SPRING MILLS NEWS.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT:—While John Durst and brother were hauling hay to this place, the younger brother forgot to draw the break coming down the hill, by John Strunks. The horses began to trot; in trying to keep the horses under control the young man got entangled in the lines and fell off the wagon. It was loaded with seventy hundred weight of hay and it passed over him. He received a bad scalp wound and his arm was crushed. He was carried in Mr. Strunk's house. Dr. Vanvalzah was summoned to dress the wounds. At this writing, Mr. Durst is in a critical condition. It may be necessary to amputate the arm.

Some scoundrels attempted to break in her house, but David Sowers heard the cry and came to her assistance with his shot gun. He emptied the contents of two buckshot shells, at the rascals. He thinks some took effect. What a pity he did not drop them on the spot. Mr. Zones is away North working in a lumber camp. It is supposed the party knew that there was no man about and it would be an easy matter to ransack the house.

KILLING FISH:—Fish laws have been passed that there is only certain times when a person can fish, but saw dust can be dumped in the stream the whole year around. We have two saw mills now, at and near the head waters of Penns Creek. The saw dust is dumped into the creek. The stream is swimming full of dead fish. The cause is that the saw dust kills them. Why is this? We have law to prevent fishing in certain seasons, but no law to prevent the dust from being dumped in.

The mountain fires seem to be flourishing now everywhere. Could some of those guilty parties be brought to justice, and given the full extent of the law, it might put a stop to it.
