

FROM ABOUT THE COUNTY

Interesting Paragraphs From Many Localities.

PERSONAL AND SPECIAL CHAT

The News Collected by the "Centre Democrat's" Alert Corps of Correspondents—Timely Topics Discussed—Breezy Communications—News, Fun and Fancy—Is Your Community Represented—If Not, Why Not.

SPRING MILLS.

Peter Phillips has given W. R. From's house, near the station, a coat of paint which makes it look like a new house.

C. P. Long has been out for the last week looking up his republican friends. It looks very much as though C. P. would make the nomination for treasurer.

James McCool went to Bellefonte on Saturday, attending to some legal business.

It looks, at the present time, that Jacob L. Runkle has a strong following for sheriff. He has been a life-long democrat and a hard worker in the party. This is the first time that he asked anything of the party.

The conduct of a young boy, in riding his father's horses to water, is a shame. We have a law for cruelty to animals. Father, you had better look this up and have it stopped.

Mrs. C. A. Moyer has her large new stock of ladies and childrens' hats on hand, at low prices. Call and see her stock.

Mr. David Burrell, of Centre Hall, spent a few days in our town. Mr. B. said he liked this place better.

Mrs. Edward Ruhl, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday here with her many friends.

Pappa Auman has been housed up for the last week.

Frank Lontz, the obliging clerk in the R. R. station, is always ready to lend a helping hand. Such a man is appreciated by the community.

J. B. Mays, of Houserville, was here recently, looking up the tombstone business which he reports good. Boy.

PENN HALL.

Excellent growing weather we are having.

Most of our farmers have sowed their oats and are commencing to plant corn.

Fisher Bros. have returned from Eastern cities with an immense stock of all the latest styles and fashions of spring and summer goods.

James Crader shipped three carloads of paper wood last week.

D. W. Zeigler, representing the Terri-Perf Washer, received a new supply of machines last week.

Rev. C. J. Dubs, pastor of the United Evangelical church, delivered a very able and instructive sermon to a large and attentive audience in the Green Grove church on Sunday afternoon.

Sunday school was also reorganized; the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Supt. E. C. Housman; asst. Supt. H. Mark; Secty., W. B. Fiedler; treas., W. W. Weaver.

Mrs. Catherine Houtz, a highly respected old lady, of Farmers Mills, her age numbering 83 years, is at present visiting friends in our section.

Messrs John Everet and Loyd Smith have commenced operations on their lumber job, north of town, which they recently bought of the Bartges estate.

Frederick Meyer has greatly improved his residence by building a new fence around his yard.

Miss. Eva Carter, of Coburn, spent Sunday in our section.

Candidates and bicyclists are trump on our streets nowadays.

AARONSBURG HAPPENINGS.

Mrs. Rev. Stamback is visiting her daughter, in Madisonburg.

Dr. J. D. Hubler and wife, of Tylersville, were the welcome guests of Mrs. George Charles, one day last week.

Mr. Abe Confer has been confined to his bed for the last few days.

We noticed Mr. Lynhurst, of Milroy, on our streets a few days last week.

Coburn Rogers, of Bellefonte, is tarrying a few days' at the residence of J. P. Coburn's.

Miss Mary Glasgow, of near Tusseyville, is boarding at Joseph Cormans' and walks to Millheim every morning to Miss Lizzie Keen's shop where she is learning the trade.

Jesse Wert and wife Sundayed at Rebersburg, with the latters aged mother.

Miss Mary Stahl who had been staying with Mrs. E. J. Deshler the greater part of the winter, has returned to her home in Milton. She made hosts of friends while in our midst.

Jacob Dunkle, H. A. Aucker, T. G. W. Edmunds and C. T. Weaver, are in Bellefonte attending court as jurors' of this week.

Clement E. Edmunds, of Mazeppa, Pa., is visiting his parents and friends. He has been teaching school in Rural Retreat, Va., for the past eight months.

MILESBURG ITEMS.

GYPSY CAMP: The greatest attraction in Milesburg, for the last two weeks, has been gypsies. They had a camp on the island in Central City. The band serenaded them on Tuesday evening, and the crowd that accompanied the band was estimated at 250. On Sunday afternoon about 400 people visited them, most of these were from Bellefonte. This crowd of gypsies is reported to be wealthy and they conducted themselves very well during their stay.

Miss Bella Jones returned home, on Saturday, from Unionville, where she had been visiting her sister for several weeks.

IMPROVEMENTS: The brick layers are busy putting up the steeple of the Presbyterian church. Oscar Miles is having a bay window built in his dining room, also a porch built around his house; Mr. Joseph Baird has torn down the old tannery and used the lumber to build a stable; Mr. Robert Bierly has had a new coat of paint put on his dwelling house, near the depot; The house owned by Frank McCoy, of Bellefonte, and occupied by Wm. Fulton, has been repainted and presents quite a different appearance.

The Society of Willing Workers held a fair and sociable in their hall last Saturday evening and the receipts were over eighteen dollars. The ladies of the society sell articles at all times and also take orders for plain sewing. The money is to help to build the new Methodist church.

LINDEN HALL.

Miss Lizzie Gettig left for Altoona on Wednesday, where she expects to visit friends for a few weeks.

Charley From, township chairman, attended the meeting of county committee men in Bellefonte, on Saturday. Charley deserves credit for interest taken in the party.

James Kimport and Cyrus Darst made a business trip to Bellefonte, on Thursday.

Joseph Page and Jacob Lee made a trip to Tusseyville, on Saturday.

Frank Foreman, candidate for Recorder, was here looking up his interests on Monday.

Squire Potter made a business trip to Bellefonte, on Monday.

James Meyers, of Old Fort, spent a few hours with Philip Bradford, on Sunday.

James Corl, of Pleasant Gap, visited his parents, on Thursday.

George E. Parker, Phillipsburg's candidate for sheriff, called to see his many political friends on Tuesday.

Wm. Bohn, while loading lumber on Thursday, was unfortunate enough to break one of his legs.

James Ross, Jr., attended court last week as a juror.

OAK HALL NOTES.

Several candidates were in town last week, hunting up their friends.

Our town is growing slowly—a new implement shed being added last week.

Mrs. Jacob Herman, of Lemont, Misses Mary and Phoebe Miller, of Shingletown, were visiting friends here last week.

Mr. W. Bohn, who is employed by Meck & Nagle, at the wharf, met with an accident last week by having his leg broken near the ankle.

We had quite a runoff last week. Ask Ellis for particulars.

Misses Jennie and Lizzie From, of Walnut Grove, were visiting at the home of C. B. Peters, last Sabbath.

A young gent, from the Branch, was in town Saturday eve. What is the attraction.

Mr. Ed. Sellers made a business trip to Bellefonte last week.

The new attraction, erected in the diamond, was dedicated last Sunday. "Happy Joe" made the opening address.

Bicycle for Sale.

Century Columbia Bicycle at a bargain, the wheel is in fine condition; good as new. Newly enameled and new tires just put on. Inquire at this office. tf

COBURN ITEMS.

John Hartman and wife, of Millheim, was seen on our streets last Sunday.

P. H. Stover returned home from Milroy, on Saturday evening.

Edward Robinson and wife were the guests of James Musser, at Woodward, Saturday and Sunday.

Andrew Vonada expects to beautify his residence by painting his house.

Philip Meyer has a crew of men working at his new house and is under good headway.

Prof. Garthoff opened an eight weeks' term of school last Monday morning, with about thirty-five on the role.

A boy from Sugarvalley, 8 1/2 years old, was cutting one of our widow's last week.

Henry Phillips and wife, of Aaronsburg, made a visit to this place last Sunday.

William Meyer and wife spent Sunday at Spring Mills.

John Stonebraker carried over Sunday with his family.

Wanted—An Idea Who can think of some simple (and to patent) method for making them more useful? Write JOHN WEDDERBURN & CO. Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C. for their $1.00 price offer and list of two hundred inventions gratis.

Philadelphia Branch.

TEMPLE COURT.

Philadelphia Branch.

SPRING GREETINGS:

The season of 1896 opens with the promise of improvement in all lines of business, as it is believed that the darkest hours of the financial depression have passed. Having confidence in a more prosperous future, the Philadelphia Branch has launched forth upon an enlarged and improved scale. We made our debut on Saturday, April 4th, and now have the finest Clothing Emporium in Central Pennsylvania.

A FEW SPECIAL DRIVES....

SERGE SUITS

An extraordinary line of Fine Serge Suits, just the thing for comfort and ease during the warm Summer season. In Brown, Blue and Black—from $3.50 to $9.75.

WORSTED GOODS

We are proud of this beautiful assortment, never saw their equal, handsomely made, latest styles in black and blue. From $8.50 to 9.50. Our special clays at $9.50 are record breakers.

EYE OPENERS

That is what we have in the line of Boys suits. See them—all shades, wool, 4.50, $5 and 6.50. Childrens suits, a great variety from from $1.50 to $5.

REMEMBER—We can dress you out from head to foot, from hat to shoes; also throw in a trunk or valise.

BARGAINS OF THE SEASON

SPRING STYLES.

SAMUEL LEWIN, Manager, PHILADELPHIA BRANCH.

Philadelphia Branch.

TEMPLE COURT

Philadelphia Branch.

Table with columns: Warrantee Names, Acres, Per. Centa. Lists names and amounts for various individuals and groups.

NOTE: In accordance with the act of June 6, 1877, interest will be added to the amount of all taxes assessed against unseated lands above advertised. JOHN Q. MILES, County Treasurer.