

BRYAN AND WATSON

The Populists' Choice for President and Vice President.

BRYAN'S DECLINATION IGNORED.

Chairman Allen Refused to Permit the Reading of a Telegram from the Presidential Candidate to Democratic Chairman Jones—Senator Butler Chairman of the Populist National Committee—Senators Butler and Allen Presided Over the Populist Convention.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, who was nominated by the Democratic national convention at Chicago a fortnight ago, was on Saturday made the standard bearer of the Populist party by a vote of 1,042 to 321. The Democratic candidate was nominated in the face of his own protest in the shape of a telegram directing the withdrawal of his name, sent to Senator Jones after Sewall, his running mate, had been ditched for the vice presidential nomination and Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, had been named for second place on the ticket. It was also made in the teeth of an opposition so bitter that after the convention adjourned some of the radicals held a "rump" convention.

The last session of the convention, which lasted from 9:30 in the morning until almost 5 o'clock in the afternoon, was marked by scenes of turbulence and noisy excitement which several times bordered on actual riot, and which almost precipitated personal collisions. General Weaver, of Iowa, placed Bryan in nomination, and there were many seconding speeches, nearly all favoring Bryan. During the discussion it became known that Mr. Bryan had sent a telegram to Chairman Jones, of the Democratic national committee, bearing on the subject of his nomination, but Chairman Allen, of the convention, refused to have it read, declaring it was no part of the business of the convention. It has since transpired that the telegram was a reiteration of Bryan's statement forbidding the use of his name unless Sewall was also nominated. The Populists are now wondering whether Bryan will accept this last nomination, which he received by 1,042 votes, against 321 for Frank S. Norton of Chicago, 10 for Eugene V. Debs and 1 for Ignatius Donnelly. The convention gave the national committee full power to act in future negotiations, but Chairman Watson will resign if a national convention is held, while similar rumors regarding Sewall are denied with equal positiveness.

The platform adopted by the People's party convention urges free silver at 16 to 1; government ownership of railroads and telegraphs; free homes for settlers; direct legislation through the initiative and referendum; election of president, vice president and senators by popular vote; graduated income tax and postal savings banks. The recent sales of bonds is denounced, just pensions for disabled soldiers is favored, and the Cuban plank declares that the island "ought to be free and independent."

THE DUAL CONVENTIONS.

Sensors Butler and Allen Preside Over the Populist Convention.

ST. LOUIS, July 28.—The national convention of the People's party was called to order yesterday by Chairman Taubeneck, of the national committee, but little work was accomplished, the day session lasting only an hour and a half, and the night session being prevented by lack of light, a storm having destroyed the electric wires leading to the convention hall. After waiting in the dark for over an hour the convention adjourned, and in twenty minutes afterward the light was turned on, repairs having been made. The only result of the day's work was the election of Marion Butler, the young South Carolina orator, for temporary chairman, his election being opposed by the straightouts when it became known that Butler favored Bryan for the presidential nominee, with a southern man for vice president.

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—Yesterday's sessions of the Populist convention were extremely gratifying to the supporters of Bryan, and the men who favor a straight-out Populist ticket were correspondingly depressed. This was because of the election of Senator Allen, of Nebraska, as permanent chairman of the convention and the signal defeat of the straightout, or "middle of the road" candidate, James E. Campion, of Maine, by a vote of 738 to 564. There was a wild demonstration by the Bryan adherents when the result was announced. Mr. Allen's speech strongly urged the nomination of Bryan and Sewall as the best means of securing victory for Populist principles. The only other business transacted at the day's sessions was the appointment of the usual committees.

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—The delegates to the Populist convention yesterday adopted the platform of principles reported by the majority of the resolutions committee, of which General James B. Weaver was chairman. Two minority reports, one by "General" Jacob S. Coxe of Ohio and another by a Texas delegate, was voted down. Then the convention voted to nominate a man for vice president before proceeding with the presidential nomination. The Bryan men pleaded against this unheard of proceeding, but the "middle of the road" men carried their point, and the delegates spent over five hours of the night session in nominating speeches. Congressman Skinner of North Carolina, Hon. Thomas E. Watson of Georgia, Arthur Sewall of Maine, Mann Page of Virginia, Mims of Tennessee and Burkitt of Mississippi were named, and Watson was chosen on the first ballot. At 1:49 this morning the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock.

The silver convention, which has been in session since Wednesday last, with William P. St. John, the New York banker, as chairman, finished up its business yesterday and adjourned. There was no friction in the convention at any time. The platform was adopted without dissent, and W. P. Bryan and Arthur Sewall were nominated for president and vice president by acclamation, no other names being mentioned.

SKETCH OF THOMAS E. WATSON.

The Nominee of the People's Party for Vice President.

THOMSON, Ga., July 25.—Thomas E. Watson, of this place, was born in Columbia county, Ga., Sept. 5, 1835. He received a common school education and was then sent to Mercer university at Macon. At the end of the sophomore year he left college for lack of funds and taught school two years. He read law for a few weeks under Judge W. R. McLaws, of Augusta, Ga., and was admitted to the bar, commencing the practice of the profession here in November, 1878.

Mr. Watson was a member of the Georgia legislature in 1882 and 1883; was a Democratic elector for the state at large in 1888, and besides the practice of law has been and still is largely interested in carding. He was elected to the Fifty-second congress as a Democrat.

Mr. Watson served but one term in congress, being succeeded in the Fifty-third by James C. Black, who was elected as a Democrat, receiving 17,772 against 13,321 votes received by Mr. Watson, who ran as an independent of the People's party. Mr. Watson also ran as a Populist candidate for the Fifty-fourth congress from the same district, but was again defeated by Mr. Black.

Gold Democrats Are Organizing.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 28.—Ex-Congressman William D. Bynum, who is a member of the sub-committee of sound money Democrats that is arranging for a national convention to nominate a sound money ticket, said today that fifteen states have already indicated that they will be represented at the meeting in this city Aug. 7. There are a few of the far western states that will not be represented at the meeting of Aug. 7, he said, because the time is so short that they cannot get their representatives here. States are beginning to organize, Mr. Bynum said.

Candidate Levering Notified.

BALTIMORE, July 28.—Joshua Levering, of this city, was last evening officially notified of his nomination for the presidency of the United States, by the Prohibition party. Prior to the notification ceremonies the Maryland Prohibitionists held their state convention and nominated electors in the various Maryland districts. They also paraded the streets of the city with banners and music, the line of march terminating at the Lyceum theater, where the notification meeting was held.

Hoke Smith for Bryan.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Secretary of the Interior Hoke Smith remains firm in his determination to vote for Bryan and Sewall, and the question at once arises whether he can thus become an open defender of the platform of the Democratic party and remain a member of President Cleveland's cabinet. No answer to this question is yet obtainable, but there is the highest authority for saying that Mr. Smith's friends have no idea that his political course will lead to his resignation.

Resigned from the Republican Committee.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, who followed Senator Teller in his bid for the Republican nomination at St. Louis, has resigned as a member of the Republican congressional committee. The vacancy has not yet been filled. There are a number of advocates of the gold standard on the Democratic congressional committee, but no resignations have been reported up to this date from the Democratic committee.

Morton May Oppose Bryan.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 29.—There is a well defined rumor afloat in this city that Nebraska will present another candidate for president. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture, has been in Nebraska for a week or more, and it is generally reported that he is here to pave the way to a presidential nomination. As a result of Mr. Morton's visit to the state the gold standard Democrats will meet in conference in this city some day next week.

A Mother's Awful Crime.

CAMDEN, N. J., July 28.—Mrs. Mary Herman, aged 31 years, wife of John E. Herman, of this city, tried to end the lives of herself and her two children last night. The little ones are both dead and the mother is dying. Despondent over a quarrel with her husband, Mrs. Herman took the children, John, aged 2 1/2 years, and Edward, aged 1, to the foot of Walnut street wharf. She tied their hands and feet, and after drinking nearly an ounce of carbolic acid, took the children in her arms and leaped with them into the Delaware river. As she rose to the surface for the last time, a number of boatmen rescued her. She was taken to a hospital and is dying. Both children were drowned.

Gaudaur Defeats Six Oraromen.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 29.—The principal event of the first day's program of the carnival was in the professional single scull race for the world's championship, distance three miles. Seven started as follows: E. D. Rogers of Schuyler, N. Y.; E. Durnan of Toronto, J. J. Casey of Boston, Louis Lovett of Halifax, George Bubeart of London, Edward Hanlan of Toronto and J. G. Gaudaur of Atherly, Ont. Gaudaur took the lead from the start, being closely followed by Durnan and he by Rogers. These positions were maintained throughout. Gaudaur crossed the finish line in 9:45, having almost a walkover. Rogers led Hanlan about half a length. Casey and Lovett did not finish.

Big Rewards for Filibusters.

HAVANA, July 29.—The Official Gazette publishes a decree offering a reward of $24,000 to any one enabling the Spanish cruisers to effect the seizure of filibustering steamers, and a further reward of $9,000 to any person enabling the Spanish cruisers to capture filibustering sailing vessels of over 335 tons. The captains of filibustering vessels seized will be considered as enjoying immunity.

Wanted, a Bride with Bootie.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The Duchess of Manchester arrived here today. She will go to Newport with her son, the Duke of Manchester, a 19-year-old, for whom, it is rumored, his mother is seeking a rich American bride. The duchess was formerly Miss Yzenaga, of New York.

MANY STORM VICTIMS.

Thirteen Carried Off with a Boarding House at Cecil, Pa.

SEVEN OF THE NUMBER DROWNED.

Heroic Sacrifices of Two Men Who, Having Saved Themselves, Gave Up Their Lives in Superhuman Efforts to Rescue Others.

PITTSBURG, July 29.—Eight persons were drowned in the flood Monday night. Seven of these met death at Cecil, a mining and oil hamlet in Washington county; the eighth victim going down at Carnegie.

The dead are: Mrs. Samuel McKinney, 50 years old; Margaret McKinney, her daughter, 31; James McKinney, her son, 8; Claude Beatty, 21, oil well pumpner, of Sistersville, W. Va.; G. C. Higgins, 45, oil well pumpner, of Bradford, Pa.; Vincent Wilkinson, 25, oil well employe, of Volwinkle, Forest county, Pa.; Jennie Holmes, 18, daughter of a Cecil county miner; John Wright (colored), 17, employe of a liverman at Carnegie.

Samuel McKinney kept a boarding house at Cecil for the accommodation of oil men and miners. The house was situated on the banks of Miller's run, a tributary of Chartiers creek, the main run, which flows through a valley flanked by high and steep hills, would scarcely float a chip, but Monday night a cloudburst filled in its closely confined quarters to such an extent that everything along its banks was endangered.

There were thirteen people in the McKinney house when the water commenced to rise, but no serious danger was apprehended. The men busied themselves carrying the household goods to the second floor, and the female portion of the household confined their dressing for the dance which was being held in a neighboring hall. Suddenly the house, a two-story frame, was washed from its foundation into the seething waters and rapidly carried down stream. It was then too late for any one in the house to escape.

Below the site of the house, about 200 yards, stands an old fashioned country bridge, which spans the stream. The roof was torn off and the rest of the building was crushed like an eggshell in being forced under the bridge. Higgins died there, but Whitner made a most miraculous escape. Just below the bridge the wreckage of the house struck on a sand bar, with those of the party who were still alive clinging to the pieces, with scarcely a hope of being rescued.

Thomas Hayes, Vincent Wilkinson and others formed a rescuing party. Whitner was rescued while fast in the wreckage by Wilkinson, who also dragged the dead body of Higgins from its lodgment. Samuel McKinney was also saved by Wilkinson. After assisting in other rescues Wilkinson heard a cry for help from the opposite side of the stream and notwithstanding the extreme hazard attached to the attempt the brave fellow made the effort to swim across with a rope. When about half way over a log struck him on the head and broke his neck. His body was found several hundred yards below, lodged in a tree.

Claude Beatty was another hero of the disaster who lost his life. He made strenuous efforts to save Margaret McKinney and Jennie Holmes, and had them lodged in a tree, when a wave came along and swept all three to death. Beatty had several opportunities to save himself, but refused to leave the weaker companions. Those of the unfortunate party who were rescued were taken from the branches of trees and portions of the wrecked house.

Wright, the colored liverman, while attempting to drive across a bridge at Murray Hill, was caught by the high water of Chartiers creek, near Carnegie, and drowned.

Several houses in the valley were swept away, but the occupants, so far as learned, all managed to seek places of safety before their homes were carried down the stream. Some of the occupants were rescued in skiffs.

The rigging in many oil wells was swept away, and the men working about them were compelled to flee for their lives, as the torrent bore down the valley on its course of death and destruction.

Reports brought in from the surrounding country state that the storm has wrought great destruction for miles around. In some places houses were removed from their foundations, but no further loss of life is yet reported. Many houses and barns were struck by lightning.

Among the casualties reported is an accident to the camp of the Eighth Ward Hunting and Fishing club of Allegheny, who were in camp at Sugar Grove. The members say the storm was peculiarly as though they were weeds. A large scycamore was smothered off near the ground and fell upon the tent of campers, killing John Figus, breaking the back of George Miller, who will die, and seriously injuring Thomas O'Connell, Charles Kosack, Jacob Metz, Frank Ott and Harry Hadden.

On Greenfield avenue Joseph Ashfelder was killed by a sign striking him on the head. In Sharpshoop, W. L. Norr was killed by the falling roof of a house.

Fatal Cloudburst in Colorado.

DENVER, July 27.—The cloudburst in the foothills west of Denver Friday night, resulting in floods in which twenty-nine people are known to have perished, was followed Saturday afternoon by another terrible storm, the like of which has seldom been seen in this vicinity. According to Weather Observer Brandenburg, seventy hundredths of an inch of rain fell in ten minutes, beating all local records. The downpour continued with some diminished intervals for half an hour, and it rained at intervals all the afternoon.

Twenty-two Thousand Strikers.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Three thousand pants makers joined the tailors' strike yesterday, swelling the total number of hands now out to about 22,000. Last night the children's jacket makers (socialists) sent word to the Brotherhood of Tailors that they would quit today. It is thought probable that the tailors will break from their alliance with the Contractors' association and enter into individual contracts.

Keeping Up the Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The bankers are making good their promises in the matter of turning in gold to the treasury, and yesterday the reserve was swelled by the addition of $1,145,000 in coin. $400,000 coming from Boston, $250,000 from Chicago and $495,000 from New York. There was drawn out yesterday $125,100 in gold coin and $5,400 in gold bars, leaving the reserve at the close of business at $105,075,910.

What a Woman can do.

Last week I cleared, after paying all expenses, $25.58, the month previous $20 and have at the same time attended to other duties. I have an energetic person can do equally as well. I have had very little experience. The Dish Washer is just lovely and every family wants one, which makes selling very easy. I do not canvassing. People hear about the Dish Washer and order for one. It is strange that a good, cheap Dish Washer has never before been put on the market. The Mount City Dish Washer fills this bill. With it you can wash and dry the dishes for a family of ten in two minutes without wetting your hands. Any person who uses the Washing work they want one. You can make no money and make it quicker than with any household article on the market. Get it by mail for $1.00. A lady or gentleman can make from $10 to $14 per day around home. You can get full particulars by the direct order to the Mount City Wash Co., St. Louis, Mo. They help you get started, then you can make money awful fast. A. L. C.
