DEMOCRACY

IN SESSION.

Result of the Primaries and County Convention.

THE CANDIDATES NOMINATED

A Very Large Gathering to Attend the Convention on Tuesday-The Resolutions Adopted Endorse Sound Money and the Democratic Administration-Result of the Various Ballots-Other Proceedings-List of Delegates and Their Instructions

The democratic primaries, throughout Centre county, were very largely attended on Saturday. The contest was for some of the most important offices in the county, and a large number of active candidates were in the field who were eagerly striving for the much coveted prizes. On Saturday evening, from returns received, it was quite evident that Col. Spangler had carried every district in the county. An opposition in this town raised the name of David Krebs, of Clearfield. It became active by posting circulars for Krebs and an apparent use of boodle to boom their man against Spangler. In the South, and particularly the West wards, of Bellefonte, active work was done for Krebs, but fell short.

The nominations of R. M. Foster and James Schofield, for assembly, was evident early and also that of J. C. Harper for Recorder. For Treasurer Calvin Weaver had a strong lead, and P. H. Meyer, for County Commissioner, seemed a certainty. The result on Sheriff was a great muddle and uncertainty. The County Commissioner, for this side of the county, also was a bone of contention.

That was the situation until the hour of the convention and no one could foretell the result. On Monday a large number of delegates began to assemble from over the county. The Philipsburg contingent came in on Monday evening and made their headquarters at the Garman House. The various candidates naturally were solicitous, especially for these uninstructed delegates, and they were the object of much attention. Political caucuses were held and merits of candidates discussed, but the enigma remained unsolved.

On Tuesday morning people came flocking into town, in great numbers. The unterrified came, but there was also a large number of republicans who came to see the democratic wire pullers at work. An unusually large delegation came from Pennsvalley. By 9 a. m. the scene about the Court House, was one of rare animation and excitement. Little men and big men, candidates and their friends, would-be politicians and heelers, boodlers and tricksters, all shades of humanity, the prominent citizen and rogue, all were mingling, surging about, hustling, conferring and conversing to secure votes for this candidate or that. Some candidates wore desperate countenances, others were confident, many were indifferent and without hope and little to say. Such a scene is interesting. It was at this time that the wire pullers were and as the hands of the clock drew made unanimous. nearer to 12 noon, the excitement increased.

THE CONVENTION.

Court House, filling the stairway and hall. Upon the opening of the doors the room was soon filled by a surging mass of humanity, and at 12:30 it was packed and jammed to its utmost capacity, when county chairman N. B. Spangler mounted the rostrum and called for order.

The first thing done was effecting an organization. For permanent chairman W. B. Mingle and Henry Brockerhoff were nominated, but the latter withdrew. The tollowing were then selected: F. E. Naginey, of Bellefonte, reading clerk: George R. Meek, Walter Gerrity both of Bellefonte, and A. P. Hurd, of Philipsburg, were selected, after a number of declinations, as secretaries; Harry J. Jackson, of Bellefonte, and J. A. Walton, of Philipsburg, as tellers. Mr. Naginey then read the list of delegates, 79 in all, with every district represented. The following committees were then appointed: Resolutions-Henry Meyer, Rebersburg; J. F. Smith, South Potter; F. Wie-land, Harris; M. Dempsy, Rush; and John Kelly of Snow Shoe Credentials-A. A. Pletcher, of Walker; Cal. Smith, Unionville; N. J. McCloskey, Curtin; J. W. Kepler, Ferguson and Dominick Judge, of Spring township.

Following the adopted order of business, nominations for congress were in order. Col. Spangler's name was the only one presented and was made unanimous. He was called before the convention and made a ringing speech that to find, only observe the fact, frequently brought forth applause. The congress commented upon on all sides. sional conferees were then appointed by The disappointed candidates held an sional conferees were then appointed by The disappointed candidates held an Miles, East p.—Del: H. FOR LEGISLATURE.

The names of R. M. Foster, of State College; James Schofield, of Bellefonte; and A. C. Thompson, of Halfmoon, were placed before the convention- Mr. Thompson arose and made a neat speech gracefully declining and promising his heartiest support of the ticket nominated. This expression was received with favor.

The nomination of the other two gentlemen was made by acclamation.

there was a stir and commotion—the uncertainty was to be solved. In the following table we give the names of the candidates and the result of the ten long and tedious ballots necessary to end the Burdine Butler withdrew on 3rd ballot. The others dropped out in order as their names appear, reading to the top. The greatest interest was shown throughout as these ballots progressed, and when the nomination of Mr. Cronister was made on tenth ballot, his friends naturally gave vent to their feelings by lusty cheers and applause.

COUNTY TREASURER.

The following names were put forth and one ballot decided it, viz:

Calvin A. Weaver, Aaronsburg

Mr. Lucas, of Snow Shoe, withdrew before the voting began. Before the result was announced Mr. Kurtz arose and pledged his hearty support for the ticket nominated. He also asked that the vote instructed. cast for him by the delegate from Centre Hall be not counted for him. He declined it for reasons tersely stated. This caused quite a commotion, in which there were cries for "sit down," also loud applause, the chairman pounded his gavel vigorously. This was an unpleasant episode, and without a doubt could have been avoided had good judgment previously prevailed. The writer is in a peculiar Frain. position and will leave each to pass upon it as the facts of the case appear.

The result of the first ballot made Mr. Weaver the nominee.

G. W. Rumberger, for register, was unanimourly re-nominated.

FOR RECORDER. But one ballot was necessary. It resulted as follows:

For coroner Dr. W. U. Irvin, of Huston twp.; for surveyor Henry Wetzel, of Bellefonte, were unanimously nominated.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

There was some animation for this position. Two nominations were made and a ballot was necessary:

Before the close of the convention the of the Democracy, it was moved that a committee of three be appointed to arrange some appropriate and proper celebration. The committee has not yet been appointed. Convention adjourned at 4 p. m.

CONVENTION NOTES.

This was decidedly one of the largest conventions ever held by the party. Mr. Naginey, the roll clerk, was exceedingly thankful for adjournment. He had a very tedious position to fill, There was a disposition for certain persons to make themselves unduly conspicuous in the deliberations. No fault

Did you see anybody get hot? Well, When the chairman announced that nominations for sheriff were next in order, then seeing that he had stumbled on a there was a stir and commotion—the untrifle, soon cooled off.

OF ROBBERS.

The Post Office at Snow Shoe Robbed.

About $100 in Stamps Stolen-Safe was Drilled and Blown Open With Dynamite-Railroad Station at Milesburg Entered-Post Office at Walker robbed.

It appears that a gang of robbers have infested this county. On Saturday night the safe in the Post office at Snow Shoe, was drilled and the door blown off by use of dynamite. Wet blankets were used to kill the sound of the explosion, yet it was heard by some of the neighbors near there, about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Postage stamps, worth about $100, were taken and a large quantity of postal cards and stamped envelopes were

The next morning some one saw the door standing open and upon examination found that a robbery had been committed. Postmaster John A. Kelly and constable Alfred Lucas were soon at hand. They found the prints of a crutch and one foot plainly in the mud outside which lead into the store. The foot marks of others were plain. When they recalled that a man on crutches had been in the store the previous evening and a companion at the blacksmith shop, were suspected as the guilty parties. Searching parties were started in all directions. The one party caught the cripple and three companions at Snow Shoe Intersection, where they evidently had been waiting for a freight train to escape. They were promptly arrested, and at 5 p. m. brought to Bellefonte and locked in jail. They gave their names as Charles Gray, William Myers and William May of Philadelphia, and How-

Mr. Poulson, of the Howard handle factory, we are informed, is about to remove his business to Centre Hall, and occupy the new building put up by Mr. Colyer, near the station, thus adding a new industry to that town, which we trust will be a success. This is a good enterprises in many respects.

Constables and Compensation.

Judge Gordon, of Clearfield county, has decided that constables are not entitled to compensation for making returns more than one person.

THE GREAT AMERICAN BEVERAGE.

There has been in session at Philadelphia the last few days the Brewers' Association of the United States, and it will astonish people generally to know it claims to be the largest and wealthiest trade organization of the country. The claim is not an idle one, as it represents FOUR TRAMPS ARE ARRESTED 1,771 breweries, having the enormous capital of over $250,000,000. In 1876, twenty years ago, the total beer product of the country was 8,500,000 barrels, and the revenue paid the federal government with war taxes prevailing, was $9,5000,-000. In 1896 the product will be 36,000,ooo barrels, and the taxes paid the government $32,000,000, exclusive of the large amount paid the state and local governments. The amount collected last year from spirits was $80,000,000, and from tobacco $30,000,000. So it will be seen how large a share the luxuries of people pay to the support of the government. From the three items of spirits, malt liquors and tobacco $142,000,000 was raised, with probably fully as much more for state and local purposes.

Nothing was as notable in the proceedings of the brewers' association as the address of President Ebeers, in which he made the statement that as a result of mechanical improvements and scientific reasearch the trade had fully succeeded in making a drink quite as refreshing as the beers of old and less intoxicating and that in point of fact "the percentage of alcohol in American beers is growing less from year to year." Such a statement from such an authoritative source is highly significant, not only as showing the drift of the trade, but the trend of American taste; and it presents a moral as well as a social side not to be overlooked. In the last twenty years, while the population of the country has doubled the consumption of beer has quadrupled and now amounts to nearly 16 gallons per capita. For 1876 it was less than seven gallous .- Post.
