.

Philadelphia Branch.

TEMPLE COURT.

Philadelphia Branch.

SPRING GREETINGS:

The season of 1896 opens with the promise of improvement in all lines of business, as it is believed that the darkest hours of the financial depression have passed. Having confidence in a more prosperous future, the Philadelphia Branch has launched forth upon an enlarged and improved scale. We made our debut on Saturday, April 4th, and now have the finest Clothing Emporium in Central Pennsylvania.

Our New Stock.

Six months ago a sacrifice sale was inaugurated in our old room and goods were sold at any price, and almost the entire stock was cleared away.

For our Spring Opening an entirely new stock was purchased. It was carefully selected in the eastern markets, and contains all the latest, nobiest and taking patterns in cloth for Spring and Summer wear. Never in the history of the clothing trade could clothes be purchased as low as at present. Woolen fabrics are almost one-half their former prices. Then having bought a large quantity, special discounts made the cost less than ever. This is why we want you to come in and see the Boys Suits.

We have something special in that line. Goods that will not fade; goods that will not wear; goods that will wear.

They are made in new patterns, tasty, stylish and sure to fit. Your boy wants a nice summer suit; we can furnish it.

Gents Furnishing Goods.

We now have the finest line of Gents Furnishing Goods in Central Pennsylvania. The latest and popular styles in collars, cuffs, neckwear in endless variety—we have 'em—if you don't believe it call and see for yourself.

The latest Spring block in Hats, just in. Almost forgot to mention our fine line of shoes. Anything from a neat patent leather to a heavy working shoe.

Our Stock is Complete. Our Styles Will Please

SPRING STYLES.

SAMUEL LEWIN, Manager, PHILADELPHIA BRANCH.

Philadelphia Branch.

TEMPLE COURT.

Philadelphia Branch.

Table of Treasurer's Sale of Un-secured Lands, listing names, acreage, and cents per acre. Includes sections for Warrantee Names, Hairs Twp., and various individual entries.