INVADERS CONVICTED.

Dr. Jameson and His Associates Sent to Prison.

WILL LOSE THEIR COMMISSIONS.

The Conviction of the Military Prisoners Will Doubtless Compel the Military Au-Pa., yesterday afternoon. Fully two inches fell in an hour, and much damage thorities to Have Them Dismissed from the British Army.

LONDON, July 29 .- Before the lord chief justice, Baron Russell of Killowen, Baron Pollock and Justice Hawkins, in the queen's bench division of the high court of justice, yesterday the trial of Dr. Jame-son, Major Sir John Willoughby, Colonel R. Gray, Colonel H. F. White, Major R. White and Captain Henry F. Coventry, charged with violation of the neutrality laws in invading the territory of the South African republic, was concluded.

Lord Russell throughout summed up adversely to the raiders, and concluded with submitting to the jury a series of questions difficult to answer any way but affirmatively. After an hour's absence the jury returned and answered all the questions in the affirmative. Thereupon the chief justice said that this finding amounted to a verdict of guilty and directed the jury to so find. The jury added a rider to the effect that the disturbances at Johannesburg were provocative.

In passing sentence Lord Russell said that the verdict was given on evidence which no reasonable man would be able to disregard. All the defendants, he added, were men of position and intelligence, holding positions under the queen, and their crime had the gravest consequences, including death to some and injury to others, while the future consequences of their crime no one was yet able to foresee. Continuing, the lord chief justice said that although they all took part in the raid, the court must distinguish between them in the punishment awarded for their guilt. His lordship then passed sentence upon the prisoners. Dr. Jameson was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor, Major Sir John Wil-loughby to ten months, Major R. White to seven months, and Captain Henry F.

Coventry (a son of the Earl of Coventry), Colonel R. Grey and Colonel F. H. White to five months' imprisonment. Dr. Jameson, who had hitherto hung down his head, looked up proudly when the sentence had been passed, and the other defendants stared hard at the lord chief justice.

Very soon after the sentencing formalities had been completed the wardens of days has been intense, the mercury rang-Holloway prison appeared and took up ing near the 100 mark. John A. Cooper positions on each side of the prisoners. This was the bitterest moment of all for the raiders, as up to that time they had been treated with the greatest courtesy, and had in fact been made heroes of to a certain degree

But when the elbows of the prison wardens touched those of the aristocratic freebooters they seemed to realize that the strong arm of the law had knocked all the romance out of the Transvaal flasco, and that come what may, in the shape of easy treatment in prison, they were convicts in the eyes of law and in the eyes of society. It is recognized that the sentences are more serious for the military prisoners than the mere term fixed for their imprisonment, since it is expected that they will be deprived of their commissions in the British army.

Then was enacted the last chapter in the trial of Dr. "Jim" and his associates. The court was ordered cleared the andience filed slowly out into the streets, and the smugglers. prisoners were then escorted to Holloway prison.

His Countrymen.

I cannot say that I think we have of late given proof of either dignity or of common sense. A few month ago we were for forcing the Dardanelles, bombarding Constantinople and setting Europe at defiance. Here our object was laudable one.

It was to prevent the Armenians from being massacred. We, however, had previously insisted upon the Christian races in Turkey remaining under Moslem rule, and no one would believe that our aims were not selfish.

Then came the Venezuelan difficulty. We vowed that we would fight to the death for what we called the Schom- to-this store steers clear of every other burgk line-a line that divides a bog between us and Venezuela. When the United States took exception and suggested arbitration we said that we would rather go to war with the United States than agree to so monstrous a proposal, and we fell to abusing President Cleve-

I gather that on this matter we have considerably abated in our stern resolve and that we are prepared to assent to some sort of arbitration, or to negotiate with Venezuela without any Schomburgk line non possumus.

On the top of Venezuela came the Jameson raid. The German Emperor congratulated President Kruger on havat once turned our attention from President Cleveland to him. We invented motives for his telegram and romanced about his intentions. In this, too, we if you'll see samples. have cooled down.

Our latest invention has been that he wrote to the Queen an abject apology for the telegram. The letter never was. as a matter of fact, written: but this is a mere detail. After this mythical apology, we have kindly said that we will forgive him and that we trust he has learned that he cannot insult us with

The Fad for Philanthrophy is as strong as Their Fad for Books.

It is said there is not a Boston woman of any standing who is not interested in some charity. Probably there is no city where organized charity is so much of a fad, but it is also doubtless true that much of cere wish to help oppressed, struggling humanity to a higher level. Besides. there is the importunate New England conscience to be taken into account. This conscience sleeps with one eye open, when it slumbers at all, and it atones for the smallest dereliction by

This is by no means saying that all the charitable work done by Boston women is ideal, since the true charity is not what we give but what we share.

American Bar Association.

SARATOGA, July 29.-The American Bar association holds its nineteenth annual meeting at Saratoga this year on Aug. 19, 20 and 21. The meeting this year will be particularly interesting on account of the presence of Lord Russell, of Killowen, the lord chief justice of England, considered one of the ablest judges that England has produced of late years, whose address will on the subject of "International Arbiation." Lord Russell was the leading ounsel for the British government before the Paris tribunal Behring sea seal fisheries case. Montague Crackanthorpe, Esq., an eminent queen's counsel, will also read a paper on "The Uses of Legal History."

A Brave Sheriff Killed.

NEVADA CITY, Cal., July 29 .- The body of Sheriff David Douglass and the corpse of an unknown highwayman were found lying a few feet apart in a woods two miles from town. There were five empty chambers in the pistol of the sheriff, who had been shot through the head and in the right eye and hand. The bullets of the sheriff had gone through the robber's heart, abdomcn and hip. The unknown man had a rifle, but it had not been used. It is supposed Douglass was shot by a confederate of the highwayman.

Another Single Taxer Jalled.

DOVER, Del., July 29 .- One more single tax advocate, P. F. O'Hara, of Wilmingcon, was lodged in jail last night, where his twelve companions have been suffering with intense heat. One has malarial fever. A. H. Stephenson, president of the society, in jail here, says he will spend his last penny to make the town of Dover pay for the outrage.
