

A SPLIT IN DELAWARE

Higgins Men Bolt the Republican State Convention.

ADDICKS' FRIENDS IN CONTROL.

As a Result Two Sets of Delegates Will Apply for Admission to the St. Louis Convention—The Addicks Delegates Go Unnoticed.

DOVER, Del., May 13.—The Republican state convention met here at noon yesterday, and before the adjournment late in the afternoon one of the stormiest battles in the history of state Republican politics had been waged.

Charges of fraud were exchanged and fighting over contested seats indulged in until it looked as if the convention would end in chaos. The war was between the factions respectively headed by J. Edward Addicks and ex-Senator Anthony Higgins. In the afternoon the Higgins men bolted the convention, and held a separate one in the state house, W. Hastings presiding. These national delegates were chosen: Anthony Higgins, John Pilling, Hiram Reed, Dr. Paris T. Carlisle, Cornelius P. Swain and George H. Hall. They were instructed for McKinley.

The regular convention selected J. Edward Addicks, D. F. Stewart, J. Frank Allee, Dr. Hiram R. Burton, Dr. Caleb H. Layton.

The fight between the factions was precipitated by a motion for the chair to appoint the committee on credentials. The Higgins people fought for the naming of the committee by the district caucuses, and a bitter wrangle followed. The motion for the chair to appoint finally carried by a vote of 97 to 52, scoring first blood for the Addicks men.

When recess time was reached nothing further than a temporary organization had been effected, with Dr. C. R. Layton, of Georgetown, as temporary chairman.

After the recess the turmoil was continued, and the break came when the committee on credentials reported in favor of unseating several Higgins delegates from Wilmington. The Higgins men protested in vain, and then left the convention.

The Addicks men applied the unit rule to nearly all questions, and carried everything before them.

The fight was precipitated after the major resolutions had been received. Mr. Morrow presented a minority report, which eulogized McKinley, condemned the "bold and open use of money as carried on by certain so-called Republicans during the last campaign," and criticized Governor Watson for voting for a United States senator one year ago.

The resolutions offered by the Addicks people were then adopted, giving future conventions 200 instead of 150 delegates. The additions were made to bring in the two lower counties, which Addicks controls. The object was to strengthen him in the future. The state committee was then announced and the delegates were named for St. Louis.

The report of the committee on credentials was then adopted, several anti-Addicks men being declared not elected. The platform adopted opposes the free and unlimited coinage of silver except after international agreement; declares that ships under the American flag in our coastwise service should be built in American shipyards; favors the construction of a strong and efficient navy; applauds the McKinley bill; favors just and liberal pensions for soldiers and sailors who fought for the preservation of the Union, and expresses sympathy with the Cuban patriots.

The platform proceeds: "We are in favor of our delegates who may be elected this day to represent this state in the national convention to be held in St. Louis to vote for such person as a nominee for president as they may deem for the best interests of the nation."

Invasion Must be Punished.
PHETORIA, May 12.—President Kruger has granted an interview to a press representative, in which he said that he was astonished at the official defense of Cecil Rhodes and of the Chartered South Africa company in Friday's debate in the house of commons.

He said he wished that he could have been there so as to be able to personally floor the arguments of some of the speakers. President Kruger continued by vigorously asserting that the intrigues alleged to exist between the Transvaal and Germany were merely soap bubbles. The South African republic, he said, desired to be friends with all, but the recent plot was indefensible, and those who engineered it must be punished. There would be no rest for South Africa, he concluded, until that was done.

LANGLEY'S FLYING MACHINE.

Professor Alexander Graham Bell Certifies to Successful Experiments.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The first public statement regarding the flying machine experiments conducted by Professor Samuel P. Langley, the secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, for some months past was made yesterday with the authority of Professor Langley. The well known scientist has been a believer in the eventual practical use of air vehicles for years, and for a long period he has been making experiments with a device of his own invention near Oceanquan, Va.

The following statement, prepared by Professor Alexander Graham Bell, the well known inventor, is published with the sanction of Professor Langley: "Last Wednesday, May 6, I witnessed a very remarkable experiment with Professor Langley's aerodrome on the Potomac river. Indeed, it seemed to me that the experiment was of such historical importance that it should be made public.

"The flying machine in question was of steel, driven by a steam engine. It resembled an enormous bird, soaring in the air with extreme regularity in large curves, sweeping steadily upward in a spiral path until it reached a height of about 100 feet in the air. At the end of a course of about half a mile, when the steam gave out, the propellers which had moved it stopped, and then the whole settled as slowly and gracefully as it is possible for any bird to do, touched the water without any damage, and was immediately picked out and ready to be tried again.

"A second trial was like the first, except that the machine went in a different direction, moving in one continuous, gentle ascent, as if swung around in circles like a great soaring bird. At one time it seemed to be in danger, as its course carried it over a neighboring wooded promontory, but apprehension was immediately allayed, as it passed twenty-five or fifty feet above the tops of the highest trees and ascending still further, its steam finally gave out again and it settled into the waters of the river. No one could have witnessed these experiments without being convinced that the practicability of mechanical flight had been demonstrated."

THE LION AND BEAR AT ODDS

Alleged Encroachment by Russia on the Rights of Great Britain.

LONDON, May 13.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says that the Russians, through an American agent named Smith, have taken possession of the disputed territory at Chefoo, over which the British claim rights. Six Russian warships are there, as well as the Detroit, Yorktown, Olympia and Machias, of the United States navy. The dispatch adds that intense excitement prevails at Chefoo.

A dispatch to The Globe from Shanghai says that the Russians have seized Lot 13 of the British concession at Chefoo, in defiance of all legal and treaty rights. The Globe's editorial comment on the dispatches from Shanghai says: "The seriousness of the news from Chefoo cannot be overestimated. The action taken is in direct contravention of existing laws and treaties and cannot be viewed by Great Britain as other than an unfriendly act."

The seriousness of the Chefoo affair is increased by the fact that the Russian Steam Navigation company secured a tract of fore-shore belonging to the English firm of Ferguson at Chefoo, and proposed to build a pier thereon. The firm objected to the Russian company having possession of the property, whereupon the Russian government intervened and compelled the Chinese authorities to accede to the full transfer of the property to the Russian company.

In an editorial regarding the reported seizure of Chefoo The Times says: "It is inconceivable that the land which China cedes to Russia at Chefoo forms part of the British concessions. Such an act would entail an immediate demand for reparation. In any case the government will see that Englishmen are not wronged with impunity."
