

FROM ABOUT THE COUNTY

Interesting Paragraphs From Many Localities.

PERSONAL AND SPECIAL CHAT

The News Collected by the "Centre Democrat's" Alert Corps of Correspondents—Timely Topics Discussed—Breezy Communications—News, Fun and Fancy—Is Your Community Represented—If Not, Why Not.

MILESBERG ITEMS.

All the Happenings And Important Events Carefully Compiled.

MEMORIAL SERMONS:—Last Sunday morning Rev. U. O. Wright preached a memorial sermon to the G. A. R. Post, No. 261 of this place. The services were held in the Presbyterian church, and as the other churches dismissed their services in order to attend, the church would not hold near all the people. In the evening a great many of the Post went to Unionville, to hear the sermon preached by Rev. Grant, of the A. M. E. church of Bellefonte. This was also a memorial sermon, to the Post of Unionville.

FESTIVALS:—The Junior Christian Endeavor Society will also sell ice cream and cake on the lawn in front of the Presbyterian church, on Saturday evening.

On the evening of Saturday, June 6, the Willing Workers will hold a festival, on the lawn, at the home of Mrs. N. B. Miles. This society will hold a sociable of some kind every two weeks during the summer.

COMPLETED:—The tower, on the Presbyterian church, has been completed and the bell put in place, but could not be rung last Sunday on account of the rope not being properly adjusted.

Mr. S. H. Orris wears a very pleasant smile, and the reason of it is that he claims the title of "Grandpa." He received word last week that a little daughter had arrived at the home of his son, in Bellwood.

FUNERAL SERVICES:—The funeral services of Mr. Edward Isenberg were conducted by Rev. Rue, of Bellefonte, last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Isenberg was a consistent member of the Methodist church for over twenty years, and always attended Sunday school and all services regularly. Mr. L. T. Eddy, superintendent of the Sunday school, paid a beautiful tribute to him on Sunday morning. The deceased was 70 years old. His wife is still living.

Rev. Geo. King and family are visiting in Williamsport and other places. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

DECORATION DAY:—The Decoration services will be participated in this year by all the Sabbath schools and different orders of the town. A. A. Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte, will deliver the address. The Milesburg band will furnish the instrumental music, and the vocal music will be conducted by L. T. Eddy.

H. H. Meyers, of Bellwood, spent Sunday with his parents in Central City.

ACCIDENT:—On Sunday evening another bicycle accident occurred in Milesburg. A crowd of people from Bellefonte, were riding down the hill in front of M. E. church, and several were riding up. All tried to pass a buggy at the same time and the consequence was one young lady ran into the buggy and wrecked her wheel, but fortunately escaped injury to herself.

Mr. Latimer Bradley and mother, of Logan are visiting friends here this week.

Mr. L. T. Eddy and his choir conducted the service of song at the Centre County Sunday School Convention in Bellefonte last week. Thanks are due the chairman of the Convention for courtesies extended.

Prof. Gramley held the examination for the teachers of Milesburg borough and Boggs Township, in Central City school house last Tuesday.

NITTANY NUGGETS.

An Interesting Budget of News Items and Recent Events.

The constant cry is rain! rain! Crops are suffering for rain.

EXCURSIONS WANTED:—The people of Nittany Valley are eager that the Central Railroad of Pa. run a cheap excursion to Bellefonte, for the people to hear and see Evangelist Weaver. There would be no trouble to secure a train load this coming Sabbath.

Our people are preparing for Decoration; some go to Lamar, where the K. G. B. expect to aid the G. A. R. to perform the rites. Others expect to attend at Howard, and look forward to the date to hear Judge Love orate. He is full of enthusiasm, and as an orator for this occasion has few superiors. Three years ago he delivered the best oration ever delivered in Howard, on a similar occasion.

Col. J. L. Spangler spent Saturday eve in our township, looking up the congressional plum. His reputation and abilities are well known, and if placed at the head of our ticket will be a standard bearer, leading on to victory.

Our home candidate for Sheriff, Joseph Emerick, should not be forgotten in the make up of the democratic ticket. We take pleasure in asserting that Joe is eminently qualified to fill the office, and further, is a genial citizen and neighbor.

QUICK PROUD:—J. M. Zimmerman, formerly of Centre county, now of Johnstown, wears high heeled shoes, Prince Albert coat and a Hastings hat. His wife has presented him with a 14 pound daughter. Their only child was a 16 year old son.

INCREASING:—S. D. Gettig, Esq., is gaining quite a legal business both in Centre and Clinton counties. He stopped over Sunday at this place.

The Gypsies broke camp here last Sunday, so they could beat the turnpike company out of the toll from here to Mill Hall.

Nelson Robb has started on the road, as a salesman for a grocery firm. They were certainly fortunate in securing the services of this competent person named.

L. E. Swartz and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shaffer and family.

Thomas Shutt and wife, of Milesburg, visited Mrs. Tate over Sunday. Tom is a stalwart democrat.

Judging by the number of persons that come from across the mountains to take the train at Nittany, the C. R. R. is doing its best to maintain its reputation as being obliging to the public.

The supervisor of our township has been using the stone crusher and improving the road, where needed. Every township should have this piece of machinery and then we would have better roads.

SPRING MILLS EVENTS.

OUR BAND:—The cornet band, organized some time ago, appeared on our streets and went to all business places where they rendered some of their choice music. The boys are doing well, and soon will have the lead in the county. W. C. Meyer and Frank Ream, both old players, were added to the band.

T. B. Jamison, the insurance agent, is away on a few week's trip, in the eastern counties.

W. R. From, who has accepted a situation in Jackson's mills, in Bellefonte, has not gone to stay. He gets home every Saturday.

J. C. Harper, candidate for Recorder, was shaking hands with his many Democratic friends here last week. He is a hustler and knows what he is doing.

Miss Pearl Riter, of Centre Hall, is here visiting Miss May Smith.

Hiram Durst, from near Farmers Mills, says the late rain was very acceptable, but grass will be short.

Rev. Fans preached a memorial sermon for the G. A. R., at the Sprucecreek church. Quite a number of the Grand Army men of this place were up to hear him.

Rev. Rearick held communion services at the Cross church, in Georges Valley. He preached a very able sermon to a large congregation.

FESTIVAL:—The band will hold a festival in the Grange hall, on the evening of Decoration day, May 30th. The proceeds are for the benefit of the band. All should turn out and give them a lift.

Quite a number of our people took advantage of the circus, to attend to business in Bellefonte.

Papa Crawford, who has been ill for some time, is able to be about again.

Dr. VanValzah made a trip to Harrisburg, to attend the Medical Association.

SICK LIST:—Mrs. Jacob McCool is on the sick list. May we hear of her speedy recovery.

SERIOUS ILLNESS:—David Somers, while in his room preparing his studies for school, was found seated in his chair stiff and unconscious. At this writing he is worse.

Michael Shires wears a big broad smile since a big baby boy arrived at his house. Mrs. and boy are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Wasson, of Hublersburg, are visiting J. O. McCormick.

Mrs. Harry Allison is on the sick list. She is in a critical condition. BOV.

AARONSBURG NOTES.

A. S. Musser, of Philadelphia Dental College, has returned home so spend his vacation.

Mrs. W. B. Mingle and daughter, of Centre Hall, were visiting friends in town last week.

Quite a number of our old soldiers were to Rebersburg, on Sunday morning, to the Memorial services held in the Lutheran church, of that place.

Miss Jennie Rupp has gone to State College, to spend a few months with her brother John.

The citizens band was to Woodward on Saturday, to play for P. O. S. of A. festival.

Mrs. Geo. Brights' health is falling fast, as she is high in seventy, there is little hope of her recovery.

Miss Tammie Stover has returned from her trip to State College. She reports of having had a very pleasant time while she was gone.

Adam Maize has moved in the house, formerly occupied by Mrs. K. E. Swabb. Mrs. Simon Rote has gone to Laurelton to visit her brother, as she is some eighty years old. It was quite an undertaking to go alone, but she is very hearty considering her age.

E. G. Mingle and family spent Saturday very pleasantly, at Rebersburg. Miss Minnie Conner and friend, O. Loganton, were the guests of Geof Brights.

Philadelphia Branch.

TEMPLE COURT.

Philadelphia Branch.

SPRING GREETINGS:

The season of 1896 opens with the promise of improvement in all lines of business, as it is believed that the darkest hours of the financial depression have passed. Having confidence in a more prosperous future, the Philadelphia Branch has launched forth upon an enlarged and improved scale. We made our debut on Saturday, April 4th, and now have the finest Clothing Emporium in Central Pennsylvania.

TEMPLE COURT CLOTHING EMPORIUM.

...A FEW SPECIAL DRIVES...

Unexpected.

It's the unexpected that's always happening. Accidentally our New York buyer stumbled upon one of the greatest clothing bargains of the decade—a large manufacturer had to have ready money and all that sort of thing. We intend to give our patrons a portion of the benefit of our good fortune by marking these down to the following prices.

SERGE SUITS

An extraordinary line of Fine Serge Suits, just the thing for comfort and ease during the warm Summer season. In Brown, Blue and Black—from $8.50 to $9.75.

WORSTED GOODS

We are proud of this beautiful assortment, never saw their equal, handsomely made, latest styles in black and blue. From $8.50 to 9.50. Our special clays at $9.50 are record breakers.

EYE OPENERS

That is what we have in the line of Boys suits. See them—all shades, wool, 4.50, $5 and 6.50. Childrens suits, a great variety from $1.50 to $5.

REMEMBER—We can dress you out from head to foot, from hat to shoes; also throw in a trunk or valise.

BARGAINS OF THE SEASON

SPRING STYLES.

SAMUEL LEWIN, Manager, PHILADELPHIA BRANCH.

Philadelphia Branch.

TEMPLE COURT

Philadelphia Branch.

Table with columns for 'Treasurer's Sale of Unseated Lands', 'Warrantee Names', 'Acres. Per.', and 'Cents.' containing numerous entries of land parcels and their owners.

NOTE: In accordance with the act of June 6, 1857, interest will be added to the amount of all taxes assessed against unseated lands above advertised. JOHN Q. MILLEN, 4141st County Treasurer.