—July 30th, the Logan Fire Company will hold their annual picnic at Hecla Park. They will have an elegant programme, including a balloon ascension and parachute leap from the clouds.

—N. B. Spangler, Esq., had been on the sick list the past week. He was suffering from a slight disorder of the "bread basket." Under careful nursing he is now about again and eager to give free silver a big boom in this county.

—James A. Israel, on the editorial staff of the Pittsburg Dispatch, arrived in town on Thursday last to interview Gov. Hastings upon the political outlook of the present campaign. Sunday's issue of that paper contained a full page with a number of excellent illustrations. Mr. Israel is a prominent newspaper man who has gained quite a reputation.

—Nagney, the curly combative furniture dealer, takes great delight in expounding the money question for the benefit of his numerous friends. It is not an uncommon thing to see the sidewalk in front of his store blockaded every evening by crowds of eager listeners. Frank should take the stump this fall. He could do effective work for the cause of free silver.

—Prisoners Escape. Three Huntingdon reformatory prisoners named John Walton, of Altoona; Frank Roach, of Philadelphia, and a Washington county lad, who were working outside the walls under the care of Keeper Charles Knepps, late Saturday afternoon, overpowered their guard, and after gagging him and binding his hands and feet, carried him to the pumping station, where they attempted to throw him down a thirty foot well. Changing their minds, however, they left him in the engine house. After taking Guard Knepps's coat and revolver they fled to the Juniata river, where they secured portage by compelling another guard named Sears, at the point of a revolver, to row them across the stream. For this service they relieved Guard Sears of his wearing apparel. They have thus far eluded arrest.

—New Bicycle Factory. A corporation was organized at Phillipsburg last week, under the name of the Welivar Manufacturing company, with a capital stock of $30,000, all of which has been subscribed. Geo. W. Zeigler, Esq., attorney for the company, was instructed to take the necessary measures to procure a charter. A meeting for the election of permanent officers will be held on Friday. Work on the new factory will be commenced at once. The company will give special attention to the manufacture of woodworking machinery used in the making of bicycles, of which the Welivar Brothers, stockholders, are the inventors.—Phillipsburg Journal.

—The Army Worm. The Patriot Says: State Zoologist Warren started for Centre county Friday with a cartload of chemicals to make war on the army worm. These destructive little pests have made their appearance in various parts of the country and are causing great damage to the crops. The latest point of attack is the farm at the Pennsylvania state college. Dr. Warren says vigorous measures are necessary to exterminate the pest.

—Died at Mill Hall. Mrs. Charles Weiss died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. H. W. Garth, Mill Hall, Monday afternoon of diabetes. Mrs. Weiss was formerly Miss Emma McKean, Lock Haven. She was married six years ago. She is survived by her husband and daughter.

—Festival. On Saturday evening, August 1st, the members of the Weaver M. E. church, at the Oak Grove school house, east of Bellefonte, will hold a festival at which the delicacies of the season will be served. A fine gold watch will be awarded to some fortunate person, holding the proper ticket.

Speer—Hunter.

The following is from the Pittsburg Daily News. It notes the wedding of a former Bellefonte boy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Speer, of West High street:

The marriage of Miss Anna Hunter, daughter of John F. Hunter, superintendent of highways of this city, to Wm. P. Speer, was quietly solemnized at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, Center avenue. The bride and groom left last night on an eastern wedding trip. They will stop for a time at Chautauqua and Niagara Falls, and on their return will reside for a time at the bride's home.

Court Postponed.

A majority of the members of the Centre county bar presented a petition to Hon. John G. Love asking that the regular second week of August court be postponed, and the civil cases on the list be continued to November term. The petition was granted.

All jurors summoned for the second week will receive notice that their attendance will not be required.

The first week of quarter sessions will be held as usual.

It Was a Large Barn.

The barn on the George J. Eldred estate, which was destroyed by fire at Mackeyville 15th Wednesday morning, was 100 by 45 feet, and a straw shed attached was 40 by 45 feet. The loss on building is $2,000, which loss is partially covered by $1,200 insurance. Mr. Rishel, the tenant farmer, lost his farming implements and this year's hay crop. He had no insurance.

Postponed.

The Reformed Sunday school and congregation of Bellefonte, have postponed their picnic from Thursday of this week to Wednesday July 29. Extra trains will leave Central R. R. station for Hecla Park at 9 a. m. Everybody is cordially invited and are requested to bring their friends with them and spend a pleasant day in the woods.

Will Drill Another Well.

The capitalists who have been prospecting for gas and oil near Pennfield, have decided to drill another well. Two wells were put down in that territory last fall without success, but the indications were such that it is believed a third well can be drilled in the right spot. Operations will be commenced in a few days.

You Might Try It.

A victim of hay fever claims that he has found a solution of olive oil and camphor very effective. Prepare it gently warming some olive oil and a small lump of camphor together for a long time, until thoroughly mixed. Apply it by oiling the inside of the lower part of the nostrils.

Died of Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frazer, living east of Linden Hall, died Wednesday afternoon 15th, after a long illness from inflammatory rheumatism. He was aged about fifteen years and two months, and was a very bright lad.

Found an Old Coin.

J. W. Rhine, while digging a post hole on the Sperring farm near Mill Hall last week, found a copper cent dated 1812, and Mr. Sperring found one dated 1839. The coins are both in a good state of preservation.

Silk Mill Chartered.

The Susquehanna Silk mills at Sunbury were chartered by the State Department Thursday. The capital is $150,000 and the directors are Heinrich Schiewind, Julius Schiewind, Elberfeld, Germany; Heinrich Schiewind, Jr., Sunbury.

Building a New Opera House.

Ridgway is to have a new opera house. The size will be 66x150 feet, and 50 feet high. The structure will be built of Ridgway's buff brick, solid walls, and trimmed with cut stone. It is to seat 1400 people.

A SAD DEATH.

A sad death was that of Walter O., the nineteen year old son of Mr. Mrs. William Derstine of North Penn street on Monday afternoon. The deceased had been ill but a little over a week.

A week previous he was compelled to take his bed with bilious fever. Walter was the oldest son of William and Mary Derstine and had a large host of friends and acquaintances in this city. He had for years been employed in different places of business and at the time he was taken ill he was working for Jared Harper.

Deceased was a member of the Bellefonte band and for some years played an instrument in the Reformed church choir. The funeral services over the remains were held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence on north Penn street. Rev. Gerhard, of the Reformed church, officiated.

Death of Miss Elizabeth Humes.

Miss Elizabeth Humes, daughter of the late William H. Humes and Cathrine Humes died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmore Wednesday morning at six o'clock.

Elizabeth Humes was born in Bellefonte March 24 1853 and was of a family of six, Mrs. Marie Roberts, Mrs. Elmira Hoover, Mrs. Carrie Gilmore, Mrs. Rachel Allison, Mr. Edward C. Humes, Jr., and Mrs. Irvin Humes, all of whom survive but Mrs. Elmira Hoover who died some years ago.

The funeral will be held from the Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made at the Union cemetery.

At Encampment.

On Friday morning Company B left for the Lewistown encampment. There was a full company and everything in first class shape. Gov. Hastings and Col. W. Fred Reynolds made the trip on their prancing steeds.

On Saturday night Robt. Pierson took a hack load of young men over. Many others drove by private conveyance while the bicyclers made good use of their wheels. Bellefonte is well represented there and all are getting along nicely. Camp will break on Friday and the boys will likely return home on Saturday.

Midway Plaisance.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evening of next week July 28 and 29, an entertainment will be given in the Armory, at this place, under the direction of the ladies of Bellefonte. It will consist of a Midway Plaisance, or "An evening with the Nations." This will be a novel and unique affair that will prove both interesting and instructive to all who may attend. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event.

An admission of ten cents will be charged. Doors will be open at about 7 p. m. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. fund.

The Phones Up.

The telephone line connecting Millheim and other towns down the valley with Madisonburg and Rebersburg, was completed a few days ago, and Brush Valley is now almost in communication with the world. The line was completed to Spring Mills, but the wire across the tracks was cut by the railroad company.

Pike Condensed.

The Bellefonte an Phillipsburg turnpike, between Bellefonte and Milesburg, has been condemned and hereafter will be free from tolls. The viewers appointed by court have assessed the damages at two thousand dollars which will be paid out of the county treasury. The part condemned is over two miles and is located in Spring and Boggs townships.

CHANGE OF NAME.

In the matter of the petition of Henry Mundryk for decree to change name from Henry Mundryk to Henry Haag.
