HOME NEWS PARAGRAPHED.

Interesting Events and Happenings from About the County—Doings of our People Briefly Told.

—Have you read Sechler & Co's., new advertisement, in this issue?
—Lester Shaffer's tandem Columbia is the envy of all the ladies.
—Change of schedule on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad goes into effect on next Monday.
—Our public schools are making preparations for their closing exercises, the latter part of this month.
—Tell your neighbor that he can get the CENTRE DEMOCRAT during the campaign for five cents a month.
—Tyrone, Pa., is to have a drinking fountain erected by the W. C. T. U. Good scheme, that town needs it.
—Mr. Wm. Harter, of Hartleton, Pa., a former resident of Haines township, is attending court this week, as a witness.
—On Sunday afternoon Rev. Miller, of the United Brethren church, baptised three persons by immersion at the car works dam.
—Prof. Geo. C. Watson succeeds Col. John A. Woodward as superintendent of the Chataqua course of home reading at State College.
—C. M. Parrish, the druggist, is attending U. S. District Court, at Pittsburg, this week. He was drawn as a juror, from this county.
—The High School boys defeated the Bellefonte Academy team, in a game of base ball, at Hunter's Park on Saturday, by a score of 11 to 10.
—In some sections of the county farmers have plowed down their wheat fields this spring, as they were practically killed by the severe frosts.
—Mr. Cyrus Brumgard, of Millheim, called on Monday to have his name put on our mail list. He reports every thing correct in that community.
—The Keystone Orchestra, of Bellefonte, is an organization that can furnish choice music for dances, parties or any public occasion. They are good.
—We are now prepared to fill orders for tickets for the coming Democratic Primary election, which takes place, May 6th, a little less than a month ahead.
—Harry Rine, better known as "Pat" has gone to Berwick, Pa., where he expects to play ball this season. Bellefonte will likely be without a team this year.
—Candidate Bowersox was in town on Tuesday, and was not in the best of health, due to an attack of lumbago. He was confined to his home for two weeks by sickness.
—The raising and moving of the Humes stone residence, on Allegheny street, is an interesting contract that attracts attention. It will require some careful calculation.
—Mr. Wm. R. From, formerly located at Spring Mills and in charge of Allison's flouring mill, is now employed in Jackson's mill at this place. He will move his family to Bellefonte later.
—A new iron truss bridge is being put across Spring Creek, on the switch leading to Morris's stone quarries, in Armor's Gap. It replaces an old wooden structure that was considered unsafe.
—Mr. Wm. Terry is back again, at his post as head miller for Jackson & Co., this place. Mr. Farrar, from Buffalo, did not like this climate and emigrated after a brief stay. He was a dandy.
—Farmers cannot find a market for their potatoes. Harrison Kline, candidate for treasurer, has about 500 bushels, and can't dispose of them. It would be a good plan for him to deal them out gratis, to catch votes.
—Wm. C. Heinle, Esq., has been selected by Gregg Post, of Bellefonte, to deliver the oration on Memorial Day. Mr. Heinle is an eloquent speaker and will give them a good address on this occasion.
—The remains of David Parry, of Punxsutawney, who died on Monday evening, were brought to Bellefonte and taken to the residence of Mrs. Showers over Harris' hardware store. The funeral was held at 3.30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.
—The Village Improvement committee is getting down to business again. The ladies did much last year to beautify the streets of our town, and in various ways improve the general appearance. When the ladies get in earnest, something is always sure to happen.
—Last Friday evening a disgraceful row occurred on Allegheny street in which profanity and slugging was carried on at a terrible rate. Frequent complaints are made that our policemen are too lenient with such disturbers of the peace. The officers in this town have little work to do and they should be active when their services are required. We hope Officers' Montgomery and Garis will realize that complaints are being made about this affair.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.
Thursday afternoon, 7th, verdict in favor of the defendants in the case of W. Fred Reynolds vs. Margaret C. Brockerhoff, Andrew J. Brockerhoff and Henry W. Brockerhoff.
Court adjourned on Thursday evening till Monday morning.
Monday morning court called at 9.30 a. m. with Hon. John G. Love, and Hon. C. A. Faulkner on the bench.
After hearing a few motions and petitions the first case taken up was George Rinstone vs. J. H. Reifsnyder, plea assumpsit. This suit was brought to recover balance of purchase money on a house and lot in Millheim borough. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff, for $248.90.
Hugh Glenn vs. Kate M. Brown administratrix et c. of G. M. Brown, plea, scire facias sur mortgage. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $120.66.

The Susquehanna Mutual Fire Insurance Co. vs. William Parker, plea scire facias sur judgment. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $88.75.
W. R. Jenkins and J. H. Lingle, trading as Jenkins & Lingle vs. Mary V. Hale and Ellen H. Andrews, executrices of the last will and testament of Dr. E. W. Hale, deceased, plea trespass. This is an action to recover damages from the defendants from the heirs of the late Dr. E. W. Hale, for the breach of a lease from Dr. Hale to plaintiff's grantors that they should have a certain amount of water from the mill-race of Dr. Hale to run the machinery in plaintiff's foundry and machine shops, which the plaintiffs contend they have not been getting since Dr. Hale repaired his mill some years ago. The case is on trial.

Too Bad.
There is a complaint again made regarding the pitching of horse shoes and card playing, every Sunday, at a place along Spring creek. Why don't the constable see to it and make arrests?—Magnet.

Suppose the above is absolutely correct, what can you do? What authority would a constable have to arrest anyone who seeks amusement in this manner and does not infringe on anybody else's rights? The constables out there evidently take a more sensible view of the matter than Bailey.

Supreme Court Decisions.
The following orders and judgments were filed on Monday in Philadelphia, by the supreme court:
Oswalt to use &c., vs. The Hartford Fire Insurance Co., C. P. Centre, January, 1896; judgment affirmed. Mulholland estate—Fisher, Guardian appeal O. C. Centre, decree affirmed and appeal dismissed at appellant's costs. Centre County Banking Co., vs. Gephart, C. P., Centre county; judgment affirmed.

CYCLISTS HAVE RIGHTS.

They Are Entitled to the Same Road Privileges as Teams.

Bicyclers have certain rights under the law, a fact that seems not to be fully realized by some people. Drivers of vehicles now and then assume that they have the only right to the public roads and with this assumption they make no effort to turn out for bicycles whom they chance to meet on the highways. This is altogether wrong. An act of assembly passed April 25th, 1889, is as follows:
"Bicycles, tricycles and all vehicles propelled by hand or foot and all persons by whom bicycles, tricycles and such other vehicles are used, ridden or propelled upon the public highways of this State, shall be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same restrictions, in the use thereof, as are prescribed by law in the cases of persons using carriages drawn by horses."
By this act it will be observed that the legislature of this state has recognized the proper rights of the users of bicycles and has by law afforded them protection. The driver of vehicle is entitled to half the road; a bicycle has the same privilege. "Keep to the right," is an established custom sanctioned by law, and bicycles and drivers of carriages and wagons are expected to observe it when passing on the public highway.

Trip to Snow Shoe.
On Saturday a number of our boys went to Snow Shoe on their wheels to take in the scenery and enjoy a good meal at Mr. Redding's hospitable inn. The trip up the mountain was uneventful save the breaking of bicycle chains by the strong riders. Upon their arrival at the city of Snow Shoe, which like a gem is perched on the summit of the mountain heights, a good rest was enjoyed. All struck for the bath tubs for a wash, so much enjoyed after a fatiguing ride. A fine trout dinner was served that pleased them all.

The party consisted of Jacob Gross, Joseph Lose, Homer Barnes, Temp Cruse, Harry Gerberich, Ben. Bradley, Charles Mensch, Geo. Williams, Harry Taylor, Harry Veager and Joseph Katz.

Not Serious.
Warner E. Barr, the young man, formerly of Bellefonte, who shot a boarding house mistress at Mansfield, Ohio, a short time ago, is still confined in the prison at that place. The young lady has about recovered from the wounds and left the state so that she would not be called to appear against her assailant. What the authorities will do towards the prosecution of young Barr is not known.

His friends at this place have taken up a subscription and will make an effort to have the young man released. He is said to be a physical wreck and in need of medical treatment.

Soldier's Reunion.
A reunion of the Grand Army posts of Central Pennsylvania will be held in Harrisburg September 24 and 25. On the second day of the reunion there will be a tablet dedicated opposite the city, the most northerly and easterly point where there was an engagement during the war. In it twenty were killed or wounded.

The route of parade will be over what was Camp Curtin during the war. There will be camp fires in the opera house, court house and hall of the house of representatives in the evening.

Boomers.
A farmer says: "Since the year 1836, at which time I began to notice the growth of vegetation, etc., I have never seen apple trees in bloom in the month of April till this year. Some apple trees were blooming as early as April 20th. They usually bloom about the 10th of May. The peach, plum, cherry and pear trees are earlier bloomers, and what is very remarkable the late peach is the first to bloom."

An Unexpected Death.
While working in the ore mines at Scotia Tuesday afternoon 5th, Henry Mosel was instantly killed by the caving in of a portion of the mine roof. The mine is operated by the Carnegie company. Mr. Mosel was sixty years of age and the father of William Mosel, of Adams avenue and Eighteenth street, Tyrone.

Blood Poison.
Abs. Confer, an old resident of Aaronsburg, is laid up from blood poisoning. Several weeks ago he sustained a slight injury upon his hand, which turns out seriously for him, as blood poisoning has set in. He is about seventy-five years of age. The origin of the sore, we are told, was the puncture of a blister on his hand.

An Old Citizen.
After an extended illness, Alexander McCafferty, aged 72 years, died at his residence on East Lamb street, Thursday 7th. The deceased was a stone mason by trade. For years he had made Bellefonte his home. Two daughters are left to mourn the death; they are Misses Bessie and Julia.

Conference.
The Northern Conference of Central Pennsylvania, of the Evangelical Lutheran church, will be held in Millheim, on May 16 to 21. The conference has a large number of ministers in its body.

WEAVER'S TABERNACLE.

Rev. Weaver, the evangelist, is in town again and preparing for another campaign against the evil doers.

A car containing seats and canvass for his tabernacle arrived last week, but as yet they have not definitely settled upon a location. There appears to be considerable objection to it being put up on the school house ground, as was at first intended. The families residing in that vicinity object to it on account of the attending noise and confusion. The school board seems to have changed somewhat in its views, and especially do they object to the erection of the structure while school is in session.
A location on East Linn street and one on Howard street are also contemplated as a second choice.
Rev. Weaver's meeting in the court house on Sunday was largely attended.
On Wednesday evening, at a special meeting of the Bellefonte School Board the privilege was granted to erect the Tabernacle on the school ground.
The building will be ready in a few days.
K. G. E.'s at Altoona.

This week Altoona is in the hands of the Knights of the Golden Eagle. It is the occasion of the annual meeting. There is a strong representation from castles all over the state. The session lasts until Thursday. The order, always active, has made a marked improvement during the past year. There are now 560 castles in Pennsylvania with a membership of 45,000, an increase of 1,387 during the fiscal year. The number of castles organized during that period is twenty-three, or four more than during the previous year. The amount of funds invested is $653,890.27, an increase of $46,000. The amount paid for relief has been over $130,000.

Bellefonte sent a large delegation on Tuesday. They had a drum corps and Junior K. G. E. battalion numbering fifty boys in full uniform. About thirty regular members accompanied them. It was a great day for Altoona and the Bellefonte boys won great applause in the parade.

Memorial Services.
The regular meeting night of the Union Veteran Legion will be held Thursday evening, May 14th, at the G. A. R. It will be a public memorial service to the dead comrades in general, and a special service to the memory of their late comrade, Captain Christain Daie, who has died within the year, to which all soldiers, their friends and citizens generally are cordially invited. Lieut. W. M. Irvin of Williamsport formerly of the 49 Pa. regiment, will deliver the oration. Services will commence at 8 o'clock.

Selected as Referee.
Our enthusiastic young wheelman Geo. T. Bush, of this place, has been requested to referee the Blair County Centennial bicycle races to be held at Hollidaysburg, on June, 12. Mr Bush is often called upon for the onerous duties of this nature on account of his standing in the League of American Wheelmen and a thorough knowledge of all matters pertaining to wheeling.

Do Not Fail To Read This.
The noted specialist, Dr. M. Salm, who has been so successful in the treatment of private diseases, of both sexes, and all kinds of chronic diseases, may be consulted in Bellefonte, at the Brockerhoff House, on Saturday, May 16th, and every four weeks thereafter, on the same day. Consultation and examination free.

Death of Mrs. VanTries.
Mrs. Dr. Thomas C. VanTries, of Blairsville, formerly of Bellefonte, died on Sunday evening. The deceased had been in poor health for several years. Heart trouble was the cause of death. The remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment which was made on Wednesday.

Lewistown Selected.
The Division Encampment of the National Guard of this State will be held at Lewistown, July 15 to 25. The time was fixed several weeks ago, and the place by Adjutant General Stewart.

No enlistments, excepting re-enlistments, will be made for thirty days previous to close of encampment.

Married.
The marriage of Gilbert A. Beaver and Miss Annie Simonton took place in Harrisburg, on Tuesday, May 12th, at half past twelve, the bride is the only daughter of Judge Simonton, of that place. Hugh, Gilbert's brother, who is also engaged in the Y. M. C. A. work, will start on the same day for California.

Adam Hile Dead.
Adam Hile, of Pleasant Gap, died of paralysis at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon after an illness dating back more than a year. The funeral was held at 2.30 o'clock Monday afternoon. Interment was made at Pleasant Gap.

A Large Building.
The new school building that Millheim voted to erect, will be started at once. It will be 60x40 feet, and 50 feet high. R. D. Bierly, of Rebersburg, has secured the contract for its construction.

Everybody goes to the Philadelphia Branch.
